Floor Amendment to HB 568

1 Amend RSA 674:36, II(p) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

2

3 (p) Local planning boards may request a water supply study in accordance with local 4 regulations to ensure water adequacy in subdivisions of 4 or more units. Water studies for new
5 subdivisions are discretionary and fall under the jurisdiction of local planning boards. This provision
6 shall not apply to community water systems or large groundwater withdrawals regulated under RSA
7 485 and RSA 485-C.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows the adoption of subdivision regulations that require water supply studies, determination of adequate water quantity for reasonably anticipated future water uses, and minimum on-lot private well testing requirements for subdivisions of 4 or more units. This bill also clarifies the applicant's duty to pay associated costs.
