HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

The next House session will be at the call of the chair.

If members know of local clergy who would be interested in serving as guest chaplains for an upcoming House session, please contact the House Clerk for more information. Also, please notify the House Clerk if you have constituents or groups of students interested in performing the National Anthem on a session day.

For new members, and as a reminder to returning members, please check your mail slots in the back of Representatives Hall on a regular basis. These slots are used for in-house communications and messages to members from outside groups who have received permission to have materials put into the slots. Members who wish to distribute lightweight informational materials to your colleagues may do so. If you would like to distribute materials to more than 30 members, please contact the Speaker's Office for permission. The slots are not big enough to accommodate large volumes of materials from several sources, so your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

In a continued effort to keep travel costs down, I ask that you please limit your trips to Concord to Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Reimbursement for Mondays and Fridays will be approved for members of statutory committees which meet on those days and for members who have received prior approval from the Speaker.

With the House vote on January 4, 2017, to oppose the proposed amendment to House Rule 30, the Committee on Children and Family Law will remain an active standing committee. The committee members have now been assigned and are listed in this Calendar.

State offices will be closed on Monday, January 16, 2017, in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr./Civil Rights Day.

Shawn N. Jasper, Speaker
