HOUSE JOURNAL No. 25

Wednesday, November 30, 2011

The House assembled at 9:00 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Roger Boucher.

Almighty God, following on our recent day of “public thanksgiving and prayer,” established by our country’s founding father George Washington, we acknowledge with grateful hearts the many favors You have afforded the great State of New Hampshire, our families, our special friends, and our citizen soldiers...one of those favours being the opportunity to enjoy a form of governing which secures our safety and happiness. On this, another day of difficult decisions, help us to see the future of all our people without the illusions made by strings and wires. Give us a rich imagination in dealing with the realities that make our common life sustainable, rich, and wholesome. Help us to reason professionally with each other so that we may wisely manage the clash of opinions which often paralyze representative government. And give us Your wisdom that we may grasp our highest responsibilities to serve You and our liberties safely and in good conscience. We ask this in Your name. Amen.

Representative Chris Nevins, member from Hampton, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative James Garrity of Atkinson led the singing of the National Anthem.

CONSIDERATION OF CACR 14

Rep. Bettencourt moved Ought to Pass and offered floor amendment (2821h).

Floor Amendment (2821h)

Amend the title of the resolution by replacing it with the following:

RELATING TO: public education.

PROVIDING THAT: the Legislature shall have the authority to define standards for public education, establish standards of accountability, mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity, and shall have full discretion to determine the amount of state funding for education.

Amend the resolution by replacing all after the resolving clause with the following:

I. That the second part of the constitution be amended by inserting after article 5-b the following new article:

[Art.] 5-c [Public Education.] In fulfillment of its duties with respect to education set forth in Part II, Article 83, the Legislature shall have the authority and responsibility to define reasonable standards for elementary and secondary public education, to establish reasonable standards of accountability, and to mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity. Further, in the exercise thereof, the Legislature shall have full discretion to determine the amount of, and methods of raising and distributing, State funding for public education.

II. That the above amendment proposed to the constitution be submitted to the qualified voters of the state at the state general election to be held in November, 2012.

III. That the selectmen of all towns, cities, wards, and places in the state are directed to insert in their warrants for the said 2012 election an article to the following effect: To decide whether the amendments of the constitution proposed by the 2011 session of the general court shall be approved.

IV. That the wording of the question put to the qualified voters shall be:
 “Are you in favor of amending the second part of the constitution by inserting after article 5-b a new article to read as follows:

[Art.] 5-c [Public Education.] In fulfillment of its duties with respect to education set forth in Part II, Article 83, the Legislature shall have the authority and responsibility to define reasonable standards for elementary and secondary public education, to establish reasonable standards of accountability, and to mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity. Further, in the exercise thereof, the Legislature shall have full discretion to determine the amount of, and methods of raising and distributing, State funding for public education.”

V. That the secretary of state shall print the question to be submitted on a separate ballot or on the same ballot with other constitutional questions. The ballot containing the question shall include 2 squares next to the question allowing the voter to vote “Yes” or “No.” If no cross is made in either of the squares, the ballot shall not be counted on the question. The outside of the ballot shall be the same as the regular official ballot except that the words “Questions Relating to Constitutional Amendments proposed by the 2011 General Court” shall be printed in bold type at the top of the ballot.

VI. That if the proposed amendment is approved by 2/3 of those voting on the amendment, it becomes effective when the governor proclaims its adoption.

Rep. Sorg spoke against.

Reps. Kurk and Bettencourt spoke in favor.

Rep. Gary Richardson spoke against and requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 474-FN

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on May 11, 2011, I vetoed HB 474. States should not interfere with the rights of businesses and their employees to freely negotiate contracts. That is unless there is a compelling public interest, and there is no compelling public interest in passing this legislation. There is no evidence that this legislation will offer any benefits to New Hampshire's economy or workers. As I have said repeatedly, New Hampshire has an economic strategy that is working. New Hampshire has one of the strongest and fastest-growing economies in the nation. We have one of the lowest unemployment rates and one of the highest median incomes in the nation. We are considered one of the safest states and one of the healthiest states, and a high percentage of our citizens have private health insurance. New Hampshire has a lower unemployment rate and a stronger economy than most states with so-called right-to-work laws. In states with a right-to-work law, workers on average have a lower standard of living, bringing home less in their paychecks and going without health insurance more frequently. In my time as a CEO, in my years spent in the private sector turning around companies, and in my seven years as Governor, I have never seen the so-called right-to-work law serve as a valuable economic development tool. In the last seven years of recruiting businesses to move to New Hampshire, not one business leader has ever even asked me if New Hampshire had a right-to-work law, let alone suggested it was a factor in the company's location decision. No New Hampshire business leaders have ever told me that the lack of a so-called right-to-work law prevented them from expanding or hiring new workers here in New Hampshire. And no New Hampshire workers have ever told me they couldn't get a job because New Hampshire doesn't have a so-called right-to-work law. The debate over the so-called right-to-work bill in New Hampshire appears to be largely driven by national outside interest groups, and is not a result of problems facing New Hampshire businesses or workers. There is no justification in this case for state government to interfere with the right of private businesses to freely negotiate and enter into contracts with their employees. Therefore, I am vetoing HB 474.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 474-FN, relative to freedom of choice on whether to join a labor union, become law?

Reps. Weyler and Gary Daniels spoke in favor.

Rep. Infantine spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Reps. Herbert Richardson, Marshall Quandt and Goley spoke against

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds vote of the House for approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 542-FN

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on July 13, 2011, I vetoed HB 542, an act relative to exceptions for objectionable material in public school courses. I am vetoing this legislation because it does not clearly define what material would be objectionable; it would be disruptive to classrooms and other students; and it would be difficult for school districts to administer. Current law already allows for parents to remove their children from classrooms for particular lessons on health or sex education. Given the strong moral and religious issues inherent in those subjects, that is appropriate. But this legislation goes far beyond that. HB 542 would allow a parent to determine any course material is "objectionable" and require school districts to work with parents to develop an alternative. This legislation in essence gives every individual parent of every student in a classroom a veto over every single lesson plan developed by a teacher. For example, under this bill, parents could object to a teacher's plan to: teach the history of France or the history of the civil or women's rights movements. Under this bill, a parent could find "objectionable" how a teacher instructs on the basics of algebra. In each of those cases, the school district would have to develop an alternative educational plan for the student. Even though the law requires the parents to pay the cost of alternative, the school district will still have to bear the burden of helping develop and approve the alternative. Classrooms will be disrupted by students coming and going, and lacking shared knowledge. Just as important, this legislation will fundamentally damage educational quality. Much of the genesis behind this legislation is objections to certain books that have been used in lessons. This is a perennial debate, and teachers and schools have a responsibility to ensure they are using age-appropriate, school-appropriate materials in their classrooms. The intrinsic value of education is exposing students to new ideas and critical thinking. This legislation encourages teachers to go the lowest common denominator in selecting material, in order to avoid "objections" and the disruption it may cause their classrooms. Because it is unclear what educational material or programs would be objectionable and the quality of education in the classroom could be impacted, I am vetoing this bill.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

RESOLUTION

Rep. Bettencourt offered the following: RESOLVED, that the House now adjourn from the early session, that the business of the late session be in order at the present time and when the House adjourns today, it be to meet Wednesday, January 4, 2012 at 9:00 a.m.
Adopted.

Rep. Winfred Hutchinson addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Graham moved that the remarks made by Rep. Winfred Hutchinson be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Adopted.

REMARKS

Rep. Winfred Hutchinson: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I rise to congratulate the Manchester Central High School marching band for being invited to the 70th anniversary memorial of the attack on Pearl Harbor and to recognize the band members, their parents, staff and alumni as well as the office of Mayor Ted Gatsas for helping raise $200,000 to pay for the trip to Oahu. As part of the overall project, the band learned about the connection between Central and the attack 70 years ago. There were three Central alumni killed in action that fateful day. David L. Crossett, United States Navy, Central class of 1936, killed in action on the USS Utah; Joseph Rozmus, United States Navy, Central class of 1939, entombed in the USS Arizona; and Joseph J. "Little Joe" Jedrysik, Central class of 1939, PFC Army Air Corp. Little Joe's story is perhaps the only one that we know the details of on that fateful day. There was a Big Joe and a Little Joe stationed at Hickam and both were chaplain assistants at the chapel. "Big Joe" Joseph Nelles was the assistant for the Catholic services. "Little Joe" PFC Joseph Jedrysik was the assistant for the Protestant services. Big Joe was in the chapel at 7 a.m. preparing for Mass and Little Joe had just finished breakfast and was walking across the field to the chapel when the attack started. Little Joe saw the chapel take a direct hit. He could have run for cover but he instead ran to a machine gun placement near the flagpole on the field and started firing on the attacking planes. Joe died a hero in a subsequent bomb blast. The chapel presently at Hickam is named in honor of Joe Nelles; however, the courage of Little Joe embodies the spirit of the young people of the day and the youngsters in the band take a sense of pride from his story. Today, they call it Central Pride and as an alumni of that school, I call it American pride, passed down from the proud people of New Hampshire in history to the city and schools of Manchester and the rest of the state. Little Joe embodied that pride and the 113 young kids in that band are going to Oahu to honor Joe and all who died on that day 70 years ago. They represent their school, their city, their state and their country well. Godspeed to them on their journey and congratulations to the "Little Green" marching band. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 14

Memorializing State Representative Sean C. Cox of Andover

WHEREAS, we have learned with profound sorrow of the death of our friend and colleague, Sean C. Cox, who was serving his first term as a State Representative, representing the citizens of Andover, Boscawen, Canterbury, Loudon, Northfield and Salisbury; and

WHEREAS, Sean C. Cox served with diligence and enthusiasm on the Science, Technology and Energy Committee, receiving praise from committee colleagues regardless of party, for his attentiveness and quest for understanding; and

WHEREAS, Sean Cox was an avid snowboarder who instructed others, enjoyed baseball and football, was a teenage survivor of cancer, was inspired by James Madison, enjoyed spending time with friends at the town beach on Highland Lake in Andover and according to wife Lori, “felt really blessed to call New Hampshire home;” and

WHEREAS, Sean Cox always admitted he was bad with remembering names and so found it funny to be assigned a seat between two Representatives named Kevin; and

WHEREAS, Sean Cox was a lover of knowledge, having had a scholarship named for him at Rocky Hill School awarded to students who exhibit both excellence and promise in mathematics and science, and went on to a degree in engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, an MBA from New York University and then another degree in culinary arts; and

WHEREAS, as evidenced from his lifelong pursuit of education, Sean Cox embodied his favorite quote by author Robert Heinlein which reads, “A human being should be able to change a diaper, plan an invasion, butcher a hog, conn a ship, design a building, write a sonnet, balance accounts, build a wall, set a bone, comfort the dying, take orders, give orders, cooperate, act alone, solve equations, analyze a new problem, pitch manure, program a computer, cook a tasty meal, fight efficiently, die gallantly;” and

RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives in Regular Session convened, that Sean C. Cox be granted the highest praise and accolades and our profound thanks for his service to his state and the town he called home, and, be it further

MEMORIAL REMARKS

Speaker O'Brien: I thought I could give you a sense of who our departed colleague, Sean Cox, was by reading a speech given by his wife at a Toastmaster's affair several weeks before Sean passed on. She says, "I was at the library this summer and ran across a book entitled You know you're in New Hampshire when..... One particular entry made me laugh, "You know you're in New Hampshire when your neighbor is a state representative and your neighbor's neighbor is a state representative," and it made me laugh because soon after I moved to New Hampshire, I joined my town's 4th of July committee and met two of the 400 state representatives and that also hit rather close to home, because there is a state rep. living in my house. So how did all this start? My husband, Sean, was spending way too much time reading political commentary and I was getting fed up. I told him, in a rather exasperated tone, "Stop wonking and actually do something." He actually did something. He worked on a presidential campaign and he ran for school board and lost by a significant margin. He came in last place. I thought that was the end of his political aspirations. I was wrong. In early 2010, after seeing a few odd pieces of mail that seemed to be aimed at candidates for political office, Sean finally announced that he was running for state rep. I wasn't thrilled at the prospect and I told him that he could have the time needed to run a campaign and attend meetings but that was where my support ended. I was not going to campaign for him or attend any political events. He agreed to this. I also didn't think he had any chance of being elected. We live in a small town with just over 2,300 residents and the district is comprised of 6 towns; 3 of which are larger than ours. There would be a primary in September and the family was taking a 2-week long road trip in August and there was also the incumbent factor. The district had 4 Democrat and 2 Republican representatives and all but one were running for reelection. I honestly believed that the campaign would be over after the primary, but Sean made it through the primary, finishing sixth out of seven candidates. November came around and I was sure that the incumbents would be reelected, leaving only one open seat for a newcomer. I sat at home election night watching the results come in. The first precinct's results didn't look promising. After the second and third precincts reported, Sean was in 6th place, which meant he had a chance. I turned off the computer and got the phone call from Sean with the results. There was a Republican sweep in the Merrimack 6 District. He had been elected. It took a while for the news to sink in. In fact, I was sitting in the gallery of the House Chamber still in disbelief that I was there to watch my husband take the oath of office. It has been almost a year since Sean got elected. Life has been a bit more chaotic with trying to coordinate schedules and we've had to prepare for the possibility of the legislative session going into the early morning. Fortunately, that did not happen. We get more mail and phone calls and Sean's email volume has dramatically increased. It has been interesting to learn which issues people in the state are especially passionate about. It was pretty clear that hot button issues such as gay marriage, the right to work bill and the cuts to the biennial budget would receive a lot of attention, but who knew that people cared so much about the speed limits on Lake Winnepesaukee? And, the boys have gotten some unexpected perks like getting to view Concord from the State House dome, which is not open to the public. Fortunately, I have not had to attend any political events, except the ceremony to celebrate the opening a new section of the Northern Rail Trail, but I had a separate reason for attending; I was performing with the community band at the event. Having to take care of the kids has usually provided a way out of events. Since statewide elected offices are two-year terms, it is nearly time to start thinking about elections again. Sean isn't sure whether he is running again, but thankfully he has made it clear to me that higher offices are not part of his future plans. I'm not sure how I feel about a second term. The pay is lousy, $100/year plus mileage, and some of his responsibilities cut into the family time. I do feel that he does a good job listening to constituents and helping them to the extent that he is able. I believe that he has been assigned to the right committee based on his background, Science, Technology and Energy, and that his heart is in this job. So, in short, being a politician's wife, at least a NH state representative's wife, has not been the burden that I was expecting and I actually feel better knowing that my husband actually listened to me and finally did something."

I would ask all of you to carry Sean Cox and his special grace and his dignity in our memories. His example of dedication to the public will serve us well as we serve the remainder of this term and as we go forward in other endeavors to serve the people of New Hampshire. Thank you.

(Speaker O'Brien in the Chair)

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 218

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on June 15, 2011, I vetoed HB 218, relative to the New Hampshire rail transit authority. I am vetoing this legislation because business leaders, particularly in Nashua and Manchester, has clearly said that this bill will hurt their efforts to grow their businesses, to create jobs and to attract new companies to New Hampshire. The New Hampshire business community has made a clear statement that it sees rail, in the words of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce, as "a proven economic catalyst that will spur economic development and create jobs." Several major companies have made clear that they believe rail will improve their ability to attract workers, access their markets, attract additional customers and grow their businesses in New Hampshire. In addition, the Manchester and Nashua chambers of commerce both believe that developing the state's rail infrastructure will assist their efforts to attract new businesses and jobs to the state. That is one reason both chambers have asked me to veto this legislation. The Merrimack Town Council, the Bedford Town Council, and the Nashua Board of Aldermen have also passed resolutions expressing support for expanded rail service and the benefits it would bring to their communities. The support of the business community is validated by an independent study that concluded that the development of rail in the capital corridor could result in more than $2.4 billion in new business sales and nearly 1,000 new jobs created and sustained in New Hampshire in the first twenty years of operation. HB 218 makes substantial changes to New Hampshire Rail Transit Authority that will reduce its ability to fully consider all transit options for the state. New Hampshire businesses banded together to raise $120,000 to fund the Rail Authority's grant application without any state funds because they believe a full consideration of rail is important to New Hampshire's economic future. Going back on our commitment to the businesses who contributed funds to pay for grant applications sends the wrong signal to the private sector about state government's willingness to stand by its commitments. We should see the study through to its conclusion with a fully functioning Rail Authority so that we can make informed policy choices about the best way forward for our state. Concerns about specific provisions in the Rail Authority statute could have been addressed through much more narrowly drafted language that would leave intact important functions of the rail authority. As currently written, this legislation takes away the rail authority's ability to enter into contracts with partner organizations, to accept gifts and to work with the private sector on economic development projects adjacent to potential rail sites. Given the strong concerns among New Hampshire business leaders that this legislation will jeopardize their efforts to grow their businesses and create new jobs, I am vetoing House Bill 218.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 218, relative to the New Hampshire rail transit authority, become law?

Reps. Dan McGuire, William Smith and Kurk spoke in favor.

Reps. Rhodes and Scontsas spoke against.

Rep. Hikel yielded to questions.

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds vote of the House for approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 380

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on July 13, 2011, I vetoed HB 380, which would have exempted the Commission on the Status of Men from repeal on June 30, 2011. The Commission on the Status of Men was established by the New Hampshire Legislature in 2002, with a mission to examine cultural biases and stereotyping affecting men, men's physical and mental health problems, and promote policies, initiatives and programs to improve the ability of men to be productive and responsible citizens and fathers. The New Hampshire Legislature established the Commission on the Status of Women in 1969 with a mission to identify and seek to remedy historical and institutional discrimination against women; to enhance women's opportunities in education and training, business and employment; and to honor women for their contributions to the state and the nation. The impetus to create a Commission on the Status of Men was driven at least in part by a perception by some that issues impacting men were deserving of commission level status and review that had been afforded to women. To help make state government more efficient, reduce cost, and eliminate waste and duplication, the Legislature in 2009 established a process to review and sunset certain non-regulatory boards and commissions. As a result of that process, dozens of boards and commissions were recommended for repeal, including both the Commission on the Status of Women and the Commission on the Status of Men. With the enactment of HB 390, the Commission on the Status of Women has ceased its existence as a state entity. Its work and mission will be merged with and carried on by a private non-profit organization. At the same time the Legislature repealed the existence of the Commission on the Status of Women, it also passed HB 380, which extended the life of the Commission on the Status of Men by two years, added two new members appointed by the Legislature, and expanded the mission of the Commission to include studying the economic and social costs of the absence of fathers from the home. People may in good conscience disagree and debate the relative merits of the two commissions. But there can be little disagreement that eliminating the Commission on the Status of Women while extending the Commission on the Status of Men makes little sense. If the Commission on the Status of Men wishes to continue its work and mission, it should do so in the same way as the Commission on the Status of Women, as part of private or non-profit organization. For these reasons, I am vetoing HB 380.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 380, exempting the commission on the status of men from repeal on June 30, 2011 and adding a duty to the commission, become law?

Rep. William Smith spoke against and yielded to questions.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON SB 57

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on July 6, 2011, I vetoed SB 57, relative to regulation of title loan lenders. I am vetoing this legislation because legalizing excessive interest rates for title loans – rates of 300 percent APR – would be detrimental to our families, our communities, and to our economy. Thirty-one other states – including all the other New England states – ban these types of excessive interest rates. In 2006, Congress passed and former President George W. Bush signed federal legislation capping the interest rate on title loans to members of the military at 36 percent APR. In addition, SB 57 was strongly opposed by large numbers of Republicans and Democrats in the legislature, the New Hampshire Local Welfare Administrator's Association, AARP, the Banking Department, the Department of Justice, the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund and New Hampshire Legal Assistance. In 2008, bipartisan legislation supported by the Banking Department, the former Attorney General, communities and many others, capped interest rates on title and payday loans at 36 percent APR. That change was reasonable and well thought-out. There is no evidence that reversing that law would benefit New Hampshire. On the contrary, there is significant evidence that it would harm our state and families. New Hampshire currently caps interest rates for title loans at 36 percent APR. This legislation would have allowed significantly higher interest rates for loans made against the title of a car. For example, under this bill, a family who took out a $500 loan against their car would pay $1,187 in principal and interest over the maximum 10-month life of the loan. At the same time, companies would be allowed to loan without any inquiry into a borrower's ability to repay the loan and would even be allowed to loan to people receiving local welfare assistance. Failure to repay a loan could lead to seizure of the family car, which is often essential for family members to maintain employment. For vulnerable families, these excessive interest charges could force them further into a cycle of debt, and potentially onto public assistance. The New Hampshire Local Welfare Administrator's Association said the "temporary relief" that may come from a title loan "often comes at the cost of enslaving recipients in a cycle of increasing debt for basic needs, causing an ultimate crash and the need to come to the legal welfare office." Frequently, the welfare administrators said, families end up worse off than before they took out the loan. That cycle of debt hurts our families, hurts our local communities, and ultimately our economy. Therefore, I am vetoing SB 57.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall SB 57, relative to regulation of title loan lenders, become law?

and the veto was overridden by the necessary two-thirds vote.

REMOVED FROM THE TABLE

Rep. Bettencourt moved that SB 3-FN-A-L, making comprehensive changes to the state retirement system, be removed from the table.

On a division vote, 319 members having voted in the affirmative and 44 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON SB 3-FN-A-L

By the authority vested in me, pursuant to part II, Article 44 of the New Hampshire Constitution, on June 15, 2011, I vetoed SB 3, making comprehensive changes to the state retirement system. Even as this bill sits on my desk with a deadline of today, members of the ongoing conference committee on HB 1 and HB 2 have publicly announced that they will consider substantive changes to this legislation, a version of which is already included in HB 2. Those changes include potentially addressing decisions made yesterday by the Board of the Retirement System that could impact the budgets of the state and local communities. Given the legislature's stated intent to change this legislation further, and my responsibility to review the legislation in its full and final form, I am vetoing Senate Bill 3 and will assess the legislature's final product.

Respectfully submitted, John H. Lynch, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall SB 3-FN-A-L, making comprehensive changes to the state retirement system, become law?
Rep. Lynne Ober spoke against.

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds vote of the House for approval, was taken.
