HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

Proofs of the photographs of the House taken in the Chamber on June 6th, along with ordering information, are available for your review in the Speaker's Reception area.

I have appointed two special House committees. One is to study defined contribution retirement plans for state employees. The other is to study the 2012 performance audit of the Guardian ad Litem Board. The particulars for both may be found on the legislative website, including a detailed description of the background, intent and duties of the defined contribution committee.

The Committee on Redress of Grievances continues to issue its reports and findings with regard to petitions submitted to the Committee. These reports will appear in the House Calendar for informational purposes and are intended to inform legislators and the public of complaints by citizens against state government, whether those complaints appear to be founded, and possible legislative remedies. The committee does not adjudicate individual disputes; therefore, these reports are limited to proposed legislative remedies.

Through the end of this legislative term, legislative mileage will be limited to reimbursement for travel on one day a week to Concord for official legislative or constituent work in addition to those days that members are required to be in Concord for official committee or leadership work. Reimbursement for committee or leadership purposes is limited to service as a member of a policy, chaptered or statutory committee or for Democrat or Republican caucus or legislative leadership. Members should not schedule meetings for Mondays or Fridays, as no mileage reimbursement will be permitted on those days.

William L. O'Brien, Speaker

COMMITTEE FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES REPORTS

The following reports are the result of committee hearings and deliberations on the petitions presented to them. They are printed here for informational purposes.

PETITION #11 grievance of David D. Vandenberg.

Grievance Founded with Recommendations.

Committee Findings:

After hearing the testimony of Petitioner, David Vandenberg, and reviewing documentation of various court events in a divorce settlement, and having received no responsive testimony or documentation, or other evidence from any of the officials named, the Committee on Redress of Grievances finds (and is now significantly supported by a decision of Cheshire Superior Court on March 1, 2012) that Justice John Arnold of Cheshire Superior Court: 1. Unlawfully terminated contact between Petitioner and his daughter for two years and nine months, violating his natural and constitutional right to impart his religious beliefs to his daughter; 2. Failed to enforce mandatory directions to putatively appointed guardian ad litem, Judith Hamilton; 3. Improperly granted Judith Hamilton's motions to exceed the mandatory fee cap of $ 1,000.00 by at least $ 11,069.69 without the requisite hearings demanded by Superior Court Administrative Order 17 [SCAO 17] and Family Division Administrative Order (FDAO) 2005-01; 4. Coerced compliance of payment on Petitioner by threat of incarceration, despite several attempts by Petitioner to move to vacate the underlying problem of unlawful termination now recognized as such by the Cheshire Superior Court; 5. Failed to meet even one of the administrative-court-ordered requirements, as per SCAO 17 and FDAO 2005-01, for the appointment of Judith Hamilton as guardian ad litem including: a) assuring that such person have standing before the court to apply for appointment; b) noticing parties of hearing; c) holding a hearing with the parties and the GAL present; and d) confirming such appointment by the production of stipulations and a report; 6. Allowed Ms. Hamilton to improperly apply for and receive retroactive appointment and retroactive fees of $ 7,369.69 in violation of SCAO 17 and FDAO 2005-01 claiming later to have "waived" the hearings without formally doing so; and 7. Failed even to schedule hearings on motions to vacate this unlawful order terminating child's contact with her father for over 2 ½ years. Additionally, the Committee finds that Ms. Hamilton, a) failed to produce the report required per Family Division Administrative Order 2005-01 [FDAO 2005-01], and the mandatory stipulations for fees and services required per FDAO 2005-01; b) without proper appointment and without proper court authorization, moved to terminate contact between Petitioner and his daughter.

Recommendations

The Committee recommends that the Legislature introduce legislation to: 1. Investigate Judge John Arnold for impeachment for offending the dignity and undermining the integrity of the courts and the confidence of the people, for failing to uphold the laws of the State of New Hampshire and for infringing on the natural and Constitutional rights of the Petitioner; 2. Require that Rules of Evidence, Rules of Procedure, and all other Rules of the pertinent Court(s) be complied with by all judicial courts; 3. Require that all motions and petitions brought before a court of New Hampshire be docketed immediately and scheduled to be heard within six months after docketing; 4. Eliminate immunity of guardians ad litem, requiring them to be formally trained and bonded, and require that an accounting of the public input provided at the GAL audit hearings be included in their recent report; 5. Restructure Family Division courts as courts of law, not courts of equity; and 6. Repeal Supreme Court Rule 3 Definitions: Mandatory Appeals (9) which provides for discretionary appeals in post-divorce custody matters, so that mandatory appeals must be provided in all matters in which fundamental natural rights, which include the right to religious expression and the right to raise one's children in the religious practices of one's choice, are issues before the bar, including all family division matters. Vote 9-1.

Rep. Robert Willette for the Committee.

PETITION # 20 grievance of Carl E. Dow.

MAJORITY

Grievance Founded with Recommendations.

The Committee found that the Petitioner's complaints against the Concord Family Division amounted essentially to disagreement and disappointment with the outcome of his divorce proceeding. In particular, the Committee found: (1) that the Court's Final Decree contained a thorough and thoughtful discussion of the background and course of the Petitioner's and his wife's courtship, marriage, and separation; (2) that the Court's findings of fact set out in the Final Decree were reasonable; (3) that the Court's disposition of the case was supported by those facts; and (4) that the Petitioner's allegation that the Court's disposition of the case was unduly influenced by the marital master's and judge's alleged general bias against husbands was not proven. The Committee, however, concluded that the Petition is founded in part in that the Petitioner proved that the guardian ad litem in the case repeatedly billed for and collected fees in excess of each then pre-approved limit in advance of applying for and receiving the permission of the Court to exceed it, thereby improperly placing the Court in the position of considering, and the Petitioner in the position of defending against, a fait accompli. The Committee recommends that a bill be filed in the next session that would expressly forbid this practice, and, in light of this and other problems it has found respecting the performance of guardians ad litem, a bill be filed that would remove the quasi-judicial immunity conferred upon guardians ad litem by the Supreme Court in the case of Suprenant v. Mulcrone, #2011-661 (April 5, 2012). Vote 10-3.

Rep. Gregory Sorg for the Majority of the Committee

MINORITY

Grievance Unfounded.

The Minority finds that the Final Decree is a comprehensive and thorough explanation of the transition from a long-distance courtship to the demise of the marriage. There were major differences in expectations due in large part to wide culturally diverse backgrounds. However, it does not appear that the marital master and judge decided rulings or orders based on any bias against the Petitioner. We do agree with the Majority that in many of the petitions that have come before the Committee, it appears that guardian ad litem fees are approved by the court after the expenses are incurred. We, therefore, agree the Supreme Court consider amending the rules to end this practice.

Rep. Sandra Keans for the Minority of the Committee.

NOTICE

Legislative Ethics Committee

The Legislative Ethics Committee has voted unanimously to issue the following interpretive ruling, which is printed below in its entirety.

INTERPRETIVE RULING 2012-#2

(June 28, 2012)

RSA 15-B:2 and 3

Bulk Gifts to Legislative Offices Intended for Redistribution to Legislators or Employees

Greg Moore, House Chief of Staff, has requested a ruling based on the following information he submitted to the Committee:

"Recently, the House of Representatives received an estimated 400 tickets [to forthcoming circus performances]. Enclosed with the tickets is a notification, stating, 'Dear Employer: Enclosed is a supply of FREE TICKETS for your employees.' Presumably, the intent of the mailing is to encourage each House member to have access to a free ticket to the circus. On each ticket, the pass indicates a value of $7.50 for a total estimated value of $3,000.

"I would ask for a ruling as to whether it would be permissible for the House to distribute these tickets to members or employees. Further, I would also ask if it would it be permissible to give each member/employee access to up to three tickets, as the aggregate value would still be less than $25.”

The reference to “a value of $7.50” derives from recitations on the ticket that it is a “Free Ticket—Admit one child 13 years or under” and “$7.50 value.” In addition, the copy of the promotional material transmitted with the tickets was good for a “Free Guest Pass—Admit One Adult” as “our way of saying thank you” to the “employer” for distributing the tickets. According to the circus’s recorded telephone message, the price of an adult ticket is $32. This suggests that in addition to the total value of the children’s tickets, the bulk donation also included the value of a free adult ticket, $32, bringing the total value of the 401 tickets to $3032.

The Committee responds as follows:

Relevant Provisions of Law

RSA 15-B:2, V(a)(2); RSA 15-B:3, I and III

The gist of the issue presented is whether a bulk donation to a legislative office of tickets to an event, with a total value well in excess of $25, constitutes a prohibited gift, even though the individual value of the ticket may be less than $25.

The full value of the bulk donation described in Mr. Moore’s request would be $25 or more, and would plainly fall within the definition of “gift” in RSA 15-B:2, V(a) (2):

“(2) Any other tangible thing, intangible thing, service, or the use thereof having more than insignificant economic value. Any such item with a value of less than $25 is presumed to be of insignificant economic value.”

The conditions for the exception in RSA 15-B:2, V(b)(9) for “Tickets or free admission to a charitable, ceremonial, or political event” would not appear to be met, and no other exception in RSA 15-B:2, V(b) would appear to apply.

It follows that even if the value of the individual tickets were less than $25, the value of the bulk donation of tickets, if $25 or more, to a legislative office for redistribution to members or employees, would appear to be a prohibited gift.

Nothing in RSA 15-B or the Ethics Guidelines distinguishes between gifts to individual legislators and legislative offices, even where the intent of the donor is redistribution to individual legislators or employees. On the contrary, to create such a distinction would open up a new loophole in the law, whereby donors could use substantial gifts to curry favor, merely by enlisting a legislative official, officer or employee to receive the bulk donation, and then act as intermediary for distribution of tickets in amounts less than $25 to individual legislators and employees. This would also require the official or employee to put a value on the individual ticket, and to police distribution so that no individual would receive tickets in excess of that amount. It would also create the appearance of a patronage opportunity for the recipient of the bulk gift.

RSA 15:3, I and III provide:

15-B:3 Prohibition on Gifts.—

I. It shall be unlawful to knowingly give any gift as defined in this chapter, directly or indirectly, to any elected official, public official, public employee, constitutional official, or legislative employee.

***

III. No elected official, public official, public employee, constitutional official, or legislative employee shall knowingly accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, as defined in this chapter.

Accordingly, RSA 15-B:2, V(a)(2) and RSA 15-B:3 are interpreted as prohibiting the making or acceptance of bulk donations of event tickets to a legislative office for redistribution to individual legislators or employees, as well as redistribution of such donations to legislators or employees, unless the value of the bulk donation is less than $25, or the donation otherwise qualifies for a specific exception under RSA 15-B:2, V(b).

For the Committee,
Martin L. Gross
