HOUSE JOURNAL No. 1

Wednesday, December 3, 2014

On the first Wednesday in December in the year of our Lord, two thousand fourteen, it being the day designated by the Constitution for assembling for organizational purposes, the one hundred and sixty-fourth General Court of the State of New Hampshire convened at the Capitol in the City of Concord. The Representatives-elect were called to order by Karen Wadsworth, Clerk of the House for the preceding session.

Prayer was offered by Kate Atkinson, Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Concord.

O God, the Alpha and the Omega, God of beginnings and endings, we place in Your hands the events of this day, in this House. We give You thanks for those people whose terms of service have come to an end, and for those whose terms are just beginning. As plans are put in motion, and projects are completed, we pray for the wisdom that results in good decisions. Please bless this gathering with listening ears, clarity of thought, and a deep respect for the people they serve throughout the State of New Hampshire. We pray in gratitude for the gift of leadership. Amen.

Representative-elect Travis Bennett, member from Plymouth, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Katie Rozmuck of Salem, daughter of Representative-elect John Manning sang the National Anthem.

ORGANIZATION DAY

New Hampshire House of Representatives

GROUND RULES FOR ELECTION

The rules of these elections shall be the rules of the 2014 New Hampshire House of Representatives, subject to the following ground rules:

Only members certified by the Secretary of State shall be eligible to participate and vote. Access to the floor shall be limited to members, and such other officers and assistants as may be required by the Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms. The Clerk will prepare a checklist of those present and qualified to vote.

Election of candidates will be by majority vote of those present and voting. If more than two candidates are standing for an office, and if after any round of balloting no candidate receives a majority vote, the candidate with the least number of votes shall be eliminated in any subsequent balloting. Any candidate may withdraw of their own volition at any time.

Once nominations are declared closed, nominations may not be reopened. All balloting will be conducted by an open call of the roll as set forth on the checklist. If there is no candidate with a majority of votes, there shall be a 15-minute recess after the announcement of the results. Balloting shall continue until an officer is elected. Each candidate will name one teller to observe the marking and counting of the checklist tally.

First-ballot nominating and seconding speeches will be limited to 15 minutes for each candidate. Subsequent speeches shall be limited to 3 minutes per candidate. Candidates who desire to concede or withdraw shall speak first. No other limitations will apply to these speeches.

When not inconsistent with these rules, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2010 edition) shall govern proceedings under these rules. No rule can be suspended on less than an affirmative vote of two-thirds of those qualified to vote as set forth on the prepared checklist.
