Please be mindful of the House deadlines for filing proposed legislation for the 2013 session. The last day to file a legislative service request (LSR) – the beginning process of a bill – is December 7.

The Republican Caucus will be held on Thursday, November 15, starting at 4:00 p.m. in Representatives Hall. Prior to the voting portion of the caucus at 6:00 p.m., there will be a presentation and question-and-answer period for Republican candidates and members beginning at 4:00 p.m.

The Democratic Caucus will be held on Saturday, November 17, at 9:00 a.m. in Representatives Hall.

The New Legislator Orientation Program will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, November 28 and 29.

Pursuant to Article 33, Part II of the New Hampshire Constitution, the 2013-2014 General Court will organize on December 5, the first Wednesday in December.

Through the end of this legislative term on December 4, legislative mileage will be limited to reimbursement for travel on one day a week to Concord for official legislative or constituent work in addition to those days that members are required to be in Concord for official committee or leadership work. Reimbursement for committee or leadership purposes is limited to service as a member of a policy, chaptered or statutory committee or for Democrat or Republican caucus or legislative leadership. Members should not schedule meetings for Mondays or Fridays, as generally mileage reimbursement will not be permitted on those days.

NOTICELEGISLATIVE ETHICS COMMITTEE

The Legislative Ethics Committee has voted to issue the following interpretive ruling, which is printed below in its entirety.

INTERPRETIVE RULING 2012-#3(NOVEMBER 14, 2012)

Supplementing Interpretive Ruling 2011-#1 Relating to Obligations of Legislators in Connection with Proposed Petitions for the Redress of Grievances

Further questions have arisen regarding the obligations of legislators in connection with requests from members of the public to present petitions for redress of grievances on their behalf. Specifically, the questions are (1) what obligations legislators may have when asked to include in a Grievance Petition information that involves private health or financial information of third parties, i.e., persons who are not the object of the redress sought by the request; and (2) what obligations legislators may have in connection with dissemination of such information through unofficial channels. The Committee has reviewed applicable provisions of the New Hampshire Constitution, statutes, rules, and Ethics Guidelines governing the conduct of legislators in the performance of their duties as such, and interprets them as follows.

(1) Obligation to exercise caution and due diligence in considering what information should properly be included in a Grievance Petition. Legislators should exercise caution and due diligence about the propriety of including, and the accuracy of, private health or financial information of third parties, i.e., persons who are not the object of the redress sought by the request. Where a request proposes to include such information in a Grievance Petition, it is not sufficient for a legislator simply to include the information as submitted, without exercising independent judgment about whether the information is protected by law from disclosure, whether the information appears to be accurate, and whether including it is necessary to support granting the relief sought in the requested Petition.

(2) Obligation to exercise caution and due diligence in considering whether to further disseminate, through unofficial channels, private health or financial information of third parties contained in Grievance Petitions. Legislators should not further discuss or disseminate such information through unofficial channels without first exercising independent judgment about whether the information is protected by law from disclosure, whether the information appears to be accurate, and whether it is necessary to support granting the relief sought in the Petition.

For the Committee,
Martin L. Gross
Chairman
