

HOUSE RECORD

2010 SPECIAL SESSION

HOUSE JOURNAL NO. 1

Wednesday, June 9, 2010

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., on the date set in the Call for Special Session of the House by the Governor, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Jared Rardin, Pastor of the South Congregational Church in Concord.

As we begin today, O God, this day which comes toward the end of a long session filled with responsibilities, headaches, opportunities and disappointments, we are mindful that there are many among us here today who are carrying additional burdens, especially the burden of caring for parents who are ailing, aging, and for some, drawing near to death. Hold, we pray, our colleagues in Your special care today and companion them in their times of hardship. We pray that You would surprise them with moments of lightness and laughter and gratitude. Be with those around the world who are suffering hardships today. Be with the people of Haiti and the people of Guatemala. Be with the people along the Gulf Coast and those on all sides who struggle with issues of immigration along our southern border. Be also with us today, O God, as we seek to pull together and craft a healthy, working budget. Let hope and principle guide our thoughts. Let today, we pray, be a day of bridge-building and working together. We offer to You our thanks for our Speaker and her staff, for leaders from both sides of the aisle, for the Clerk and her staff and for all who have worked on special committees this session and the ways in which they have all supported the goals of this legislature. We will admit, O God, that we long for the easier pace of summer and we anticipate returning to other parts of our lives that are often neglected. But as we prepare to do so, let us not go entirely off duty in a spiritual sense. Help us with refreshed eyes and minds to notice anew not only the programs that will need creating or tweaking next session. Help us to notice a glimmer of You in those we meet along the way and to recommit ourselves to doing what will benefit not only us, but the least of these among us, for it is often most in them that we encounter You most fully. In Your Holy name we pray. Amen.

Representative Pamela Price, member from Nashua, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was sung by everyone present.

With 338 members having answered the call, the Chair declared a quorum present.

SPEAKER'S REMARKS ON RETIRING MEMBERS

This is very likely, for some of you, the last time that you will be in Session in the House. I would ask all members who will not be running again in November to please stand and let the rest of us thank you for your service to the State of New Hampshire. Thank you all for your service and good luck. In the future, I'm sure that you will continue to find ways to serve the people of New Hampshire as you have been doing.

ADOPTION OF RULES

Reps. Wallner and Packard moved that the House adopt the Rules for the 2010 Special Session, as proposed by the Rules Committee.

2010 SPECIAL SESSION HOUSE RULES

DUTIES OF THE SPEAKER

1. The Speaker shall take the chair at precisely the hour to which the House has adjourned and shall immediately call the members to order.
2. The Speaker shall preserve decorum and order, may speak on points of order in preference to other members, and shall decide questions of order. The decision of the Speaker on a question of order shall be conclusive unless the decision is immediately appealed to the House. The House shall decide the appeal by a majority vote of those members present and voting.
3. The Speaker shall appoint all committees unless otherwise directed by the House.
4. The Speaker may refer all bills, resolutions, memorials, accounts, and other matters coming before the House to a committee, unless otherwise ordered by the House. The Speaker may refer the same jointly to two committees or to a special committee.
5. The Speaker shall not be called on to vote unless the vote would be decisive. If the vote is tied after the Speaker has voted, the question shall be lost.
6. The Speaker shall sign all bills, resolutions, and addresses after passage or enrollment. All warrants, subpoenas and other processes issued by order of the House shall be signed by the Speaker and attested to by the Clerk.
7. The Speaker or chairman of the committee of the whole House shall have the power to order the gallery cleared in cases of any disturbance or disorderly conduct.
8. The Speaker shall have power to substitute any member to perform the duties of the Chair. If absent, the Speaker shall designate a member to perform the duties of the Chair unless otherwise ordered by the House.

DECORUM AND DEBATE

9. When the House is called to order, members shall take their seats and shall activate their voting stations immediately. When they leave their seats for any reason they shall deactivate their stations.
10. In all cases not provided for by the Constitution, House Special Session Rules or Joint Special Session Rules, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure, 2000 Edition, shall be the parliamentary guide. Rules may be amended by majority vote prior to adoption by the House.

11. When any member is about to speak in debate, make a motion, or deliver any matter to the House, the member shall rise from his or her seat and respectfully address the Speaker, declaring the purpose for which the member rises to speak.

12. In all cases the member rising first shall speak first. When two or more members rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the person to speak. When many members choose to speak, they may file their names with the Clerk, who shall supply the list to the Speaker. The Speaker shall name the order in which the members shall speak.

13. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without permission from the House. No member shall speak more than once until every member choosing to speak has spoken.

14. While the Speaker is putting a question or addressing the House, no one shall walk out of or across the House. While a member is speaking, no one shall pass between that member and the other members of the House, nor shall anyone engage in private conversation.

15. If any member transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call the member to order. The member called to order shall immediately sit down and the question of order shall be distinctly stated by the Speaker.

16. In all instances, every member shall act in conformance with the duly adopted New Hampshire General Court Ethics Guidelines and opinions of the Legislative Ethics Committee.

17. (a) The following persons shall be admitted within the door of the Representatives' chamber or anteroom while the House is in session: House members and officers, the Governor, Council members, the Secretary of State, the Treasurer, the President of the Senate and the Senate Clerks.

(b) No other person shall be admitted within the door of the Representatives' chamber or anteroom while the House is in session, except with the permission of the Speaker.

18. After a motion is stated by the Speaker, it shall be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before an amendment.

19. (a) When any question is under debate, precedence of motions shall be as follows:

- (1) to adjourn;
- (2) to lay on the table;
- (3) for the previous question;
- (4) to postpone to a certain day;
- (5) to commit;
- (6) to amend;
- (7) to postpone indefinitely.

Motions to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, and to take from the table shall be decided without debate. A motion to postpone to a certain day shall be debatable both as to time and subject matter.

(b) When a question is postponed indefinitely, that question shall not be acted on during the same session, unless two-thirds of those members present and voting vote in favor thereof.

(c) No new motion shall be admitted under color of amendment as a substitute for the motion under debate.

20. (a) The Speaker shall put the previous question in the following form: "Shall debate now be limited?" and all debate on the main question shall be suspended until the previous question has been decided. After the adoption of the previous question, the sense of the House shall forthwith be taken on pending amendments, in their regular order, and then on the main question.

(b) All incidental questions of order arising after a motion of the previous question and related to the subjects affected by the order of the previous question shall be decided without debate.

(c) If the previous question is decided in the negative, it shall not again be in order for the particular question under consideration until after adjournment, but the main question shall be left before the House and disposed of as though the previous question had not been put.

21. There shall be three forms of deciding the question: voice vote, division vote, roll call vote. No member shall vote in any case if the member is not present when the question is put.

(a) The question put by voice vote shall be: "All those in favor of the question say 'aye,'" and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "Those of a contrary opinion say 'no.'"

(b) A division vote shall be taken if the Speaker doubts the voice vote or if a member calls for a division vote. When a division of the House is taken, the Speaker may appoint a teller for each seating division of the House, who shall report to the Chair the state of the vote.

(c) A roll call shall be taken when a member moves for a roll call vote and that motion is seconded by 10 other members. The member requesting the roll call vote and the 10 members who second the motion shall notify the clerk in writing or shall rise from their seats or otherwise be recognized by the Speaker. Whenever a roll call vote is requested and properly seconded, members shall enter the chamber to take their seats and the question shall then be put to the House.

(d) When a division or a roll call is taken, the Speaker shall put the question and open the voting stations for not more than 30 seconds. Each member present at his or her voting station shall press either the YES (Green) or NO (Red) button unless excused by the House for a special reason. After closing the vote, the Speaker shall rise and state the decision of the House.

22. In case of a tie vote, the question shall be lost.

23. No member shall leave his or her seat while the voting machine is in use and until the Speaker announces the result of the vote.

24. No vote shall be reconsidered unless the motion for reconsideration is made by a member who voted with the prevailing side prior to third reading.

25. When the reading of a paper or a document is objected to by a member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the House without debate.

26. All members shall attend to their duties in the House or committee, and no one shall be absent from the service of the House or committee unless the member has leave, or is sick and unable to attend.

COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

27. There shall be a Subcommittee on Enrolled Bills to carefully examine each bill, enroll it, and report it, on behalf of the committee, to the body. If the examination of a bill shall disclose any clerical error or formal imperfection, it shall be reported back to the body with such amendments as are required to correct the same; and any measures so reported shall be subjected to amendment in those particulars and in no other respect.

28. There shall be a Committee on Rules to consider all matters pertaining to House procedural rules and deadlines, to recommend rules of proper debate and to approve introduction of bills.

BILLS

29. Bills may be drafted and introduced only on approval by a majority of the Rules Committee.

30. Enactment of laws, as provided in the Call for the Special Session, shall be by bill. No bill shall be introduced into the House the subject matter of which is not included in the Call or was not under consideration during the committee of conference on HB 1128 and SB 450 during the 2010 legislative session excepting appropriations to fund audits and provisions relating to matters of municipal finance, bonds or notes, and posting of warrants or warrant articles.

31 .(a) All memorials and other papers addressed to the House and all bills and resolutions to be introduced in the House, except those house resolutions not taking a policy position which are prepared by the Clerk of the House, shall be delivered or caused to be delivered to the Office of Legislative Services by the member presenting them. The Office of Legislative Services shall prepare those bills, resolutions, petitions, memorials and other papers in proper form and shall present them to the member(s) for signature. Legislative Services shall give precedence in drafting legislation to any measure which carries a fiscal note and all such legislation shall be prepared for signature by the sponsor.

(b) All bills, resolutions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House, shall be endorsed with the name and the district of the legislator presenting them. All legislation shall be numbered serially according to type of legislation introduced. Each bill shall be marked on the first page "Special Session House Bill"; each joint resolution shall be marked "Special Session House Joint Resolution"; other concurrent resolutions shall be marked "Special Session House Concurrent Resolution"; and each house resolution shall be marked "Special Session House Resolution."

(c) No LSR number shall be assigned and no House bill shall be drafted unless the LSR or bill has a House sponsor. No more than 5 House members shall be allowed to sponsor any bill or floor amendment. No more than 5 Senate members shall be allowed to co-sponsor legislation originating in the House.

(d) If a drafting request for a bill or resolution, filed with the Office of Legislative Services, requires a fiscal note as provided in RSA 14:44-47, the substance or a draft of the proposal may be provided to the Legislative Budget Assistant for preparation of the required fiscal note without the specific consent of the sponsor of the proposal.

32. All joint resolutions shall be treated in the same manner as bills.

33. After each bill has been numbered, the Clerk shall procure a sufficient number of copies for distribution.

34. An informational session shall be held on any bill approved by the House Rules Committee to be introduced in the Special Session to allow members of the public and the General Court to comment on said proposal. The Speaker may authorize the informational session to be conducted jointly with the Senate

35. (a) No amendment shall be made until the second reading of a bill. All amendments to bills shall be prepared by the Office of Legislative Services, with the name of the member and the district represented by the member or the name of the policy committee proposing the amendment.

(b) No amendment shall be added to any bill, resolution, joint resolution or concurrent resolution which is not germane to the subject matter of the legislative document.

36. No standing rule of the House Special Session shall be suspended unless two-thirds of the members present vote in favor thereof. A motion to suspend the rules is debatable.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

37. (a) The order of business in the early session shall be as follows:

1. Prayer by the Chaplain, pledge of allegiance and leaves of absence if received before the start of the legislative day;
2. Introduction of guests;
3. Introduction, first and second reading of bills;
4. Messages from the Senate, the Governor and the Secretary of State;
5. Resolutions, motions and notices;
6. Adjournment from the early session.

(b) The order of business in the late session shall be as follows:

1. Third reading of bills, resolutions and joint resolutions;
2. Resolutions and motions;
3. Personal privilege.
4. Adjournment to a date certain.

(c) The order of business listed in this rule shall be adhered to unless otherwise ordered by a majority of those members of the House present and voting.

(d) Leaves of absence may be granted by the House at any time.

OFFICERS AND PERSONNEL

38. The elected and appointed non-member officers and personnel of the House shall be under the direction of the Speaker, who shall define their duties not fixed by statute or otherwise ordered by the House.

39. No officer or employee of the House during the session or any adjournment thereof shall purchase or contract to purchase, pay or promise to pay any sum of money on behalf of the House or issue any requisition or manifest without securing the approval in writing of the Speaker of the House or designee.

40. The Speaker may appoint an individual trained and experienced in security matters or law enforcement work, who, under the supervision and direction of the Speaker, shall prevent the deliberations of the House from being disrupted or interfered with by any person or persons not members thereof.

41. No employee or attaché of the House Sergeant-at-Arms shall, directly or indirectly, be personally involved with or attempt to influence the passage or consideration of any measure whatsoever. If any such employee or attaché becomes involved with any such measure, it shall be grounds for summary dismissal.

MISCELLANEOUS

42. Criminal Records Fund, RSA 106-B:7, II	$250,000
Motorcycle Rider Safety Fund, RSA 263:34-e	$100,000
Police standards and training council training fund, RSA 188-F:30	$1,000,000
Greenhouse gas emissions reduction fund, RSA 125-O:23	$3,100,000

II.(a) The statewide public boat access program is funded by a $5 charge added to each boat or canoe registration. These fees are held in the dedicated fund for statewide public boat access administered by the fish and game department to support and carry out the state's public access mission for our lakes, seacoast, and rivers.

(b) RSA 233-A:13 establishes the $5 public access fee for public bodies of water, as defined since 1901 in RSA 271:20. The $5 fee assessed to all boats and canoes is to be used for public boat access and not transferred to other purposes as revenue by the general court and the governor.

(c) In New Hampshire, the sportsmen and sportswomen fund the fish and game department, including services provided by other departments for which the fish and game department is billed and required to pay. The only money received by the department from the state's general fund is a dollar-for-dollar match for the nongame species account donations up to a maximum of $50,000 a year.

(d) New Hampshire desperately needs more public boat access for working men and women who are not able to afford property on the state's lakes and rivers.

(e) The general court finds that because the state will lose the 3-to-1 federal match for state dollars for public boat access if any sums are transferred from the statewide public boat access fund, no such transfer of funds from the statewide public boat access fund established in RSA 233-A:13 is authorized.

Rep. Coffey spoke in favor.

Rep. Foster spoke against.

Rep. Coffey requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

Adopted.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Borden, Wendelboe, L'Heureux, Schuett, Clemons, W. Douglas Scamman, Larry Brown, Walz and Leishman addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Belvin moved that the remarks by Rep. Borden be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

REMARKS

Rep. Borden: Thank you, Madam Speaker and thank you, beloved colleagues. Three weeks ago, the New Hampshire House celebrated the life of the Marquis de Lafayette. It was a fitting tribute to a man who tipped the scales when we faced a perilous and uncertain time. In her new book, Citizens of London, Lynne Olson describes early 1941 in England and we should remember that a son of New Hampshire served a similar and pivotal role to that of the Marquis de Lafayette nearly two centuries later. Lynne Olson writes, "Thus, as the world faced the greatest crisis in its history, its two most powerful democracies, bound by a common heritage, language, and allegiance to personal liberty, were divided by a prejudice and lack of understanding that had widened into a chasm since their World War I quasi-alliance. Their famously egocentric leaders, meanwhile, were suspicious of each other to the point of antagonism." England lost 43,000 citizens during that year, 1941, to Luftwaffe bombing. The country was at the point of starvation. A high percentage of its merchant fleet had been sunk by German submarines. Many on both sides of the Atlantic felt that a German invasion was inevitable. As much as any single person, US Ambassador to Britain, John Gilbert Winant, whose portrait is out here in the hallway, helped to inspire a shift in Roosevelt's thinking, bringing him together with Churchill for their first formal meeting and mobilized an aid effort from America to Britain and helping us, actually, get into the War. Who was John Gilbert Winant? A teacher at St Paul's School, he enlisted in the Army Air Corps during the First World War and served with distinction in France. Winant served in both houses of this legislature and twice as governor. His passion for "helping the common man" and his support for President Roosevelt's New Deal often put him at odds with his own party although he was considered an excellent candidate for president in 1944. Instead of running for President and forgoing politics, Ambassador Winant was the primary bridge between two extraordinary leaders and two countries which were in the words of Winston Churchill, "Divided by a common language." Recently his son, Rivington Winant, donated a large parcel of land to the City of Concord. For us frequent visitors to this beautiful forest, it is a place of inspiration during our own uncertain times. Thank you.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Packard moved that the remarks made by Rep. L'Heureux be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

REMARKS

Rep. L'Heureux: Thank you, Madam Speaker. After 20 years, it's time for me to move on. It's been a very pleasant and enjoyable experience. The friendships, help and support that I have received from each and every one of you will forever be remembered and it's impossible for me to start naming individuals and thanking them personally. That will be done at a later date. I would like to take this moment to thank Rep. Doug Scamman for appointing me Chairman. I really appreciated that and will forever be grateful for it. Now, we know that this House runs by rules. We have very specific rules. You don't cross in front of the podium because the Speaker will let you have it. You call somebody by name and you have to apologize. Probably one of the most flagrantly violated rules is posted right outside the door and it says, "No food or drink allowed in the House." It's there. Now, some years ago, probably further back than I care to remember, I used to sit in 2-92 back there and I violated the rule. I brought in a family size bag of M&M peanuts and I shared the peanuts with whoever wanted some. There was a certain Representative in front of me and she took the bag and helped herself and then put it on the armrest. At that time - it is a true story, I wouldn't be able to make this up if it didn't happen - there was a debate going on and you could hear a feather fall from heaven. She put the bag of peanuts on the armrest and the colleague next to her never saw it. He never saw it and well, he turns. Guess what happens? The bag fell. Not open side down, but up, which caused M&M peanuts, as you know, to roll. In case you haven't noticed since you have been here, the floor is at an angle so the M&M peanuts starting in the back of section 2, rolling down the hill. You could see where they were because of all the rows doing the bobble-head thing. They came down and ended up right here around the carpet and the Speaker at that time, whose name I will not mention, from Whitefield, was standing there like this (arms crossed) and looked at me. What do you want me to do? That was an idea that didn't work out so I had to do something else. I like to have snacks that do not have any wrappers so I decided to bring in animal crackers. I have been bringing in animal crackers for probably 16 years. I can assure you I have gone through an awful lot of animal crackers. Anybody who wanted animal crackers got some. When I was sitting there, they came over. When I was sitting over there, they came there, etc. I don't think there are too many people in this house who at one time or another didn't have animal crackers, including the Speaker and the guards. First thing you have to do is bribe the guards and then they can't stop you. So, having that been said, I'm leaving. It's been a pleasure, but I guess the question that has been asked of me is, whose going to supply the animal crackers? I don't know. So, in closing, I'd like to quote two of my favorite TV characters, Bob Hope and Jackie Gleason. What a combination that is. Jackie Gleason used to play the part of Ralph Kramden and he had a wife by the name of Alice who was played by Audrey Meadows. Poor Ralph Kramden would always get into trouble and Alice would bail him out and he would end up by saying, "You're the greatest." Of course we know Bob Hope's theme was Thanks for the Memories. Thanks for the memories. You're the greatest. (Presentation of two large containers of animal crackers)

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Baroody moved that the remarks made by Rep. W. Douglas Scamman be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

Rep. W. Douglas Scamman: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in the same vein as the others before me, most of them. Stella and I have decided not to run again and I wanted to reminisce and add a few words of observation about my lifelong connection and participation in this Hall. Ladies and gentlemen, believe or not, I've sat in this Hall, this is my eighth decade that I've sat in this Hall and observed and participated in what went on. How is that possible? In the 40's and 50's, my dad was in the House so I was here back then. I sat on the floor of the House. I sat right over there in 5-1, the same seat I sat in for many, many years when I was here because he was always up talking, doing politics. I've served here in the House as a member in six different decades having started in 1969 serving through 1990 and certainly now, I've served in the 0's and the 10's. I will try to be brief. I want to talk first about one of the first lessons I learned here and it was in 1959 before I was a member. I was a delegate to the YMCA Youth and Government. I sat right over there. There was the last speaker of the day presenting a bill, stood right here. She talked and she talked and she talked. I wasn't planning to talk too long today because she reminded me about my observation of when she was here speaking in 1959 and I had told her that she talked too long because I was ready to go home. I know most of you are ready to go home. Stella, thanks for reminding me of that. It certainly is a great privilege to be a member of this body. This is the most representative body in the world, as far as I know. We are all elected by very few people and most of these people know us quite well and they vote for us out of the people that are running. Most of us have served in the community, have been successful in business or in a trade and we come here for $100 a year and there are wonderful people here. I have probably served with 2,000 people here and you can't imagine how many great friends I have from that experience. I want to thank the staff, past and present. That's already been done. We are fortunate to have such great staff. Dianne certainly was on the staff when I was here for many years and she was on the staff when I was Speaker and she is one of the reasons I would like to thank the past and the present. New Hampshire has always been one of the leaders in this country in putting forward new legislation. Quite frankly, I've always said one of the reasons is because we don't have as much staff as other places. I was involved in giving each committee a staff member when I was Speaker the first time. If we go forward and make legislation, it's because we study it ourselves and it's not funneled through three or four staff members like it is in many states and it is, certainly, in Washington. It is a blessing that we have great staff, but it is a blessing that we are so large so we don't have two staff members apiece because we get almost everything firsthand from our constituents and from the people who are interested in what goes on here. I want to talk about partisanship, just briefly. It's always been part of the process. We've had two parties for centuries. Believe me, I knew about it in the 40's. I remember when I was here in the 40's. I was downstairs and this Democrat Senator from Portsmouth, her name was Mary Dondero, gave me a nickel so I could buy an ice cream cone. Mary Dondero was Eileen Foley's mother and she had a summer home in Stratham so I certainly was aware of that and knew her. I remember so clearly, riding home with my dad, saying, "You know dad, I think the Democrats aren't all bad. Mary Dondero gave me a nickel and I got an ice cream cone." That certainly is just as clear in my head today as it was then. When I was Chairman of Ways and Means, at the end of the Session, somebody came to me and said, "Doug, how do you stand the Democrats in your committee?" I thought about it and very honestly responded, "I don't know who all the Democrats are on the Ways and Means committee." Ladies and gentlemen, we worked as a group of 21 people and I mention this because I hope there would be more open discussion between the parties and recognition that every one of us has a life, we have a personality, we have issues we deal with at home and I think there are two ways I would suggest we consider. It's already been suggested that we used to mix ourselves up all throughout the House and I think that was good because we sat beside people of both parties. We got to know them and knew they were human being, not just Democrats or not just Republicans. The other way that it was different for many, many years is that in the evening, people would get together socially and sit around and talk. There would be 10 people sitting around in a room, maybe 6 Republicans and 4 Democrats. They were all friends and they all recognized that we were all here to do the people's work. I just think that if there is some way that we could replicate what when on back then when there was a Highway Hotel or in my father's day, Eagle Hotel, where people would sit around in the evening and talk, it would be helpful. Even go to lunch in the noontime if you have a committee that's not working and take an hour and a half for lunch. Some way we, I hope you can find a way to have some social mixes with both parties. My life here, I learned as a boy, that you vote the way you think. You study the facts and if you vote the way you think and you think what's best for my country, my state, my community and my constituents, then the best thing for your party is that you have voted the way you think and the collective judgment of this body is what makes New Hampshire special. The collective judgment of this body and the way it works is the New Hampshire advantage. We all are here for $100. We don't have to answer to anyone. I never told anyone how they had to vote because I didn't ever want anyone telling me how to vote. Today was a very difficult day for me a few times because I voted differently than some people thought I should, probably all of you at some point. So, what makes this House work and why we are the New Hampshire advantage is because we have this large group of people who have a lot of experience in different fields. With that experience, different viewpoints and if you get these people on the right committee, the committee is the source of strength and 90% of the work is done there, should be done there and if it's done there with an open mind so that everyone has input, it's going to be done very well. I sense Stella thinks maybe I've talked long enough. Let me say this on behalf of Stella and myself. We certainly will be around for many years, I hope. We will come up here to visit at some point. I've always said if I'm 100 years old and someone drives me, I'll be coming to Concord. That will be a couple more decades. We welcome you. If you are coming to Stratham, please stop and see us at the farm. We'll be doing more farming. I pledged that I would not talk too much about the farm, but I told someone today that I have been picking peas for three weeks and we have a beautiful garden. We have put in a lot of hay already and we love it. Come see us and make our day. Thank you.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Chase moved that the remarks made by Rep. Clemons be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

Rep. Clemons: Thank you, Madam Speaker. L'Heureux didn't tell me he was bringing animal crackers. He and I started out as freshmen together and I have been here 20 years. Sometimes it feels longer and sometimes it feels shorter, but it's definitely been 20 years. I have served with some remarkable people. I was here when we didn't sit on the right and on the left. We were all mixed up together and that was a wonderful experience because we had less partisanship when we did it that way and it was fun. We could torture each other in our seats instead of waiting until we were in committee. That was very convenient. I want to say that I've served under four governors, two republicans and two democrats. I have served under four speakers, three republicans and one democrat. This last four years, I have had the opportunity to serve as Chair and I want to thank you, Madam Speaker, for giving me that opportunity and having the faith and trust that I would do the job and I hope you think we did it well. I want to thank my committee. These past two years have made it difficult, as I dealt with them, to come to the decision to leave because they were so fabulous, so non partisan. We struggled with many bills in committee and just to brag a little bit, in case you didn't notice, we never had any floor fights. We did it all in committee and when anybody disagreed with us on the floor; we just ignored you and did a PI. We never lost a bill. The Election Law Committee, I think, we did it very, very well. I want to thank Rep. Drisko and Rep. Shawn Jasper. They were so much support for a person who had never been Chair before and were wonderful through the whole experience. I want to thank my Vice Chair, Rep. Pierce, who did all the little nitty-gritty things that have to be done that I hate to do and he did them well. Our Clerk, Claudia Chase, who provided us with so many light moments because she has such a wonderful sense of humor and mostly ignored us anyway, and every member of the committee. For those of you who have said to me that you were lucky because you had really good, easy members, I want you to know that I had some really conservative members and some really, really liberal members and a few of us in between. We took turns coming up to the podium. We all owned the committee together. Occasionally we would have Shawn Jasper and Dan Eaton come up to entertain you for a few minutes. It's been quite the experience. I've met wonderful people. I've had a great time. I've had tough times, but overall I'm glad that I spent the 20 years here. The rest of you, carry on. I will miss you. I'll visit, but just occasionally. I'll bring the gingerbread house at Christmas time. I want to thank the Clerk, who was so helpful to me and has befriended me in my years here and the staff and the minority staff who are wonderful. Thank you very much. Rep. Packard, thank you for giving me such wonderful people on the committee. I guess all that is left to say is goodbye and God bless the New Hampshire House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. W. Douglas Scamman moved that the remarks made by Rep. Eaton be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

REMARKS

Rep. Eaton: Madam Speaker, I didn't know whether to go for announcements or unanimous consent and I said to the Clerk to find something in the middle. Like my friend from Stratham, we have a lot of commonality. I've been here for five decades. An additional commonality is that my dad and I both served under Speaker Scamman. For the gentleman from Londonderry, my dad served under Senate President Packard. As we all sit out here every single day, we walk in the door and things happen and we go home. Everybody sort of thinks that is how it works. I should have gone upstairs and looked at the wall in the Speaker's office to try to figure out how many Speakers I've known and how many Speakers I have served under, each with their own unique, individual style. Whether it was Speaker Roberts, with the iron gavel and you could hear a pin drop and do not go askew for fearing the wrath to the booming voice of Speaker Tucker, very jovial to the casual, laissez-faire, good old boy from Whitefield, all in a much, much kinder and gentler time of incredible civility and incredible respect for each other, for the institution and for the Chair. I happen to know that the person standing behind me has felt the wind of the bullets over her head and I do not believe that if I take all of the prior Speakers that I have known and served under, that the cumulative total would equal the number of darts that she has had lobbed in her direction. In all instances, regardless of what side of the aisle you are on, regardless of how long you have served here, I think every member of this body would concede she has served with grace under fire, with fairness at all times. Madam Speaker, it's been a long two years and I want to thank you for everyone in this Chamber for everything you've done for all of us.
