5 635:2-a Order Against Trespass on Public Property.

6 I.(a) A governing body responsible for public property, or a person designated by the governing
7 body, may issue an emergency no trespass order (NTO) directing a person to leave or not enter specified
8 public property when immediate action is reasonably necessary to protect public safety, prevent
9 substantial disruption of governmental operations, or prevent damage to public property.

10 (b) An emergency NTO issued under this paragraph shall:

- 11 (1) Be in writing;
12 (2) State the date and time of issuance;
13 (3) Identify the specific public property to which the order applies;
14 (4) Provide a brief statement of the factual basis for the emergency issuance;
15 (5) State the expiration date and time of the NTO; and
16 (6) State that the person may request a hearing on the NTO.

17 (c) An emergency NTO shall be effective immediately but shall expire automatically no later
18 than 35 days after issuance, unless approved pursuant to paragraph II.

19 II.(a) If the governing body seeks to continue an NTO beyond the initial NTO period, the 20 governing body shall approve the NTO by at least a majority vote taken by roll call vote at a duly noticed
21 public meeting, or at a non-public session if permitted under RSA 91-A and requested by the individual
22 subject to the NTO.

23 (b) Any NTO issued or approved under this section shall include:

- 24 (1) The date of issuance;

29 NTO;

- 30 (6) Instructions on how to request a hearing; and

(7) A statement informing the individual of the right to appeal an adverse decision to the superior court.

III.(a) An individual issued an NTO shall have the right to a hearing upon written request. The request shall be made no later than 10 days from the date of issuance or governing body approval of the NTO.

(b) The governing body shall hold the hearing at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

(c) If a hearing is not held within the timeframe required under this paragraph, the NTO shall be automatically vacated, unless the delay is attributable to the individual requesting the hearing.

IV. Following the hearing, the governing body shall issue a written decision, which shall state whether the NTO is:

(1) Rescinded;

(2) Modified; or

(3) Continued for a defined period.

V. An individual subject to an NTO may appeal a final decision of the governing body to the superior court. Any appeal shall be filed within 30 days of the written decision.
