HOUSE JOURNAL NO. 19

Thursday, June 13, 2019

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Kate Atkinson, Rector of St. Paul's Church in Concord. A Prayer for our Country based on the prayer of that name from the Book of Common Prayer of the Episcopal Church.

Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage: may we always prove ourselves to be mindful of Your favor and glad to do Your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and bring into unity the multitudes, of many cultures and languages, gathered together in this good land. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and among the nations of the earth. In times of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in times of trouble, strengthen our trust in You, for You are our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, now and forever. Amen.

Representative Amanda Bouldin, member from Manchester, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was sung by Sophia Biondolillo, daughter of Representatives Amanda and Andrew Bouldin.

Motion adopted.

DEBATE ON HB 552-FN

Rep. Marjorie Smith: It is of no surprise to anyone that across the country there are dramatic changes in how health care is delivered. New Hampshire has had a long and distinguished history of community-based care. Many of our outstanding hospitals were started with the vision and financial and volunteer support from our communities. We have watched many of those hospitals grow as the communities grew and the services grew more complex. The legislature, in its wisdom, created in the Department of Justice the Office of Charitable Trusts that, among myriad responsibilities, must guarantee that hospital mergers and acquisitions must be in the best interest of the charitable trust and the community that it serves. That language was written in a somewhat simpler time. The enormity of some of these mergers exceeds the biennial budget of the state. People of good faith have understood that implicit in existing law is that communities' access to quality and affordable health care must be protected and health care today includes both physical and mental health care services. The House, in amending HB 552 acknowledged the size of some of these mergers, and specified that the state review should focus not only on the community where the hospitals are based, but also on the state. The senate chose to change that language and talk about community and communities, plural. The Judiciary Committee agrees with the senate change. The senate also extended the effective date, understanding that some mergers, including one enormous merger affecting my home community, are already underway. Those of you who were privileged to observe the supreme court argument held in the House Chamber this last week have heightened awareness that words matter. Therefore, rather than rely on implicit understanding, HB 522 makes explicit that when evaluating proposed changes in governance of the hospitals, the state must look at how the new entities would meet the physical and mental health of the communities that would be affected and that the Office of Charitable Trusts has the authority to work with the Departments of Health and Human Services and the Insurance in protecting the needs of today's citizens and honoring the intentions of those who donated their time and their money to create the best possible health delivery systems. The Judiciary Committee asks you to support the motion of concurrence. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Packard requested Unanimous Consent of the House regarding a motorcycle memorial ride and addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Reps. Shurtleff and Hinch moved that the remarks made by Rep. Packard during Unanimous Consent be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Without objection, the Speaker ordered.

REMARKS

Rep. Packard: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I came before you about three weeks ago and I told you about a memorial ride, a run that I was having for my wife and many of you thought it was an actual run, but this is a motorcycle ride. Currently, it is going to be on the 22nd, rain or shine, and I hope all of you will pray for a nice, sunny, beautiful day. Currently, we have raised over $7,000. I still have some checks to pick up so hopefully we will be approaching $8,000 when we are done. I just want to take a minute if you will give me a minute to tell you where the money is going to go. It's going to the Sunshine Soup Kitchen in Derry and that feeds people from Derry and the surrounding communities five days a week. She served on the board for over 10 years. It's going to the Salvation Army for the Toys for Tots campaign that they distribute toys at Christmas time to needy families. It's going to the Liberty House on the suggestion from my friend Al to veterans. The reason is, even though I am not a veteran, her father was a World War II veteran that served in the Pacific for 4 years and his younger brother who was at D-Day. It's going to the Londonderry Lions, where we provide $6,000 a year in scholarships and also do a lot of local eye care. It's also going to an organization her and I started back in 1975, the New Hampshire Motorcyclists Rights Organization that for 37 years has had a toy run collecting toys for the Salvation Army and we collect about a quarter of the toys each year that they put in their toy room for needy people. And, also, we just formed a relationship with the Department of Safety and the New Hampshire Automobile Dealers Association to put together a ride smart program that we are all working on together to try to make motorcycling as safe as possible. Thank you all for those who have donated. From the bottom of my heart I thank you for what you have done.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Somssich requested Unanimous Consent of the House regarding the human cost of war and addressed the House.

MOMENT OF SILENCE

A moment of silence was observed in honor and in memory of those that have lost their lives from War.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Treleven moved that the remarks made by Rep. Somssich during Unanimous Consent be printed in the Permanent Journal.
Without objection, the Speaker ordered.

Rep. Somssich: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Honorable Members of the House, I thank you for this opportunity to make a few comments about the human price of war. First, I am not a friend of the current or the previous Russian governments. However, people, regardless of their country of origin, are much the same everywhere. My family came to this country as refugees from Hungary in 1956 escaping a brutal communist government controlled by the Soviet Union at that time. Since I was born in Budapest and have spent 23 years of my life in Europe, I am well aware of the horrendous toll that wars have taken on the lives of the inhabitants of Europe in the 20th century. My relationships with my friends and numerous families, including my own, gave me a deep sense of sympathy for the grave abuses and losses that such families personally suffered in addition to the rubble that was left behind from wars inflicted on their countries. We Americans have not suffered such serious loss of life and destruction on American soil since the Civil War. That is why we focus on the casualties of our military men and women, while tending to ignore the consequences on a civilian population and the destruction of someone's homeland. Recently, in this chamber we appropriately remembered the sacrifices and loss of lives that our American military personnel suffered on the beaches of Normandy. We also tangentially acknowledged the serious sacrifices suffered by some of our allies, but what did those nations, both allies and enemies, suffer as the result of World War II? Here are some sobering statistics. Deaths, both military and civilian for the allies: United States 417,000 military deaths, and 1,700 civilian deaths; United Kingdom 384,000 military deaths and 70,000 civilians; France 218,000 military deaths and 320,000 civilian deaths; Soviet Union 8-10 million military deaths and 14 million civilian deaths. On the enemy side: Germany 5 million military deaths and 3 million civilian deaths and that's not including the victims of the Holocaust; Japan 2.1 million military deaths and 1 million civilian deaths; Italy 300,000 military deaths and 160,000 civilian deaths. In total, historians report that 60 million people lost their lives as the result of WW II, which was at the time 2.5% of the world population. These huge losses of human life should be a reminder to all of us that we are not the only country that suffered as the result of World War II. It should also remind us of the great value of both our NATO alliance and the European Union, which have significantly contributed to keeping the peace in Europe for the last 70 years. By contrast, the two World Wars in addition to the third potential world war in 1905, all occurred within the first 50 years of the 20th century. Madam Speaker, in recognition of this worldwide toll in our 20th century as far as war casualties and civilians, I would like to request a moment of silence. Thank You.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Butler and Cannon requested Unanimous Consent of the House regarding the Stonewall riots and Pride Month and addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Alexander moved that the remarks made by Reps. Butler and Cannon during Unanimous Consent be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker ordered.

Rep. Butler: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Would the members of the caucus want to join us down front? Colleagues, June is LGBTQ Pride Month and this year we celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots, those clashes with the forces that had been harassing gay community members for just being who we were, different from the majority of heterosexual citizens but no longer willing to be told that we were not equal to that majority. As a gay man and a proud member of the New Hampshire House LGBTQ Caucus, I am proud to tell you today why Pride Month is important and to acknowledge some of the heroes, heroines and non-binary greats that have made this day possible. We can stand here today, proud and comfortable in our identity, because of the work, confrontations, demonstrations, challenges to authority and pride in identity of many before us. There were those wonderful drag queens and trans-people, gay men and lesbians who, in June of 1969 said 'No More' in the Stonewall Riots. But there have been many courageous men, women and gender-fluid people who before and after them worked to change the perception of who we are and who brought us out into the mainstream of everyday life. I'd like to mention just a few: James Baldwin, one of the great American writers. Baldwin who illuminated the experience of being both gay and black in America through books like Giovanni's Room. Harry Hay, founded the Mattachine Society in 1950, one of the modern world's first organizations for gay men. Later he established the LA chapter of the Gay Liberation Front and a group called the Radical Faeries! Harvey Milk, the gay San Francisco City Councilor who, in 1978, was assassinated by one of the other city councilors. Milk is famous for making it clear that the best way for the GLBT community to be integrated into our communities was for all of us to come out to our families, our friends and our neighbors. Barbara Gittings, a strong, proud advocate for women's and lesbian rights, Gittings established the New York chapter of the Daughters of Bilitis, one of the earliest lesbian social and political organizations. Christine Jorgensen, do you remember her? I do! One of the first transgender women who became a public figure. She brought a likable, relatable, kind face and voice, not to mention elegance and style, to the previously hidden reality that gender is anything but a binary issue. Leonard Matlovich, Matlovich wasn't one of the first gay men to serve in the military, but he may have been the first, in 1975, to come out on such a public platform. His gravestone says, "When I was in the military they gave me a medal for killing two men and a discharge for loving one." Jennifer Finney Boylan, read her book She's Not There: A Life in Two Genders. This smart, wonderful transwoman, English professor at Colby College has helped thousands of us understand the transgender experience through her memoirs and public persona. Barney Frank, there have been several powerful gay and lesbian politicians on the national stage, none more colorful, opinionated and recognizable than our next-door neighbor, Congressman Frank. Edie Windsor, married in Canada in 2007, her marriage wasn't recognized at home in the USA. Her partner died and she was saddled with estate taxes that wouldn't have been as onerous had their marriage been recognized here in the US. She sued and, in 2013, the Supreme Court gave us marriage equality across the nation! What a hodgepodge of important people who have brought the LGBTQ community closer to our goal, to be just one of the many kinds of expressions of identity in this multi-faceted world. These people, and so many more, have lived out and proud and fought to make Pride Month possible. And, of course, we have our own heroes and heroines in the struggles to achieve equality here in NH! I'm sure I don't know and won't remember everyone but to name a few: Jim Splaine, Mo Baxley, Ray Buckley, Dana Hilliard, Ruth Smith and Beth McGuinn, Brian Rater and Brendan Denehy, Steve Vaillancourt, Jim MacKay, David Pierce, Tara Mahady, Gerri Cannon, and my other colleagues here and so many allies who worked hard to help us fight back bigotry and secure equality. But we still have a ways to go. It's okay to not understand what makes us who we are. I'm sure not all of us understand how it is possible to be a Democrat or a Republican! But you must respect us for who we are, just another face of a wonderful, complex and colorful world. Happy LGBTQ Pride Month. Thank you for your support.

Rep. Cannon: So, we have heard a bit of history about Pride, so why do we celebrate Pride? As I look out at all of you, I have to believe that you are proud of the work that you do here for our state and for our residents. We felt the pride of drafting and sponsoring bills and moving them through committees and having people tell you how proud they are of you for doing a great job. Yes, you are doing a great job, but even more important is the pride we have in our families. The birth of our children. Watching them grow and learn who they are. Watching them graduate from high school and college. Celebrating with them when they find their dream job or when they find the love of their life. However, pride for many people is hard to find, especially for the LGBTQ community. Our social upbringing tells us that we shouldn't be the way we are, yet we are who we are. Getting to the point where we can admit this to ourselves, is a life and death effort. Perhaps this is why the LGBTQ community experiences one of the highest rates of suicide for adults and children than the general public. I know this to be true. I've helped other transgendered individuals overcome their depression and suicidal thoughts. I have also been there and sought help so I am glad that I am here speaking with you. Pride for me was to be proud of who I am. I am a proud politician. I meant a transgendered woman. I'm a proud politician too, you guys are great. Pride events are events where LGBTQ people, their families and allies are able to express their pride in themselves and others. It's a celebration of our lives and a way for people who are hidden from the public to be out with others like themselves. Over the years, there have been many small pride events throughout the State of New Hampshire. Four years ago, a large event was organized in Portsmouth by Seacoast Outright, a support group for LGBTQ youth. This year seven pride events will be held in our state. Concord Pride was held in front of the State House on June 1st. Pride events are planned for Manchester and Claremont this coming Saturday. Portsmouth Pride will be held on the 22nd. Nashua and North Conway Pride events are planned for the 29th. Rochester will hold their Pride event on August 24th. Rochester is different. There will also be many other smaller events held throughout the state. Pride events in New Hampshire are family oriented and open to everyone. They are celebrations of our lives, our diversity and our commonality. They are celebrations of freedom. I encourage you to attend at least one of these events. If you feel awkward attending Pride, guess what? That is the same awkwardness LGBTQ people feel when they start to come out to others. Let me let you in on another reason you should attend. The people attending are your constituents and most of them are a younger generation of voters. I encourage you to attend a Pride event. Learn about your LGBTQ constituents and their allies and be proud of them for being bold enough to share their pride with you. Thank you.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Baldasaro requested Unanimous Consent of the House regarding a thank you for flowers and well wishes and addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Shurtleff moved that the remarks made by Rep. Baldasaro during Unanimous Consent be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker ordered.

REMARKS

Rep. Baldasaro: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I'm going to be real quick. I know it's time to get out of here a long time ago. But, anyways, first I want to thank the Speaker and the Republican leadership along with my committee chair and others for the flowers and many things that I have received. I went in the hospital for two days which turned into ten and half days of nightmare. With the many prayers, and I believe with God on my side, really made a big turnaround because I had found by accident eight months ago a tumor on my kidney which was cancerous. The reason they found out about it, and I think everyone needs to be, keep an eye on this here, was I was going in for a cardiology appointment and my primary doctor says you haven't seen one in a while, let's get an MRI and that's when I did the MRI when they found the spot, 5 cm, well it was 4 cm and it grew to 5 cm by the time they cut it out on my kidney. So, the issues I was having was my kidney. They had to move my colon and everything out of the way to cut out, the robotic surgery, to cut out 10%. But, I honestly believe that because of the prayer amongst my friends here and around the country made a difference because I went from thinking it was the end of the world, I'll never take another hill to I'm going to take the hill, tomorrow is just another day. I think I owe it to everybody here and people with the prayers that came out and about and made a big difference. Who knew you would go in for a two-day operation, get in and get out, no big deal, and then suffer pneumonia and I still end up with a hernia. I have to fight that battle now in a few months here that came out of this also, but I at least want to come up here and thank you all. Thank you.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Schuett requested Unanimous Consent of the House regarding Flag Day and addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Notter moved that the remarks made by Rep. Schuett during Unanimous Consent be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker ordered.

REMARKS

Rep. Schuett: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I offer this poem, an adaptation from the original by MSgt. Don S. Miller, USAF (Ret.) in honor of flag day tomorrow

OLD GLORY

I am the flag of the United States of America;
 My name is "Old Glory."
 I fly atop the world's tallest buildings,
 I stand watch in America's halls of justice,
 I fly majestically over great institutions of learning,
 I stand guard with the greatest military power in the world.
 Look up! And see me.
 I stand for peace, honor, truth and justice.
 I stand for freedom. I am confident
 I am arrogant. I am proud.
 When I am flown with my fellow banners,
 My head is a little higher,
 My colors a little truer.
 I bow to no one!
 I am recognized all over the world,
 I am saluted - I am respected - I am revered,
 I am loved and I am feared.
 I have fought in every battle of every war for more than 200 years.
 Gettysburg, Shiloh, Appomattox, San Juan Hill, the trenches of France, the Argonne forest, Anzio, Rome, the beaches of Normandy, Guam, Okinawa, Tarawa, Korea, Vietnam, the Persian Gulf and scores of places long forgotten by all except by those who were there with me.
 I was there.
 I led my soldiers, sailors and marines.
 I followed them.
 I watched over them.
 They loved me!
 I was on a small hill on Iwo Jima,
 I was dirty, battle worn and tired, but my warriors cheered me!
 And I was proud!
 I was at ground zero in New York City on September 11th as cowardly fanatics attacked America.
 I was raised from the ashes of once proud buildings by brave firefighters.
 Heroes, who risked their lives to save others, showing all that America, although bloodied, will never be beaten.
 Those who would destroy me cannot win for I am the symbol of freedom.
 I have been soiled, burned, torn and trampled in the streets of my own country.
 And when it is by those whom I have served with in battle - it hurts.
 But I shall overcome - for I am strong.
 I have slipped the surly bonds of earth and from my vantage point on the moon,
 I stand watch over the uncharted new frontiers of space.
 I have been a silent witness to all of America's finest hours,
 But my finest hour comes when I am torn in strips,
 To be used as bandages for my wounded comrades on the field of battle
 When I fly half-mast to honor my soldiers,
 And when I lie in the trembling arms of a grieving mother,
 At the gravesite of her fallen son or daughter.
 I am proud!
 My name is "Old Glory" long may I wave.
