

Amendment to HB 1042

1 Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

2

3 AN ACT raising the unified contingent credit limit and relative to the cap on outstanding 4 obligations for which the housing finance authority is allowed.

5

6 Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

7

8 2 Housing Finance Authority; General Obligations. Amend RSA 204-C:28 to read as follows:

9 204-C:28 General Obligations.

10 I. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by resolution of the authority, every issue 11 of its notes and bonds shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any revenues or 12 moneys of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular notes or bonds
13 pledging any particular revenues. The authority shall not at any time have outstanding obligations, 14 other than obligations to which paragraph II applies, the unpaid principal amount of which is in 15 excess of [~~$600,000,000~~] $1,000,000,000 in the aggregate. In computing the total amount of 16 obligations of the authority which may at any time be outstanding for any purpose under this 17 chapter, the amount of the outstanding obligations refunded or to be refunded from the proceeds of 18 the sale of new obligations or by the exchange of new obligations shall be excluded.

19 II. In addition to the obligations which the authority may have outstanding under 20 paragraph I, the authority may issue notes and bonds not in excess of [~~$800,000,000~~] $2,400,000,000
21 for the purposes specified in this paragraph. Such notes and bonds shall constitute general 22 obligations of the authority payable out of any revenues or moneys of the authority, subject only to 23 any agreements with the holders of particular notes or bonds pledging any particular revenues. The 24 purposes for which such notes and bonds may be issued pursuant to this paragraph shall be to 25 provide sufficient funds for any one or more of the following:

26 (a) The making of loans and mortgage loans to eligible mortgagors and eligible persons
27 and families and the making of loans to lending institutions in each case to finance the acquisition,
28 construction or rehabilitation of housing designed and planned, or being converted, to consist of not 29 more than 4 family units for occupancy by eligible persons and families and of which at least one 30 unit is occupied or is to be occupied by an eligible person or family owning the housing;

31 (b) The making of loans or advances with interest and whether or not secured by a
32 mortgage to a single eligible person or family for the costs of reconstruction, rehabilitation or other

Amendment to HB 1042
- Page 2 -

1 improvements of existing housing owned by such single person or family and consisting of not more
2 than 4 family units of which one is or is to be occupied by the owner, and for down payment costs,
3 closing costs and other initial expenses of acquiring, financing or refinancing housing owned or to be 4 owned by a single eligible person or family and consisting of not more than 4 family units of which 5 one is or is to be occupied by the owner; the purchase of mortgages on any such housing or securing 6 such loans or advances described above; the establishment of reserves to secure such notes and 7 bonds, including any reserve fund created pursuant to RSA 204-C:40; and

8 (c) All other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to 9 carry out the issuance of notes and bonds to provide sufficient funds for any one or more of the other
10 purposes enumerated in this paragraph. The provisions of RSA 204-C:41 shall not apply with 11 respect to any bond reserve fund established under RSA 204-C:40 with respect to bonds of the 12 authority to which this paragraph applies.

13 III. In addition to the obligations which the authority may have outstanding under 14 paragraphs I and II, the authority may issue notes and bonds not in excess of [~~$600,000,000~~]
15 $2,600,000,000 for the purposes specified in this paragraph. Such notes and bonds shall constitute 16 general obligations of the authority payable out of any revenue or moneys of the authority, subject
17 only to any agreements with the holders of particular notes or bonds pledging any particular
18 revenues. The purposes for which such notes and bonds may be issued shall be to provide sufficient 19 funds for any purpose authorized by this chapter; such notes and bonds may, at the discretion of the 20 authority, be subject to the provisions of RSA 204-C:41 with respect to any bond reserve fund
21 established under RSA 204-C:40 and may, at the discretion of the authority, be subject to the 22 provisions of RSA 204-C:49, II.

23 3 Effective Date.

24 I. Section 2 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

25 II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

Amendment to HB 1042
- Page 3 -

2026-1285s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill raises the unified contingent credit limit applicable to New Hampshire business finance authority projects and programs. The bill also raises the cap on outstanding obligations for which the housing finance authority is allowed and increases the bonding authority for the housing finance authority.