HOUSE RECORD

First Year of the 162nd General Court
Calendar and Journal of the 2011 Session

Vol. 33 Concord, N. H. Wednesday, September 14, 2011 No. 64

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 22 (cont.)

Wednesday, June 22, 2011

Rep. Tucker moved that the House adjourn.
Adopted.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 23

Wednesday, September 14, 2011

The House assembled at 1:00 p.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Roger Boucher.
Almighty Lord, we return this day to do our duty for those we serve. Refreshed by nature and good friends we come again to the work of those we respect: the people – our constituents. We lift up our members and their families who need healing and Your good counsel. Give us strong hearts to legislate fairly; strong minds to be just, and strong spirits to be sisters and brothers in defending our country. We pray, Lord, that You keep us alert to the history of September 11th, for its 17th century meaning is not separated from that of the attack upon us ten years ago. We have learned from You that brutality is not an inevitable consequence of irresistible historical forces, but the result of a betrayal of human reason and gracious hearts. Give us hope always, then, Lord, that we might associate our minds with the brightness of Your sanctuary. Help us to be as Todd Beamer and other UA flight 73 passengers before their sacrifice in Shanksville, Pennsylvania who reached to You in the moment and spoke, along with Lisa Jefferson, a GTE representative, Psalm 23:

> "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Give us the courage as steadfast Americans to resist every crush to mold us into an unreasoned conformity. Help us to triumph with a revived spirit in a world that is stable and diverse and continue to establish good laws which support strong families in a culture where love and faith are the strong fabric of our common good. Be with us this day and always. We ask this in Your great name. Amen.

Representative Jeffrey Oligny, member from East Hampstead, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative James Garrity of Atkinson led the singing of the National Anthem.

Tom Vannatta, guest of Rep. LaCasse. Joseph Pantelakos, son of Rep. Pantelakos. Devon Greene, guest of Rep. Owen.

COMMUNICATION

August 16, 2011

Rep. William L. O'Brien, Speaker
New Hampshire House of Representatives
State House
Concord NH 03301

Dear Mr. Speaker:
It is with deep regret that I resign my seat in the New Hampshire House. I have enjoyed the camaraderie with many others who love the State of New Hampshire and I will miss you all. This is prompted by my move out of the district I serve. It is clear that this move will disqualify me from serving Derry, a town I have served off and on since 1975. There is no doubt that the voters of Derry will find another person who loves this state. I can and will be replaced. New Hampshire and my former town will be well served.

Sincerely,
Kenneth H. Gould, Rockingham 5

COMMUNICATION

Friday, August 12th, 2011

To Whom it May Concern:
I am writing to inform you that I am resigning my seat in the General Court, effective immediately, due to a new employment opportunity. It has been my pleasure, and distinct honor, to serve the people of Manchester's Ward 3 over the past several months. With so many challenges facing the state of New Hampshire, I wish my colleagues well in working to find common sense solutions to these serious issues.

Respectfully,

Michael D. Brunelle
Hillsborough District 10
Manchester Ward 3

COMMUNICATION

RECESS

(Speaker O'Brien in the Chair)

The House reconvened at 1:35 p.m.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON SB 88

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on July 13, 2011, I vetoed SB 88, relative to physical force in defense of a person. In 2006, I vetoed legislation with identical provisions because the New Hampshire Chiefs of Police, the New Hampshire Sheriffs Association, the New Hampshire State Police, representatives of over 40 local law enforcement departments and the former Attorney General warned it would jeopardize public safety. Many of those same organizations and the current Attorney General have asked me to veto this bill because it contains the identical provision governing the use of deadly force. This legislation would permit the use of deadly force anywhere a person has a right to be, even if the person could easily remove himself or herself from an encounter without exposing himself or herself, or anyone else, to danger. SB 88, like the earlier bill, is a dramatic and unwarranted change in New Hampshire law that would legalize the inappropriate use of deadly force and jeopardize public safety. "The current law governing the use of deadly force in self-defense establishes a careful balance between the right to use deadly force in self-defense on the one side, and the sanctity of human life and the safety of innocent members of the public, on the other," wrote the New Hampshire Association of Chiefs of Police and the New Hampshire Sheriffs Association. "SB 88 would dramatically alter that balance and increase the potential for deadly encounters erupting in public places." There are times when deadly force may be the only alternative, and existing law already makes provisions for those cases. Existing New Hampshire law already allows citizens to stand their ground and use deadly force – in any location – to protect themselves or another person in response to another's use of deadly force or to prevent a kidnapping or sexual assault no matter where those offenses take place. Current law also allows citizens to use deadly force to protect themselves against an intruder in their own home, regardless of whether the intruder has used deadly force. And current law puts the burden on the state to disprove beyond reasonable doubt claims of self-defense in other cases. SB 88 would unleash the potential for increasing deadly violence in our communities. It would allow the use of deadly force on street corners, in shopping malls, public parks, and in retail stores. Drug dealers and other felons who brandish weapons will be further emboldened to use their weapons, while prosecution of those criminals will be made more difficult because of this bill's expansion of the right to use deadly force. Given that the current law is working well and is widely supported by law enforcement, I have vetoed SB 88. SB 88 also contains changes to the state's criminal law on mandatory minimum sentences for offenses involving a firearm, as well as changes to the definition of "non-deadly force. I am prepared to sign these provisions into law if they are subsequently enacted in separate legislation.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall SB 88, relative to physical force in defense of a person, relative to producing or displaying a firearm or other means of self-defense, and relative to eliminating minimum sentencing and adding civil immunity for certain firearm use, become law?
Rep. Shurtleff spoke against and yielded to questions.
Rep. Campbell spoke against.
Reps. Kreis and Welch spoke in favor.

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds vote of the House for approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON SB 3-FN-A-L

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on June 15, 2011, I vetoed SB 3, making comprehensive changes to the state retirement system. Even as this bill sits on my desk with a deadline of today, members of the ongoing conference committee on HB 1 and HB 2 have publicly announced that they will consider substantive changes to this legislation, a version of which is already included in HB 2. Those changes include potentially addressing decisions made yesterday by the Board of the Retirement System that could impact the budgets of the state and local communities. Given the legislature's stated intent to change this legislation further, and my responsibility to review the legislation in its full and final form, I am vetoing Senate Bill 3 and will assess the legislature's final product.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall SB 3-FN-A-L, making comprehensive changes to the state retirement system, become law?
Rep. Lynne Ober spoke against.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. Bettencourt moved that the question of shall SB 3-FN-A-L, making comprehensive changes to the state retirement system, become law, be laid on the table.

The Speaker announced that a roll call would be taken.

ADJOURN FROM THE EARLY SESSION

Rep. Bettencourt offered the following: RESOLVED, that the House now adjourn from the early session, that the business of the late session be in order at the present time and when the House adjourns today, it be to meet Wednesday, October 12, 2011 at 10:00 a.m.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Daler and Shurtleff addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Baldasaro moved that the remarks made by Rep. Daler be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

Rep. Daler: Thank you, Mister Speaker. There is a positive story coming from Afghanistan. On December 30, 2010, Army Specialist Joseph Canavan of Temple, New Hampshire was providing security during a meeting between his squadron and village elders in Khost Province. Specialist Canavan heard something hit his truck turret. That something turned out to be a homemade explosive. He jumped from the truck. The gunner was wounded, as was Canavan, who sustained a severe concussion. Despite this and warnings from the gunner not to get back into the truck, Canavan did anyway. He performed first aid on the gunner and also manned the machine gun firing at the attackers. His quick thinking and his bravery that day earned Canavan the Bronze Star, the fourth highest combat award in the U.S. Armed Forces. From the medal citation signed by Major General John Campbell, "Specialist Canavan's courage and selfless dedication in a combat zone, under the most extreme of circumstances greatly contributed to the fight against the war on terrorism." Specialist Canavan re-enlisted in the Army and is presently at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. He will soon go to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where he will begin training as a medic. His bravery, quick thinking and dedication are a testament to our service people in war zones and other places around the globe. Thank you.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Bettencourt moved that the remarks made by Rep. Shurtleff be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

REMARKS

Rep. Shurtleff: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, I know in this body there is tremendous support for our men and women in the armed forces serving in Iraq and Afghanistan and that's commendable. I just wanted to bring to this body the fact that earlier today Representative Terie Norelli received a flag that flew over the Ortiz Medical Center in Baghdad. She received this for her role as Speaker last Session, arranging for gifts and items to be sent to our men and women serving in Iraq. The flag she received flew over the Ortiz Medical Center, as I said. This was named after Maria Ortiz, an Army Captain and a registered nurse who was the first woman to die in combat since Vietnam. She died in a mortar attack in July 2007 and is buried at Arlington National Cemetery. With your permission Mister Speaker, I would like to read the commendation that Representative Norelli received. It says, "The flag of the United States of America. Let it be known to all that this flag has flown over the Ortiz Medical Center, International zone in Baghdad, Iraq on 5, March 2010. It is presented to the Honorable Terie Norelli, Speaker of the New Hampshire House of Representatives in recognition for her service to the United States of America and her dedicated support to service members serving across the globe." It is signed by Colonel Paul Pasquina, MD United States Medical Corps., officer in charge, Ortiz Medical Center. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

RECESS MOTION

Rep. Bettencourt moved that the House stand in recess for the purposes of the introduction of bills and resolutions, reading-in of petitions, receiving Senate messages, enrolled bill amendments, enrolled bill reports and forming Committees of Conference.
Adopted.
