GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE REGARDING HB 403

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on July 12, 2013, I vetoed House Bill 403, establishing a committee to study end of life decisions.

With any discussion of the complex and emotional issues related to end-of-life decisions, our focus must always be first and foremost on helping all of those in our society to fully live their lives with the dignity that they deserve.

In New Hampshire, we have approached these issues very seriously and thoughtfully, always seeking to include the input of those who understand these issues best: doctors, patients, advocates for the elderly and those who experience chronic conditions or disabilities, and the people of New Hampshire.

This thoughtful process has already produced important laws, including New Hampshire's advanced directive statute (RSA 137-J). In fact, I have just signed into law SB 170, which sought input from numerous stakeholders, ranging from medical community, patients, advocates for the elderly and people who experience disabilities, the religious community and many others, in order to clarify New Hampshire's advance directive statute.

Therefore, I see no need for the study committee outlined by HB 403 and have vetoed the legislation.

Respectfully submitted,
Margaret Wood Hassan
Governor

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE REGARDING HB 505

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on July 16, 2013, I vetoed House Bill 505, relative to the economic development advisory council.

Creating jobs and spurring innovative economic growth are among our highest priorities, but to do so effectively we must ensure that the voices of all stakeholders, from business to local communities to our workers, are represented at the table.

When the state's economic development advisory council was established in 2008, we sought to ensure that diverse voices, representing people and businesses across New Hampshire, were informing the work of the Division of Economic Development at the Department of Resources and Economic Development. We must work together, and have all voices at the table, to move our state's economy forward.

It is clear that those who worked on and supported HB 505 were well-intentioned in seeking to improve the work of the Economic Development Advisory Council, and changes may be necessary to streamline the work of the council. But this bill as passed could lead to the exclusion of important viewpoints, most notably New Hampshire's workers, who have a crucial stake in New Hampshire's economic development and economic future.

I believe we can improve the advisory council's work to strengthen New Hampshire's economic development efforts in a way that maintains input from as wide a range of stakeholders as possible, and I am willing to work with the Legislature to do so. However HB 505 as written does not do enough to include the voices of all those who have a role in economic development, and I therefore have vetoed the legislation.

Respectfully submitted,
Margaret Wood Hassan
Governor
