STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty Five

AN ACT criminalizing and creating a private right of action for the facilitation, encouragement, offer, solicitation, or recommendation of certain acts or actions through a responsive generative communication to a child, and relative to the termination of tenancy at the expiration of the tenancy or lease term.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 1 New Paragraph; Endangering Welfare of a Child; Responsive Generative Communication.
2 Amend RSA 639:3 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

3 III-a.(a) For the purposes of prosecution under this section, an owner or operator of a
4 computer online service, Internet service, or bulletin board service, including a provider of an
5 artificial intelligence (AI) chat program, large language model artificial intelligence bot, chat bot,
6 character AI, or other computer application, the sole purpose of which is to provide responsive open-
7 ended generative communication through the use of artificial intelligence, commits the offense of 8 endangering the welfare of a child if the owner or operator knows at the time that they direct the 9 communication to the child that the communication is made with the intent to facilitate, encourage,
10 offer, solicit, or recommend that the child imminently engage in:

11 (1) Sexually explicit conduct.

12 (2) The production or participation in the production of a visual depiction of such
13 conduct.

14 (3) The illegal use of drugs or alcohol.

15 (4) Acts of self-harm or suicide.

16 (5) Any crime of violence against another person.

17 (b) This paragraph shall not apply to:

18 (1) A cloud service provider, or a provider of a telecommunications service or an
19 information service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. section 153, with respect to the provision of content
20 created by or supplied on behalf of another person; or

21 (2) Any product, service, website, or application that provides an AI chat program or
22 character that is integral or incidental to a video game, television, streaming, movie, or other similar
23 interactive experience.

24 2 New Section; Enforcement; Responsive Generative Communication with Children. Amend
25 RSA 507 by inserting after section 8-j the following new section:

26 507:8-k Enforcement Action for Solicitation of Children Through Responsive Generative
27 Communication.

1 I. Any owner or operator of a computer online service, Internet service, or bulletin board
2 service, including a provider of an artificial intelligence (AI) chat program, large language model
3 artificial intelligence bot, chat bot, character AI, or other computer application, the sole purpose of 4 which is to provide responsive open-ended generative communication through the use of artificial
5 intelligence, shall be liable to a child, parent of such child, or next friend of such child if the owner or
6 operator knows at the time that they direct the communication to the child that the communication
7 is made with the intent to facilitate, encourage, offer, solicit, or recommend that the child
8 imminently engage in:

- 9 (1) Sexually explicit conduct.
- 10 (2) The production or participation in the production of a visual depiction of such 11 conduct.
- 12 (3) The illegal use of drugs or alcohol.
- 13 (4) Acts of self-harm or suicide.
- 14 (5) Any crime of violence against another person.

15 II. The attorney general may bring an action against an owner or operator that violates this
16 section for damages proximately caused to a child, as provided in paragraph III, or for appropriate
17 injunctive relief. Prior to initiating such action, the attorney general shall provide the owner or 18 operator with written notice of each alleged violation and the factual basis thereof, and shall give the 19 owner or operator 90 days to provide assurances satisfactory to the attorney general that the owner
20 or operator has cured the violations and has taken adequate steps to prevent future violations. If 21 such assurances satisfactory to the attorney general are provided, the attorney general shall not 22 initiate an action against the owner or operator for such violations. The attorney general shall have 23 the sole right of action for a violation of this section.

24 III. An owner or operator of such service shall be liable to a child, or the parent or next
25 friend of the child, for damages proximately caused by a violation of paragraph I, but in no instance
26 liable for an amount less than liquidated damages in the amount of $1,000 per violation.

27 IV. This section shall not apply to:

- 28 (1) A cloud service provider, or a provider of a telecommunications service or an
29 information service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. section 153, with respect to the provision of content
30 created by or supplied on behalf of another person; or
- 31 (2) Any product, service, website, or application that provides an AI chat program or
32 character that is integral or incidental to a video game, television, streaming, movie, or other similar
33 interactive experience.

34 3 New Subparagraph; Termination of Tenancy; Expiration of Term. Amend RSA 540:2, II by 35 inserting after subparagraph (h) the following new subparagraph:

- 36 (i) For a lease or tenancy the original term of which is 6 months or longer, or for a lease
37 or tenancy the term of which is less than 6 months, but which has been renewed for a total period of

1 6 months or longer, the expiration of the term of the lease or tenancy, provided that the landlord has
2 provided the tenant with written notice at least 60 days in advance of the termination date of the 3 lease term that the lease will not be renewed and that the tenant must vacate the rental property at 4 the end of the lease term.

5 4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2026.
