STATEMENT OF INTENT

This bill, as amended, will name a courtroom in the second circuit courthouse in Plymouth in honor of Judge Edwin W. Kelly and a roundabout on Route 11 in New London for New London resident, Jessie W. Levine. Judge Kelly is a highly regarded state judge, who recently retired after 30 years of distinguished service. Among his many accomplishments, the committee heard testimony that his transformative work brought New Hampshire's court system into the modern era. He oversaw technological advances, the consolidation of the court system resulting in greater efficiency and service, instituted regular judicial education and a systematic judicial evaluation process and was praised for his demeanor, fairness and legal knowledge. Naming this courtroom for Judge Kelly is a much-deserved honor showing the state's appreciation for his remarkable, tireless work in the cause of justice. The amendment will name the Route 11 roundabout in New London for Jessie W. Levine, the former New London town manager who oversaw its development and construction. During her 20 years in municipal and county government, Ms. Levine was a dedicated, innovative, compassionate public servant. Ms. Levine's managerial career took her from New London to Hanover, Bedford and finally to a position as Sullivan County's manager. A recognized leader, she held many state and local volunteer positions, always working in support of better government for the citizens of the Granite State. The New London Board of Selectmen enthusiastically support the naming of the roundabout in her honor
