Contains: Legislative Ethics Committee Advisory Opinions, 2010 Interim Study Bill List By Committee, Meetings and Notices.

HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

I want to thank you for the great job you have done all year, particularly during the Special Session held on June 9th. It was a very long day and I am grateful for your hard work and for taking seriously your legislative responsibilities. Your cooperation has enabled us to successfully complete the work we started at the beginning of the biennium.

There will be no legislative activity in July with the exception of statutory committees that have meeting requirements set in law. Interim study bill subcommittees, ad-hoc groups and caucuses, and chapter study committees chaired by the House, will not be scheduled during July.

Please note that the Clerk's Office will begin publishing the House Calendar every other week beginning in July. The deadline for notices will be on Wednesdays and Calendars will be mailed on Thursdays.

Terie Norelli, Speaker

NOTICE

The House Calendar for June 17 and June 24 will close at 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday for scheduling and notices.

During the summer months the House Calendar will be published every two weeks. Members and staff who need to schedule meetings should make arrangements with the Clerk's Office for room availability and publication of meeting notices. Please note Calendar will close on Wednesdays.

LEGISLATIVE ETHICS COMMITTEE

At its meeting on May 17, 2010, the Legislative Ethics Committee voted to issue the following advisory opinions, which are printed below in their entirety.

ADVISORY OPINION 2010-1 (MAY 17, 2010)

A representative has requested an Advisory Opinion whether, consistent with applicable statutes and the Ethics Guidelines, it would be permissible for him to accept a prize he won at a raffle conducted at an event to which he was invited as a legislator, and attended in that capacity.

According to the facts supplied by the representative and other facts elicited by the Committee, the event was the 8th Annual St. Patrick's Day Roast, sponsored by a lobbying group for the benefit of a charitable hospital. The event was attended by legislators and others. Legislators were invited to attend admission free, through notices published in legislative Calendars. Members of the public attending the event were charged an admission fee.

At the event, raffle tickets were offered to all attendees, at a separate charge of $5.00 each. Raffle prizes had been donated by various sponsors. All proceeds of the raffle were donated to the charitable beneficiary. Raffle ticket purchase was optional. The representative purchased a ticket and, at the drawing, won a computer valued at $300.00.

The Committee responds as follows.

Relevant provisions of statute and the Ethics Guidelines are:

RSA 15-B:3, III which provides in part: "III. No elected official...shall knowingly accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, as defined in this chapter."

RSA 15-B:2, V(a)(2) which includes in the definition of "gift," "Any other tangible thing...having more than insignificant economic value. Any such item with a value of less than $25 is presumed to be of insignificant economic value."

Ethics Guidelines, Section 4, Prohibited Activities, Paragraph I, which states in part: "Legislators shall not solicit, accept, or agree to accept anything of value from another for themselves or other persons, if the legislator receives such thing of value(g) In violation of RSA 15-B."

The Committee advises that under the specific circumstances of this case, the raffle prize won by the representative is not a prohibited gift. He paid substantial consideration to participate in the raffle in which participation was optional and open to all attendees, legislators and non-legislators alike, on the same basis. The raffle was conducted for the benefit of a charitable beneficiary in accordance with RSA 287-A.

While the free admission to the event accorded to the representative by the sponsors was not a prohibited gift pursuant to RSA 15-B:2, V(b)(9)(C), that fact does not determine whether a prize from a raffle conducted at the event is not a prohibited gift. Rather, the Committee has previously interpreted the relevant statutes as prohibiting legislators' acceptance of "door prizes" having significant economic value, awarded by lot or otherwise at such events. See Interpretive Ruling 2007-1 (October 29, 2007), Issue C. In context, that ruling assumed that eligibility for a door prize was part of a free or reduced price admission accorded to legislators, which does not appear to be the case here.

To be clear, the Committee's conclusion here is based on the following facts:
The raffle in question was open to all attendees at the event, legislators and non-legislators alike;
Participation in the raffle was optional, and separate substantial consideration was required of all participants, at the same price;
The raffle was conducted in accordance with RSA 287-A.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of assistance.

ADVISORY OPINION 2010-2 (MAY 17, 2010)

A senator has requested an Advisory Opinion whether, consistent with applicable statutes and the Ethics Guidelines, it would be permissible for her to accept from a third party a free ticket with a face value of $50.00 to attend a political event.

According to the facts supplied by the senator, the event was the Lincoln-Reagan Dinner sponsored by the Manchester Republican Committee, and proceeds from the event would be reported by the Manchester Republican Committee to the Secretary of State.

Relevant provisions of statute and the Ethics Guidelines are:

RSA 15-B:3, III which provides in part: "III. No elected official...shall knowingly accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, as defined in this chapter."

RSA 15-B:2, V(a)(2) which includes in the definition of "gift," "Any other tangible thing...having more than insignificant economic value. Any such item with a value of less than $25 is presumed to be of insignificant economic value."

RSA 15-B:2, V(b) which states in part: "Notwithstanding subparagraph (a), 'gift' shall not include(9) Tickets or free admission to a charitable, ceremonial, or political event provided that: (A) The proceeds of the event are subject to the political contributions and expenditure reporting law, RSA 664*."

Ethics Guidelines, Section 4, Prohibited Activities, Paragraph VII, which states in part: "Nothing in this section on prohibited activities should be construed to prohibit the following(h) Acceptance of anything permitted to be accepted pursuant to RSA 15-B, except that [exception not applicable here]."

We advise as follows: The ticket the senator has described is not itself a prohibited "gift," because based on the facts the senator has supplied, it qualifies for the exemption provided under RSA 15-B:2, V(b)(9)(A), and is therefore permitted to be accepted under RSA 15-B.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of assistance.

Martin L. Gross, Chairman
For the Committee

ADVISORY OPINION 2010-3 (MAY 17, 2010)

A representative has requested an Advisory Opinion whether, consistent with applicable statutes and the Ethics Guidelines, it would be permissible for him to accept an award of hotel accommodations and airline tickets as a result of a drawing for which he qualified in attending an event at a commercial sports facility.

According to information provided to the Committee by the representative, the event he attended was at New Hampshire Motor Speedway and he attended as a general admission patron, not as a legislator or in connection with any legislative event.

Relevant provisions of statute and the Ethics Guidelines are:

RSA 15-B: 3, III which provides in part: "III. No elected official... shall knowingly accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, as defined in this chapter."

RSA 15-B:2, V(a)(2) which includes in the definition of "gift," "Any other tangible thing... having more than insignificant economic value. Any such item with a value of less than $25 is presumed to be of insignificant economic value."

RSA 15-B:2, V(b) which states in part: "Notwithstanding subparagraph (a), 'gift' shall not include(6) any tangible or intangible thing or service of economic value, where the donor's act of giving is purely private and personal in nature and the ... tangible or intangible thing or service of economic value would have been given and received even if the person were not an elected official*."

Ethics Guidelines, Section 4, Prohibited Activities, Paragraph VII, which states in part: "Nothing in this section on prohibited activities should be construed to prohibit the following (h) Acceptance of anything permitted to be accepted pursuant to RSA 15-B, except that [exception not applicable here]."

We advise as follows: Under the circumstances the representative has described, accepting the items would not constitute acceptance of a prohibited "gift." On the facts, he was attending the event as a private citizen, was a paid general admission patron, and qualified for the award under the same circumstances as any other patron of the event would have qualified. Proceeds of the drawing he has described would not be a prohibited "gift," because based on the facts he supplied, they would qualify for the exemption provided under RSA 15-B:2, V(b)(6) and therefore are permitted to be accepted under RSA 15-B.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of assistance.

MEMBERS' NOTICES

The following notices are published in the House record as a courtesy to the member(s) requesting publication. These are not official public notices and will be limited to legislative policy or legislative social activities and political meetings or events. Publication should not be construed as support for either the events listed or the views espoused by the individual or organization sponsoring the event.

The Legislative Youth Advisory Council is looking for recommendations for new appointments. The council has openings for nine secondary students, preferably those who will be juniors so they can serve a two year term. The appointments are made by the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House and the Secretary of State. The council meets a minimum of four times a year and conducts two public forums on issues of concern to youth. Its purpose is to advise the legislature on these issues. There is a requirement that every county be represented. Currently there are vacancies in Belknap, Carroll, Cheshire and Rockingham counties; however there are openings for students from other counties as well. Recommendations will be passed on to the appointers. Please send names to co-chair of the council, Rep. Carolyn Gargas,

Rep. Carolyn Gargasz

Members of the House Children and Family Law, Environment and Agriculture, Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs, and Resources, Recreation, and Development Committees are invited to attend a reception for Dr. Alex Lu, the Mark and Catherine Winkler Assistant Professor of Environmental Exposure Biology, Harvard School of Public Health, Department of Environmental Health. His primary research involves assessing human exposures to environmental chemicals – including children's pesticide exposures - in order to identify risk factors and health effects. Dr. Lu will participate in a discussion on the use of lawn care pesticides with the Environment and Agriculture Committee at 1:00 p.m. The reception will be held on Tuesday, June 15, from 4:00-6:00 p.m. at the Sulloway and Hollis law firm conference room, 29 School Street, in Concord. For more information and to RSVP please call 225-2925 x2 or email sjohnson@ppnne.org

Reps. Tara Sad and Mary Stuart Gile

The Barnstead-Alton Republican Committee (BARC) will hold a Flag Day (one day late!) Summer-time "Kick-Off" BBQ and meeting on Tuesday, June 15 at J.J. Goodwin's Restaurant (upstairs), 769 Suncook Valley Road (Route 28), Center Barnstead - (603) 269-8300. A very reasonably priced all-you-can-eat dinner of cheeseburgers, hot dogs, chips, coleslaw, potato salad, beans and other fixin's will be grilled and served on the deck. The BBQ begins at 5:30 p.m. and continues through the evening. A short business meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. BARC meetings are fairly informal and you don't even have to be a member to attend; all Republican and Independent/Unaffiliated voters are welcome to drop-in. And, once again, we'll be conducting a 50/50 raffle that provides a great chance to walk away with a small fortune. For more information, see the BARC website at www.BARC-NewHampshire.com, send an email to Barnstead.Alton.RepubComm@gmail.com, or call (603) 364-9780.

Rep. Elaine B. Swinford

State House Visitation Schedule

As a convenience to the members of the NH General Court, the Visitors' Center offers the following schedule of schools and other groups visiting the State House in June. These listings are to ensure all members be notified in a timely manner of visitors from their district. Our schedule is tightly booked for the school year and subject to changes.

Please contact the Visitor Center concerning school tour booking information.

Legislators planning to meet with students should notify the Visitor Center. Thank you for your continued participation with your School Visitation Program.
