HOUSE JOURNAL NO. 2

Wednesday, January 8, 2025

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Reverend Reed Loy, Rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton. In my religion we speak of "the communion of saints" by which we mean "the living relationship with those who have gone before us, where love persists." We pray not so much "to" the saints, as "with" the saints, welcoming their character and light to embolden our own. Recognizing the spiritual diversity of this chamber, I hope that in this prayer with a recently departed saint you will find, in the way in which you understand the persistent echoes of love, some accompaniment in bearing your light forward. Let us pray. God, in whom our many lives find unity, in whom a living relationship is known with all who have gone before and with those at any distance who share the pursuit of love and truth, I thank You today for the life of Jimmy Carter, who was satisfied to lead from his values, to make those values plain for others, and to have his values challenged and sharpened by those around him. May those of every political conviction in the Legislature of this state be strengthened to their own best efforts by the remembrance of Jimmy Carter's neighbor-love, his actual preference for righteousness over reelection and his bodily defining of integrity in public office. In Jimmy Carter we remember that our pluralism reveals more truth, and that the light of leadership is in speech and law, but also in daily kindness. Help this body in the remembrance of this saint and of all those who have exemplified the work of the political life. Amen.

Representative Patricia Cornell, member from Manchester, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was sung by the Paradigm Quartet from Northern Voices A cappella in Manchester, featuring Terry Neill, Jill Teeters, Kay Bilodeau and Kate Roberts.
