COMMITTEE: Judiciary

ANALYSIS

This bill enacts a chapter that prohibits a person who intentionally and feloniously kills another person from certain financial benefits from the estate of the decedent or other contractual provisions, and enacts provisions governing the disposition of the estate in such instances. This bill also requires any entity that contracts with someone convicted of a homicide crime for certain payments related to the commission of the crime to notify the department of justice and for the department of justice to notify the estate or immediate family of the decedent to allow for suit to recover any money owed.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty Five

AN ACT prohibiting those convicted of murder from financially profiting from the death of the victim.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 1 New Chapter; Effect of Homicide on Intestate Succession, Wills, Joint Assets, Life Insurance,
2 and Beneficiary Designations. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 562 the following new chapter:

3 CHAPTER 562-A

4 EFFECT OF HOMICIDE ON INTESTATE SUCCESSION, WILLS, JOINT ASSETS, LIFE
5 INSURANCE, AND BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS

6 562-A:1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise indicates, the 7 following terms have the following meanings.

8 I. "Disposition or appointment of property" includes a transfer of an item of property or any 9 other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument.

10 II. "Governing instrument" means a governing instrument executed by the decedent.

11 III. "Revocable", with respect to a disposition, appointment, provision, or nomination, means 12 one under which the decedent, at the time of or immediately before death, was alone empowered, by 13 law or under the governing instrument, to cancel the designation in favor of the killer, whether or 14 not the decedent was then empowered to designate the decedent in place of the killer, and whether 15 or not the decedent then had capacity to exercise the power.

16 562-A:2 Forfeiture of Statutory Benefits. An individual who feloniously and intentionally kills
17 the decedent forfeits all benefits under this title with respect to the decedent's estate. If the 18 decedent died intestate, the decedent's intestate estate passes as if the killer disclaimed the killer's 19 intestate share.

20 562-A:3 Revocation of Benefits Under Governing Instruments. The felonious and intentional
21 killing of the decedent:

22 I. Revokes any revocable:

23 (a) Disposition or appointment of property made by the decedent to the killer in a 24 governing instrument;

25 (b) Provision in a governing instrument conferring a general or nongeneral power of 26 appointment on the killer; and

27 (c) Nomination of the killer in a governing instrument nominating or appointing the 28 killer to serve in any fiduciary or representative capacity, including as a personal representative, 29 executor, trustee, or agent; and

1 II. Severs the interests of the decedent and killer in property held by them at the time of the 2 killing as joint tenants with the right of survivorship, transforming the interests of the decedent and 3 killer into equal tenancies in common.

4 562-A:4 Effect of Severance or Revocation.

5 I. A severance under RSA 562-A:3, II does not affect any third-party interest in property
6 acquired for value and in good faith reliance on an apparent title by survivorship in the killer unless 7 a writing declaring the severance has been noted, registered, filed, or recorded in records appropriate
8 to the kind and location of the property that are relied upon, in the ordinary course of transactions
9 involving such property, as evidence of ownership.

10 II. Provisions of a governing instrument are given effect as if the killer disclaimed all 11 provisions revoked by this chapter or, in the case of a revoked nomination in a fiduciary or 12 representative capacity, as if the killer predeceased the decedent.

13 562-A:5 Wrongful Acquisition of Property. A wrongful acquisition of property or interest by a 14 killer not covered by this chapter shall be treated in accordance with the principle that a killer may 15 not profit from the killer's wrong.

16 562-A:6 Felonious and Intentional Killing; How Determined. After all right to appeal has been 17 exhausted, a judgment of conviction establishing criminal accountability for the felonious and 18 intentional killing of the decedent conclusively establishes the convicted individual as the decedent's
19 killer for purposes of this chapter. In the absence of such conviction, the court, upon the petition of 20 an interested person, shall determine whether, under the preponderance of evidence standard, the 21 individual would be found criminally accountable for the felonious and intentional killing of the 22 decedent. If the court determines that, under that standard, the individual would be found
23 criminally accountable for the felonious and intentional killing of the decedent, the determination
24 conclusively establishes that individual as the decedent's killer for purposes of this chapter.

25 562-A:7 Protection of Payors and Other Third Parties.

26 I. A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or transferred an 27 item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument affected
28 by an intentional and felonious killing or for having taken any other action if that payment, transfer,
29 or other action is made in good faith reliance on the validity of the governing instrument, upon 30 request and satisfactory proof of the decedent's death, before the payor or other third party received
31 written notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under this chapter. A payor or other third party
32 is liable for a payment or transfer made or other action taken after the payor or other third party
33 received written notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under this chapter.

34 II. Written notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under paragraph I must be mailed to 35 the payor's or other third party's main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt 36 requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a summons in a civil 37 action. Upon receipt of written notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under this chapter, a

1 payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or deposit any item of property held
2 by the payor or other third party to or with the court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings
3 relating to the decedent's estate or, if no proceedings have been commenced, to or with the court
4 having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to decedents' estates located in the county of the 5 decedent's residence. The court shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon its determination
6 under this chapter, shall order disbursement in accordance with the determination. Payments,
7 transfers, or deposits made to or with the court discharge the payor or other third party from all 8 claims for the value of amounts paid to or items of property transferred to or deposited with the 9 court.

10 562-A:8 Protection of Bona Fide Purchaser; Personal Liability of Recipient.

11 I. A person who purchases property for value and without notice, or who receives a payment,
12 an item of property or any other benefit in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable
13 obligation, is neither obligated under this chapter to return the payment, item of property, or benefit 14 nor liable under this chapter for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property, or 15 benefit. A person who, not for value, receives a payment, item of property, or other benefit to which 16 the person is not entitled under this chapter is obligated to return the payment, item of property or 17 benefit, or is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or 18 benefit, to the person who is entitled to it under this chapter.

19 II. If this chapter or any part of this chapter is preempted by federal law with respect to a 20 payment, an item of property, or any other benefit covered by this chapter, a person who, not for 21 value, receives the payment, item of property, or other benefit to which the person is not entitled 22 under this chapter is obligated to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, or is personally
23 liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit, to the person
24 who would have been entitled to it were this chapter or part of this chapter not preempted.

25 2 New Chapter; Proceeds of Crime Related to Homicide. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter
26 507-H the following new chapter:

27 CHAPTER 507-I

28 PROCEEDS OF CRIME RELATED TO HOMICIDE

29 507-I:1 Definitions.

30 As used in this chapter:

31 I. "Homicide" shall mean any offense listed in RSA 630.

32 II. "Profits from a homicide crime" shall mean any property which the defendant obtained or 33 income generated as a result of having committed the crime, including any assets obtained through 34 the use of unique knowledge obtained during the commission of, or in preparation for the 35 commission of, a crime, as well as any property obtained by or income generated from the sale,
36 conversion, or exchange of such property and any gain realized by such sale, conversion, or exchange.

1 III. "Victim" shall mean the estate of any victim of an offense under RSA 630, or the 2 immediate family of a homicide victim, unless such individual is the one who committed the 3 homicide offense.

4 507-I:2 Obligations of Third Parties Related to Profits From a Homicide Crime.

5 Every person or other legal entity, or representative of such person or entity, which knowingly
6 contracts for, pays, or agrees to pay any profits from a homicide crime as defined in this chapter, to a 7 person charged with or convicted of any homicide offense, or to the representative of such person,
8 and the value, combined value, or aggregate value of the payment or payments of such funds exceeds 9 or will exceed 10,000 dollars, shall give written notice to the department of justice of the payment or 10 obligation to pay as soon as practicable after discovering that the payment or intended payment
11 constitutes profits from a homicide crime.

12 507-I:3 Obligations of the Department of Justice.

13 The department of justice, through the office of the victim/witness assistance established in RSA
14 21-M:8-b, upon receipt of notice of a contract, an agreement to pay, or payment of profits from a 15 crime, shall notify all known victims of the homicide of the existence of such profits or funds at their 16 last known address.

17 507-I:4 Right of Homicide Crime Victim to Bring Suit; Department of Justice Standing.

18 I. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any homicide crime victim shall have the 19 right to bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover money damages from a 20 person convicted of the homicide crime of which the crime victim is a victim, or the representative of 21 that convicted person, within 3 years of the discovery of any profits from a crime.

22 II. Upon filing an action pursuant to this section, the homicide crime victim shall give notice
23 to the department of justice of the filing by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the 24 department. The crime victim may also give such notice to the department of justice prior to filing
25 the action so as to allow the department of justice to apply for any appropriate provisional remedies
26 which are otherwise authorized to be invoked prior to the commencement of an action.

27 III. The department of justice shall have the right to apply for any and all provisional 28 remedies if there is any restitution owed that the department of justice seeks to have satisfied.

29 3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2026.
