HOUSE CALENDAR

NOTICE

Members of the House:

There will be no veto session in August and, at the moment, there are no plans to meet in September.

As you have no doubt heard, International Paper is selling its 171,000-acre northern New Hampshire holdings. If legislative action is deemed necessary this fall, we will tie that to a veto day. Every attempt will be made to give the longest possible notice before such a session.

Please continue to enjoy the summer!

Gene G. Chandler, Speaker

NOTICE

The 2000 House Permanent Journals have arrived and Representatives who ordered copies last fall may pick them up in the House Clerk's Office.

NOTICE

House Calendars will be published every two weeks during August. Members and staff who need to schedule meetings should make arrangements with the Clerk’s Office for room availability and publication of meeting notices. Please note Calendar will close on Wednesdays.
