

Amendment to SB 183

1 Amend RSA 106-H:14, II(c) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

2
3 (c) To the caller or their legal representative, or to the subject of the call or 4 their legal representative, with written authorization of the recipient on a form
5 satisfactory to the department, that such information or records are being made available
6 solely for the purposes of investigation in anticipation of litigation or for use in connection
7 with any civil court proceeding. Records released under this section shall be marked 8 “limited purpose release” and shall not be redisclosed by the recipient beyond the 9 investigation or civil proceeding. Any records which are the subject of a criminal
10 investigation will be released only after the criminal matter is concluded. Neither the 11 state nor its agencies or employees shall be civilly liable for any improper use or release of 12 911 records to any person obtaining such records as provided in this section.

Amendment to SB 183
- Page 2 -

2023-1402h

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides that although records compiled under RSA 106-H, relative the enhanced 911 system, are not public records under RSA 91-A, the division may release records to the caller or the subject of the call for the purpose of a legal investigation or civil proceeding.