26          141:389 Legislative Declaration of Authority Regarding Public Education. In its 1993 and 1997
27 decisions, in the so-called Claremont series of public school funding cases, the New Hampshire Supreme 28 Court ruled that the New Hampshire Constitution imposes upon the legislature 4 obligations with respect 29 to public K-12 education: (1) define an adequate education; (2) determine its cost; (3) fund it with 30 constitutional taxes; and (4) ensure its delivery through accountability. Although the legislature has from 31 the beginning had grave reservations as to the court's authority to impose these obligations upon a 32 coordinate branch of government, in the spirit of comity it has over the subsequent quarter-century 33 devoted extensive time, energy and public tax dollars to satisfying them. However, in the most recent of 34 these cases, the judicial branch has asserted authority to review and set aside the legislature's 35 determinations with respect to its 4 supposed obligations, and to fund education at levels determined by 36 the court through a process which, though adjudicatory in form, is legislative in substance. Accordingly, 37 the legislature now deems it necessary to definitively proclaim that, as the sole branch of government
38 constitutionally competent to establish state policy and to raise and appropriate public funds to carry out
