HOUSE JOURNAL No. 4

Wednesday, January 31, 2007

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

His Excellency, Governor John H. Lynch, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Jared A. Rardin, Pastor of the South Congregational Church in Concord.

O God, every now and then, like the first glimpse of a mountaintop sunrise or the spray from a freshly-torn grapefruit, Your presence bursts out into the most common of moments and we rub our eyes and scratch our head and marvel at just how much of You we miss seeing everyday.

O God of irrepressible newness and life, grant to us here gathered a freshly new sense of Your presence. Teach us to place our trust in that which is possible and to lead from the places of our deepest hopes. We pray for one another, regardless of position or party. Bless us in the session ahead with a sense of common purpose. And bless those among us, among our families and among the people of New Hampshire who find themselves in need of Your care this day. In Your Holy name we pray. Amen.

I Catherine Hackett, currently a member of the New Hampshire General Court representing Hillsborough County District 9, am writing today to inform you that I have just recently moved from my residence to another residence which is located in Manchester Ward 6.

Therefore, in accordance with New Hampshire law, I am formally submitting to you my resignation from the New Hampshire House of Representatives.

COMMITTEE REPORTS CONSENT CALENDAR

Rep. Wallner moved that the Consent Calendar as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

HB 87, relative to the exceptions to compulsory school attendance, removed by Rep. Sorg. Consent Calendar adopted.

HB 33, relative to the compensation of members of the county convention. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Andy R. Peterson for Municipal and County Government: This bill repeals an outdated provision in the mileage reimbursement for participation by delegates in county conventions and was unanimously seen as an appropriate update to the statutes. Vote 19-0.

HB 70, including nonresident property owners who are veterans and at least 65 years of age in the persons qualified to receive the veterans' property tax credit. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Eric G. Stohl for Municipal and County Government: The purpose of this bill is to allow nonresident property owners who are at least 65 years of age and have owned their property for at least 25 consecutive years to become qualified to receive the veteran's property tax credit in this state. This bill fails to restrict the credit qualifications to one municipality and does not provide a definition of “nonresident.” This term could refer to someone from another town within the state, not necessarily from another state. There wasn’t any reference to reciprocity in the bill for residents of New Hampshire to receive the same benefits in other states for the granting of the credit in this state. The committee unanimously agreed that passing this bill would shift additional tax burden onto other taxpayers within the municipality unfairly. Vote 18-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 53, relative to school health personnel. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Charles B. Yeaton for Education: The bill clarifies the language of the current education statute relative to school nurses consistent with the Nurse Practice Act. The bill removes the word "direct" from the education statute and simply refers to the word "supervision." There is no longer a definition of the word "direct" in the Nurse Practice Act. Vote 12-2.

Committee report adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

HB 39, repealing the penalty provision in discretionary preservation easements.

MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Andy R. Peterson for the Majority of Municipal and County Government: The majority of the committee voted in favor of this bill which removes the option for communities to impose up to a 10% penalty upon the expiration of discretionary preservation easements. These easements of 10 or more years duration are designed to provide a reduced assessment, negotiated between 25% or 75% of full valuation, with the community or an individual basis for the purpose of preserving and maintaining historic barn structures. The change will remove a troublesome “catch-22” in the current law which testimony revealed has depressed interest of otherwise willing historic barn owners to participate in this program, in which approximately 260 parties statewide have participated since the original bill was passed in 2002. The ability of communities to levy penalties for early withdrawal or breach of the preservation agreement, including failure to upkeep the property, would however remain in effect. In order to increase the power of this tool to retain an important part of our history and preserve structures which beautify our state, the majority agrees with the NH Preservation Alliance and the NH Director of Historical Resources and others who appeared before us that the bill be made law. Vote 11-8.

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for the Minority of Municipal and County Government: A discretionary preservation easement is entitled to a partial exemption from property taxes during the life of the easement. For a public benefit a private benefit is given. The taxpayer is granted a reduction of the assessed value on the preserved building and the land supporting that building within a range of 25 to 75 percent of the fair market value for a period no less than ten years. This lowers the tax burden on the easement holder by shifting the cost to the rest of the taxpayers in the municipality. The governing body of a town and an individual easement holder may negotiate the terms of the easement including an option of a payment not to exceed 10 percent of the fair market value prior to the town accepting the easement. Currently when the easement runs out both parties are able to negotiate for either renewal or expiration. If either event happens the municipality is entitled to recoup the agreed upon amount. The discretionary easement statute RSA 79D has only been in effect for four years. Consequently we have no history of non renewals making the repeal premature. Removing this payment is reneging on a sworn duty made by the governing body to watch over and protect the community assets. Is it fair that one taxpayer gets a tax benefit while the rest of the community pays for that benefit without even having an opportunity to vote on the granting of easements? The minority feels that repealing this payment would cause an increase in property taxes at the local level. Is this the intent of RSA 79D? The minority does not believe so. The minority also agrees with the New Hampshire Municipal Association who on behalf of New Hampshire cities and towns testified in opposition to this repeal.

Rep. Stohl spoke against.

Rep. Patten spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Peterson and Theberge spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Kurk requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

REMARKS

Rep. Bettencourt: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Honorable Members of the General Court, it is earnestly regrettable that I must rise this afternoon to begin this new term on a sad note. This past October, the Salem community and the State of New Hampshire lost another of its finest citizens; we lost another of our heroes.

On October 6, 2006, Nicholas Arvanitis, of the U.S. Army's 3rd Brigade, 82nd Airborne Division was killed by small arms gunfire while on a mission near Bayji, Iraq. He was 22 years old. Cpl. Arvanitis lived his entire life in Salem and graduated from Salem High School in 2003. During his time at SHS he was a member of the school's baseball and soccer teams and a prominent member of the school's championship wrestling team his senior year. He was also an accomplished guitarist, turning down a scholarship to the Berklee College of Music in Boston to enlist in the Army after the terrorist attacks of September 11. Madam Speaker, on two prior occasions I have risen before this House with the unwelcome duty to recognize and give tribute to a Salem native who has given "the last full measure of devotion." But on those prior occasions, I have had the benefit of having had no personal emotional bonds to the brave men lost. I enjoy no such benefit in this instance. For in addition to being of great courage, of great leadership, and of great altruism, Nick Arvanitis was a dear friend.

While preparing these remarks I did not need to confer with a family member or a mutual friend. I need only close my eyes and reflect. Memory at times can be a decidedly fickle mistress, but it is not so when I think of Nick. We first became friends when we attended elementary and middle school together and then had the privilege to play three years in town league baseball; in retrospect you could tell early on he was a special person. He had a personality that filled a room with warmth and energy. His convictions were strong, always firmly argued and were as straight as the columns of this hall. A story that embodies Nick's caliber of person was that he joined the Army prior to turning 18, insisting that his mother sign the consent forms. He told his grandmother, "I'm going for a good cause. I want to make you, Grampy and America safe." After serving in Afghanistan last year, he was ordered to return home this spring to become a recruiter. He refused, demanding a mission in Iraq; he lost his life two months later. He believed in freedom and sought to guard it wherever he felt it was threatened, that's simply who he was. He leaves behind his mother, Maureen, his sister Kimberly, and two sets of grandparents. May we forever be grateful for the sacrifice of Cpl. Arvanitis and all of New Hampshire's fallen heroes who have given their lives to keep us safe and free. May we always be sure to differentiate between the political views of war and the brave men and women who take on the mission. May we hold them and their families in our hearts and our prayers. Salem and the State of New Hampshire have lost a great citizen, the Arvanitis family has lost a great son, grandson and brother and I have lost a dear friend. God Bless Cpl. Nicholas Arvanitis and the State and Country he loved. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

MOMENT OF SILENCE

A moment of silence was observed in honor and memory of Cpl. Nicholas Arvanitis.
