The Legislative Caucus for Young Children (LCYC) will host a breakfast on January 20 from 8:30 to 10:00 a.m. at the Upham Walker House. Our guest will be Dr. Helen Blank of the National Women's Law Center. Dr. Blank served 24 years as Director of Child Care and Development at the Children's Defense Fund and has authored numerous major reports, articles and papers on state child care and early education policies. All legislators are invited to meet Dr. Blank at breakfast as well as the Child Care Policy Forum later at lunch time at the Early Learning NH, Two Delta Drive (Delta Dental Building). The forum will provide for child care stakeholders and policy makers to learn how changes at the federal and state level are impacting access to child care services for low income families. To register for the forum please call 226-7900 or e-mail to kbroas@earlylearningnh.org. The LCYC is a non-partisan organization, formed in 1997, whose goals support policies and programs which maximize the developmental potential of young children and prevent future social, health and educational problems: monitor and propose legislation in the realms of health care, early childhood care and education, and family support and education: and serve as a vehicle for information sharing and continuing education on these and related issues.
