

Floor Amendment to HB 560

1 Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 2 New Section; Parental Access to a Minor Child's Medical Records. Amend RSA 332-I by 3 inserting after section 1 the following new section:

4 332-I:1-a Parental Access to a Minor Child's Medical Records.

5 I. For the purposes of this section, "medical records" means physical medical records and 6 electronic medical records, including records available via online patient portals.

7 II. A parent or legal guardian of a minor child shall be entitled to have full access to the 8 medical records of their minor child or ward, except:

9 (a) When the records are records of treatment that a minor may consent to pursuant to a 10 specific statute under state or federal law without parental consent or the consent of a legal 11 guardian;

12 (b) When the parent or legal guardian is the subject of a protective order involving the 13 minor child or one of the minor child's siblings issued pursuant to RSA 173-B including any 14 protective order issued by any other state, tribal, or territorial court related to domestic or family
15 violence as provided for in RSA 173-B:13, RSA 461-A, or RSA 633:3-a, or when a court of competent 16 jurisdiction has determined that the release of the records to a parent or legal guardian is not in the 17 child's best interest; or

18 (c) When a health care provider has determined by evidence based upon his or her 19 professional judgment that disclosure of the records to a parent or legal guardian of a minor child is 20 likely to result in abuse or neglect. A health care provider who makes this determination shall 21 document in the medical record of the minor child all facts upon which he or she relied in making the 22 determination.

23 3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2026
