HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

There will be no House session on January 16th or January 23rd, so please continue to check upcoming Calendars for future sessions.

Chairmen and Vice Chairmen will meet on Tuesday, January 15th, at 8:30 a.m. in Rooms 305-307 of the Legislative Office Building.

We will be scheduling Continuing Education sessions for Tuesday and Thursday mornings. The topic of the first one is: "Blurb Writing and Parliamentary Inquiries" and will take place on Thursday, January 17th, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. in Rooms 305-307 of the LOB. Please watch for future programs in upcoming Calendars.

State buildings will be closed on Monday, January 21st, in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr./Civil Rights Day.

A recording of the January 9th economic briefings held in the Ways and Means Committee will be accessible on the Ways and Means website.

An audio recording of the January 10th presentation by Dr. Doug Marlow on addiction and drug courts will be accessible on the House home page.

Since it is early in the session, there has understandably been some confusion regarding the procedure for receiving mileage reimbursement.

For those of you who use the federal option, you must sign your name on the travel register located in the Speaker's Office or the lobby of the LOB to verify that you personally drove to the State House. On session days there is also a sheet in the back of the Hall for your convenience. If you have forgotten to sign in, you can sign a slip in the Speaker's Office for that particular day the next time you are in Concord and the information will be submitted to Legislative Accounting for reimbursement. Simply signing your name on a committee attendance sheet does not meet the requirement for the federal option.

If you have chosen the state option, you need to be checked in on the state sheet also located in the same areas, but you are not required to sign your name. It is strongly recommended that you check in at one of those sites, rather than solely relying on your record of attendance in committee being transferred to the Speaker's Office. On session days, legislators on the state system do not have to be checked in.

In closing, please try to keep in mind our legislative deadlines when scheduling travel or personal time away from the Legislature.

Terie Norelli, Speaker
