STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty Five

AN ACT establishing a commission to study the state flag and its history.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 1 Findings. The general court finds that:

2 I. The state flag of New Hampshire, consisting of the state seal on a dark blue background,
3 is similar to the flags of over 20 other states which consist of an emblem on a dark blue background.

4 II. As such, the state flag of New Hampshire fails to convey the sense that New Hampshire
5 is unique among the 50 states.

6 III. The state flag, with intricate detail and small writing, goes against the vexillological
7 principles of good flag design.

8 2 New Section; Commission to Study the State Flag of New Hampshire. Amend RSA 3 by 9 inserting after section 2 the following new section:

10 3:2-a Commission to Study the State Flag of New Hampshire. There is established a
11 commission to study the state flag of New Hampshire.

12 I. The members of the commission shall be as follows:

14 house of representatives. At least one member of each party shall be chosen.

16 (c) The president of the New Hampshire Historical Society, or their designee.

17 (d) The head of the New England Vexillological Association, or their designee.

18 II. Legislative members of the commission shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when 19 attending to the duties of the commission.

20 III. The commission shall:

21 (a) Review the history of the state flag of New Hampshire.

22 (b) Examine vexillological principles of flag design, particularly as they pertain to state
23 flags of the United States.

24 (c) Recommend whether the state flag of New Hampshire should be redesigned, and if 25 so, a process to create a proposed design. The commission shall have the ability to propose one or 26 more of its own designs, but is not required to do so. The commission also may recommend an 27 implementation schedule for any proposed flag design.

28 IV. The members of the study commission shall elect a chairperson from among the 29 members. The first meeting of the commission shall be called by the first-named house member.
30 The first meeting of the commission shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section.
