METHODOLOGY:

This bill revises salaries for certain unclassified state employees. This bill is a request of the joint committee on employee classification (JCEC). The bill will amend RSA 94:1-a to update it with the position classifications approved by the JCEC. To the extent the position classifications approved by the JCEC results in higher salaries, there will be an increase in state expenditures in the current and future operating budgets. Any increased expenditures in the current biennium will be funded by funds available due to positions eliminated, vacancies within the agency or with funds from the salary adjustment fund. Any increased expenditures in future biennia will be included in the agency operating budget requests.
