NOTICE

To All Legislators:

On Monday, November 21, 2005, the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) and the N.H. House Speaker's Office, in collaboration with the Committee on Children and Family Law and the Legislative Caucus for Young Children (LCYC), invite you to a Legislative Forum featuring Dr. Jack Shonkoff, Dean of The Heller School for Social Policy and Management, Brandeis University, and internationally recognized as the principal research scientist in young children's emotional and social experience and its effect on early brain development, and Dr. Marcie Pitt-Catsouphs, the nationally recognized Director of the Sloan Work and Family Research Network at Boston College.

This event was initiated by the Committee on Children and Family Law, following their review of NCSL's 2005 publication and working papers, "Science, Policy and the Young Developing Child: Closing the Gap Between What we Know and What We Do," which describes the most current research on the effects of early experiences on children's physical, mental and intellectual growth. A second publication from the Sloan Institute, "Linking Strong Families and Effective Workplaces," focuses on the importance of family and workplace policy to future economic prosperity. In addition, Steffanie Clothier, Program Manager of NCSL's Child Care and Early Education Project, will review related state policy advances across the United States, and a panel of New Hampshire legislators and guests will discuss implications for New Hampshire.

The Forum is designed for legislators and will be held in Rooms 210-211 of the Legislative Office Building from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., lunch included. We encourage your attendance and ask that you please sign up in the Speaker's Office (Room 312) by stopping in or by calling 271-3661 to ensure there will be adequate materials for everyone. GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 354

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, on July 1, 2005 I vetoed House Bill 354, an act relative to the review, approval, and adoption of agency rules.

The sponsors of this bill have worked hard to improve the administrative rules process, and I commend them for their efforts. However well intentioned, House Bill 354 has the potential to result in serious unintended consequences, delaying the work of state agencies, increasing inefficiency and causing uncertainty for New Hampshire citizens whose lives are affected by agency rules.

The bill would add another layer of legislative oversight to our already cumbersome administrative rulemaking process. It would allow legislative policy committees –in addition to the Joint Legislative Committee on Administrative Rules – to block agency rules. In some cases, rulemaking could be significantly delayed while the respective legislative policy committees decide whether to block a proposed agency rule.

Our constitution contemplates that our three branches of government should work independently but collaboratively in the best interest of our citizens. I am vetoing House Bill 354 because it creates new layers of bureaucracy that I believe will impede the operation of state government.

I look forward to working with the legislature and state agencies to improve the rulemaking process, making it more efficient and responsive to the needs of our citizens.

Respectfully submitted,
John H. Lynch
Governor
