HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

I would like to reassure you that it was Speaker Hinch's sincere intent to have committee assignments published in this week's calendar. Given the shock and grief following his untimely passing, we determined that it would be best to wait to make these announcements, and allow proper time to review requests and qualifications. I know my friend would have wanted to do the absolute best job placing you where your value and productivity would be maximized. This increased time will allow for that process to take place rather than rush through it during a time of unprecedented challenges. The plan is to tentatively publish those assignments, along with seating, in the calendar that will be published on Wednesday, December 30th.

You may have seen reports that we are exploring a "drive-in" type of session for January 6th. While this is one avenue we are looking at, I want to assure you that the health and safety of legislators and staff are our priority, no matter where we meet.

It is my opinion, in talking with our staff, that we are not prepared to run an election for speaker or conduct our business for adopting rules in a remote meeting or hybrid situation, nor do our rules allow for it. A drive-in type of event will satisfy our need to meet in-person for the purpose of balloting and voting. It will dramatically reduce or even eliminate the need to interact with each other. We will be protected from unnecessary risk and from the elements by our vehicles, and we will meet or exceed every CDC and Public Health recommendation.

As a reminder, large indoor gatherings, no matter the size of the venue, come with inherent risks, and are discouraged by public health experts. Out of respect for my friend, Speaker Hinch, I cannot reasonably ask you to put yourself in harm's way to represent your constituents.

The House will meet in Joint Convention with the Senate on Thursday, January 7th, for the inauguration of Governor Sununu. This session will take place in front of the State House, on the plaza, in a socially distanced manner. Seating will be limited, so we are asking you to please notify the Clerk if you plan to attend so that a seat may be reserved for you. While this is a session, we undertake no legislative business on the day.

Please note that state offices will be closed on Friday, December 25th, and Friday, January 1, 2021.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your loved ones a very safe and happy holiday. While this holiday season will be unlike any we may have experienced before, I hope that you are able to enjoy moments of peace and comfort.

Sherman A. Packard, Acting Speaker of the House
