Subject: Suggested amendment to SB 140

Gentlemen,

Per the telephone conversation earlier today with Senator Prescott, here is a suggested amendment to SB 140:

Change Paragraph II to read:

II. As an alternative to the application procedure in paragraph I, an applicant may choose any license expiration date within five years of the date of application. Issuing authorities shall inform applicants that this choice is provided for their convenience, as for example to coincide with the expiration of their driver's license.

Respectfully,

Sam Cohen

STATEMENT OF INTENT
(Include Committee Vote)

The original intent of the senate bill was to change the term of the concealed carry license from 4 years to 5 years. Additionally, the applicant could request that the license expire on the same date as the individual's drivers license. Again, additionally, the $10.00 fee would have to be prorated if the resulting term of license is less than 5 years. The process of clarifying this procedure led to changes that were not satisfactory and the bill was recommitted. An attempt to amend the bill in a simple fashion by merely changing the term of license from 4 years to 5 years failed in committee by a large margin. There was discussion about amending the current statute which would create a major change from the original bill. The committee accepted a motion to recommend that SB 140 be found inexpedient to legislate.

SB140 original intent of

The Senate Bill 140 was to change the term of the concealed carry license from 4 years to five years. Additionally the applicant could request that the license expire on the same date as the individuals drivers license. Again additionally, the $10.00 fee would have to be prorated if the resulting term of license is less than five years. The process of ~~implementing~~ clarifying this procedure led to changes that were not satisfactory and the bill was recommitted. An attempt to amend the bill ~~from~~ in a simple fashion by merely changing the term of license from 4 years to 5 years failed in committee by a large margin. There was discussion about amending the current statute which would create a major change from the original bill. The committee accepted a motion to recommend that SB140 be found Inexpedient to Legislate 17-1
