HOUSE CALENDAR

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE:

For your planning purposes, we do not expect another House Session in the month of April. Please tentatively reserve Thursdays in the month of May for one or more session days, with Thursday, May 4th being our next likely session day.

Membership of the Special Committee on the Family Division of the Circuit Court is published in this calendar. Also a special notice and disclosure relative to the committee and its work is published in this calendar. If you choose to participate in or monitor the Special Committee meetings please read the notice thoroughly.

You should have received a copy of our Legislator Mileage Reimbursement Policy by postal mail. This was sent to you to be a one source reference guide for mileage reimbursement-related RSAs and friendly reminders pertaining to mileage reimbursement.

Please note that House Rule 106 states that, "Members of a committee, regardless of co-sponsoring legislation, may either testify or participate in questioning during a hearing, but not both."

Members are reminded that placement or distribution of materials in the anteroom or member mailboxes in the anteroom requires preapproval from the Speaker's Office. This applies to session days and when the Hall is in use for public hearings.

Also as a reminder, Members should not occupy another's assigned parking space around the State House or LOB. Assigned spaces around the State House and LOB are assigned to members with medical needs. Continued violations related to parking will not be taken lightly. If you choose to park in a non-legislative city space, this is at your own expense. Members who receive parking tickets from the city of Concord are responsible for paying those fines.

Special Committee on the Family Division of the Circuit Court

Notice and Disclaimer

The Special Committee on the Family Division of the Circuit Court was formed to investigate allegations of irregularities, including failure to follow or enforce statutes, unwarranted waiver of or failure to follow court rules, delay in rendering decisions, denial of due process, and other procedural issues.

The committee will conduct hearings relative to the process of the family division of the Circuit Court and may make recommendations for future legislation.

The purpose of the committee is to discover areas where changes in procedures or changes in law regarding the Family Division of the Circuit Court might be made. The purpose of this special committee is not to re-try the cases of citizens who disagree with the outcome of litigation.

Members of the public will be given the opportunity to testify and present information to the committee. Because of the number of people who may wish to testify, there may be a time limit imposed on each person testifying, which is permissible under House Rule 100.

Appropriate subject matter for testifying will be limited to specific instances of where there seemed to be irregularities in process, procedure, or adherence to rules and statutes.

Those testifying about subject matter related to a court case, or who submit documentation related to a court case should know that both will be made part of the public record.

Therefore, subject matter that is either confidential or may be under seal should not be discussed or submitted to the committee, as disclosure of such matters would be a violation of statute or a court order.

The committee reserves the right to not accept written or oral testimony or materials which would, in its judgment, violate the foregoing.
