HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

The next House session will be at the call of the chair.

Appointments to the three special committees are published in this week's calendar.

Thank you to those who attended the training for legislators and supervisory staff on sexual harassment and discrimination prevention. We had a good turnout, and we hope you found this training helpful and informative. We anticipate having future trainings on this important topic and other topics throughout the term.

With committee meetings now being scheduled, I urge you to review the House Calendars each week so you will know when your committees will be meeting, to track legislation you have sponsored, or to see which bills might be of particular interest to you or your constituents. I also want to stress to our new members the importance of your participation at committee hearings. Learning about the subject matter and gathering input from the public will help you to make informed decisions in judging the value or necessity of pending legislation.

For planning purposes, barring any unforeseen issues, it is my plan that during the week of February 27 - March 3, which coincides with New Hampshire schools' winter recess, we will have no House session. If committees are caught up on their business, Chairs may choose to limit meetings or keep their meetings to public hearings only. This is contingent upon committees being on or ahead of schedule.

As a reminder, state offices will be closed on Monday, January 16th in observance of Martin Luther King Jr. / Civil Rights Day.

I'm very much looking forward to a successful session.

Sherman A. Packard, Speaker of the House
