STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty-Six

AN ACT relative to the scheduling of hearings on certain motions to modify or revoke bail.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1       1 Bail and Recognizances; Review and Appeal of Release or Detention Order. Amend RSA
2 597:6-e, II to read as follows:

3       II. Subject to RSA 597:2, XIV the person or the state may file with the superior court a 4 motion for revocation of the order or amendment of the conditions of release set by a municipal or 5 district court, by a justice, or by a bail commissioner. The motion shall be determined promptly. In 6 domestic violence, stalking, and harassment cases, whether the motion is filed by the state
7 or the defense, the hearing on the motion shall be scheduled within 72 hours, excluding
8 weekends and state or federal holidays. The hearing does not have to be held within 72
9 hours of the filing of the motion, but it shall be scheduled within 72 hours, excluding
10 weekends and state or federal holidays. However, no action shall be taken on any such motion 11 until the moving party has provided to the superior court certified copies of the complaint, affidavit,
12 warrant, bail slip, and any other court orders relative to each charge for which a release or detention 13 order was issued by a justice, or a bail commissioner. In cases where a district court justice has 14 made a finding, pursuant to RSA 597:2, IV that the person poses a danger to another, the superior 15 court shall, after notification to both parties, the police department that brought the charges in 16 district court, and the victim, conduct a hearing and make written findings supporting any 17 modifications and reasons for new conditions or changes from the district court order. The reviewing 18 court shall take into consideration the district court's written findings, orders, pleadings, or 19 transcript when making a modification.

20       2 New Paragraph; Release of a Defendant Pending Trial. Amend RSA 597:2 by inserting after 21 paragraph XIII the following new paragraph:

22       XIII-a. In any matter where bail has been set by the circuit court, either the state or the 23 defendant may seek to have the circuit court reconsider the conditions of bail, including based on 24 new information, by filing a motion with the circuit court. In domestic violence, stalking, and 25 harassment cases, whether the motion is filed by the state or the defense, the hearing on the motion
26 shall be scheduled within 72 hours, excluding weekends and state or federal holidays. The hearing 27 does not have to be held within 72 hours of the filing of the motion, but it shall be scheduled within 28 72 hours, excluding weekends and state or federal holidays. Following the order of the circuit court, 29 either party may seek further review from the superior court pursuant to RSA 597:6-e.

30       3 Detention and Sanctions for Default or Breach of Conditions. Amend the introductory 31 paragraph of RSA 597:7-a, III to read as follows:

1           III. The state may initiate a proceeding for revocation of an order of release by filing a 2 motion with the court which ordered the release and the order of which is alleged to have been 3 violated In domestic violence, stalking, and harassment cases, the hearing on the motion
4 shall be scheduled within 72 hours, excluding weekends and state or federal holidays. The 5 hearing does not have to be held within 72 hours of the filing of the motion, but it shall be 6 scheduled within 72 hours, excluding weekends and state or federal holidays. The court 7 may issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with violating a condition of release, and the 8 person shall be brought before the court for a proceeding in accordance with this section. The court 9 shall enter an order of revocation and detention if, after a hearing, the court:

10           4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2027.
