HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

Colleagues and friends, I did not anticipate having to write a message to you, believing in full confidence that my friend of the last twelve years would be capably handling this task over the biennium. I am sad to say that is not the case. For the first time in the history of our body, we have lost a presiding officer while we were in session. This is uncharted territory, and we must proceed respectfully, and in a manner befitting the memory of our friend, and the integrity of our institution. The passing of Speaker Richard W. Hinch will affect many of us, in many ways, and there will be resources made available to those that need them. Cathy Thornton from the office of the Employee Assistance Program is available for members and staff to speak to, and she can be reached at 271-4336.

The House will be meeting on Wednesday, January 6 at the University of New Hampshire. Among the responsibilities for the day will be to elect a new Speaker, adopt rules for the biennium, introduce bills, and other various tasks. Working with the Clerk, the University, the Department of Public Health, the Senate, and others, we will ensure that this meeting proceeds safely. To that end, permanent seating will not be made at this time so that we can meet in a socially distanced and safe manner.

As government continues through pandemics and untimely deaths, we will continue to handle certain administrative tasks until a new Speaker is chosen on January 6th. The House Rules Committee will meet next Wednesday to entertain amendments to the rules for this biennium. Members wishing to submit amendments must have them to the Clerk of the House for proper formatting and development by close of business the day prior to the meeting so that the members will have time to consider them. Standing committee assignments will be made in the coming days, and there may be changes made after the sixth, but it is our hope that we can begin committee work almost immediately after session commences.

I know there is concern over how the House may be operating over the next few months, and those plans will be discussed and acted on with your safety, and those of our excellent staff, in mind.

I want to echo what Speaker Hinch said in his only notice to the House last week, "We have some significant challenges ahead of us. We need to get the people's work done in the midst of a public health emergency. It won't be easy, but I believe we can meet our goals and deadlines while putting health and safety first. Let's buckle down. Let's get to work. Let us lead by example. Let's conquer these challenges together."

Sherman A. Packard, Acting Speaker of the House

NOTICE FROM THE CLERK

Pursuant to RSA 14:2-a, it is my obligation to inform you that the House will vote to elect a new Speaker from among its members on Wednesday, January 6th when the House meets in session at the University of New Hampshire. Further information will be forthcoming.

Paul C. Smith, Clerk of the House

OFFICIAL NOTICES

Legislators and staff are invited to a webinar on “The Healthcare Workforce in New Hampshire: Challenges, Opportunities, and Actionable Strategies” hosted by the Community College System of New Hampshire, Wednesday, Dec. 16 at 10 AM. RSVP for Zoom information and passcode at this link: <https://tinyurl.com/yyaprxvq> . The panel will feature representatives from our community college system, policy-makers and the healthcare field discussing current and future healthcare needs and seeking perspectives from attendees on how NH’s community colleges and other entities can meet those needs. For questions please contact kcarlson@ccsnh.edu.

Rep. Rick Ladd
