HOUSE CALENDAR

NOTICE

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

We were saddened to learn of the death this week of Representative Paul Golden of Barnstead. Paul was in his eighth House term, and was a member of the Municipal and County Government Committee. We will miss both his quick wit and his expertise on local government. I know the House joins me in extending our sympathy to his family.

On a brighter note, we welcome newly elected Representative John Gallus (R-Berlin). John was sworn in this week after winning a special election to succeed the late Paul St. Hilaire.

Thanks to all the committees who worked so hard on their rereferred bills. Committee reports and amendments will be printed in next week's calendar. They are also now available in the Speaker's Office. Under our House Rules, these bills will be taken up during the first three session days in January.

The Rules Committee will meet on Tuesday, November 16 at 1 p.m. in Room 201 of the LOB to hear requests for late filing of LSRs and suggestions for amendments to the House Rules.

Many members have inquired about the timing of our winter break next year. While the schedule will be subject to a vote of the House, it is my intention to recommend that there be no House business conducted the week of February 28 through March 3. The Senate will also be out that week.

This week's mailing includes another edition of the Restructuring Update. I would like to commend Joel Anderson for his continuing efforts to keep us informed on these issues.

If you are at the State House on other business, be sure to pick up your new black security lapel pin from the Sergeant-at-Arms.

Donna Sytek, Speaker

SPECIAL NOTICE

Stan Arnold, Commissioner of the Department of Revenue Administration, will provide a briefing for House and Senate members on the state's progress in implementing the rebate provisions of House Bill 999 on Thursday, November 18, 1999 at 10 a.m. in Rooms 201-203 of the LOB. This session will be of particular interest to members from communities where school taxes increased.

Donna Sytek, Speaker
