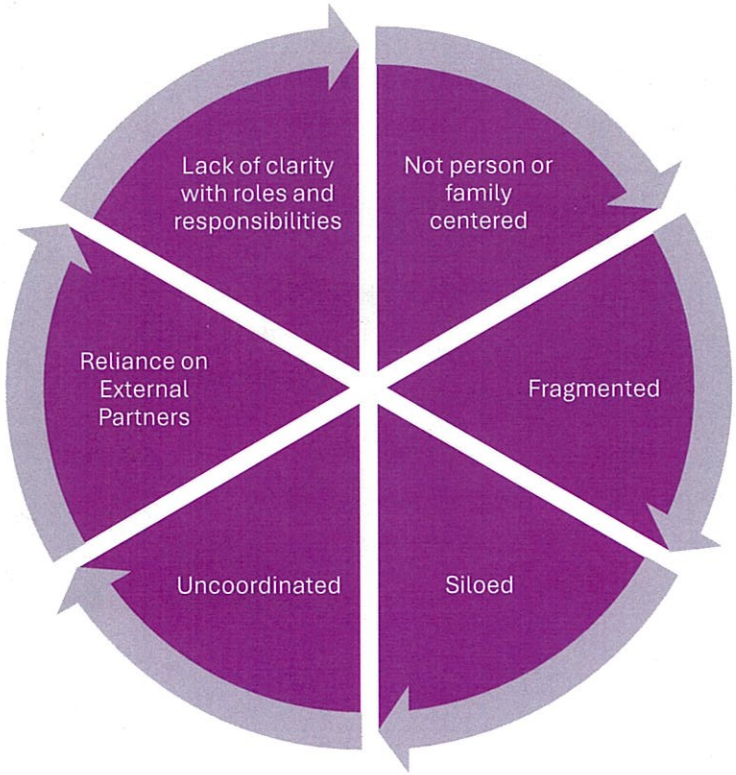
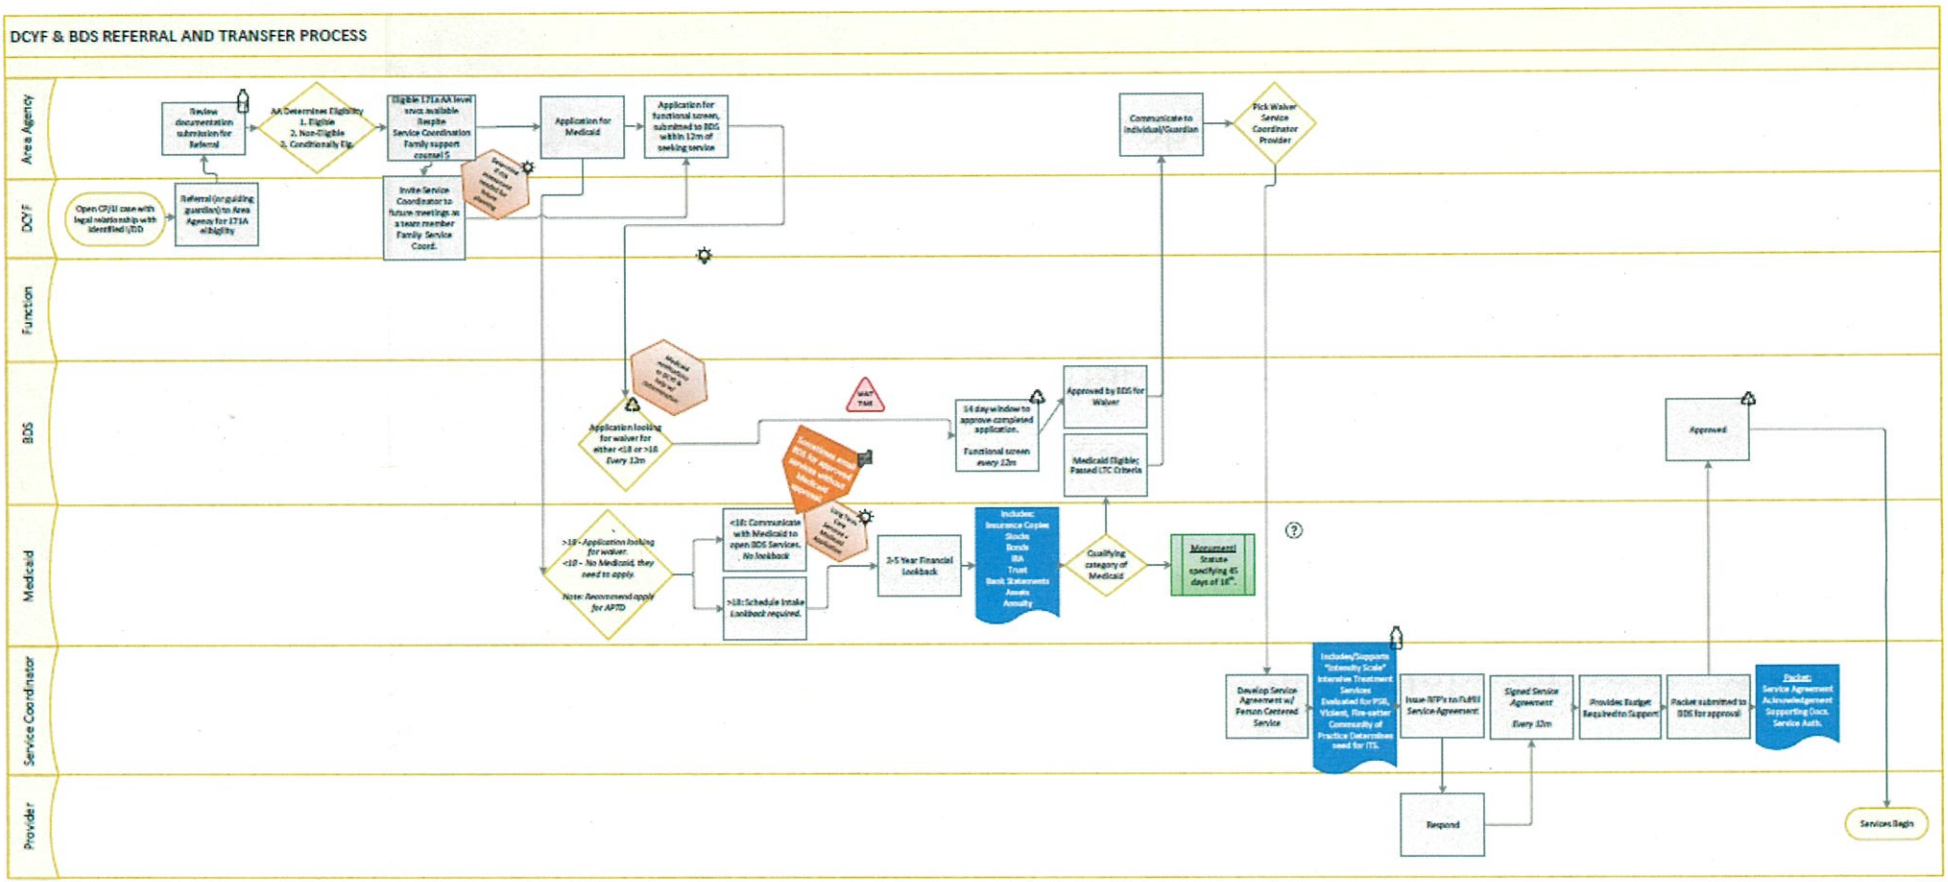
The Problem

DHHS coordination of services for children and young adults with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities as they transition into adult services was fragmented.

Moving from Fragmentation towards Integration



Mapping the Process



Efficiency and Better Service

- New monthly collaboration meetings to review needs of youth involved with DCYF and Developmental Services
- Role clarification
- Shared goals
- New training opportunities
- Improved communication
- One shared playbook