HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

Next week will be another exciting first for the New Hampshire House of Representatives as we will hold our first public hearings. Adding this piece of public involvement has been a challenge and I am once again so proud of our staff and members who have stepped up to help us with this challenge.

For the purposes of permitting the House standing committees to meet and conduct public hearings by means of remote participation, I have made the following determination regarding procedure. Persons wishing to testify on a bill and/or submit testimony must complete the requirements described in the notice of the public hearing. Notwithstanding House Rule 109 (a), testimony may be submitted electronically and will be made a part of the public record. These specific requirements relating to public hearings are in addition to the determination as detailed in the House Calendar of April 17, 2020.

I also know that many of you still have questions about our session on the 11th. Please know we are working closely with UNH and the town of Durham and will be providing detailed updates and instructions as soon as we have all of that information together.

Thank you all as always for your hard work.

Stephen J. Shurtleff, Speaker of the House

NOTICE

While we do not have specific rules on how to dress for committee meetings, members are reminded that even during remote committee meetings we are a reflection of the New Hampshire House of Representatives, and are asked to please remember to dress appropriately.

NOTICE

Remote meeting information and any updates will be posted on the front page of the General Court Website:
<http://www.gencourt.state.nh.us/>

2020 HOUSE DEADLINES

Pursuant to the recently adopted House Rule 65 (b), the deadlines listed below will be reasonably amended by the Speaker with the concurrence of the Democratic and Republican leaders.
