HB 1190-FN - FISCAL NOTE

AN ACT requiring that fiscal notes specify the exact amount of the fiscal impact.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The Legislative Budget Assistant determined this bill will cause an indeterminable increase in state expenditures in FY 2000 and each year thereafter. There will be no fiscal impact on county and local expenditures or state, county and local revenue.

METHODOLOGY:

The Legislative Budget Assistant assumed this bill will become effective during the 2000 legislative session. Requiring a fiscal note to include the exact amount of estimated fiscal impact will have a direct impact on all state agencies and branches. Determination of an exact amount will require longer and more time consuming research. The Legislative Budget Assistant is unable to determine the fiscal impact of this bill since costs will vary from agency to agency.

TESTIMONY

* Use asterisk if written testimony and/or amendments are submitted.

Rep. Putnam spoke in favor of the bill. He felt that legislators should have the right to know the exact amount of the fiscal impact on a bill.

Rep. Nowe asked him if he were also in favor of House Bill 1597.

Rep. Putnam replied that as long as the exact amount was specified he didn't care which bill the wording was in.

Not speaking, but opposing bill was Paul Sanderson of NH Department of Transportation.

Respectfully submitted,

Rep. Marc P. Pappas, Clerk

Testimony

HB 1190 requiring the fiscal notes to specify the exact amount of the fiscal impact

The committee felt that this bill had a contradiction that would make ~~the~~ it ~~bill~~ unworkable. There is some concern that the fiscal notes on bills may not accurately reflect the fiscal impact of the bill. The fiscal impact , as outlined in statute, is an estimate and it may be difficult to obtain the exact cost in time for action by the first committee. As the bill passes from a committee to the floor, to another committee or the other chamber, the fiscal note is updated and is available in the clerk's office. The exact amount of an estimate would be is impossible to obtain.

RSAs

RSA stands for Revised Statutes Annotated, the complete compilation of New Hampshire statutes, which comprises more than 20 volumes. Sets can be found in the Office of Legislative Services, the House and Senate Clerk's Offices, the House and Senate Chambers, all committee rooms, on Webster and at other locations in the State House complex.

Session Laws

Published after each legislative session by the Office of Legislative Services, this volume is officially titled the Laws of the State of New Hampshire and contains all of the session's bills adopted and enacted into law. All passed resolutions are also compiled. Hard and soft covers; approximately 700 pages.

DRAFTING A BILL

Although the actual process is more detailed, the following description will provide you with basic guidelines on how to sponsor legislation.

Go to the Office of Legislative Services and ask to speak with a drafting attorney. The receptionist will ask your name and the general subject matter you are interested in and will refer you to a drafting attorney who is knowledgeable in that area. Co-sponsors may accompany you to this session if you wish.

You should be prepared to discuss your ideas in as much detail as possible. Before your request can be officially accepted and given a legislative services request number ("LSR" number), you must provide the drafter with sufficient information to prepare your bill. A bill or resolution cannot be submitted with only a title.

Name the legislators you want to co-sponsor the legislation and tell the drafter their district numbers (you will find the district numbers in the Roster and the Black Book). Only Representatives and Senators can sponsor or co-sponsor legislation.

The titles and sponsors of all House bill-drafting requests are public information. In the Senate, the sponsor may request that the title and sponsors be kept confidential.

If you are modeling your proposal on a law from another state, try to have a copy of that law with you or tell the drafter about it so that a copy can be obtained through the Research Division. Please provide copies of any material or information you have that will help the drafter prepare your legislation.

The drafting attorney working on your request will find out what portion of the existing laws will be affected and will assist you in preparing the proper wording. The drafter will contact you if there are any questions during the drafting process.

Once a draft is complete, the records management staff in Legislative Services will send you a copy. After you have examined it, and if it meets with your approval, you will be asked to sign it. If the draft does not meet your approval, you and the drafter can get together again to discuss and redraft your bill. House and Senate Rules impose filing and sign-off deadlines which you must meet.

FISCAL NOTES

RSA 14:44 provides that all bills and resolutions having an effect on the revenues, expenditure or fiscal liability of the state or a city, town or county shall be accompanied by a fiscal statement which sets forth the estimated fiscal impact. There are several general exceptions to this requirement.

The intent of the law is to inform legislators and the public about increases or decreases in the cost to state or local governments that might result from the passage of a proposed piece of legislation. The actual fiscal note is a statement which indicates the positive or negative dollar effect of a piece of legislation, the assumptions and methodology used in arriving at that estimate, and any other comments relevant to the estimate or its development.

The initial determination as to whether a bill needs a fiscal note is made by the Office of Legislative Services at the time of drafting. Once OLS determines that a bill requires a fiscal note, it forwards the bill to Office of the Legislative Budget Assistant (LBA) which has 10 working days to prepare the fiscal note and return the document to OLS. The fiscal note becomes a formal part of the actual bill and is printed as the last page(s) of the bill.

Should OLS fail to detect a bill's possible fiscal impact, a majority vote in committee or on the floor of the House or Senate can send the bill to the LBA for the required information.

When the fiscal note information becomes available and the sponsor is not satisfied with the estimated fiscal impact, he may either withdraw his sponsorship or choose to make changes to the bill (which may require another fiscal note determination). In either case, the bill does not proceed without the sponsor's signature.

The fiscal note process also applies to all bill amendments. If a bill before a committee is amended and the fiscal impact is affected, the bill must get an updated fiscal note. The same applies to bills amended on the floor of the House or Senate. Three days are allowed for the preparation of amended fiscal notes.

FISCAL NOTES

§ 14:44. Fiscal Note Required.

All bills and resolutions having an effect on the revenues, expenditures, or fiscal liability of the state or a city or town or county which have a total fiscal impact of $10,000 or more in each fiscal year over the period covered by a fiscal note shall be accompanied by a fiscal note which sets forth the estimated fiscal impact thereof.

II. All bills and resolutions having an effect on the revenues, expenditures, or fiscal liability of the state or a city or town or county which have a total fiscal impact of less than $10,000 in each fiscal year over the period covered by a fiscal note shall be accompanied by a fiscal note stating the legislative budget assistant's determination that such bills and resolutions shall have a total fiscal impact of less than $10,000 in each fiscal year over the period covered by the fiscal note.

III. No fiscal note shall be required for bills and resolutions which:

(a) Make appropriations for capital improvements and expenditures.

(b) Are budget or supplemental budget bills.

IV. All bills and joint resolutions relating to the New Hampshire retirement system shall be accompanied by a fiscal note which sets forth the estimated fiscal impact on any funds of the New Hampshire retirement system or local or state government.

HB 619-FN - FISCAL NOTE

AN ACT requiring the commissioner of health and human services to produce certain quarterly reports.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The Department of Health and Human Services determined this bill will increase state expenditures by an indeterminable amount. There is no impact on state, county or local revenues or on county or local expenditures.

METHODOLOGY:

The Department stated that currently payable calculations are done annually and do not include detail at the provider level. Under this bill, these calculations would have to be expanded and the Department would need to apply new logic to historical data to develop a reasonable estimate of payables. Computer systems modifications would be needed to the Medicaid Management Information System (MMIS), the Information System for Children (NH BRIDGES), and Women, Infant and Children (WIC). The Department states that since both the CIS and WIC are in the process of being replaced, modifications to both systems would not appear to be a wise investment of limited staff resources and funds at this time. Also, contract payments would need to be tracked differently to determine if a liability exists at the end of each quarter. This would be a manual process as neither the New Hampshire Integrated Financial System (NHIFS) nor the Department has the capability to identify obligations by dates of service. In addition, the Department would have to develop and run an accounting system separate from NHIFS to do business on an accrual basis. The Department stated that the cost of adding new accounting system modules to facilitate the new reporting requirements is indeterminable.

The fiscal impact, as outlined in statute, is an estimate and it may be difficult to obtain the exact cost in time for action by the first committee. As the bill passes from a committee to the floor, to another committee or the other chamber, the fiscal note is updated and is available in the clerk's office. The exact amount of an estimate would be impossible to obtain. Vote 13-0.

STATEMENT OF INTENT
(Include Committee Vote)

The committee felt that this bill had a contradiction that would make it unworkable. There is some concern that the fiscal notes on bills may not accurately reflect the fiscal impact of the bill. The fiscal impact, as outlined in statute, is an estimate and it may be difficult to obtain the exact cost in time for action by the first committee. As the bill passes from a committee to the floor, to another committee or the other chamber, the fiscal note is updated and is available in the clerk's office. The exact amount of an estimate would be impossible to obtain.
