HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

I would like to thank everyone for your cooperation during this uncertain time. COVID-19 knows no boundaries and has brought us together to work cooperatively for the good of our citizens. The people of New Hampshire constantly see the political bickering in Washington, D.C. They occasionally see it happening here in the Granite State. But the message for the people of New Hampshire is simply this: We may disagree with each other on politics and policy, but when it comes to the public safety of the people of New Hampshire, we in the New Hampshire House are united for the common good of those we serve.

Let me take a moment to recognize our dedicated staff. The legislature has some of the most skilled and committed employees who help us every day, but during these unprecedented times, our staff have really stepped up to the plate. Our General Court Technical Services crew did an outstanding job preparing us technically. Most of our staff are continuing to work remotely from their homes and are available to answer your questions; just send them an email.

As you know, the Senate President and I have made the historic decision to suspend all legislative activities. At this point in time, we are uncertain when we will resume legislative business. We will continue to govern with the best interests of our citizens in mind. I thank you again for your patience and understanding as we move forward.

Stephen J. Shurtleff, Speaker
