HOUSE CALENDAR

NOTICE

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

Committees will be meeting next week to begin public hearings on House bills that were introduced this week.

Additionally, hearings have been scheduled the week of January 20 for legislation that has gone to print but may not be available for distribution until later next week. The early notification of hearings is to give the greatest notice possible for members and the public to arrange their schedules.

Please note that Monday, January 20, 2003 is Martin Luther King, Jr./Civil Rights Day and is a state holiday. All executive and legislative offices will be closed.

I have scheduled a break from February 24-28, 2003. No legislative meetings will be held that week.

Gene G. Chandler, Speaker

NOTICE

In order to get as many bills in the "pipeline" as soon as possible, it is important that sponsors and co-sponsors of LSR's track the process of their bills carefully. Below are some points to consider as the deadlines draw near.

Signatures. Please remember to send your sign off sheets back as soon as you can. If it is easier you may also call OLS by telephone and authorize the Director, Carol Holahan, to sign off for you. Also, if your name is on an LSR and you have no intention of signing it, please call OLS to let them know or return the sign off sheet with a "No" or "Remove me from the bill" on it. Also, please let OLS know if you want to withdraw an LSR.

Redrafts. In order to speed the bill printing and introduction process along, it would be helpful for members to try to limit the number of redraft requests. Remember, additional changes can be made by amendment to the bill later.

Sign off deadline. House Rules provides that Friday, January 17, 2003, at 12:00 p.m. is the final deadline for sign off on all House bills, including redrafts. OLS will be attaching a notice to any draft sent to members in the last week, reminding members of the deadline and asking them to call in their approval rather than sending the sheets back by mail. During the last week members are encouraged to sign off by phone instead of by mail.
