HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

The House will meet on Thursday, April 6th at 9:00 a.m., which is the deadline to act on all House Bills.

Members are reminded to wear their security pin, name badge, or both when here on official business, especially on session days, when our sergeant-at-arms staff must be able to discern who is entering Representatives Hall.

I'd like to remind you all that generations of legislators before us were able to act in a dignified and professional manner even in times of great controversy. We, as they did, have the great honor and opportunity to use our platform and lead by example. Modeling civility and decency is more important than ever. Our Ethics Guidelines, Principles of Public Service (paragraph IV), appropriately require us to "...treat each other, legislative employees, and the public with dignity and respect." Please, colleagues, at all times, regardless of our differences, be respectful of each other, and be respectful of our hard-working and dedicated staff.

I'd also like to ask members to consider how proper attire when here on official business is important to dignify the office you hold and the work we do on behalf of the state and our constituents.

Sherman A. Packard, Speaker of the House
