Rep. James W. Craig, Democratic Leader

NEW HAMPSHIRE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES PROPOSED RULES OF THE SPECIAL SESSION

September 26, 2006

DUTIES OF THE SPEAKER

1. The Speaker shall take the chair at precisely the hour specified in the Call for the Special Session and shall immediately call the members to order.
2. The Speaker shall preserve decorum and order, may speak on points of order in preference to other members, and shall decide questions of order. The decision of the Speaker on a question of order shall be conclusive unless the decision is immediately appealed to the House. The House shall decide the appeal by a majority vote of those members present and voting.
3. The Speaker shall appoint all committees unless otherwise directed by the House.

4. The Speaker shall not be called on to vote unless the vote would be decisive. If the vote is tied after the Speaker has voted, the question shall be lost.
5. The Speaker shall sign all bills after passage or enrollment. All warrants, subpoenas and other processes issued by order of the House shall be signed by the Speaker and attested to by the Clerk.
6. The Speaker or chairman of the committee of the whole House shall have the power to order the gallery cleared in cases of any disturbance or disorderly conduct.
7. The Speaker shall have power to substitute any member to perform the duties of the Chair. If absent, the Speaker shall designate a member to perform the duties of the Chair unless otherwise ordered by the House.

DECORUM AND DEBATE

8. When the House is called to order, members shall take their seats and shall activate their voting stations immediately. When they leave their seats for any reason they shall deactivate their stations.
9. In all cases not provided for by the Constitution or Special Session Rules, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure, 2000 Edition, shall be the parliamentary guide.
10. When any member is about to speak in debate, make a motion, or deliver any matter to the House, the member shall rise from his or her seat and respectfully address the Speaker, declaring the purpose for which the member rises to speak.
11. In all cases the member rising first shall speak first. When two or more members rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the person to speak. When many members choose to speak, they may file their names with the Clerk, who shall supply the list to the Speaker. The Speaker shall name the order in which the members shall speak.
12. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without permission from the House. No member shall speak more than once until every member choosing to speak has spoken.
13. While the Speaker is putting a question or addressing the House, no one shall walk out of or across the House. While a member is speaking, no one shall pass between that member and the other members of the House, nor shall anyone engage in private conversation.
14. If any member transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call the member to order. The member called to order shall immediately sit down and the question of order shall be distinctly stated by the Speaker.
15. In all instances, every member shall act in conformance with the duly adopted New Hampshire General Court Ethics Guidelines and opinions of the Legislative Ethics Committee.
16. (a) The following persons shall be admitted within the door of the Representatives' chamber while the House is in session: House members and officers, the Governor, Council members, Senate members, the Secretary of State, the Treasurer, and the Senate Clerks.
(b) No other person shall be admitted within the door of the Representatives' chamber or anteroom while the House is in session, except with the permission of the Speaker.
17. Before any petition is received and read, the substance of the petition shall be in concise form, and the name of the person presenting it shall be recorded on the petition. The Speaker shall state the substance of the petition.
18. After a motion is stated by the Speaker, it shall be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before an amendment.
19. (a) When any question is under debate, precedence of motions shall be as follows:
 - (1) to adjourn;
 - (2) to lay on the table;
 - (3) for the previous question;
 - (4) to postpone to a certain day;
 - (5) to commit;
 - (6) to amend;
 - (7) to postpone indefinitely.

Motions to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, and to take from the table shall be decided without debate. A motion to postpone to a certain day shall be debatable both as to time and subject matter.

(b) When a question is postponed indefinitely, it shall not be acted on during the same session, unless two-thirds of those members present and voting vote in favor thereof.

(c) No new motion shall be admitted under color of amendment as a substitute for the motion under debate.

20. (a) The Speaker shall put the previous question in the following form: "Shall debate now be limited?" and all debate on the main question shall be suspended until the previous question has been decided. After the adoption of the previous question, the sense of the House shall forthwith be taken on pending amendments, in their regular order, and then on the main question.

(b) All incidental questions of order arising after a motion of the previous question and related to the subjects affected by the order of the previous question shall be decided without debate.

(c) If the previous question is decided in the negative, it shall not again be in order for the particular question under consideration until after adjournment, but the main question shall be left before the House and disposed of as though the previous question had not been put.

21. There shall be three forms of deciding the question: voice vote, division vote, roll call vote. No member shall vote in any case when the member was not present when the question was put.

(a) The question put by voice vote shall be: "All those in favor of the question say 'aye,'" and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "Those of a contrary opinion say 'no.'"

(b) A division vote shall be taken if the Speaker doubts the voice vote or if a member calls for a division vote. When a division of the House is taken, the Speaker may appoint a teller for each seating division of the House, who shall report to the Chair the state of the vote.

(c) A roll call shall be taken when a member moves for a roll call vote and that motion is seconded by 10 other members. The member requesting the roll call vote and the 10 members who second the motion shall notify the clerk in writing or shall rise from their seats or otherwise be recognized by the Speaker.

(d) When a division or a roll call is taken, the Speaker shall put the question and open the voting stations for not more than 30 seconds. Each member present at his or her voting station shall press either the YES (Green) or NO (Red) button unless excused by the House for a special reason. After closing the vote, the Speaker shall rise and state the decision of the House.

22. In case of a tie vote, the question shall be lost.

23. No member shall leave his or her seat while the voting machine is in use and until the Speaker announces the result of the vote.

24. No vote shall be reconsidered unless the motion for reconsideration is made by a member who voted with the prevailing side while the bill is in the possession of the House.

(a) A motion for reconsideration shall be in order only until the time the House stands in final recess on the day the vote was taken.

(b) When notice of reconsideration is received by the House, the Clerk of the House shall hold the bill or resolution relative to which such notice has been served until the expiration of the time within which such notice is effective.

25. When the reading of a paper or a document is objected to by a member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the House without debate.

26. All members shall attend to their duties in the House and no one shall be absent from the service of the House unless the member has leave, or is sick and unable to attend.

BILLS

*27. Enactment of laws, as provided in the Petition which resulted in the Call for the Special Session, shall be by bill. No bill shall be introduced into the House the subject matter of which is not included in the final paragraph of the Petition which resulted in the Call for the Special Session.

28. (a) The Office of Legislative Services shall identify LSRs in language which makes clear the intent of the bill. LSRs, with the name(s) of the sponsor(s), shall be published by the Office of Legislative Services. The Speaker of the House shall adjudicate any disagreement concerning the publication of LSRs that may arise between bill sponsors and the Office of Legislative Services.

(b) The Office of Legislative Services shall not accept a request to draft any bill or resolution the subject matter of which is not included in the final paragraph of the Petition which resulted in the Call for the Special Session.

(c) The Office of Legislative Services shall not accept a request to draft any bill which is the same, or essentially the same, as any other drafting request already accepted. If duplicate or similar legislation is requested, the Director of Legislative Services shall notify the sponsors of each filing request and mediate an agreement for the filing of a single bill. Filing requests resulting from legislative committee work shall take precedence over all other duplicate or similar filings. The name of the House member whose LSR request is denied due to duplication may be substituted on request for that of the original sponsor if the original sponsor withdraws the drafting request prior to the sign-off deadline.

(d) All bills to be introduced in the House shall be delivered or caused to be delivered to the Office of Legislative Services by the member presenting them. The Office of Legislative Services shall prepare those bills in proper form and shall present them to the member(s) for signature. Legislative Services shall give precedence in drafting legislation to any measure which carries a fiscal note.

(e) All bills shall be endorsed with the name and the district of the legislator presenting them. All legislation shall be numbered serially. Each bill shall be marked on the first page "House Bill."

(f) No LSR number shall be assigned and no House bill shall be drafted unless the LSR or bill has a House sponsor. No more than 5 House members shall be allowed to sponsor any bill or floor amendment. No more than 5 Senate members shall be allowed to co-sponsor legislation originating in the House.

(g) If a drafting request for a bill filed with the Office of Legislative Services requires a fiscal note as provided in RSA 14:44-47, the substance or a draft of the proposal may be provided to the Legislative Budget Assistant for preparation of the required fiscal note without the specific consent of the sponsor of the proposal.

(h) For the purposes of these rules, money bills are those that either appropriate money or affect state revenues, whether new or existing.

29. Every request by a member of the House for drafting a bill which complies with these rules shall be accepted by the Office of Legislative Services for processing. Each request shall be accompanied by sufficient information necessary for drafting.

30. (a) If the primary sponsor signs the legislation in time for introduction, but one or more co-sponsors fails to sign, the legislation shall be introduced in the names of those sponsors who have signed. If the primary sponsor fails to sign the legislation in time for introduction, a co-sponsor may become the primary sponsor. If the primary sponsor fails to sign, and no co-sponsor wishes to become the primary sponsor, the legislation may not be introduced.

(b) An LSR may be withdrawn at any time prior to its introduction with the consent of all of its sponsors. Any sponsor may request that his or her name be deleted as a sponsor of the bill prior to its introduction.

31. Every bill shall have three separate readings in the House prior to its passage. The first and second readings shall be by title only which may be accomplished by a single motion. No bill after it has been read a second time shall have a third reading until after adjournment from the early session. The time assigned for the third reading of bills shall be in the late session unless otherwise ordered by the House. The orders of the day for the reading of bills shall hold for every succeeding day until disposed.

32. After each bill has been numbered, the Clerk shall procure a sufficient number of copies for distribution.

33. (a) No amendment shall be made until the second reading of a bill. All amendments to bills shall be prepared by the Office of Legislative Services, with the name of the member and the district represented by the member or the name of the policy committee proposing the amendment.

(b) No amendment shall be added to any bill, which is not germane to the subject matter of the legislative document as introduced.

(c) When a bill comes before the House, the body shall first consider a positive motion. The Speaker shall not permit a negative motion to be substituted until the House has properly disposed of a positive motion.

34. No standing rule of the House Special Session shall be suspended unless two-thirds of the members present vote in favor thereof. A motion to suspend the rules is debatable.

35. No rule shall be rescinded unless two days notice of a motion has been given and two-thirds of House members present vote therefor.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE

36. The House may resolve itself into a committee of the whole at any time on the motion of a member made for that purpose. In forming a committee of the whole House, the Speaker shall leave the chair, and a chairman to preside in committee shall be appointed by the Speaker.

37. When a bill is committed to a committee of the whole House, the entire bill shall first be read by the Clerk, and then again read and debated by clauses, leaving the preamble of the bill to be considered last. The body of the bill or resolution shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments, noting the page and line, shall be duly entered by the Clerk on a separate paper, as they are agreed to by the committee and so reported to the House. After reporting, the bill shall again be subject to debate and amendment by clauses before a question to pass it to a third reading is taken.

38. The rules of proceeding in the House shall be observed in the committee of the whole House, as far as they may be applicable, except the rule limiting the time of speaking.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

39. (a) The order of business in the early session shall be as follows:

1. Prayer by the Chaplain and pledge of allegiance;
2. Call of the Roll;
3. Leaves of absence if received before the start of the legislative day;
4. Introduction of guests;
5. Adoption of Rules;
6. Introduction, first and second reading and consideration of bills;
7. Messages from the Senate, the Governor and the Secretary of State;
8. Resolutions, motions and notices;
9. Adjournment from the early session.

(b) The order of business in the late session shall be as follows:

1. Third reading of bills;
2. Resolutions and motions;
3. Personal privilege.
4. Adjournment.

(c) The order of business listed in this rule shall be adhered to unless otherwise ordered by a majority of those members of the House present and voting.

(d) Leaves of absence may be granted by the House at any time.

40. If the Special Session continues for more than one legislative day, the unfinished business in which the House was engaged at the last preceding adjournment, if called for by any member, shall have preference over all other business except the general order of the day; and no motion, or any other business except the general order of the day, shall be received without special leave of the House, until the former is disposed.

OFFICERS AND PERSONNEL

41. The elected and appointed non-member officers and personnel of the House shall be under the direction of the Speaker, who shall define their duties not fixed by statute or otherwise ordered by the House.

42. No officer or employee of the House during the Special Session or any adjournment thereof shall purchase or contract to purchase, pay or promise to pay any sum of money on behalf of the House or issue any requisition or manifest without securing the approval in writing of the Speaker of the House or designee.

43. The Speaker may appoint an individual trained and experienced in security matters or law enforcement work, who, under the supervision and direction of the Speaker, shall prevent the deliberations of the House from being disrupted or interfered with by any person or persons not members thereof.

44. No employee or attaché of the House Sergeant-at-Arms shall, directly or indirectly, be personally involved with or attempt to influence the passage or consideration of any measure whatsoever. If any such employee or attaché becomes involved with any such measure, it shall be grounds for summary dismissal.

MISCELLANEOUS

45. No person, including members of the House, except law enforcement officers while actively engaged in carrying out their duties as such, shall carry or have in possession any deadly weapon as defined in RSA 625:11, V while in the House Chamber, anterooms, cloakrooms, or any portion of the State House adjacent to any of the above. Any person in violation of this rule shall be subject to ejection from any such premises on the order of the Speaker and disciplinary action or arrest or both by action of the House. Nothing in this rule shall indicate that the security officer appointed by the House has the right to stop and search a member of the House on the premises of the House. With the exception of devices for the hearing impaired, no member shall operate audible electronic transmitting devices and/or receiving devices nor shall any member operate a video camera or a camera utilizing flash bulbs on the floor of the House, while the House is in Special Session.

*House Rule 27 references the final paragraph in the petition that calls for the special session, NOW THEREFORE, we the undersigned believe that the welfare of the state requires a special session of the General Court for the immediate enactment of laws specifying the form of general election ballots and therefore, pursuant to RSA 16 petition for the calling of a special session of the general court.

Rep. Nancy F. Stiles

On Tuesday, September 26, the Legislative Caucus for Young Children (LCYC) will hold the 9th Annual Legislative Roundtable for representatives of New Hampshire agencies and organizations serving children, youth and families in Room 206, LOB, beginning at 10:00 a.m. This is an opportunity for members of the NH House and Senate (incumbents and new candidates) to hear brief reviews of key issues and concerns related to children’s health, education and general well-being that might be most affectively addressed through legislation.
Rep. Mary Stuart Gile

Lucy Stone, an early leader in the anti-slavery and women’s rights movements, will visit the Statehouse on Thursday, October 12 at 7:00 p.m. in Representatives Hall in the person of living history presenter Judith Black. This is part of the New Hampshire Humanities Council’s initiative “Vote: Teaching American Culture, History, Geography, Civics & Government”. Stone (1818-1893) traveled the country speaking out for the rights of slaves and equality for women. Her work was instrumental in turning northern sentiment toward the cause of abolition. Judith Black has earned standing ovations at the Smithsonian Institution and the National Storytelling Festival for her portrayal of Stone. Legislators are encouraged to invite constituents to join them at this free event open to the public. For more information, contact the Humanities Council at 224-4071 or visit www.nhhc.org.
Rep. Marjorie Smith

The House Republican Alliance will meet every Tuesday at 8:30 a.m. at the Upham Walker House, Park Street, Concord.
Rep. Michael A. Balboni

NOTICE

The House Clerk's Office is now accepting orders for the 2006 hardcover Permanent House Journals. Work on the journal is awaiting final adjournment from the 2006 session.

Anyone who was a member of the Legislature in 2006, and all state agencies are entitled to one Journal at no charge, upon request. All others interested in obtaining a Journal, as well as any Legislator or state agency requesting additional copies, will be charged for that copy. We estimate this cost to be approximately $50 each, plus any applicable mailing expenses. Those who order paid copies will be notified and billed when the Journals are ready for distribution. DO NOT send any money now.

In an effort to contain costs, the number of Journals printed will be determined by the number of advance orders received. Please do not order a Journal if you have no intention of claiming it.

Please clip this form and return it in person or via mail to:

Office of the House Clerk
Room 317, State House
107 North Main Street
