Amendment to SB 481-FN

1 Amend RSA 151:4, VII as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

2

3 VII. Any person shall have the right, within 30 days after the filing of any application, to 4 object in writing prior to action by the department on any license on the grounds that the 5 application does not meet the applicable requirements of this chapter or any rule adopted under this 6 chapter. If the license is granted by the department over a timely objection, the person who 7 objected shall have a right to request a rehearing by the commissioner of the department of health 8 and human services under RSA 541:3 within 30 days and to appeal under RSA 541 based on the 9 grounds stated in the objection. If the license is denied by the department in the first instance or 10 after rehearing, the applicant may appeal within 30 days of the date of the department's notice of 11 decision to the supreme court.
