HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

Three committees have been established over the last several weeks to deal with specific issues. The House Special Committee on a Defined Contribution Retirement Plan for Public Employees (chaired by Rep. Will Smith), the House Special Committee to Review the 2012 Audit of the Guardian ad Litem Board (chaired by Rep. Paul Ingbreton), and the House Special Committee to Evaluate the State Liquor Commission (chaired by Rep. Lynne Ober) are listed on the website. Membership, meeting schedules and pertinent documents may be found there. All three committees are to issue their reports by November 1, 2012.

The Committee on Redress of Grievances has issued its reports and findings with regard to petitions submitted to the Committee. These reports have appeared in the House Calendar for informational purposes and are intended to inform legislators and the public of complaints by citizens against state government, whether those complaints appear to be founded, and possible legislative remedies. The committee does not adjudicate individual disputes; therefore, these reports are limited to proposed legislative remedies.

Incumbent House members who will be on the November ballot may now file legislation for the 2013 Session with the Office of Legislative Services, in accordance with House Rules 35 through 39. This early filing period will end on September 26th. There will be another filing period for all elected Representatives beginning in mid November.

Through the end of this legislative term, legislative mileage will be limited to reimbursement for travel on one day a week to Concord for official legislative or constituent work in addition to those days that members are required to be in Concord for official committee or leadership work. Reimbursement for committee or leadership purposes is limited to service as a member of a policy, chaptered or statutory committee or for Democrat or Republican caucus or legislative leadership. Members should not schedule meetings for Mondays or Fridays, as generally mileage reimbursement will not be permitted on those days.

William L. O'Brien, Speaker
