IS INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

BY A VOTE OF: 5-0

Senator Bill Gannon
For the Committee

New Hampshire is a two-party consent state, which means phone calls and other communications cannot be recorded without consent of all parties. This bill sought to add that someone on a call may record if they are informed by the other party that the call is being recorded at the other end. The committee was unsure why this bill was needed given the lack of testimony at the hearing.
