Rep. Bates moved that the House adjourn.
Adopted.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 14

Thursday, March 31, 2011

The House assembled at 9:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Roger Boucher.

Today, Lord, we tackle, again, the tough and rough decisions that must provide security, preserve liberty and continue to build a responsible foundation for the common good. Give us the energy we need to be open to see each issue wisely and to exercise courage according to Your measure. The larger picture is far more important than we can normally envision and the good order persons seek for themselves is never separated from the good order of the body politic. Help us keep the balance. Again we ask for Your intercession for peacekeepers in uniform. We wish them out of harm's way and back to our beautiful state. In addition, we pray for the safety and health of the members of this chamber and their families. Help us to see, Lord, that what we do today is so important that it should stand the test of years. Give us courage in a climate of growing disorder to aim for spiritual and social harmony, and give us wisdom and insight to see the ultimate good in what we do for those we represent. We ask this in Your Holy name. Amen.

Representative Laurie Sanborn, member from Henniker, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was sung by Nick DeFrancesco, an All-State vocalist from Londonderry High School.

HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for fiscal years ending June 30, 2012 and June 30, 2013. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for the Majority of Finance: The last election saw people energized like never before. The message most of us received was that government had gotten too big, too controlling and too expensive. Our mandate was to balance the budget without new taxes, cut the size of government, and stop letting the public employees continue to get increases in pay and benefits, while the general public was suffering from layoffs and reduced earnings. The House is by constitution the place where the budget must begin. We accept a proposal by the governor as a starting point. Due to time constraints, it was published as the first draft of HB 1, and similarly the governor's proposal for the accompanying legislation as HB 2. There were many criticisms of the governor's proposal, but we knew from last year's experience that we had too much government for the revenue we had. Last session we had to pass a supplementary budget bill due to revenue shortfalls. That problem looks to continue into the future. Nevertheless, the governor's proposal contained unrealistic revenue projections. In round numbers this was our challenge: the governor proposed a budget that showed 290 million more for the biennium than our Ways and Means Committee believed. One of our colleagues on that committee has been more accurate than the governor for the last ten years. We support his numbers. The next challenge was to avoid downshifting to the cities and towns any more than the previous budget had done. The governor proposed reducing the catastrophic aid for special education from 23 million a year to 7 million, the school building aid from 46 million to 20 million in 2012 and then to full funding in 2013. One of the biggest downshifts was to eliminate the state's share of municipal employees' retirement contribution from 47 million in 2011 to zero for both 2012 and 2013. These downshifts involved about 154 million for the biennium. When added to the difference in revenue estimates, our challenge was about 444 million. Yes, we had to make some cuts, and just like the previous budgets when the Republicans were in the majority, the opposition was in full media mode with their usual outlets. It is unfortunate that the state employees and the state contractors use our most vulnerable citizens as pawns. They are all put in full fear mode that they will lose services. These rumors are always self serving by the previously mentioned groups, who are more worried about their positions than about any clients. But it is sometimes effective when you hear from these fearful constituents, and believe that we on the committee are unaware of their concerns. The services have always been maintained, but the efficiencies affect the employees and the contractors more than the clients. We have funded catastrophic aid at the 2011 level for the next two years, 23 million each year. We have funded school building aid at the 2011 level, 46 million each for 2012 and 2013. The biggest challenge was the almost 47 million each year for municipal retirement contributions. The governor had zeroed it out. We decided that the employees could share in this burden by increasing their contributions by 2% for teachers, 2.25% for police, and 2.5% for fire fighters. These modest increases still leave the employers making far higher contributions than the employee, in the case of firefighters by a factor of more than two. The three divisions went into a great amount of detail for each agency budget they reviewed. We needed to find new ways to solve problems. We do not need a public relations person in every agency. The commissioner should be the one who speaks for that agency. If our benefits package has grown too generous for our employees, they will find themselves underbid by contractors who may pay similar wages, but have benefits more in line with the national average than the very high standard that the state pays. Our health care costs can be reduced by managed care, where a patient is closely followed and evaluated and recommendations in preventive care are made, rather than have the patient waiting until a crisis occurs, and then having very expensive care provided. Most people are pleased to have someone monitoring their care. We have reduced some college scholarship funds that we deem are not a core function of state government. Colleges have increased their tuition far faster than inflation. Perhaps government aid has gone into pay raises rather than student help. Please support the Finance Committee for HB 1. The budget is balanced with realistic revenues, downshifting to towns and cities has been minimized, and the delivery of core services has been maintained. Vote 18-7.

Rep. Robert A. Foose for the Minority of Finance: The minority of the Finance Committee cannot support HB 1 as presented because the level and breadth of the cuts will threaten essential programs and services unnecessarily. If the Finance Committee had considered a responsible revenue estimate for the next two years, the minority believes that at least $200 million of the cuts could be restored. Further, the minority believes that adjustments proposed to avoid paying hospitals over $116 million of disproportionate share support is essentially a new and inappropriate business tax. Finally, the minority believes that the proposed increase in retirement contributions is essentially an income tax for almost all of our public employees. We propose ITL.

Majority Amendment (1172h)

This amendment was printed in its entirety in House Record No. 27A, March 25, 2011 and is made part of this Journal by reference.

Majority committee amendment adopted.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Jasper moved that the remarks made by the last two speakers and the parliamentary inquiries on the vote of Ought to Pass with Amendment on HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for fiscal years ending June 30, 2012 and June 30, 2013, be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

Rep. Wallner: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Colleagues, our nation and our state are going through difficult times. The national economic recession is having a significant impact on our state resources and many of our family members, friends and neighbors are struggling and many are without jobs. Now is not the time for government to turn away from citizens in need, now is the time to work together to help our citizens. Children in need of services will be left with no guidance and supervision and nowhere to turn. The families of developmentally disabled children will lose their support network. Adults and families with drug and alcohol addiction will lose their treatment services. Victims of domestic violence will no longer have court advocates or shelter care. Children and adults with mental illness will lose counseling. College students and their families will pay higher tuitions. High school students attending the career technical centers will not be able to complete their studies and families with elders suffering from Alzheimer's disease will lose their caregiver support programs. Unemployed workers who need job training will lose those programs. The destructive budget cuts in this bill will damage our state long into the future. It will profoundly change the New Hampshire that we know and love and where we have raised our families. This budget is a job killer. Where in this budget is the promise of job development? The budget threatens the jobs of thousands of New Hampshire's workers. For every service that is cut, we also cut the job that keeps that service operating. Not only does a developmentally disabled person lose their necessary services, but the home care aide who helps that person, loses their job. We value New Hampshire workers, the teachers who teach our children and lay the foundation to the future, the state employees who fill potholes in our streets and protect our drinking water, the municipal and county employees who guard our prisons and care for our loved ones in nursing homes, the police who keep us safe, the firefighters who protect our lives. They should all be given the respect their profession deserves. This budget will increase our property taxes as many services will fall to the county and local level. Towns and cities will lose revenue sharing and highway betterment money as well as cuts to education funding. Because of the national recession and the loss of jobs, the loss of homes and the increased use of services from the Department of Health and Human Services, more people have needed our help than ever before. We can and we must do better for our children, our working families, our elderly and our citizens who need our help. If this budget passes, it will be noted as a black stain on New Hampshire's history. It will be remembered as a time when we turned our back on our citizens when they needed us the most. If this devastating budget passes, it will kill the soul of New Hampshire. Thank you, Mister Speaker and I urge the members to vote no and I ask for a roll call.

Rep. Bettencourt: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Members of the House, any discussion of this budget must begin with an acknowledgement and thank you to the members of the Finance Committee who dedicated considerable amounts of their time and energy in putting together this extraordinarily difficult budget. It is estimated that they spent approximately 360 hours since February 15th, gathering information from the public and department heads to ensure that the work before us today is worthy of our consideration. Upon reflecting on their task to balance the many compelling and competing needs of our citizens, with our state's revenues that still very much bear the weight of an economic downturn, but their hard work is something that all of us, while maybe not enthusiastically, but nonetheless, we can be proud to support their work. Before this House is a budget that is balanced and lives up to our commitment of making government live within its means just as every family in New Hampshire does. It also keeps faith with our constituents that excessive and wasteful spending in state government will not and cannot be tolerated. It also ensures that during these difficult economic times, state government does not confiscate anymore of their hard earned money when they need it most and this budget includes no new or increased taxes and fees, it includes no further downshifting of services and it does not, it does not further bond and saddle our future generation with fiscal irresponsibility. We do this while setting ourselves on a path of sustainable spending that encourages future economic growth. We are confident that the decisions we have made today will produce a more prosperous future for New Hampshire in the months and years to come. Let's be straight, we know that there is pain in this budget. Whenever budget reductions happen, it impacts real people. We understand that and any suggestion to the contrary is nonsense. The Finance Committee was dedicated to minimizing the effects on those who depend and require state services the most which is why this budget allocates $3.7 billion to the Department of Health and Human Services. Of course we all wish we could do more. Of course no one is happy that we must tell those who have previously gotten state assistance that we simply can't afford it anymore, but this is what must be done. This budget, Mister Speaker, at the end of the day, essentially rolls back spending slightly below the budget that this state operated under in 2008 and 2009. Make no mistake, Mister Speaker, I will return to this, there were a lot of tough call calls and sacrifices. With hand on heart, Mister Speaker, I wish there were another way, but I say to this House, that there is no other responsible way. After all, at a time when our citizens are dealing with pay cuts, layoffs, investment and home losses and other tough times in their own lives, how could we look them in the eye and tell them that we are unwilling to make the same difficult choices in state government that they make for themselves. To hold our own example to a different standard than those we represent is unbecoming of this institution and we can be proud that this budget avoids that kind of hypocrisy. Mister Speaker, this budget also recognizes that cutting spending alone will not get our economy moving again. The cuts have been paired with measures that protect and defend the New Hampshire advantage and create an environment where small businesses, which are the backbone of our economy, can grow and flourish. Mister Speaker, taking these measures and solving our budget challenges must not be about the betterment of one political party or one special interest group over another. It must always be about the people of New Hampshire. This budget was written without consideration for political interests, opinion polls, editorials or special favors. It makes tough choices, but it puts people first. Never in the years, Mister Speaker, that I have been in this House have I ever heard such outrageous and exaggerated political hyperbole engulf a budget proposal such as we have seen here. Indeed, we have seen the motives and intentions of members of the Finance Committee and this House questioned and labeled with terms as extreme as immoral and evil. What a disgrace. What a shame that at such a difficult hour in our states economic history that we cannot stand together, share in the sacrifice and deliver what is necessary for our state together, but stand and deliver we will because leadership isn't always easy and it isn't always popular, but it's about doing the right thing. This Finance Committee, this House and this economy, with this budget is leading. That is what our citizens have asked us to do and we must not betray their trust because the cuts got hard and the decisions got tough. The truth is that we know while very difficult, this budget was built wisely, it was built surely, it was built faithfully and it was not built for the popularity of the moment, but it was built for the prosperity in the years that are to come. As we progress this budget cycle, Mister Speaker, and indeed this is still a cycle. This is step two in a four step process. As we progress, we must expect that there will be difficulties, many unpleasant surprises, but we may be sure that the task that is before this House, that we are freely accepted is not beyond our compass and strength. I am proud of the work that the Finance Committee has done. I am proud of my colleagues for the professionalism that they have shown during this difficult time. The challenges we face in New Hampshire today were years in the making and it will take time and shared sacrifice to achieve our goals for the future, but Mister Speaker, the road to recovery begins today. I ask the House to join me in supporting this budget.

Speaker O'Brien: The question before the House is the majority committee report of Ought to Pass as Amended. Rep. Bettencourt requests a roll call vote. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members will please take their seats. The House will come to order. The question before the House is the committee report of Ought to Pass as Amended on HB 1. The chair recognizes Rep. Norelli for a parliamentary inquiry.

Rep. Norelli: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that the passage of HB 1 will have a painful, devastating and unnecessarily long lasting impact on our great state and if I know that this bill will kill not create jobs in the Granite State at a time when our economy is still recovering and if I further know that the cuts in this budget will downshift costs to communities, increasing property taxes to unsustainable levels for our working families, businesses and seniors and, finally, if I know that this budget will dismantle our schools, increase our healthcare costs, leave women unprotected, endanger public safety, raise college tuition for our students and create undue harm for so many, Mister Speaker, if I know all of this, then would I press the red button and vote no on HB 1 as amended? Thank you.

Speaker O'Brien: The Chair recognizes Rep. Tucker for a parliamentary inquiry.

Rep. Tucker: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that the people of New Hampshire handed us an overwhelming majority of 75% with the charge of returning fiscal sanity to the state and Mister Speaker, if I also know that we have crafted a budget without over-inflated revenues, without downshifting, without bonding our children's future, without further increasing taxes and without accounting gimmicks that were used in the past, and if I also know, Mister Speaker, that after four years and nearly 25% increase in state spending we have successfully done what the voters have sent us here to do: we have reduced the previous budget by $724 million; Mister Speaker, if I also know that, unlike the Governor, we did not reduce the school building aid nor did we reduce catastrophic aid for special education and finally, Mister Speaker if I know that this amendment meets the needs of those who are challenged in our society, spending $3.7 billion alone in funding for Health and Human Services and if I believe this is our moment, this is our chance to deliver on our promises, to right the ship and get us back on track for this generation and generations to come, would I then press the green button and support HB 1? Thank you.

Jasper offered the following: RESOLVED, that the House now adjourn from the early session, that the business of the late session be in order at the present time, that the reading of bills be by title only and resolutions by caption only and that all bills ordered to third reading be read a third time by this resolution, and that all titles of bills be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time, and when the House adjourns today it be to meet Wednesday, April 13, 2011 at 10:00 a.m.

LATE SESSION

Third reading and final passage

HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for fiscal years ending June 30, 2012 and June 30, 2013.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Hess addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Kotowski moved that the remarks made by Rep. Hess during unanimous consent be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

Rep. Hess: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Driving up here this morning I had planned to make a humorous announcement to sort of break the ice. It somehow seems inappropriate after what has happened today and yesterday. This is my 21st year in this Chamber and I have to say that I have never heard rhetoric more harsh or decorum more disrespectful than I have the last two days. No side of the aisle has a monopoly on that unfortunate behavior and I was reminded of comments that Warren Buffet has shared with his employees and fellow directors at Berkshire Hathaway for over 25 years. This is not the letter to shareholders that gets so much news attention. This is an inside communication and in that communication for over a quarter of a century he has shared some very simple and I think profound thoughts that I think we all, all of us, should reflect upon in the coming days and weeks. To paraphrase him, he says, "We can afford to lose votes. We can afford to lose a lot of votes, but we cannot afford to lose our reputation or even a shred of our reputation." The rationale that, well, everybody else is doing it or that, their doing it or that they did it to us in the past, is almost always bad. If we see anyone or anything that borders on illegality or even impropriety and it causes us to hesitate, it almost certainly is inappropriate and wrong and should be abandoned immediately. Finally, culture, not rulebooks, determines an organizations' behavior. We have lost part of our culture the last two days and I hope that each one of us, myself included, yourself Mister Speaker included, decides that in the days and the weeks ahead, we commit to taking one small step, one step toward each other and try to regain some of that culture. Thank you.
