HOUSE JOURNAL NO. 15 (Cont'd)

Thursday, May 22, 2025

Rep. Osborne moved that the House adjourn.
Motion was adopted.

HOUSE JOURNAL NO. 16

Thursday, June 5, 2025

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Jonathan Hopkins, Pastor at Concordia Lutheran Church in Concord.

God of the ages, we give thanks for the 200 years that this building has stood. Within these halls the people's business has been done. We are aware today of those who have come before us, who have laid the foundations of democracy. We trust Your sustaining presence. Whatever the risk, whatever providence provides, we stand secure together knowing that we continue to work towards justice and freedom for all. God of the ages, we remember today those who over 80 years ago set upon a mighty endeavor, a struggle to preserve our Republic, our religion, and our civilization, and to set free a suffering humanity. They were led with strength to their arms, stoutness to their hearts, steadfastness in their faith. The road to victory was long and hard, for the enemy was strong. Success did not come with rushing speed, but we returned again and again, and we know that by the grace of God, and by the righteousness of our cause, we triumphed. Those who fought on D-Day fought not for the lust of conquest. They fought to end conquest. They fought to liberate. They fought to let justice arise, and tolerance and good will among all the people. They yearned for the end of battle, for their return to the haven of home. Some never returned. Embrace them, Thy heroic servants, into Thy kingdom. Give us strength to follow in their footsteps and not forget their sacrifices. Strengthen us in our daily tasks, to redouble the contributions we make in the physical and the material support of our armed forces. And, O Lord, give us faith in each other, faith in our united crusade. Let not the keenness of our spirit ever be dulled. Let not the impacts of temporary events, of temporal matters, of but fleeting moments, let not these deter us in our unconquerable purpose. Help us to conquer the apostles of greed and racial arrogance. Lead us to the saving of our country, and with our sister nations into a world unity that will spell a sure peace, a peace invulnerable to the scheming of unworthy men. And a peace that will let all of men live in freedom, reaping the just rewards of their honest toil. Amen.

Representative Brian Seaworth, member from Pembroke, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was sung by the Pembroke Hill School Chorus.

SB 24, allowing students under age 21 to taste wine in educational settings. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. John Potucek for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill Amends RSA 179 and allows "qualified students" enrolled in "qualified academic institutions" to "taste," but not swallow, an alcoholic beverage. "Qualified students" shall not be subject to prosecution under RSA 179:10 as long as all eight qualifications are met. Unlawful possession and intoxication statutes are still in force but amended by this bill. The committee agreed with the sponsor that the tasting of alcoholic products in an educational setting is an important step in a student's formal alcohol education. Vote 15-0.

SB 26, relative to the definition of deposits as they pertain to land sales and escrow of deposits. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. John Hunt for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill allows the department of justice to authorize the pre-closing use of a portion of a deposit held in escrow for the payment of certain construction customizations, upgrades, or change orders if the construction/sale falls through. The amendment removes several sections that appeared to be contradictory to the intent of the legislation. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1976h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT allowing the department of justice to authorize the preclosing use of a portion of a deposit held in escrow for the payment of certain construction customizations, upgrades, or change orders.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Trade and Commerce; Land Sales Full Disclosure Act; Escrow of Deposits. Amend RSA 356-A:9-a to read as follows:

356-A:9-a Escrow of Deposits. Any deposit made in regard to any disposition of a lot, parcel, unit or interest in subdivided lands shall be held in escrow until settlement or closing. Such escrow funds shall be deposited in a separate account designated for this purpose; provided, however, if such funds are being held by a real estate broker or attorney licensed under the laws of this state, they may be placed in that broker's or attorney's regular escrow account and need not be placed in a separate designated account. Such escrow funds shall not be subject to attachment by the creditors of either the purchaser or the subdivider. Notwithstanding the foregoing requirement that the deposit be held in escrow, the department of justice's consumer protection and antitrust bureau may authorize the preclosing use of a portion of a deposit designated pursuant to a purchase and sales agreement for the payment of any of the following, on such terms as the bureau might reasonably impose:

- (a) Customizations,
- (b) Upgrades,
- (c) Change orders,
- (d) Similar items, and
- (e) Any combination of subparagraphs (a) through (d).

2 Trade and Commerce; Condominium Act; Escrow of Deposits. Amend RSA 356-B:57 to read as follows:

356-B:57 Escrow of Deposits. Subject to the foregoing, such escrow funds shall be deposited in a separate account designated for this purpose; provided, however, if such funds are being held by a real estate broker or attorney licensed under the laws of this state, they may be placed in that broker's or attorney's regular escrow account and need not be placed in a separate designated account. Such escrow funds shall not be subject to attachment by the creditors of either the purchaser or the declarant. Notwithstanding the foregoing requirement that the deposit be held in escrow, the department of justice's consumer protection and antitrust bureau may authorize the preclosing use of a portion of a deposit designated pursuant to a purchase and sales agreement for the payment of any of the following, on such terms as the bureau might reasonably impose:

- (d) Similar items, and
- (e) Any combination of subparagraphs (a) through (d).

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows the department of justice to authorize the preclosing use of a portion of a deposit held in escrow for the payment of certain construction customizations, upgrades, or change orders.

SB 47, requiring certain health insurance policies of a birth mother to provide coverage for a newly born child from the moment of birth. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Anita Burroughs for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill ensures immediate health insurance coverage for newborns under the birth mother's policy. The bill requires that a birth mother's health insurance policy provide coverage for her newborn child from the moment of birth, making it the primary policy unless the mother lacks insurance or employer-sponsored coverage. If the mother does not have insurance or employer-sponsored coverage, the other parent's policy may provide coverage. Vote 16-0.

SB 52, relative to default provisions in New Hampshire trusts. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Chris McAleer for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill collectively refers to a trustee, trust advisor, or trust protector as a "fiduciary," whether or not exercising fiduciary responsibilities. It further states that a beneficiary of a trust may not replace a fiduciary with a relative or subordinate of the beneficiary within the meaning of section 672(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Furthermore, a fiduciary may not use their discretionary power to satisfy any legal obligations of a beneficiary. Vote 16-0.

SB 79-FN, enabling the use of self-pour automated systems by liquor commission licensees. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. John Potucek for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill defines and enables the use of self-pour automated systems by holders of on-premises licenses. The bill amends RSA 178 by adding the new section titled "Self-Automated Pour Systems." It allows licensees to utilize an automated dispensing system when a patron activates the automated dispensing system via an RFID token item. This will allow licensees to control intake of alcohol by patrons without having to employ unneeded excess employees to do so, reducing employer expenses, especially when employees are getting harder to find. Monitoring customer alcohol intake is made much easier by monitoring their token and limiting the customer to additional drinks. It also allows customers to purchase larger quantities of product for family and friends, while still monitoring overall quantities per person. Via this methodology, additional revenues can easily be realized by both the providing location and the Liquor Commission. Vote 16-0.

SB 80-FN, consolidating licensing, auditing, and enforcement responsibilities for wholesale and retail e-cigarettes sales under the liquor commission. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. John Hunt for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill consolidates licensing, auditing, and enforcement responsibilities for wholesale and retail e-cigarette sales under the liquor commission. The bill also provides for tobacco tax certificates to be issued by the department of revenue administration and licenses issued by the liquor commission. Vote 16-0.

SB 85, relative to chartered bank lending limits. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. John Hunt for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill makes two key changes. First, it raises the legal lending limit for New Hampshire-chartered banks from 15% to 20% of capital, with an option to increase it to 25% if the additional 5% is fully secured. Currently, these banks may lend only up to 15% of their capital to any single customer. This change brings New Hampshire's standard more in line with other jurisdictions, enhancing competitiveness while maintaining prudential safeguards. The second change aligns New Hampshire's de novo period with the FDIC standard. The de novo period is the initial phase for newly chartered banks, during which they undergo heightened regulatory oversight. Currently, New Hampshire's period is five years; the FDIC's is three. This bill reduces New Hampshire's period to three years to ensure consistency and remove unnecessary regulatory burden. Vote 16-0.

SB 89, enabling non-citizens who are legally authorized to work in the United States to deliver alcohol. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Jared Sullivan for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill proposes to amend New Hampshire law to allow non-citizens who are legally authorized to work in the United States to deliver alcoholic beverages. This change would expand employment opportunities in the alcohol delivery sector to include individuals with valid work authorization, such as those holding work visas or permanent resident status. Vote 16-0.

SB 121-FN, requiring notice to the insurance department of the discontinuance of certain types of insurance, including Medicare Advantage Plans. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Anita Burroughs for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. As amended, this bill aims to enhance transparency for the public and the insurance sector by mandating that insurance companies provide advance notice to the state's insurance department before discontinuing or significantly modifying specific types of insurance. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1945h)

Amend RSA 402:84, II and III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. Unless otherwise required, any licensed insurance company authorized to transact business in this state shall provide 90 days' written notice to the insurance department of the insurance company's decision to cease writing an entire line of business.

III. Any licensed insurance company offering Medicare Advantage Plans under Medicare Part C in this state shall provide 90 days' written notice to the insurance department of the insurance company's decision to modify or terminate its contract with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, to cease offering Medicare Advantage Plans in a particular county, or to significantly modify the offerings of its Medicare Advantage Plans. The insurance company shall notify the insurance department in writing, using the format prescribed by the commissioner.

SB 124-FN, relative to continuing care retirement communities. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Julie Miles for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill repeals and reenacts RSA 420-D, providing the first major update in over 30 years to the state's regulatory framework for Continuing Care Retirement Communities (CCRCs). CCRCs provide long-term housing and health care services for older adults under a single continuing care contract. Residents pay a substantial entrance fee — often between $50,000 and $750,000 — along with ongoing monthly fees, in exchange for a promise of care for life. This bill addresses the serious financial risks faced by residents when a facility becomes insolvent. It strengthens oversight by requiring expanded certificate of authority applications, quarterly and annual financial reporting, escrow protections for entrance fees, and early warning systems for financial distress. It also mandates notice prior to ownership changes or contract cancellations, and includes a resident bill of rights, providing seniors with transparency, complaint procedures, and representation. The bill was requested by the New Hampshire Insurance Department (the department), which cited several recent CCRC financial failures — one requiring state receivership — as justification for action. These reforms allow the department to intervene earlier, rather than waiting until a facility is in crisis. The department emphasized that the changes are designed to protect residents without overburdening stable providers. This bill is supported by the Office of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman, the New Hampshire State Commission on Aging, and nonprofit providers including Riverwoods and the Taylor Community. LeadingAge Maine & New Hampshire, representing all 14 licensed CCRCs in the state, remained neutral but was involved in shaping the bill. No one testified in opposition. This legislation represents a thoughtful balance between resident protection and operational flexibility. It strengthens consumer safeguards while recognizing the diverse structures of CCRCs. The committee recommends Ought to Pass to ensure the stability of this essential model of senior care. Vote 16-0.

SB 164-FN, relative to homeowners and prohibiting certain types of service agreements. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Carry Spier for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. In recent years, certain individuals and businesses have created “service agreements” offered to property owners in need of cash along with a few thousand dollars in exchange for the right to act as the real estate listing agent when the property is sold. The agreement includes fine print that places a lien on the property, which means that when the owner or inheritor tries to sell the property, the title company discovers the lien that can only be cleared up by paying a fee based on a percentage of the property’s value to the offeror of the “service agreement.” In states without laws against such agreements, lawsuits could only be filed based on the practices used during the sale of these agreements, specifically hiding the fact that the agreement places a lien on the property. This bill prevents New Hampshire from being affected by these practices by stating that no listing agreement shall place a lien on a property; if such an agreement is inadvertently entered into, it is considered unenforceable and allows the property owner to recover all damages. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (2222h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to homeowners and prohibiting certain types of listing agreements.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Sections; Service Agreements in Residential Real Estate Transactions. Amend RSA 356-A by inserting after section 16 the following new sections:

356-A:16-a Unfair Agreements to List Residential Real Estate.

I. Definitions. In this section:

(a) “Prohibited listing agreement” means a contract or agreement between a provider and an owner under which the owner agrees to list the owner’s residential real estate for sale and that contains any of the terms or requirements set forth in paragraph II.

(b) “Owner” means an owner of an interest in residential real estate.

(c) “Provider” means a person or entity providing or offering to provide real estate brokerage services.

(d) “Recording” means presenting a document to a register of deeds for official placement in the records of the registry of deeds.

(e) “Residential real estate” means real estate consisting of not less than one nor more than 4 residential dwelling units.

II. A provider shall not enter into, or offer to enter into, a prohibited listing agreement that purports to:

(a) Bind any future owner not a party to the agreement;

(b) Allow for the assignment by the provider of a real estate brokerage service to a third party without notice to or consent of the owner;

(c) Create a lien, encumbrance or other real property security interest; or

(d) Obligate the owner to pay a fee or commission to the provider upon a sale or transfer of the residential real estate when the sale or transfer is not the result of a real estate brokerage service provided by the provider.

III. A violation of this section constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice under RSA 358-A.

IV. A prohibited listing agreement in violation of this section is unenforceable. A person may not record or cause to be recorded a prohibited listing agreement in violation of this section. A prohibited listing agreement recorded in this state in violation of this section does not provide actual or constructive notice against an otherwise bona fide purchaser or creditor. If a prohibited listing agreement is recorded in violation of this section, a party with an interest in the residential real estate that is the subject of that prohibited listing agreement may apply to the superior court in the county where the recording occurred for an order declaring the prohibited listing agreement void and of no effect.

V. Nothing in this section affects a lien on residential real estate established under RSA 447:2.

356-A:16-b Rights of Recovery. If a prohibited listing agreement is recorded in violation of RSA 356-A:16-a, a party with an interest in the residential real estate that is the subject of the prohibited listing agreement may recover actual damages, costs, and attorney’s fees as may be proven against the party who recorded the prohibited listing agreement.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill prohibits certain contracts or agreements between a provider and an owner under which the owner agrees to list the owner’s residential real estate for sale with the provider which requires a lien.

SB 245-FN, prohibiting surprise ambulance billing and regulating ground ambulance reimbursement. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Julie Miles for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill, as amended, closes a longstanding gap in consumer protection by addressing surprise billing for ground ambulance transport and unsustainably low insurance reimbursements that threaten emergency medical services (EMS) operations. The bill prohibits balance billing by out-of-network ambulance providers and establishes a fair, predictable reimbursement framework. The committee recommends ought to pass with amendment due to the clear consumer protections, alignment with national recommendations, and the bill's stabilizing effect on New Hampshire's local EMS systems. Following the 2020 federal "No Surprises Act," which excluded ambulance services due to system complexity, this legislation fills that gap. It ensures that patients using out-of-network ambulance services are only responsible for their usual copay, coinsurance, or deductible — nothing more. Health carriers must reimburse providers at locally approved rates or, if none exist, at no less than 325% of the Medicare rate, consistent with states like Colorado and Texas. No prior authorization may be required for emergency or unscheduled transport, and services dispatched under EMS protocols are presumed medically necessary. These provisions follow recommendations from the federal Ground Ambulance and Patient Billing Advisory Committee and aim to protect patients while stabilizing EMS. Testimony from fire chiefs and local officials underscored the urgency of ensuring fair reimbursement, noting that some towns risk losing ambulance coverage due to rising costs and insufficient insurance payments. The New Hampshire Insurance Department projects a modest premium impact of about $0.36 per member, per month. By contrast, Maine adopted a 200% Medicare rate and later had to supplement funding with general fund dollars. A key amendment strengthens the bill further by establishing a two-year independent cost study to evaluate actual EMS costs. Conducted by a neutral third party, the study will guide future reimbursement policy. The amendment also adds an "any willing provider" clause, encouraging more ambulance companies to contract with insurers, fostering competition and expanding patient access to in-network care. This bill promotes fairness, removes patients from billing disputes, and supports EMS availability statewide — especially in rural areas. The amendment also improves clarity around prompt payment rules, oversight, and network participation. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (2458h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subdivision; Managed Care Law; Reimbursement for Ground Ambulance Services. Amend RSA 420-J by inserting after section 19 the following new subdivision:

Reimbursement for Ground Ambulance Services

420-J:20 Definitions. In this subdivision:

I. "Enrolling ground ambulance provider" means a ground ambulance provider who is pursuing in good faith the contracting process for becoming a participating ground ambulance provider with specified health carriers during the period between January 1, 2026, and December 30, 2027, and who has filed with the commissioner a written declaration to that effect on a form provided by the commissioner.

III. "Ground ambulance services" means:

(b) Ground ambulance transport between hospitals or behavioral health emergency services providers, hospitals, or behavioral health emergency services providers and other health care facilities or locations, and between health care facilities when the services are medically necessary and are provided by one or more ground ambulance vehicles designed for this purpose and licensed by the department of safety under RSA 153-A:10.

IV. "Nonparticipating ground ambulance provider" means a ground ambulance provider that is acting within the scope of practice for ground ambulance providers as set out in RSA 153-A, that does not have a contractual relationship directly or indirectly with a health carrier, and that is not an enrolling ground ambulance provider.

V. "Participating ground ambulance provider" means a ground ambulance provider that is a "participating provider" as defined in RSA 420-J:3.

420-J:21 Rate Schedule Established for Certain Ground Ambulance Providers.

I. There is hereby established a rate schedule applicable to all health carriers doing business in the state to reimburse participating and enrolling ground ambulance providers.

(a) Beginning January 1, 2026, through December 31, 2027, participating and enrolling ground ambulance providers shall be reimbursed for ambulance services at a temporary rate schedule of 3.25 times the Medicare rate that is current as of the date of service.

(b) Beginning January 1, 2028, participating ground ambulance providers shall be reimbursed for ambulance services at a rate established by the commissioner. The commissioner shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A with an effective date of January 1, 2028, that establish a statewide, cost-based rate schedule for health carriers to use in reimbursing participating ground ambulance providers that implements the rate schedule recommended by the independent accounting and actuarial expert retained pursuant to RSA 420-J:26.

(c) Beginning January 1, 2029, and annually thereafter, the commissioner shall adjust the participating ground ambulance provider rate for inflation using the general consumer price index as reported by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics. The commissioner shall publish the updated rate by bulletin before January 1 each year.

II. Nothing shall prevent health carriers and ground ambulance providers from voluntarily negotiating an alternative agreed upon rate schedule.

III. Health carriers may apply cost sharing for ambulance services.

IV. For the purpose of determining cost sharing amounts, the rates established in this section shall be considered the allowed amount.

V. Ambulance providers shall be responsible for collecting any cost sharing associated with the ground ambulance services.

420-J:22 Rate Schedule Established for Nonparticipating Ground Ambulance Providers. Beginning on January 1, 2026, nonparticipating ground ambulance providers shall be reimbursed by health carriers at the carrier's nonparticipating rate or at the Medicare rate that is current as of the date of service, whichever is higher.

420-J:23 Standardized Ground Ambulance Provider Contract.

I. The commissioner shall issue a bulletin no later than December 31, 2025, establishing a standardized ground ambulance provider contract template that includes a standardized format and language for contracts between health carriers and ground ambulance providers.

II. Once published by bulletin, all health carriers shall offer ground ambulance providers a standardized ground ambulance contract that incorporates the template established by the commissioner. The health carrier's standardized contract shall be offered to any ground ambulance provider that is qualified and willing to meet the terms and conditions of the standardized ground ambulance provider contract.

III. Nothing shall prevent health carriers and ground ambulance providers from voluntarily negotiating a contract that varies in any respect from the standardized contract.

420-J:24 Contract Negotiations between Ambulance Providers and Health Carriers.

I. Beginning January 1, 2026, and continuing through December 31, 2027, enrolling ground ambulance providers shall be entitled to the provider rate specified in RSA 420-J:21, I(a) as long as they continue to work in good faith towards executing a contract.

II. If a ground ambulance provider fails to actively engage in the contracting process for a period of 60 days, the ambulance provider shall no longer be considered an enrolling ground ambulance provider. Failure to actively engage in the contracting process shall include, but is not limited to, failure to respond to requests by the health carrier for information and failure to sign necessary documents.

III. Health carriers shall act upon and finalize the contracting process within 45 calendar days of receipt of all necessary documents and information required to execute the contract.

420-J:25 Temporary Maintenance of a Registry of Providers Who Qualify as an Enrolling Ground Ambulance Provider.

I. No later than December 31, 2025, the commissioner shall publish through bulletin a written contract negotiation initiation form that shall be used by ground ambulance providers to initiate contract negotiations with specified health carriers and to initially qualify as an enrolling ground ambulance provider with respect to the specified health carriers.

II. A ground ambulance provider must submit the form to the department and to the specified health carriers in order to be eligible for the status of an enrolling ground ambulance provider with respect to those carriers.

III. During the period between January 1, 2026, and December 31, 2027, the insurance department shall maintain a list on its website of ambulance providers who qualify as an enrolling ground ambulance provider with respect to a particular carrier.

IV. If the commissioner finds that a ground ambulance provider has failed to engage in the contracting process with respect to a health carrier, the commissioner shall update the list to reflect that the ambulance provider no longer qualifies as an enrolling ground ambulance provider with respect to that carrier.

420-J:26 Requiring an Independent Study by an Accounting and Actuarial Expert of Ground Ambulance Costs in the State and the Establishment of a Cost-Based Reimbursement Schedule for Participating Ground Ambulance Service Providers.

I. Beginning on the effective date of this section, the commissioner shall oversee the process provided for in this section of contracting with an independent accounting and actuarial expert to conduct a study of the costs incurred by ground ambulance providers related to the provision of ground ambulance services in the state. Costs shall include the cost of pre-hospital care and the cost of sustaining a reasonable operating margin in support of the expectation that ground ambulance providers in the state maintain readiness to meet demand for services. Cost estimates shall be based on the assumption that services shall be provided in a reasonably cost-effective manner.

II. The commissioner of the department of safety shall collaborate with the commissioner in collecting cost surveys from ground ambulance providers in the state. These surveys may either be designed by the accounting and actuarial expert or may be adopted by the expert from the medicare ground ambulance data collection system cost reports. The commissioner of the department of safety shall have authority to enforce this reporting requirement upon ground ambulance providers under the general supervision and specific enforcement authority conferred by RSA 153-A and shall work with the commissioner to set a deadline for ground ambulance providers to submit their cost reports that is sufficient to facilitate the completion of the study and report provided for in this section in a timely manner.

III. The independent accounting and actuarial expert shall submit all cost data submitted by ground ambulance providers to rigorous data validation and auditing procedures and shall verify that the ground ambulance provider has used proper cost allocation methods, including when fire and ambulance services are provided by the same entity. The commissioner of the department of safety shall have authority under the general supervision and specific enforcement authority conferred by RSA 153-A to enforce compliance by ground ambulance providers with data validation and auditing of cost reports. The commissioner of the department of safety shall work with the commissioner to set a deadline for ground ambulance providers to comply with data validation and auditing requirements that is sufficient to facilitate the completion of the study and report provided for in this section in a timely manner.

IV. If a ground ambulance provider fails to cooperate with cost data submission requirements or with requirements to facilitate data validation or cost report auditing requirements, then that provider shall lose access to the temporary rate schedule established for enrolling and participating ground ambulance providers in RSA 420-J:21, and health carriers shall be required to reimburse such providers at their nonparticipating rate or at the Medicare rate that is current as of the date of service, whichever is higher. During the period of the cost study, the commissioner shall maintain a list that shall be made available to health carriers doing business in the state that includes all ground ambulance providers who have been determined by the commissioner to have failed to cooperate with cost data submission requirements or with requirements to facilitate data validation or cost report auditing requirements.

V. If an analytical sample of audited cost reports is utilized by the independent expert that is obtained from a subset of ground ambulance providers in the state, then the most appropriate statistical methods shall be used to ensure that the analytical sample is appropriately normalized and adequately representative of the general population of ground ambulance providers doing business in the state.

VI. Based on the information provided through the cost reports, the independent accounting and actuarial expert shall be directed to summarize the cost information collected and to derive a statewide cost-based rate schedule appropriate for health carriers to use in reimbursing participating ground ambulance providers. The schedule may vary based on geographic region. Reimbursement under the schedule shall be designed to cover the costs attributable to the provision of covered services assuming that all public and commercial ground ambulance payers in the state are paying at the same rate. The independent accounting and actuarial expert shall produce a final report by June 30, 2027, which shall include the expert's recommended cost-based reimbursement schedule for participating ground ambulance providers and which shall detail the methodology used to calculate ground ambulance costs in the state and such other supplemental information as shall be directed by the commissioner. The commissioner shall assist the independent expert as necessary to complete the study, the rate schedule, and the report in a timely manner.

VII. VIII. The cost study required under this section shall be funded in an amount up to $400,000 out of funds as provided in RSA 400-A:15, IV.

2 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 420-J:20, I, relative to the definition of enrolling ground ambulance provider.

(c) Make recommendations for systemic reforms to support a viable ground ambulance financing and delivery system that will improve sustainability, efficiency, and quality of care while controlling costs.

IV. The commission shall determine the feasibility and advisability of applying for a waiver under Section 1115A of the Social Security Act to enter into an all-payer model agreement for ground ambulance services in the state to implement a uniform, cost-based reimbursement schedule for ground ambulance services that includes Medicare, Medicaid, and all commercial payers and that builds upon the mandatory in-network rate schedule and the cost study conducted under RSA 420-J:26. To determine the feasibility and advisability of applying for the federal waiver, the commission shall determine the most appropriate design of an all-payer model program that could form the basis of an application for a federal waiver.

The first meeting of the commission shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Eight members of the commission shall constitute a quorum.

VII. The commission shall produce a report on November 1 of each year that the commission is in operation detailing the progress made to date carrying out its mandates and including such recommendations for legislative or administrative reforms or initiatives as are timely and appropriate. The commission shall submit its assessment of the feasibility and advisability of applying for a waiver under Section 1115A of the Social Security Act to enter into an all-payer model agreement for ground ambulance services in the state to create a uniform, cost-based reimbursement schedule for ground ambulance services that includes Medicare, Medicaid and all commercial payers no later than its November 1, 2027 report. If this report finds the waiver application not feasible or advisable, then the commission shall continue to report on the feasibility and advisability of at least the public policy options for improving the ground ambulance financing and delivery system listed in RSA 153-A:38, III and V and any other policy options the commission deems would serve the needs of New Hampshire citizens. The commission shall issue its report and any recommendations for proposed legislation or administrative actions to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the chairs of commerce, municipal and county government, health and human services, and criminal justice and public safety in the house of representatives, the chairs of commerce and health and human services in the senate, the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library.

7 Repeal. RSA 153-A:38 and the section heading preceding RSA 153-A:38, relative to the commission on improving the ground ambulance services financing and delivery system, are repealed.

8 New Paragraph; Insurance Department; Statutes, Rules, and Regulations; Violation. Amend RSA 400-A:15 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

Any fines collected during this period in excess of this $400,000 amount shall be deposited by the commissioner in the general fund. If there is any portion of the $400,000 amount that remains unused after the purposes of RSA 420-J:26 are accomplished, then the commissioner shall notify the state treasurer that such amount is to be transferred to the general fund under this paragraph.

9 Repeal. RSA 400-A:15, IV, relative to the deposit of fines in the insurance department administration fund for the purpose of an independent accounting and actuarial study of ground ambulance services financing and delivery system, is repealed.

10 Effective Date.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Regulates reimbursement for ground ambulance services under the managed care law and prohibits balance billing for ground ambulance services.

II. Establishes a commission on improving the ground ambulance services financing and delivery system and provides for use of funds from the insurance department administration fund to be used for an accounting and actuarial study of ground ambulance costs in the state of New Hampshire.

SB 280-FN, requiring a food delivery service to enter into an agreement with a food service establishment or food retail store before offering delivery service from that restaurant. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. John Potucek for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill repeals and reenacts RSA 359-S. An on-line food delivery service who acts as a go-between between a food provider and a final customer MUST have a formal agreement/contract in-place with the food provider to provide food service to the end customer. The delivery service – ala “Door-Dash” – shall have a formal contractual agreement with the food provider – ala “Copper Door” – to provide delivery of their product to all or any customers. Vote 16-0.

SB 143, relative to the impaired driver care management program and recovery residences. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Terry Roy for Criminal Justice and Public Safety. This bill makes administrative changes to impaired driver programs, when they must be taken, for how long they are valid, and relating to programs taken in other states being accepted in New Hampshire. Vote 16-0.

SB 151-FN, relative to accessible parking permit verification and fraud prevention. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Kathleen Paquette for Criminal Justice and Public Safety. The committee unanimously recommends this bill, which strengthens the enforcement and clarity of parking regulations for individuals with walking disabilities, ought to pass. The bill amends RSA 265:69, RSA 265:69-a, and RSA 265:74 to increase fines for unauthorized use of disability designated parking spaces and access aisles, while also making key improvements to the rules for proper placard display. While the bill doubles minimum fines for violations to increase deterrence, a particularly important provision is the clarification and reasonable treatment of failure to display a valid placard. This bill establishes that a person with a valid walking disability placard who fails to properly display it, for example, by forgetting to hang it from the rear-view mirror, is not subject to the full $500 penalty. Instead, this oversight is treated distinctly and carries a nominal $5 fine. This distinction ensures that the law penalizes misuse and abuse, not honest mistakes by those who are lawfully entitled to accessible parking. This approach strikes the right balance: it enforces the importance of visible placards for proper enforcement, while recognizing the need for fairness toward those with legitimate disabilities. This provision received strong support in testimony and reflects a thoughtful, measured update to current law. By making clear that the full fine applies only when a placard is not present or used fraudulently, not simply forgotten, the bill improves fairness and clarity in enforcement. With a unanimous vote of 15–0, the committee supports this bill as a meaningful step forward. Vote 15-0.

SB 266-FN, relative to safety and accountability of drivers under 18 years of age. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Mark Proulx for Criminal Justice and Public Safety. This bill increases the accountability of drivers under the age of 18. This bill does this by increasing the minimum time of suspension of a license. More importantly the bill adds an in-person education piece. Hopefully this will help them understand what can happen if they continue with this behavior. Vote 16-0.

SB 300-FN, criminalizing the creation of child intimate visual representations. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Nancy Murphy for Criminal Justice and Public Safety. This bill sought to address a gap in state law that prevents certain child sexual abuse images from being prosecuted. New Hampshire’s Internet Crime Against Children Task Force receives thousands of case referrals each year. However, many of these cases involve inappropriate and exploitative images of children that don’t qualify as sexual abuse images under current law. While this bill aimed to help protect children from being sexually exploited, concerns were raised by prosecutors and members of law enforcement during the public hearing that one section of the

Amendment (1719h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Section; Child Sexual Abuse Images; Creation of Child Intimate Visual Representations. Amend RSA 649-A by inserting after section 3-b the following new section:

649-A:3-c Creation of Child Intimate Visual Representations.

I. No person shall knowingly create, produce, manufacture, or direct an intimate visual representation of a child for prurient purposes when that child is identifiable from the intimate visual representation itself or information displayed in connection with the intimate visual representation.

II. For purposes of this section, “intimate visual representation” means any visual depiction, including any photograph, film, video, digital image, synthetic image, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, in which a child’s intimate parts are depicted.

III. For purposes of this section, “intimate parts” means the fully unclothed, partially unclothed, or transparently clothed genitals, pubic area, or anus, or, if the person is female, a partially or fully exposed nipple, including exposure through transparent clothing.

IV. For purposes of this section, “synthetic image” means an image that has been altered or created depicting an individual’s image in a realistic but false representation of the individual.

V. For the purposes of this section, “prurient purposes” means for the purpose of sexual gratification or sexual arousal from viewing the intimate visual representation prohibited by this section.

VI. An offense under this section shall be a class B felony.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes it a class B felony and a tier II registrable offense for a person to knowingly create, produce, manufacture, or direct an intimate visual representation of a child for prurient purposes.

SB 43, removing articles of clothing from the definition of electioneering. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Amendment (2475h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT removing articles of clothing from the definition of electioneering and the use of electronic poll book devices.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Electioneering; Wearing of Clothing. Amend RSA 652:16-h, I to read as follows:

I. Wearing clothing or paraphernalia that displays a candidate’s name, likeness, or logo, a ballot measure’s number, title, subject, or logo, a political party’s name or logo, or any communication that a reasonable person would believe explicitly advocates for or against any candidate, political party, or measure. [~~provided that~~] A person who is eligible to vote or register to vote in the voting district who is unable to reasonably remove or cover such clothing [~~that explicitly advocates for or against any candidate, political party, or measure;~~] may wear such clothing in the polling place while actively and expeditiously engaged in the process of registering to vote or while actively and expeditiously engaged in the process of voting

2 Electronic Poll Books. Amend RSA 652:27, I to read as follows:

I. Cities and towns are hereby authorized to use electronic poll book devices for voter registration and check-in for elections, town business and deliberative sessions and special meetings, and school district business and deliberative sessions and special meetings provided that any city or town using electronic poll book devices shall comply with all statutes directly or indirectly related to voter checklists and maintenance of the statewide centralized voter registration database including the processes related to voter registration, voter check-in and check-out, the processing of absentee ballots, the collection of all fields of data required for registration or check-in, and the delivery of that data to the secretary of state in a format compatible with the statewide centralized voter registration database. The provisions of RSA 654:34, RSA 659:55, RSA 659:13, RSA 659:14, and RSA 659:23, as they relate to manual entries on a paper checklist, are hereby waived in order to accommodate an electronic poll book, provided the same information required of the voter is obtained and recorded by the electronic poll book, and can be retrieved and/or printed at any time including during an election. In addition, nonpublic data related to individual voter data shall remain confidential, and no voter data shall be released or retained by an electronic poll book vendor, including its agents, or any company or individual that provides software, hardware, or services to the vendor for any purpose. An electronic poll book vendor shall not have access to any voter data except as specifically necessary to setup, maintain, or train for an electronic poll book program authorized under RSA 652:27. Adequate back-up systems shall be in place as determined by the local election officials for local elections and the secretary of state for all other elections. A back-up system shall include a “real time” download or accurate account of voters who have checked in or registered on the day of the election. The electronic poll book shall have the ability to generate a paper voter checklist completely marked to reflect participation in the election up to the time of any system failure or malfunction, and sufficient number of high speed printers shall be available in the polling place to produce a back-up paper checklist for use in the event of a system failure, or a paper checklist shall be marked in parallel with the electronic poll book reflecting the real time check-in of voters with a lag time of no more than 30 minutes. A marked checklist shall be printed upon the completion of every election along with any reports required by statute and shall be retained by the clerk.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows certain articles of clothing supporting a candidate or measure to be worn by a voter in the process of casting his or her vote. This bill also allows the use of electronic poll book devices in town meetings, special meetings, and deliberative sessions.

SB 45, clarifying the placement of advertising signs on state-owned property. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. Rep. Clayton Wood for Election Law. The Election Law Committee unanimously recommends that this bill be Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill proposes amendments to RSA 664:17 to clarify the rules regarding the placement of political advertising on municipal property, aiming for consistency and clear guidelines across different jurisdictions within New Hampshire. While this bill makes clear and focused changes, the committee feels that it does not go far enough to address several broader issues with state-owned rights of way and ownership by adjacent private properties. Several issues arose during testimony on other political sign bills that should be addressed. The addition of “and Other Advertisement” was a departure from the original scope, and although welcomed, could have used more explanation. Vote 17-0.

SB 215, requiring an unorganized town or unincorporated place to elect town officers for the purpose of conducting elections. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Ross Berry for Election Law. In New Hampshire, voters in small towns or unincorporated townships often cast ballots in a neighboring, larger town. While these smaller jurisdictions maintain their own ballots, they rely on the election infrastructure of the larger town to conduct elections. Under current law, there is no threshold that requires a town or unincorporated township to conduct its own election rather than rely on a neighboring town’s resources. This bill establishes a 100-voter threshold: once a town or unincorporated township surpasses 100 registered voters, it must conduct its own elections and may no longer utilize a neighboring town’s election process. The amendment, requested by the committee, codifies the process the Secretary of State’s office must follow when conducting the organizational meeting for the smaller town, ensuring a clearly defined procedure is in place. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (2326h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing voting procedures for electing town officers in unorganized towns or places.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Elections; Unincorporated Places; Establishing Procedures for Voting. RSA 668:6 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

668:6 Establishing Procedures for Voting.

I. The secretary of state or designee shall issue a warrant, post the warrant in the manner required for towns by RSA 39:5, give other public notice, appoint a pro tem moderator and clerk from among the registered voters, and oversee the first election of officers for an unorganized town or unincorporated place for the purpose of conducting local, county, state, and federal elections, pursuant to RSA 53:1. This initial election shall be conducted using the unofficial ballot process as set forth in RSA 669:54 through RSA 669:60. The secretary of state shall exercise this authority whenever the number of voters domiciled in an unorganized town or unincorporated place which has not organized for voting pursuant to RSA 53:1, as recorded in the statewide voter registration system, reaches 100 or more voters.

II. The following question shall be included in the warrant for the first meeting and shall be voted on at that meeting:

“Shall (insert name of the unorganized town or unincorporated place), when electing the officers who will conduct future elections, use an official ballot voting process in the same manner as a town as specified in RSA 669:19 through RSA 669:29? A “no” vote is a vote to use the unofficial ballot process in the same manner as a town as specified in RSA 669:54 through RSA 669:60 (nominations from the floor and voting at a meeting).”

III. Notwithstanding RSA 53:1, III, if the secretary of state is unable to appoint pro tem election officers and oversee a local election held at least 90 days prior to a state election due to a lack of suitable qualified volunteers, the secretary may designate a town as the polling place for the upcoming state elections in accordance with RSA 668:2.

IV. The secretary of state may exercise the authority authorized by this section if notified that vacancies in local offices for an unorganized town or unincorporated place result in the town or place being unable to organize and conduct their next election without state assistance.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes voting procedures for electing town officers in unorganized towns or places.

SB 302-FN, requiring background checks for solid waste facility owners. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Judy Aron for Environment and Agriculture. This bill, as amended, includes 3 parts and does a number of things. Primarily, the underlying bill codifies the exact language necessary for requests from the Department of Environmental Services (DES) to the FBI for federal background checks for landfill operators. This is necessary, as current language in New Hampshire statute is incorrect which prevents the DES from obtaining federal background checks. The language we originally received from the Senate was incomplete and had to further be amended in this bill, and this amendment includes those necessary corrections. Secondly, this amendment includes language that is in the HB 2 budget trailer bill, originally placed there by Governor Ayotte, and amended by our committee in collaboration with DES, having to do with the establishment of a landfill Siting Evaluation Committee (SEC). A separate hearing was held for this section of language, as this addition was a non-germane amendment (2025-2012h) to SB 302. It was felt that this language needed to be in a stand-alone bill as it was not clear whether it would remain in the budget trailer bill, or not, through the budget adoption process, plus any subsequent changes to this language could more easily be made. This SEC will decide whether a landfill permit will be issued to an applicant, or not, based on many important criteria and applicant reporting requirements, including a harms and benefit analysis of the proposed landfill. There are fees and procedures established, as well as the direction of who would serve on said committee, and all of the rules regarding the operation of the committee. There is also included a three-year pause on landfill siting permits issued by DES for new landfills and a one-year pause for permitting existing landfill site expansions in order to allow time for new rules to be written and adopted. This amendment language also repeals the Waste Management Council. Finally, this bill includes the House language (i.e. the House position) included in HB 616 which makes several changes and clarifications to existing statutes and ensures that due process is followed in animal welfare complaints and animal confiscation, and that both owners and their animals have additional protections regarding animal cruelty reports and confiscations. A veterinarian, either from the State Veterinarian's office, or a designee, or the owner's veterinarian, would assist law enforcement in making an assessment of an animal cruelty report, and determine if charges of animal cruelty or neglect should be brought forward. Additionally, no animal that is confiscated may be altered (neutered, spayed, dehorned, declawed, etc.) by whomever is providing care for the confiscated animal(s) unless they have permission from the owner, and no animal may be euthanized unless a treating veterinarian determines that an animal is in extreme suffering. Additionally, no confiscated animal or animals shall be used in any manner to solicit donations or to raise funds by any individual or organization that has protective custody of the animal(s) prior to a conviction for abuse or neglect. Our committee felt strongly that no organization or individual should profit off of confiscation of animal(s) prior to a court conviction of abuse or neglect. This does not prevent any person or organization from fundraising in general. The bill also makes it clear that if lactating animals are confiscated that they must be placed in a facility that can care for/milk them, and that they may not be separated from non-weaned offspring. There is a provision in this bill that helps protect the integrity and confidentiality of complaint investigations as well. The bill also removes language from current

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT requiring background checks for solid waste and hazardous waste facility owners, establishing a solid waste site evaluation committee and temporarily suspends the issuance of solid waste permits by the department of environmental services, relative to the confiscation of animals from persons suspected of or charged with abuse of animals, and establishing a committee to study the animal cruelty statutes.

Amend RSA 147-A:4, II-c(b)(4) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(4) All persons set forth in subparagraph (b)(3) shall submit to the department a New Hampshire department of safety, division of state police, criminal history records release authorization form, as provided by the division of state police, which authorizes the division of state police to conduct a criminal history records check through its state records and through the Federal Bureau of Investigation and to release to the department, for the purposes of this section, a report of the criminal history and record information, including confidential criminal history record information, of the applicant and all persons set forth in subparagraph (b)(3). The release form shall name the assistant director of the department of environmental services waste management division and the administrator of the department of environmental services, hazardous waste management bureau as authorized recipients and shall specify any payment required by the division of state police.

Amend RSA 147-A:4, II-c(b)(6) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(6) The department shall submit the criminal records release authorization forms and fingerprint forms to the department of safety, division of state police, which shall conduct a criminal history records check through its records and through the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Upon completion of the records check, the division of state police shall release copies of the criminal history records to the assistant director of the department of environmental services waste management division and the administrator of the department of environmental services, hazardous waste management bureau. The department shall maintain the confidentiality of all criminal history records information received pursuant to this section.

Amend RSA 147-A:4, II-d(a)-(b) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(a) The person fails to demonstrate sufficient reliability, expertise, integrity and competence to operate a hazardous waste facility.

(b) The person or any person set forth in RSA 147-A:4, II-c(b)(3) has been convicted of, or pled guilty or no contest to, a felony in any state or federal court during the 5 years before the date of the permit application.

Amend RSA 147-A:4, IV-a as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV-a. No permit issued by the department under this section shall be transferred by the permittee to any person without the prior written approval of the department. Solid Waste Facility Site Evaluation Committee 149-M:65 Declaration of Purpose.

The legislature and the executive branch recognize that the selection of sites for major solid waste disposal facilities may have significant statewide, regional and local impacts that are not fully evaluated through existing regulatory review. Accordingly, the legislature and the executive branch find that it is in the public interest to establish a procedure to evaluate the local, regional and statewide benefits and burdens of a new major solid waste facility that are not captured by existing regulatory reviews, including noise, odor, aesthetics, local and regional economic impacts, property value impacts, nature and source of waste, need, impacts on tourism, recreation and traffic, and other similar impacts.

149-M:66 Definitions. In this subdivision:

I. "Acceptance" means a determination by the committee that it finds that the application is complete and ready for consideration.

State agencies represented on the committee shall be reimbursed for major solid waste disposal facility proceeding time and expenses incurred by their respective members or designees, except that time spent for the first 5 full days of their participation with respect to any application or other proceeding concerning a major solid waste disposal facility shall not be subject to reimbursement. The rate of reimbursement to each respective agency shall be based on a pro rata share of the employee's salary, benefits, and related costs.

III. The department of justice shall be reimbursed in the same manner as described in paragraph II for major solid waste disposal facility proceeding time and expenses that are incurred by the counsel for the public.

IV. All persons or agencies seeking compensation or reimbursement under this section shall keep detailed time and expense records which shall be submitted to the chairperson or administrator and used to determine the amount of compensation or reimbursement. The chairperson or administrator shall develop a recordkeeping system and accounting and payment procedures.

V. Compensation shall not be provided to members of the committee for initial meetings conducted prior to acceptance of application fees. The department shall provide support for the adoption of rules established by the committee.

149-M:86 Solid Waste Permit Applications Suspended.

I. The department shall not issue any permit approvals that authorize new capacity for major solid waste disposal facilities until rules are adopted by the committee or until July 1, 2026, whichever is later. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the approval of the design, construction, or operation of new waste disposal cells at existing facilities for which the waste disposal capacity has been approved prior to the effective date of this section.

II. Notwithstanding RSA 149-M:9, the department shall not issue any permit to construct or operate a new landfill facility in New Hampshire under RSA 149-M:9 until July 1, 2028. The department may accept applications, evaluate them for completeness, and request more information to make an application complete, but shall not proceed to further evaluation or process any applications, notwithstanding RSA 541-A:29, in order that any evaluation of need, benefit, harm, or appropriateness of the site proposed will await the development of new regulations, data, technologies, and policies.

III. Nothing in paragraph II shall be construed to prohibit the expansion or modification of any landfill facilities on any site on which, as of December 1, 2022, a Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) Subtitle D landfill exists that has been permitted in accordance with RSA 149-M:9.

IV. In this section, the term "site" means a single parcel or adjacent parcels, owned in their entirety by a landfill operator or its affiliates as of December 1, 2022, including a site where one or more public utility easements traverse the site.

9 New Subparagraph; Solid Waste Evaluation Committee Fund. Amend RSA 6:12, I(b) by inserting after subparagraph (399) the following new subparagraph:

11 Cruelty to Animals; Livestock. Amend RSA 644:8, IV(a) to read as follows:

IV.(a)(1) Any person charged with animal cruelty under paragraphs III or III-a may have his or her animals confiscated by the arresting officer. The investigating officer for a case involving livestock as defined in RSA 427:38, III shall be accompanied by the state veterinarian or their designee who shall set probable cause criteria for the taking of the animal or animals. No animal shall be confiscated unless a person is charged under this section, except when the officer believes that the animal's life is in imminent danger.

(2) A person charged under this section may petition the court to seek an examination of the animals by a veterinarian licensed under RSA 332-B of his or her choice at the expense of the person charged. The person charged shall be made aware of such right in writing by the arresting officer.

(3) If a person is charged under this section and is presented with any document to sign, the arresting officer shall explain the document to the person and the person shall affirm that they understand the document they are signing.

[~~(3)~~] (4) Courts shall give cases in which animals have been confiscated by an arresting officer priority on the court calendar. In cases in which animals have been confiscated by an arresting officer or his or her agency, a status hearing shall be held by the court within 14 days of the confiscation of the animals.

[~~(4)~~] (5) Any person with proof of sole ownership or co-ownership of an animal confiscated by an arresting officer in an animal cruelty case and who is not a defendant or party of interest in the criminal case may petition the court for temporary custody of the animal. The court shall give such person priority for temporary custody of the animal if the court determines it is in the best interest of the animal's health, safety, and wellbeing.

[~~(5)~~] (6) No custodian of an animal confiscated under this section shall spay or neuter or otherwise permanently alter the confiscated animal in his or her custody pending final disposition of the court case unless a treating veterinarian deems such procedure necessary to save the life of the animal or the owner of the animal agrees in writing to the procedure or treatment. If the treating veterinarian determines the animal is in a state of extreme suffering, the animal may be euthanized.

[~~(6)~~] (7) Upon a person's conviction of cruelty to animals, the court shall dispose of the confiscated animal in any manner it decides except in a case in which the confiscated animal is owned or co-owned by persons other than the defendant. If the defendant does not have an ownership interest in the confiscated animal, the court shall give priority to restoring full ownership rights to any person with proof of ownership if the court determines that such is in the best interest of the animal's health, safety, and wellbeing. If the confiscated animal is co-owned by the defendant, the court shall give priority to transferring the defendant's interest in the property to the remaining owner or co-owners equitably if the court determines that such is in the best interest of the animal's health, safety, and wellbeing.

[(7)] (8) The costs to provide the confiscated animals with humane care and adequate and necessary veterinary services, if any, incurred in boarding and treating the animal, pending disposition of the case, and in disposing of the animal upon a conviction of said person for cruelty to animals, shall be borne by the person so convicted in accordance with rules adopted by the department of agriculture, markets, and food.

(9) No confiscated animal or animals shall be used in any manner to solicit donations or to raise funds by any individual or organization that has protective custody of the animal or animals prior to a conviction for abuse or neglect under this section.

12 Confiscation of Animal. RSA 644:8, IV-a is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

IV-a.(a) Except as provided in subparagraph (b) any appropriate law enforcement officer or municipal animal control officer may take into temporary protective custody any animal when the owner or caretaker is not present and there is probable cause to believe that it has been or is being abused or neglected in violation of paragraphs III or III-a when there is a clear and imminent danger to the animal's health or life and there is not sufficient time to obtain a court order. Such officer shall leave a written notice indicating the type and number of animals taken into protective custody, the name of the officer, the time and date taken, the reason it was taken, the procedure to have the animal returned and any other relevant information. Such notice shall be left at the location where the animal was taken into custody. The officer shall provide for proper care and housing of any animal taken into protective custody under this paragraph. Unless charges have been filed or a warrant establishing probable cause has been issued, the animal or animals shall be returned to the owner or their designee or caretaker upon request. If, after 7 days, the animal has not been returned or claimed, the officer shall petition the municipal or district court seeking either permanent custody or a one-week extension of custody or shall file charges under this section. If a week's extension is granted by the court and after a period of 14 days the animal remains unclaimed, the title and custody of the animal shall rest with the officer on behalf of the officer's department. The department may dispose of the animal in any lawful and humane manner as if it were the rightful owner. If after 14 days the officer or the officer's department determines that charges should be filed under this section, the officer shall petition the court. An owner of an animal taken into protective custody shall have the right as referenced in subparagraph IV(a)(2).

(b) For purposes of subparagraph (a) the investigating officer for livestock, as defined in RSA 427:38, III, shall be accompanied by a veterinarian licensed under RSA 332-B or the state veterinarian who shall set the probable cause criteria for taking the animal or animals.

(c) In cases where one or more lactating animals are confiscated, proof shall be provided by the confiscating party to the attending veterinarian and the owner or caretaker that proper care and facilities shall be provided for adults and offspring. No lactating animal shall be separated from its non-weaned offspring and vice versa.

(d) No person who has initiated an animal welfare complaint may take part in or be present during any investigation into such complaint, unless the complainant is an employee of a governmental agency. No person who may be called upon to take possession of any animal seized as a result of a complaint under this section may have taken part in the decision to seize any animal.

(e) In order to protect the integrity of complaint investigations an appropriate law enforcement officer shall require any person or their designated agent called upon to take possession of any animal seized or to assist during any complaint investigation, to sign a binding nondisclosure agreement intended to protect any shared or confidential information against unauthorized use pending final adjudication or dismissal of such complaint; provided that information may be disclosed only to officials with a need to know who are subject to confidentiality obligations.

(f) The confiscation of any animal or animals without the charging of the owner or caretaker, or without a warrant specifying probable cause, under paragraph IV shall be theft by unauthorized taking under RSA 637:3.

(g) No custodian of an animal in temporary protective custody under this section shall spay or neuter or otherwise permanently alter the confiscated animal in his or her custody pending final disposition of the court case unless a treating veterinarian deems such procedure necessary to save the life of the animal or the owner of the animal agrees in writing to the procedure or treatment. If the treating veterinarian determines the animal is in a state of extreme suffering, the animal may be euthanized.

13 Veterinarian Assistant. Amend RSA 644:8, V to read as follows:

V. A veterinarian licensed to practice in the state and any individual requested to provide assistance by law enforcement or the state veterinarian shall be held harmless from either criminal or civil liability for any decisions made for services rendered under the provisions of this section or RSA 435:11-16. Such a veterinarian or assisting individual is, therefore, under this paragraph, protected from a lawsuit for his part in an investigation of cruelty to animals.

14 State Veterinarian; Powers. Amend RSA 436:8 to read as follows:

436:8 Powers. The state veterinarian, under the direction of the commissioner, shall have all of the powers of the commissioner and shall have general charge of the enforcement of this chapter. Complaints under RSA 644:8, 644:8-a, 644:8-aa and any other law pertaining to the abuse of domestic animals, as defined under RSA

436:1, shall initially be filed with the local law enforcement agency, animal control officer, state police, or sheriff which has jurisdiction over where the animal is located or kept. At the request of the local law enforcement agency, animal control officer, state police, or sheriff, the state veterinarian shall assist in a secondary capacity in enforcing the provisions of and investigating said complaints. ~~[In the event the commissioner becomes incapacitated or a vacancy occurs in the office, the state veterinarian shall perform all the duties of that office during any such incapacity or until any such vacancy is filled. The commissioner may direct the state veterinarian to act for him or her in an official capacity whenever he or she may be absent from his or her duties.]~~

15 New Paragraph; Assessing Applications Under the Cost of Care Fund; Use for Livestock. Amend RSA 437-B:1 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

III-a. Applications for reimbursement for the care of livestock shall demonstrate to the commissioner that the livestock were seized properly according to statute with assurance that individuals with experience and professional knowledge in the care of the type of livestock seized were consulted and that proper due process was afforded to the animal owner.

IV. The remainder of this act shall take effect up on its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Requires background checks for solid waste and hazardous waste facility owners including partners and managers.

II. Establishes the solid waste facility site evaluation committee, requires major solid waste disposal facilities to be certified by the solid waste facility site evaluation committee, and temporarily suspends the issuance of solid waste permits by the department of environmental services.

III. Prohibits the confiscation of animals from persons suspected of abuse of animals unless such person is charged with cruelty to animals or the animals require temporary protective custody.

IV. Requires the state veterinarian or their designee to accompany an investigating officer when livestock are the subject of a cruelty case in order to set probable cause criteria for the taking of the animal.

V. Establishes a committee to study certain animal cruelty statutes.

SB 74-FN, relative to real property annual reporting requirements of state departments for permitting programs. ought to pass with amendment.

Rep. Dan McGuire for Finance. This bill requires agencies that issue development permits (primarily DES and DOT) to report annually on how many permits are issued, how long it takes the agency to issue them, and what caused any problem or delay. Current statutes have discrete limits on timelines to issue permits, but we have no feedback (other than anecdotes) to tell us if these limits are appropriate. The committee amendment focuses the report on summary data, with explanations as needed, and slips the first report to 2027, allowing it to report on a full year's activity, and also integrate this data gathering into their current license tracking process. It thus allows the agencies to provide this report within their current budgets, rather than needing additional staff. Vote 24-1.

Amendment (2282h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; Reporting Requirements. Amend RSA 20 by inserting after section 6 the following new section:

I. The statutory timeframes associated with that application type, if applicable.

II. The number of applications received during the calendar year for such permit types and the number of permits the department granted or denied, the number of applications withdrawn by the applicant, the number of applications voided, and the number of applications pending a decision at the end of the calendar year.

III. The number of applications that were pending at any time without a decision for more than 60, 120, and 180 calendar days after an administratively complete application was submitted to the department. For each group, summarize the primary reasons applications are delayed by giving the number waiting for technical evaluation, waiting for a field inspection, waiting for another agency, delayed due to an application backlog, or other reasons as appropriate for the permit.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SB 145-FN, establishing an evidence shipping pilot program and providing an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Daniel Popovici-Muller for Finance. This bill passed the House on May 8th on a voice vote after being voted 16-0 in support by the policy committee. The bill ensures that evidence relative to a sexual assault case is delivered to the State Forensic Lab within seven business days and may be transported by common carrier if a law enforcement agency is unable to do so in person, as per rules to be promulgated by the Department of Safety. Since the bill is designed to reduce the financial burden on law enforcement agencies, the amendment was unanimously adopted to remove the language about a reimbursement program and the associated appropriation. As amended, the bill does not appropriate any funds and can be added to the consent calendar. The Finance Committee unanimously supported the OTP/A motion on this bill. Vote 25-0.

Amendment (2301h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing an evidence shipping pilot program.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 New Subdivision; Evidence Shipping Pilot Program. Amend RSA 21-P by inserting after section 70 the following new subdivision:

Evidence Shipping Pilot Program

21-P:71 Evidence Shipping Pilot Program.

I. The department of safety may develop an evidence shipping pilot program to alleviate long waiting periods for evidence to be safely delivered to the state forensic laboratory, where it can be properly stored pending analysis. A special emphasis shall be placed on supporting law enforcement in rural communities where resources are limited.

II. In this pilot program, all evidence collected by medical personnel in a sexual assault case occurring in the state of New Hampshire shall be transferred to the state forensic laboratory within 7 business days of collection. If a law enforcement agency cannot deliver the evidence in person to the state forensic laboratory, which shall be the preferred method of delivery, the agency may use a common carrier that provides readily accessible package tracking to send the evidence to the state forensic laboratory for delivery within 7 business days of collection. Law enforcement must have a good faith basis to believe that the common carrier will accomplish delivery in 7 business days prior to choosing the common carrier. When utilizing delivery by a common carrier, law enforcement shall deliver the packaged evidence in-hand to an agent of the carrier, and not by drop box or other drop off, and keep track of the package's routing and delivery by tracking number assigned by the carrier.

III. The department of safety shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A for the design, administration, and reporting requirements of the program.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill enables the department of safety to develop an evidence shipping pilot program.

SB 241-FN-A, relative to construction of a public pier on Hampton Beach and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Joe Sweeney for Finance. The committee unanimously recommends SB 241 be found Inexpedient to Legislate. As presented, the bill would establish a fund for a public pier at Hampton Beach without appropriating state dollars, relying instead on potential private or other public funding. However, the committee found limited public support for the project and no clear plan or timeline for advancing it. Without a defined funding source or demonstrated demand, we believe such initiatives are better pursued through existing channels in the private marketplace, if pursued at all. Vote 25-0.

SB 110-FN, relative to terrain permitting. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. James Tierney for Ways and Means. This bill establishes fees for applications for terrain alteration and requires the Department of Environmental Services to adopt rules to establish a permit by notification. The increases in fees for permitting are to cover the projected costs for the additional personnel that will be required to monitor the proposed work. Additionally, this bill was enthusiastically endorsed by the New Hampshire Home Builders Association. Vote 15-1.

REGULAR CALENDAR

SB 72-FN, establishing a parents' bill of rights in education. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Debra DeSimone for the Majority of Children and Family Law. This bill, as amended, clarifies the intent of the original bill by defining the purpose and reasoning in a very concise manner of exactly what constitutes parental rights. The purpose of the bill, as amended, clearly affirms that parents have a fundamental liberty-interest to raise and care for their children. This bill further assists parents in raising their children by recording these rights in one single statute. Another purpose is to create and, in some cases, continue a congenial partnership with schools, doctors, therapists and any other adults who may have a productive role in the education and medical care of their children to become productive members of society. Finally, no children should ever be prescribed any medical procedures of medication without parental consent to protect all children from undue and unnecessary harm by parental knowledge and information provided concerning family history. This bill is necessary to continue to build a strong, healthy society. Vote 9-7.

Rep. Heather Raymond for the Minority of Children and Family Law. This bill, as amended, claims to protect the rights of parents in New Hampshire. While this is a laudable goal, the language of this amendment creates a number of insurmountable obstacles. In school settings, this bill creates a new requirement that school staff respond to "any and all" parental inquiries, regardless of their appropriateness, surveilling students' romantic and personal relationships, and in effect undermining the Department of Education's One Trusted Adult Program. It imposes penalties for teachers who would rather simply stick to focusing on teaching. It creates penalties for medical providers and requires written permission before doctors can treat children: currently parents can provide verbal consent for routine services like prescription refills and telehealth appointments, this bill will end that practice. Further, the amended bill would strip the rights of teenagers to access birth control or receive pre- and postnatal care without written parental permission. In states like Texas which now require parental permission for birth control, teen pregnancy rates have increased along with the rates of maternal and infant death. The bill makes no allowances for circumstances where the Division of Children, Youth and Families (DCYF) is involved with a family and does not align with other existing federal and state laws governing medical care and medical records. It also creates a new burden of evidence before teachers and doctors can even call DCYF which is in conflict with other statutes and the laws in all other states. The public response to this bill was overwhelmingly negative; opposing testimony outnumbered support by a 10 to 1 margin. There are several unworkable constitutional issues where this bill is likely to be challenged and cost the state money defending lawsuits destined to be lost. The minority strongly opposes the current language and encourages Inexpedient to Legislate.

Majority Amendment (1832h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a parental bill of rights.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Declaration of Purpose.

I. The general court finds and affirms that parents have a fundamental liberty interest to raise and care for their minor children, as well as make decisions concerning their care and custody, and this fundamental liberty interest is protected under both the federal and New Hampshire constitutions.

II. The general court further finds that it is a child's parents who have the responsibility, means, and resources to ensure that a child receives appropriate health care, social support, religious guidance, and moral inculcation to develop into happy and productive members of society.

III. Accordingly, the general court further finds that parents have the right to access, be notified of, and be provided with all information relating to these rights, and that it is necessary to establish a consistent mechanism for parents to be notified of information relating to the health, well-being, and educational progress of their minor children while those children are in the custody and control of a school or any other government entity.

2 New Chapter; Parental Bill of Rights. Amend RSA by inserting after 169-H the following new chapter.

CHAPTER 169-I PARENTAL BILL OF RIGHTS

169-I:1 Short Title. This chapter may be cited as the Parental Bill of Rights.

169-I:2 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Parent" means a person who is the legal natural or adoptive parent of a minor child. A legal guardian appointed pursuant to RSA 463:2, IV shall be deemed to be a parent for as long as guardianship is in force. The term "parent" shall not apply to a person whose rights to a child have been either voluntarily surrendered or involuntarily terminated pursuant to law.

II. "Parental rights and responsibilities" shall have the same meaning as care, custody, and control, and shall include parenting time, decision making, and residential responsibility pursuant to RSA 461-A:1, et seq. Parents for whom such rights to care, custody, or control of a child have been abridged, halted, modified, or suspended, shall have their rights restored upon a showing by a preponderance of the evidence that it is in the child's best interest, and the child is returned to parental care.

III. "Minor" means an unemancipated person under the age of 18 years.

IV. "Compelling state interest" means the governmental interest in the welfare of a child which includes, but is not limited to, parental rights and responsibilities pursuant to RSA 461-A:1 or abuse or neglect pursuant to RSA 169-C:3.

V. "School" shall include, without limitation, any public school board, public school district, public school administrative unit, or public charter school.

VI. "School personnel" shall include any teacher, administrator, employee, or other individual acting in furtherance of or on behalf of any public school.

VII. "Infringement" for the purposes of this chapter includes, but is not limited to, knowingly concealing or withholding information required to be disclosed to a minor child's parent pursuant to this chapter or providing intentionally misleading or intentionally inaccurate responses.

169-I:3 Infringement of Parental Rights Prohibited. The state; any of its political subdivisions, including, without limitation, any school; any other governmental entity; or any other institution may not infringe on the fundamental rights of a parent to direct the upbringing, education, health care, and mental health of his or her minor child without demonstrating that such action is necessary to achieve a compelling state interest, that such action is narrowly tailored, and that such interest is not otherwise served by less restrictive means.

169-I:4 Parental Rights.

I. All parental rights are reserved to the parent(s) of a minor child in this state without obstruction or interference from the state, any of its political subdivisions, including, without limitation, any school, any other governmental entity, or any other institution. These rights include, but are not limited to, the right:

(a) To direct the upbringing and the moral or religious training.

(b) To direct the education, including the right to choose to enroll the minor child in an assigned resident public school, a public charter school, a non-public school, including a religious school, a home education program, or any other state-based education program, as authorized by law, as an alternative to public education, as set forth in RSA 193:1 and RSA 194-F:1, et seq.

(c) To request that a minor child be enrolled in a public school other than the public school assigned to them by their residence to avoid a manifest educational hardship, as set forth in RSA 193:3.

(d) To enroll his or her minor child in gifted or special education programs if the child qualifies for such programs.

(e) To inquire of the school or school personnel and promptly receive accurate, truthful, and complete disclosure regarding any and all matters related to their minor child, unless an immediate answer cannot be provided when the initial request is made, in which case, the answer shall be provided no later than 10 business days after the request.

(f) To be informed of the school's policy regarding discipline policies and procedures, as set forth in RSA 193:13.

(g) To obtain access for a minor child to public curricular courses and co-curricular programs offered by the local school district where the student resides while choosing to enroll their child in a non-public, public chartered, home education, or any other state-based education program, as set forth in RSA 193:1-c and RSA 194-F:2, II(d).

(h) To inspect any instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum within a reasonable period following a request, as set forth in 20 U.S.C. section 1232h(c)(1)(C).

(i) To opt out of health or sex education and any other objectionable material, as set forth in RSA 186:11, IX-b and IX-c.

(j) To be advised of and have the right to opt the minor child out of any nonacademic survey or questionnaire.

(k) To opt out of any district-level data collection relating to his or her minor child not required by federal or state law.

(l) To exempt their public-school minor child from participating in required statewide assessments in English, language arts, mathematics, and/or science, as set forth in RSA 193-C:6.

(m) To receive information regarding the level of achievement and academic growth of their minor child in the state academic assessments in English, language arts, mathematics, and/or science, as set forth in the Every Student Succeeds Act, 20 U.S.C. section 1112 (e)(1)(B)(i).

(n) To receive a school report card and be informed of his or her minor child's attendance requirements and compliance with such requirements.

(o) To access and review all education records relating to their minor child within 10 business days after the day the school receives a request for access, as set forth in RSA 189:66, IV and 34 C.F.R. 99.5.

(p) To consent in writing before the state or any of its political subdivisions, including, without limitation, any school; pursuant also to the provisions of RSA 3 189:68, III-V makes a video or voice recording, unless such recording is made during or as part of a court proceeding or part of a forensic interview in a criminal or other investigation by the bureau of child protective services or it is to be used solely for the purpose of a safety demonstration, including the maintenance of order and discipline in the common areas of a school or on student transportation vehicles.

(q) To be notified whenever seclusion or restraint has been used on their minor child as set forth in RSA 126-U:7.

(r) To be notified promptly if an employee of the state, any of its political subdivisions, any other governmental entity, or any other institution suspects that a criminal offense has been committed against his or her minor child, unless the incident has first been reported to law enforcement or the bureau of child protective services, and notifying the parent would impede the investigation.

(s) To be informed of, and provide consent to, any medical procedure or treatment to be performed on their minor child, except pursuant to RSA 132:34, RSA 141C:18, or for the provision of emergency medical treatment, including mental health treatment.

(t) To access and review all medical records of their minor child maintained by a school or school personnel, unless otherwise prohibited by law.

(u) To make health care decisions unless otherwise prohibited by law.

(v) To be physically present at any health care facility providing care pursuant to RSA 151:2.

(w) To consent in writing before a biometric scan is made, shared, or stored pursuant to RSA 189:65 and RSA 189:68.

(x) To consent in writing before any blood or deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) is created, stored, or shared, except as required by law or pursuant to a court order.

(y) To exempt their minor child from immunizations if, in the opinion of a physician, the immunization is detrimental to the child's health or because of religious beliefs, as set forth in RSA 141-C:20-a and RSA 141-C:20-c.

II. Federal law provides for additional parent and family involvement for schools that are receiving Title I, Part A; Title I, Part C (migrant); Title III, Part A (EL) funds, including:

II. Any violation of the provisions of this chapter are subject to liability for damages caused by said violation and courts may fashion such remedies as justice requires.

169-I:9 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

169-I:10 Applicability. No provision of this chapter is meant to restrain or interfere with any state or local law enforcement agency investigations of criminal violations of New Hampshire law by a minor.

Rep. Kofalt spoke in favor.

Majority committee amendment failed.

The question being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass.

Rep. Kofalt offered floor amendment (2492h).

Floor Amendment (2492h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a parental bill of rights.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Declaration of Purpose.

I. The general court finds and affirms that parents have a fundamental liberty interest to raise and care for their minor children, as well as make decisions concerning their care and custody, and this fundamental liberty interest is protected under both the federal and New Hampshire constitutions.

II. The general court further finds that it is a child's parents who have the responsibility, means, and resources to ensure that a child receives appropriate health care, social support, religious guidance, and moral inculcation to develop into happy and productive members of society.

III. Accordingly, the general court further finds that parents have the right to access, be notified of, and be provided with all information relating to these rights, and that it is necessary to establish a consistent mechanism for parents to be notified of information relating to the health, well-being, and educational progress of their minor children while those children are in the custody and control of a school.

2 New Chapter; Parental Bill of Rights. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 189-A the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 189-B PARENTAL BILL OF RIGHTS

189-B:1 Short Title. This chapter may be cited as the Parental Bill of Rights.

189-B:2 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Parent" means a person who has legal custody of a minor child as a natural or adoptive parent or a legal guardian, but such term shall not include a parent as to whom the parent-child relationship has been terminated by judicial decree or voluntary relinquishment.

II. "Minor" or "minor child" means an unemancipated person under the age of 18 years.

III. "Compelling state interest" sufficient to justify any action or inaction that infringes upon any of the rights identified in RSA 189-B:4 shall exist only when the school or school personnel have an actual and objectively reasonable belief, supported by clear and convincing evidence, that the infringement upon parental rights is necessary to prevent the child from being abused as defined in RSA 169-C:3.

IV. "School" shall include, without limitation, any public school board, public school district, public school administrative unit, or public charter school.

V. "School personnel" shall include any teacher, administrator, employee, or other individual acting in furtherance of or on behalf of any public school.

VI. "Infringement" for the purposes of this chapter includes, but is not limited to, knowingly concealing or withholding information required to be disclosed to a minor child's parent pursuant to this chapter or providing intentionally misleading or intentionally inaccurate responses.

189-B:3 Infringement of Parental Rights Prohibited. No school may infringe on the fundamental rights of a parent to direct the upbringing, education, health care, and mental health of his or her minor child without demonstrating that such action is necessary to achieve a compelling state interest, that such action is narrowly tailored, and that such interest is not otherwise served by less restrictive means.

189-B:4 Parental Rights.

I. All parental rights are reserved to the parents of a minor child in this state without obstruction or interference from any school. These rights include, but are not limited to, the right:

(a) To direct the upbringing and the moral or religious training.

(b) To direct the education, including the right to choose to enroll the minor child in an assigned resident public school, a public charter school, a non-public school, including a religious school, a home education program, or any other state-based education program, as authorized by law, as an alternative to public education, as set forth in RSA 193:1 and RSA 194-F:1, et seq.

(c) To request that a minor child be enrolled in a public school other than the public school assigned to them by their residence to avoid a manifest educational hardship, as set forth in RSA 193:3.

(d) To enroll his or her minor child in gifted or special education programs if the child qualifies for such programs.

(e) To inquire of the school or school personnel and promptly receive accurate, truthful, and complete disclosure regarding any and all matters related to their minor child, unless an immediate answer cannot be provided when the initial request is made, in which case, the answer shall be provided no later than 10 business days after the request.

(f) To be informed of the school's policy regarding discipline policies and procedures, as set forth in RSA 193:13.

(g) To obtain access for a minor child to public curricular courses and co-curricular programs offered by the local school district where the student resides while choosing to enroll their child in a non-public, public chartered, home education, or any other state-based education program, as set forth in RSA 193:1-c and RSA 194-F:2, II(d).

(h) To inspect any instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum within a reasonable period following a request, as set forth in 20 U.S.C. section 1232h(c)(1)(C).

(i) To opt out of health or sex education and any other objectionable material, as set forth in RSA 186:11, IX-b and IX-c.

(j) To be advised of and have the right to opt the minor child out of any nonacademic survey or questionnaire.

(k) To opt out of any district-level data collection relating to his or her minor child not required by federal or state law.

(l) To exempt their public-school minor child from participating in required statewide assessments in English, language arts, mathematics, and/or science, as set forth in RSA 193-C:6.

(m) To receive information regarding the level of achievement and academic growth of their minor child in the state academic assessments in English, language arts, mathematics, and/or science, as set forth in the Every Student Succeeds Act, 20 U.S.C. section 1112 (e)(1)(B)(i).

(n) To receive a school report card and be informed of his or her minor child's attendance requirements and compliance with such requirements.

(o) To access and review all education records relating to their minor child within 10 business days after the day the school receives a request for access, as set forth in RSA 189:66, IV and 34 C.F.R. 99.5.

(p) To consent in writing before the state or any of its political subdivisions, including, without limitation, any school pursuant also to the provisions of RSA 189:68, III-V, makes a video or voice recording, unless such recording is made during or as part of a court proceeding or part of a forensic interview in a criminal or other investigation by the bureau of child protective services or it is to be used solely for the purpose of a safety demonstration, including the maintenance of order and discipline in the common areas of a school or on student transportation vehicles.

(q) To be notified whenever seclusion or restraint has been used on their minor child as set forth in RSA 126-U:7.

(r) To access and review all medical records of their minor child maintained by a school or school personnel, unless otherwise prohibited by law.

(s) To exempt their minor child from immunizations if, in the opinion of a physician, the immunization is detrimental to the child's health or because of religious beliefs, as set forth in RSA 141-C:20-a and RSA 141-C:20-c.

II. Federal law provides for additional parent and family involvement for schools that are receiving Title I, Part A; Title I, Part C (migrant); Title III, Part A (EL) funds, including:

(a) The right to receive information, including student reports, in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practicable, in a language that parents can understand, as set forth in 20 U.S.C. sections 1112(e)(4); 1114(b)(4); 1116(e)(5); and 1116(f).

(b) Upon request of the parent, the right to receive information regarding state qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals providing services to their minor child, as set forth in 20 U.S.C. section 1112(e)(1)(A)(i-ii).

(c) The right to receive an annual local educational agency report card that includes information on such agency as a whole and each school served by the agency, as set forth in 20 U.S.C. section 1111(h)(2)(A-B)(i-iii). 189-B:5 School Board Notifications on Parental Rights.

I. Each school shall, in consultation with parents and school personnel, develop, adopt, and promulgate publicly a policy to promote parental involvement in the school. Such policy shall include:

(a) A plan for parental participation in schools to improve parent and teacher cooperation in such areas as homework, school attendance, and discipline.

(b) A procedure for a parent to learn about his or her minor child's course of study, including the source of any supplemental education materials.

(c) Procedures for a parent to object to instructional materials and other materials used in the classroom. Such objections may be based on beliefs regarding morality, sex, and religion or the belief that such materials are harmful. For purposes of this section, the term "instructional materials" shall include, without limitation, all materials used in the classroom, including workbooks and worksheets, handouts, software, applications, and any digital media made available to students.

(d) Procedures for a parent to withdraw his or her child from any portion of the school district's health education program that relates to sex education or instruction in acquired immune deficiency syndrome education or any instruction regarding sexuality if the parent provides a written objection to his or her minor child's participation. Such procedures must provide for a parent to be notified in advance of such course content so that he or she may withdraw his or her child from those portions of the course.

(e) Procedures for a parent to learn about the nature and purpose of clubs and activities offered at his or her minor child's school, including those that are extracurricular or part of the school curriculum.

(f) Procedures for a parent to learn about parental rights and responsibilities under law.

II. Each school board shall publish the parental bill of rights as set forth in RSA 189-B:4, in their annual reports. Each school board shall also publish the parental bill of rights on their website and in their school handbook or similarly intended publication.

III. A parent may request, in writing, from the district school superintendent, the information required under this section pursuant to RSA 91-A.

189-B:6 Exceptions.

Nothing in this chapter shall:

I. Authorize a parent of a minor child in this state to engage in conduct that is unlawful or to abuse or neglect his or her minor child in violation of law.

II. Prohibit a court of competent jurisdiction, law enforcement officer, or employees of a government agency that is responsible for child welfare from acting in their official capacity.

III. Require disclosure of information provided to any counselor, school psychologist, school nurse, or other certified health care provider where the information provided was reasonably expected to be privileged.

189-B:7 Violations.

I. No school or school personnel shall infringe upon any of the parental rights set forth in RSA 189-B:4, unless the infringement is supported by clear and convincing evidence and is narrowly tailored to address the compelling state interest.

II. Any parent claiming violation of any provision of this chapter may bring an action for declaratory or injunctive relief, or both, and monetary damages against the school. If a parent prevails in any such court action, the court shall award to the parent his or her reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, including any such attorneys' fees and court costs incurred in an appeal to the supreme court.

189-B:8 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

189-B:9 Applicability. No provision of this chapter is meant to restrain or interfere with any state or local law enforcement agency investigations of criminal violations of New Hampshire law by a minor.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a parents' bill of rights regarding their child's education, prohibits a school from infringing on such rights unless the action is narrowly tailored to address a compelling state interest, requires school boards to develop a policy to promote parental involvement and to provide notice of their parental rights, and provides a private right of action for enforcement.

Rep. Raymond offered floor amendment (2348h),

Floor Amendment (2348h)

Amend RSA 189-B:2, III as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. "Compelling state interest" sufficient to justify any action or inaction that infringes upon any of the rights identified in RSA 189-B:3 shall exist only when the school or school personnel have an actual and objectively reasonable belief, supported by evidence, that the infringement upon parental rights is necessary to prevent the child from being abused as defined in RSA 169-C:3.

Amend RSA 189-B:4, I as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. No school or school personnel, shall infringe upon any of the parental rights set forth in RSA 189-B:3, unless the infringement is supported by evidence and is narrowly tailored to address the compelling state interest.

and the majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

MOTION TO PRINT DEBATE

Rep. Muns moved that the debate on SB 72-FN, establishing a parental bill of rights, be printed in the Permanent Journal.

DEBATE ON SB 72-FN

Speaker Packard: For what reason does the member rise?

Representative Petrigno: Thank you, Mister Speaker. To make a motion.

Speaker Packard: State your motion.

Representative Petrigno: I move to table SB 72, and I request that I make a parliamentary inquiry.

Speaker Packard: Rep. The motion is to table SB 72. It's a proper motion. Rep. Sweeney has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. The motion before us is to table SB 72. The House will be in order. The motion before us is to table SB 72. It's a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Petrigno for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Petrigno: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that there are five amendments on the calendar today for SB 72 and that one of the amendments amends the amendment which we were going to consider in the last session, but with special order to today. And, that there were at least two other amendments to this amendment in committee and when it came to us, it had already been amended two other times by the other body. And, if I know that the amendments are similar to the amendments that we considered to a companion bill that has now been sent over to the other body, which currently is also being amended. And, if I know and if I believe that I'm going to hear today that the amendment being proposed today is the amendment that will end all amendments, but I seriously doubt that, wouldn't I vote to table this so we can bring forth legislation which respects parental rights and guarantees the safety and welfare for children and is deserving of this body and I thank you very much Mister Speaker?

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. DeSimone for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative DeSimone: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that SB 72's final amendment will be heard today and that's the only amendment that makes sense. All the other amendments are not necessary, then I will be voting no on the tabling motion so that we can get on with the business of the day and get the parental bill of rights passed today. Thank you, Mister Speaker. Vote red please.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is to table SB 72. This a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button; if you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend the state of the vote. 168 voting Yea, 211 voting Nay, the motion fails. We are now on the majority amendment which is (1832h) printed in House record 25, pages 22 through 25. The Chair recognizes Rep. Raymond to speak against the majority amendment.

Representative Raymond: I'm sorry, Mister Speaker, are we doing speeches or PIs?

Speaker Packard: You had been signed up to speak against the majority amendment.

Representative Raymond: Thank you, Mister Speaker. I urge the body to vote against the majority amendment, and I think we have bipartisan agreement that the majority of the amendment does not meet the needs of the people of New Hampshire. It has a number of major problems with constitutionality and also interferes with police investigations on sexual abuse as well as some medical parts and I believe that there are better amendments coming this morning, so I urge everyone to vote no on the committee amendment. Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Kofalt.

Representative Kofalt: Thank you, Mister Speaker. There are indeed better amendments coming later today. We have done a lot of work on this bill. The committee did a lot of work on this bill. I urge you to vote in favor of this amendment then we can move on and hear the other amendments, which include a replace all. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is amendment (1832h). Are you ready for the question? All those in favor, say Aye; those opposed, Nay. The Nays have it and the motion is defeated. It's already stated. We are now on second reading and open to further amendment. Rep. Kofalt offers amendment (2492h). It is in seat pockets. The Chair recognizes Rep. Pettrigno.

Representative Pettrigno: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, here we are once again considering yet another amendment to the so-called parental bill of rights and of course we continue to hear that parents are losing their rights as justification for this legislation yet all of the rights that already are in statute have never been rescinded. In fact they have been affirmed time and time again by court rulings, so parents are not losing their rights. Instead, some may feel that their rights are being violated and therefore it would be best if we directed them where to find proper recourse. We have also heard that all of the existing parental rights should be coalesced into a single statute, but parents need to look no further than to the Department of Education's website, which already lists all of their rights or we could simply compile all of the existing statutes into one bill and we'd have no problem with that, but instead the sponsors have chosen to incorporate new problematic language which accounts for the many different amendments and that is why we often hear that their version is more comprehensive but we believe that what is more comprehensive is actually unconstitutional and it puts children in harm's way. First is the standard, the very high standard of clear and convincing evidence to support a compelling state interest that a child is being abused, which such a high standard school personnel could not be able to report to DCYF their suspicions of child abuse when a child consistently comes to school with bruises. A simple Google search explains that this example is a combination of medical documentation, expert testimony, witness statements, and the exclusion of other possibilities would create clear and convincing evidence that a child was likely abused. Such evidence would be nearly impossible for school personnel to obtain and as such we would be giving cover to child abusers and I'm sure that's not the intent, but that's exactly what that provision does. Then there is the matter of the mandatory disclosure provision required of school personnel which puts all children in harm's way. School personnel would be forced to answer any and all questions directed by parents. Now this is not a problem. This is not a problem in the vast majority of cases, but like the clear and convincing evidence provision, this will give cover to those few abusive parents. As such, children who cannot confide in their parents for whatever reason, parents who are struggling with their own personal demons, families which are dysfunctional. These children would now be hesitant to talk to their teachers, coaches, the school nurse, guidance counselors for fear that their confidentiality would be violated. This effectively kills the Department of Education's One Trusted Adult Program, which former Governor Sununu championed. If troubled kids cannot talk with their parents for any reason and they know they now cannot talk to their trusted adults at school, then where will they turn? The answer is nowhere, except maybe to unsavory individuals who will exploit them, drugs, homelessness, or self harm. I asked this question in committee. I sincerely asked, is there anyone here who supports this bill who can alleviate my concerns and answer this question where will these kids go? One person said well they can go see their minister. I looked this up. Surprisingly I found that only 20 to 30% of New Hampshire residents regularly attend church. I brought my children to church every Sunday. My wife and I every Sunday, but my kids did not have the relationship with their pastor as they had with their teachers and coaches.

Another member said well they can always talk to a family member other than mom and dad. When I moved to New Hampshire nearly 40 years ago, it was just me, my wife and my son. My other child came along and guess what? We still have no extended family in New Hampshire and so don't many other children and how can they trust their relatives to maintain their confidentiality? And then somebody else said well they can always report to DCYF if they're being abused. And I thought to myself well, I'm not talking about physical abuse, I'm talking about dysfunctional families, kids who just need an adult to talk to when their parents are not being adults. But then, how many 14- and 15-year-olds have the wherewithal to actually call DCYF if necessary? Sincerely, I support parental rights, but I will never support legislation that puts one child in harm's way and that is why I passionately urge my colleagues to consider parental rights along with the safety and the welfare of children by voting against this amendment and Mister Speaker I ask for a division vote. Thank you very much.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Kofalt.

Representative Kofalt: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Two months ago this body passed HB 10 and in doing that we affirmed our commitment to parental rights. We affirmed our commitment to the proposition that governments do not raise children, parents do. Today we have an opportunity to reaffirm that. And the foundation of this bill and the bills that came before us is the statement that parental rights are fundamental. So, the speaker who came before me referred to past court rulings claiming that they affirm parental rights in all cases. In fact, we had a case here in New Hampshire, Jane Doe versus the Manchester School District in which the court did not decide affirmatively for parental rights. They applied what is called rational basis review. This is the least restrictive level of judicial review possible. Why did they do that? Because they did not have clear unequivocal guidance from this legislature and our governor that parental rights are fundamental and that they must be viewed through a lens of strict scrutiny. That changes the game. Today we have an opportunity to reaffirm our commitment to parents' rights. The amendment before you combines the best features of the House Bill that we passed in March and the bill that came over to us from the other body. This amendment prioritizes issues that are of greatest concern to Granite Staters by focusing on education. It affirms that parents have a fundamental right with respect to the education and upbringing of their children. It provides for proactive notification. It's not asking parents to go look on the DOE website. It provides for proactive notification at the school district level to inform and educate New Hampshire parents about their rights. This amendment also includes meaningful and realistic measures to ensure accountability. And I want to address for a moment this concern that kids will no longer have the ability to speak to a trusted adult. This bill contains provisions that if there is abuse, there is absolutely a path as there always has been for teachers to report that. We are all mandatory reporters to report abuse, to make sure that the right people are called in to protect the child and rectify that situation. The problem with the argument I've been hearing today and the problem with the argument I've been hearing all along, is that we are presuming that parents are unfit and therefore we must keep information from the many and keep them in the dark because we think there might be a few out there. We have procedures to handle those situations, and we do. I wish they were perfect. They're not, but this bill does nothing to undermine those. Our governor has made a strong commitment to parental rights and with this amendment, I am confident we have a bill that she can comfortably support. The parental bill of rights has been a long time coming. Today it's time that we deliver on our promises to Granite Staters by affirming that parental rights are fundamental. I ask my colleagues to join me in pressing the green button.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Sweeney has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is the Kofalt amendment (2492h). This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Petrigno for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Petrigno: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I believe in parental rights and I absolutely do, but I also believe that this amendment is unconstitutional. And should it become law, I'm almost certain that it's going to be challenged in court. And Mister Speaker, I believe that clear and convincing evidence standard is way too high, as well as the mandatory school disclosure provision that both will cause harm to some children. Even one child is way too much. Would I press the red button and vote no? Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. DeSimone for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative DeSimone: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that every parent has a fundamental right to raise their children. And if I know that communicating with any entity that has any contact with a child is necessary to raise those children properly, honestly and clearly, then I will vote green to pass this essential bill on parental rights. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is amendment (2492h). This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend the state of the vote. 215 voting Yay, 166 voting Nay, the amendment passes. The bill is on second reading, open to further amendment Rep. Raymond offers floor amendment (2348h) and is recognized to speak.

Representative Raymond: Thank you, Mister Speaker. I rise today in support of floor amendment (2348h). This floor amendment changes one and only one aspect of the parental bill of rights. It removes the phrase 'clear and convincing' for the evidence needed under compelling state interest because it drastically changes the standards for schools to call DCYF about potential abuse on a child that was perpetrated by a parent. The words 'clear and convincing evidence' by themselves seem logical, but this is actually a technical legal standard. Clear and convincing is a legal term that means 90% sure. It's currently used by the state only in cases where the state has already proven abuse in a lower court or the parent has already been convicted of criminal abuse and the state is now seeking to terminate parental rights at the supreme court freeing a child for adoption. This threshold is extreme for a reason. It's higher than the threshold for a jury to convict someone of criminal abuse and it's much too high to put on schools and school staff members. If SB 72 passes without removing the qualifier 'clear and convincing,' a child telling someone at school that they're being sexually abused by a parent would not be enough for the school to call DCYF because that disclosure would not meet the new legal threshold of clear and convincing evidence. I know this doesn't seem logical. The words 'clear and convincing' seem like a child telling their elementary school teacher would be enough for that teacher to report, but this is an established legal term with a specific meaning when it comes to the state. Including it in this bill, under compelling state interest, has a very specific impact. Some examples of evidence that would meet the clear and convincing evidence standard are things like video evidence or medical evidence coupled with eyewitness testimony. These are not things a school teacher or counselor or principal would ever have access to, and frankly we don't want school staff asking children probing questions. We don't want them investigating on their own. What we want schools to do is, when they get a disclosure, to call the child abuse hotline so trained social workers and police detectives can do their jobs without further interference from the school. Currently, the standard in all 50 states to report to DCYF is what's called a reasonable cause to suspect. A child disclosing sexual abuse to a teacher or a doctor meets that threshold. If we pass this bill with the standard of clear and convincing evidence, it would mean that the compelling state interest is to defer to the parent who is potentially sexually abusing their own child instead of calling DCYF and the police. I'm certain that no one in this chamber is comfortable with this. I'm certain that every person in this room wants to protect children, especially children who are victims of sexual abuse. Two weeks ago there was an excellent story on New Hampshire Public Radio about the potential harm that could be caused by this bill. The New Hampshire sexual assault nurses made it clear that in cases of child sex abuse the provisions of SB 72 would prohibit them from gathering critical medical evidence in a timely manner. We also know that this is the likely outcome because this is exactly what is happening in Idaho where they passed a similar bill last year. Their legislature is working on a new bill to fix the problems now, but in the meantime, there are children who have asked for help and not been able to get it. We all agree that parents have rights and schools should be working with parents, not against them, but we also know that some parents hurt their children, and those children need help from trusted adults. Those of us in this Chamber have a responsibility to strike a balance that protects the rights of parents and the best interests of children who are victims of physical and sexual abuse. This floor amendment simply strikes 'clear and convincing' from the bill's definition of compelling government interest. Evidence is still there because there should be a documented reason for concern. Again, evidence stays, just the qualifier is removed. This floor amendment protects our most vulnerable children by ensuring that if they tell an adult at school that their parent is abusing them, the school is still allowed to call DCYF and DCYF can call the police, and they can do the investigation together. I urge you to vote yes on this floor amendment and I ask for a roll call vote. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognize Rep. Kofalt.

Representative Kofalt: Thank you, Mister Speaker. I would like to read briefly from two sections of the bill. One is where the phrase 'compelling state interest' appears. Infringement of parental rights prohibited no school may infringe on the fundamental rights of a parent to direct the upbringing education, healthcare and mental health of his or her minor child, excuse me, without demonstrating that such action is necessary to achieve a compelling state interest that such action is narrowly tailored and that such interest is not otherwise served by less restrictive means. That apparently is the section of concern. There's nothing in there that says an adult cannot report their concerns to DCYF. There's nothing that says they cannot raise those concerns. Moreover, in the amendment that we just passed, no provision of this chapter is meant to restrain or interfere with any state or local law enforcement agency investigations of criminal violations of the New Hampshire law by a minor. This is a very clear statement that what I said before is true. This does nothing to impinge our ability to report child abuse, to report concerns about child abuse or suspicions of child abuse, and for law enforcement to investigate those. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Sweeney has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is the Raymond floor amendment (2348h). This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Raymond for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Raymond: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that just saying nothing is meant to interfere with an investigation doesn't actually stop the language from interfering with the investigation and reporting. And if I know that clear and convincing evidence when referring to compelling state interest is an already established legal term that requires states to demonstrate 90% certainty in certain cases at the state supreme court and not just a common-sense phrase. And if I know that if we do not remove this term from SB 72, it will significantly interfere with reporting and investigation of child sexual abuse, leaving children in danger and protecting perpetrators, would I then press the green button to pass this tiny amendment to remove the term ‘clear and convincing’ while leaving the requirement for evidence? Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. DeSimone for parliamentary inquiry.

Representative DeSimone: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that the issues that we just spoke about are already addressed in the amendment that we just passed, therefore leaving the amendment we’re talking about now unnecessary, then would I vote red and let’s move on with the day? Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is amendment (2348h). This is a roll call vote. If you’re in favor, you’ll press the green button; if you’re opposed, press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 169 voting Yay; 212 voting Nay, the amendment fails. We’re now on to ought to pass as amended. The Chair recognizes Rep. Malone.

Representative Malone: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Today I stand before you deeply concerned about the proposed parental right bill that mandates the mandatory disclosure of information a child shares at school. While I understand that the intent is to promote family involvement, this legislation threatens to undermine children’s safety, trust and wellbeing in profound ways. Let’s be clear, schools are more than just places for academics. They are safe spaces for our children, and they should be able to share their thoughts, feelings and experiences without fear of immediate exposure. Forcing school personnel to disclose everything a child says, regardless of contact, safety or family situation, risks exposing vulnerable children to harm, especially those from complicated backgrounds. Consider the wide range of children that will be affected. It will not only be the LGBTQ+ students who will be outed and forced to face harm, it’s also children involved in custody disputes, those living in domestic violence, children in a neglectful and abusive environments. What about the children revealing that they are in unsafe situations sharing fears about their home life? Mandatory disclosure can force children to reveal themselves in ways that put them directly in harm. The legislation strips away the discretion that educators and school counselors need to protect our children’s best interests. These trusted adults are not investigators, they are guides who should assess each situation carefully, always priority the children’s safety. Requiring the mandatory disclosures, without sensitivity or confidentiality, can cause children to withdraw, distrust adults and suffer retaliation from abusive family members. Moreover, existing laws already require disclosures related to children’s safety and education or breaking the school conduct at school. This new bill adds no protection for, only potential harm. Some argue this legislation will help parents know if their child is being bullied or involved in drug use, but those issues are already subject to the mandatory reporting that we have already. The real question is, in what world does an adult’s right to know outweigh a child’s right to safety? If parents want a better relationship with their children, they can get involved and build that trust and not rely on legislation that compromises another child’s safety. There’s also a misconception that neglectful or abusive families don’t actually contact the schools, so this law won’t affect those situations. That’s simply not true. Many families, yes even the dysfunctional ones, depend on schools as their primary point of contact, especially during custody disputes and domestic crisis. School staff often find themselves caught between supporting children and navigating family dynamics. As someone who has worked closely with vulnerable children, I’m a former foster child myself and I have fostered over a dozen children, as well as had my own and I was also a social worker for homeless youth. I can tell you firsthand that the adult-like burdens that many of our children are facing right now are hard and sometimes school is the only safe place they have. Many have endured trauma, violence and neglect. Transgender youth in particular face higher, alarming higher rates as being victims of violence and homelessness. Weeks ago we took a stand against human trafficking. Now I urge you to focus on preventing such vulnerabilities before they happen by providing supportive systems within our communities that protect children from exploitation and harm. Schools should be a place of support and safety, not surveillance. As a parent and an advocate, I implore you to consider the real-world impact of this bill. It is easy to vote along your party lines or accept the narrative that this legislation is solely about a parent’s fundamental rights, but true parental rights include the responsibility to protect children from harm, not exposing them to additional dangers. Many of us who have testified against this bill have dedicated countless hours working with children who have suffered because their voices were silenced. Before you cast your vote, think of the children counting on us to prioritize their safety over adult fears or political agendas. Let’s not turn our schools into places where children’s confidence are betrayed, at risk youth are further endangered, and where the trust between children and educators is broken. Children need and deserve caring supportive adults, not spies or informants. They need and deserve to feel safe, loved and protected. Having walked through this trauma myself, as well as alongside many kids in this situation, we can do better. We should pass legislation that safeguards children’s well-being, supports their growth, and respects their need for confidentiality and safety. Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Gregg.

Representative Gregg: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, on its face this so-called parental bill of rights may seem like a noble cause. After all, who among us would argue that parents shouldn't be involved in their children's lives? They should be and in New Hampshire they already are. But if you look beneath the surface of this bill, along with the history of all of the attempts at amendments and types of bills like this, this is not about engagement, it's about control. It's about erasing the constitutional rights of children and replacing them with unchecked authority that can be used and, in some cases, abused by adults. This is not an accident. This is not a drafting error. This is by design. This bill rewrites the legal balance of rights that our constitution has long protected. It sends a message loud and clear that children have no rights unless their parents grant them. That is not liberty. That is not due process and that is not what New Hampshire stands for. This bill gives cover to the very people our laws should protect children from. It empowers abusers because abusers don't want scrutiny. They don't want oversight. They want the law to back them up when they isolate, manipulate and silence a child and this bill does exactly that. It does this by forcing schools and counselors into impossible corners. It does this by eliminating safe, confidential conversations that save lives, and it does this by treating children, not as people, but as property. But we know better. Children are not the property of the government. Children are not the property of the schools. Children are not the property of teachers and children are not the property of their parents. They are people. People with voices. Hopes, fears and rights and in New Hampshire our courts have affirmed that. In Kimberly C, our supreme court held that a child is entitled to due process and a voice in court. In juvenile 2001-708, the court recognized that minors are entitled to challenge decisions that affect their liberties and yet here we are debating a bill that pretends those rights don't exist. Good parents, which let me state this very clearly, the vast majority of New Hampshire parents are good parents, don't need this bill. They're already engaged, already making decisions in their child's best interest, already building trust without coercion. They don't need government to hand them absolute authority over every thought or feeling their child has. Parenting isn't about control. It's about connection and when that connection is real and healthy no legislation is needed to preserve it. But when we pass laws that demand obedience over understanding, that prioritize parental dominance over child safety, we aren't strengthening families, we are weakening trust. We are silencing the very people who need us the most. This bill will not protect children. It will not protect. It will protect those who harm them. It will help turn our state into a sanctuary for abuse and it will come at the cost of a child's right to safety, to self and to speak. So I say this again, this is not a parental bill of rights, this is a blueprint for legal domination over children. It is a constitutional threat disguised as family policy. And Mister Speaker I ask my colleagues to remember this, our votes carry weight. We are not here to affirm ideology. We are here to defend liberty, all liberty, for all people, including children. Let us be worthy of that responsibility. Let us uphold the rights we swore to protect. Vote no on this bill and vote no on taking rights away from New Hampshire children and I would request a roll call vote.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Kofalt.

Representative Kofalt: Thank you, Mister Speaker. So, I will be brief because I've already been up here making the case for why we need a parental bill of rights, but I want to talk a little bit about trust. We have heard this term, trusted adults, several times in this conversation. Are parents trusted adults? I'm going to say affirmatively that in the vast majority of cases parents are the most trusted adults and that no one cares more about their children than they do. Do we curtail their rights? Do we keep them in the dark because there are some bad actors, and there are, but this bill does nothing to undermine the processes that we have in place to protect children today. Growing up is hard. Every family has its challenges and every family somewhere along the way has some difficult conversations. Keeping parents in the dark is not an answer to that problem. So, this brings us back to my opening statement before, governments do not raise children, parents do. I ask you to join me in voting green to affirm that statement.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Sweeney has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is ought to pass as amended on SB 72. This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Petrigno for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Petrigno: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I believe that this legislation is unconstitutional and I know it will cause real harm to children. And, if I believe that most parents are indeed trusted adults, but in some instances, children may not be able to turn to them. And, if I believe that keeping children safe from injury is a compelling state interest and that we need to balance parental rights with the safety and the well-being of our children, would I press the red button and vote against this legislation? Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. DeSimone for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative DeSimone: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that most parents are way more trustworthy than teachers, like Pamela Smart, then I will vote to pass this bill as amended. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The House will be in order. The motion before us is ought to pass as amended on SB 72. This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of vote. 214 voting Yay, 167 voting Nay, the motion passes.

SB 87-FN, relative to one day liquor license requirements and making salons and barber shops eligible for on-premise licenses. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Jared Sullivan for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill aims to modernize New Hampshire's liquor licensing by allowing for-profit organizations to obtain up to six one-day liquor licenses annually for events hosting 500 or fewer attendees. This change streamlines the process for businesses to host special events involving alcohol, fostering community engagement and economic activity. Additionally, the bill, as amended, permits licensed barber shops, hair salons, spas, and any New Hampshire business registered with the Secretary of State and approved by the Liquor Commission to acquire a special license for $100. This new license enables a New Hampshire business to serve one alcoholic beverage to clients for free during scheduled services. The intent of the amendment is to legalize a practice that has been occurring in New Hampshire for years. By implementing this bill, New Hampshire can support small businesses, stimulate local economies, and adapt to evolving consumer preferences while maintaining appropriate regulatory oversight. SB 14-FN, relative to the penalty for certain fentanyl-related offenses. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Terry Roy for the Majority of Criminal Justice and Public Safety. This bill, as amended, combined SB 15 and a bill changing the simple possession of psilocybin from a felony to a misdemeanor. SB 14 and 15 deal with minimum mandatory punishment for possession of 20 grams of fentanyl and again at the 50-gram threshold. For context, 2mg is considered a lethal dose of fentanyl. The minority would have us believe that a person possessing such an amount, 20 grams or more, could be just for their personal use for them and a friend, and therefore not worthy of harsh punishment. 20 grams of fentanyl can kill ten thousand people. 50 grams can kill twenty-five thousand people. That's not just for you and a friend. The minority tells us that minimum mandatory sentences were tried in the 90s and failed. They claim they were targeted at meth and heroin. That is, however, incorrect. They were targeted at the plague called crack cocaine that was decimating our inner cities and suburbs alike. It was killing Americans by the tens of thousands. The majority asks you to consider this, do you hear, or have you heard about crack cocaine being much of a problem anymore? Neither has the majority. The minority claims studies show they don't work. The majority believes what it sees vs biased studies that were created to come to a desired conclusion. Crack cocaine is basically non-existent and that is due to the strong minimum mandatory federal sentencing in the 90s. The dealers who were caught are either just now getting out or are still in. The majority does however believe that minimum mandatory sentences without any relief mechanism are wrong for New Hampshire and will incarcerate people who may not deserve such a harsh sentence due to various circumstances. For that reason, the bill was rewritten to create a safety valve of judicial discretion. Under this bill, if a defendant is cooperative with law enforcement, not a leader in a drug dealing organization, does not have a recent conviction for the same thing, and the charges do not involve violence, a judge is free to use their discretion. A defendant is also exempt from the minimum mandatory sentences if he or she is under 18 or mentally impaired. It is estimated that over four thousand New Hampshire citizens have died from fentanyl overdose in the last ten years. But for the intervention of first responders and Narcan, that number may be doubled. There is no sign of it slowing. Fentanyl, once only available by diversion of legitimate medication and then from Mexico, is now being mass produced in China and shipped in through Mexico and of late across our Northern borders as well. The minority says that we tried minimum mandatory sentences, and it failed, but the majority says that is false and furthermore, we have tried the minority's preferred methods for 25 years and it has led to nothing but higher crime and death. During the bail law hearings we heard testimony from a former federal inmate who had been sentenced to 10-20 years for drug dealing. He is now a Manchester resident. He came as a public witness who wanted to address us. His testimony, New Hampshire drug laws are a joke. He urged us to bring back minimum mandatory sentences and tighten our bail laws. When he was a dealer in the 90s, he told us that he would refuse to bring drugs to New Hampshire because of the harsh sentences we were known for. He said he would make people drive down to Massachusetts or New York to get their drugs from him. This law is firm but fair. It says, the people of New Hampshire have had enough, If you bring enough poison to kill 10,000 of our citizens, you will do 3.5 years in our jail. If you bring enough to kill 25,000 of our citizens, you will spend the next 7 years in our jail. The law is not blind or the punishment automatic. It allows for a judge to look at a defendant and determine that this is not the kind of person the legislature meant to incarcerate for this and provides for a penalty as low as probation as an option. As stated above, the bill also takes a positive step towards the defelonization of simple possession of legitimately small amounts of a drug. These modifications to the Senate bill shows the position of the House can be tough on real criminals and still allow judicial discretion. The bill was vetted by judges and modified with their suggestions to ensure they would have real discretion where it counted. The majority of the Criminal Justice Committee urges you to focus on the 10 to 25 thousand people this amount of fentanyl could kill. The majority points to the significant and real modifications made to the bill that allow judicial discretion via the safety valve provisions. The majority reminds you we have been trying the velvet glove method preferred by the minority for over a decade and it has cost us over 4,000 of our neighbors, many just children. It's time to try something new. It's time for New Hampshire to reclaim its place in New England as the state that dealers fear to tread. Vote 9-7.

Rep. Buzz Scherr for the Minority of Criminal Justice and Public Safety. This bill and the majority's proposed amendment continue the failed practice of using mandatory minimums to fight the war on drugs. Fentanyl is dangerous and kills people, just as meth and heroin have been doing for decades. The state and federal use of mandatory minimums in the 1990's put in place to deal with the scourge of meth and heroin led to huge increases in incarceration rates for drug offenses. They failed to win the war on drugs, a war we continue to fight today. No evidence exists that New Hampshire judges, most of whom were appointed by Governor Sununu are failing to craft appropriate sentences for those selling drugs, including fentanyl. Yet, mandatory minimums for fentanyl continue to have a superficial political attraction as an easy solution. But they always fail in practice. We do not need to spend even more money on prisons for a solution that doesn't work.

Majority Amendment (2372h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the penalty for certain fentanyl-related offenses; relative to establishing a mandatory minimum sentence for the crime of distribution of a controlled drug with death resulting; and relative to amending the penalties for the possession and use of a quantity of psilocybin for persons 18 years of age or older.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Controlled Drug Act; Penalties. Amend RSA 318-B:26, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) In the case of a violation involving any of the following, a person shall be sentenced to a maximum term of imprisonment of not more than 30 years, a fine of not more than $500,000, or both. If any person commits such a violation after one or more prior offenses as defined in RSA 318-B:27, such person may be sentenced to a maximum term of life imprisonment, a fine of not more than $500,000, or both:

(1) Five ounces or more of a mixture or substance containing any of the following, including any adulterants or dilutants:

(A) Coca leaves, except coca leaves and extracts of coca leaves from which cocaine, ecgonine, and derivatives of ecgonine or their salts have been removed; or

(B) Cocaine other than crack cocaine, its salts, optical and geometric isomers, and salts of isomers; or

(C) Ecgonine, its derivatives, their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers.

(2) Lysergic acid diethylamide, or its analog, in a quantity of 100 milligrams or more including any adulterants or dilutants, or phencyclidine (PCP), or its analog, in a quantity of 10 grams or more including any adulterants or dilutants.

(3) Heroin or its analog, crack cocaine, or a fentanyl class drug in a quantity of 5 grams or more, including any adulterants or dilutants. A fentanyl class drug in a quantity of 20 grams or more, including any adulterants or dilutants, shall carry a minimum term of imprisonment of not less than 3 years and 6 months incarceration. A fentanyl class drug in a quantity of 50 grams or more, including any adulterants or dilutants, shall carry a minimum term of imprisonment of not less than 7 years incarceration, subject to the exception delineated herein.

(A) A person subject to a mandatory minimum sentence prescribed in subparagraph (3) may be eligible for a sentence below the mandatory minimum if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The defendant has no prior convictions for violent felonies, as defined in RSA 651:5, XI, or any drug-related offenses under RSA 318-B, or substantially similar convictions in any other territory, state, or federal jurisdiction, within the past 7 years.

(ii) The offense did not involve the use, attempted use, or credible threat of violence, firearms, or other dangerous weapons, as defined in RSA 625:11, V.

(iii) The defendant was not a leader, organizer, or supervisor in the drug operation, as determined by the court.

(iv) The defendant, to the extent that he or she is able as determined by the court considering the recommendation of the prosecutor, provides substantial assistance to law enforcement, including full and truthful disclosure of all known details of the offense and related nonviolent activities, resulting in actionable intelligence related to another offender, prior to sentencing. The court shall make the final decision related to the satisfaction of this condition.

(v) The defendant submits to a court-ordered substance use disorder evaluation and, if recommended, completes a state-approved treatment program within 9 months of sentencing, provided such treatment is available. In the event no treatment is available within the 9 month window, the court may at its discretion extend the time to complete such treatment. If no treatment is recommended, the defendant shall complete a 50-hour, court-approved drug education program, provided such a program is available. The court may at its discretion allow substitution programs of a similar nature if there are no 50-hour, approved programs available.

(vi) The defendant did not knowingly possess or distribute a fentanyl-class drug in a form intended to deceive, including but not limited to counterfeit prescription pills.

(B) Upon determining eligibility, the court may impose a sentence below the mandatory minimum, including probation, conditional discharge, or a reduced prison term, pursuant to RSA 651:2. The court shall consider:

(i) The defendant's specific role and culpability in the offense.

(ii) Mitigating factors, such as documented coercion or extreme economic hardship, provided they do not excuse the offense.

(iii) The defendant's risk of recidivism, based on criminal history and compliance with pre-sentencing conditions.

(C) If a sentence below the mandatory minimum is applied pursuant to subparagraph (B), the court shall impose a minimum of 3 years' probation with mandatory conditions, including:

(i) Biweekly drug testing, if applicable.

(ii) Completion of any court-ordered treatment or education program.

(iii) At least 250 hours of community service, unless waived due to documented medical inability.

(iv) A suspended sentence of at least 3 years and 6 months imprisonment, to be imposed if probation conditions are violated.

(4) Methamphetamine or its analog, in a quantity of 5 ounces or more, including adulterants or dilutants. 2 Controlled Drug Act; Penalties. Amend RSA 318-B:26, IX to read as follows:

IX. Any person who manufactures, sells, or dispenses methamphetamine, lysergic acid[;] diethylamide (LSD), phencyclidine (PCP) or any other controlled drug classified in schedules I or II, or any controlled drug analog thereof, in violation of RSA 318-B:2, I or I-a, excluding any fentanyl class drug, including any adulterants or dilutants, is strictly liable for a death which results from the injection, inhalation, or ingestion of that substance, and may be sentenced to imprisonment for life or for such term as the court may order. Any person who manufactures, sells, or dispenses a fentanyl class drug, including any adulterants or dilutants, in violation of RSA 318-B:2, I or I-a, is strictly liable for a death which results from the injection, inhalation, or ingestion of that substance, and may be sentenced to imprisonment for life or for such term as the court may order. Any such term shall not be less than 7 years of imprisonment, subject to the exception delineated in paragraph IX-b. For purposes of this section, the person's act of manufacturing, dispensing, or selling a substance is the cause of a death when:

(a) The injection, inhalation or ingestion of the substance is an antecedent but for which the death would not have occurred; and

(b) The death was not:

(1) Too remote in its occurrence as to have just bearing on the person's liability; or

(2) Too dependent upon conduct of another person which was unrelated to the injection, inhalation or ingestion of the substance or its effect, as to have a just bearing on the person's liability. It shall not be a defense to a prosecution under this section that the decedent contributed to his own death by his purposeful, knowing, reckless or negligent injection, inhalation or ingestion of the substance or by his consenting to the administration of the substance by another. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude or limit any prosecution for homicide. A conviction arising under this section shall not merge with a conviction of one as a drug enterprise leader or for any other offense defined in this chapter.

3 New Paragraph; Controlled Drug Act; Penalties. Amend RSA 318-B:26 by inserting after paragraph IX-a the following new paragraph:

IX-b.(a) A defendant subject to the mandatory minimum sentence in paragraph IX may be eligible for a sentence below the mandatory minimum if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The defendant has no prior convictions for violent felonies, as defined in RSA 651:5, XI, or any drug-related offenses under RSA 318-B within the past 10 years.

(2) The offense did not involve the use, attempted use, or credible threat of violence, firearms, or other dangerous weapons, as defined in RSA 625:11, V.

(3) The defendant was not a leader, organizer, or supervisor in the drug operation, as determined by the court.

(4) The defendant, to the extent that he or she is able as determined by the court considering the recommendation of the prosecutor, provides substantial assistance to law enforcement, including full and truthful disclosure of all known details of the offense and related nonviolent activities, resulting in actionable intelligence related to another offender, prior to sentencing. The court shall make the final decision related to the satisfaction of this condition.

(5) The defendant submits to a court-ordered substance use disorder evaluation and, if recommended, completes a state-approved treatment program within 9 months of sentencing providing such treatment is available. In the event no treatment is available within the 9 month window, the court may at its discretion extend the time to complete such treatment. If no treatment is recommended, the defendant shall complete a 50-hour, court-approved drug education program provided such a program is available. The court may at its discretion allow substitution programs of a similar nature if there are no 50-hour, approved programs available.

(6) The defendant did not knowingly distribute a fentanyl-class drug in a form intended to deceive, including but not limited to counterfeit prescription pills.

(b) Upon determining eligibility, the court may impose a sentence below the mandatory minimum, including probation, conditional discharge, or a reduced prison term, pursuant to RSA 651:2. The court shall consider:

(1) The defendant's specific role and culpability in the offense.

(2) Mitigating factors, such as documented coercion or extreme economic hardship, provided they do not excuse the offense.

(3) The defendant's risk of recidivism, based on criminal history and compliance with pre-sentencing conditions.

(c) If a sentence below the mandatory minimum is applied pursuant to this paragraph, the court shall impose a minimum of 3 years' probation with mandatory conditions, including:

(1) Biweekly drug testing, if applicable.

(2) Completion of any court-ordered treatment or education program.

(3) At least 300 hours of community service, unless waived due to documented medical inability.

(4) A suspended sentence of at least 5 years' imprisonment, to be imposed if probation conditions are violated.

4 New Section; Personal Possession of Psilocybin. Amend RSA 318-B by inserting after section 2-e the following new section:

318-B:2-f Personal Possession of Psilocybin.

I. Notwithstanding RSA 318-B:2 and 318-B:26, a person 18 years of age or older who obtains, purchases, transports, possesses, or uses 3/4 of an ounce or less of psilocybin shall be subject to the following penalties:

II. Any person under 18 years of age who obtains, purchases, transports, possesses, or uses psilocybin shall be subject to the penalties in RSA 318-B:26.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2026.

and the majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

The House recessed at 11:50 a.m.

RECESS

The House reconvened at 1:00 p.m.

(Rep. Steven Smith in the Chair)

SB 54-FN, relative to refusal of consent to testing to determine alcohol concentration and penalties for aggravated driving while intoxicated. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Terry Roy for the Majority of Criminal Justice and Public Safety. The majority of the Criminal Justice Committee, after hearing testimony and reviewing various relevant materials, concluded this bill ought to pass with amendment. The underlying bill, while very similar to a House bill recently before the House, has been made significantly different based on the input of the members. The House bill while seeking to increase driver participation in blood alcohol testing, was more punishment than enticement and the Senate version was much the same. The amended version flips that on its head. We have the lowest participation rate in the country. Why? Because the license suspension for refusal is the exact same as if you took the test and were convicted. Why in the world would anyone take a test that could be used to convict them, when they could refuse and lose nothing more. To that end, the amended version increases the suspension, but not as much as the original bill, plus it adds incentives. If a driver takes the test and is convicted, they are eligible for a hardship "Cinderella" license so that they can work. If they take the test and are convicted, and they complete the court ordered alcohol treatment, their suspension can be drastically reduced. This bill would accomplish what is or should be the main goal. Getting intoxicated drivers off of our roads while getting them the help necessary to beat the habit that is endangering their and the rest of our lives. This bill additionally has a non-germane amendment that the majority also believes ought to pass. This amendment would mandate firearms safety training in our public schools, using age appropriate and proven safety training that would teach younger children about basic safety such as not to touch, get an adult, and all firearms are loaded. As the students mature so would the training. It would include the laws related to firearms and the 2nd Amendment in general. It may include how firearms function and the various types that are legal to possess. The committee majority agreed that in a society such as New Hampshire, where we not only acknowledge the 2nd Amendment to the US Constitution, as well as our own constitution, we embrace it, we are doing a grave disservice to our children by teaching them next to nothing about it. Someone arguing against the amendment said the thought of “legitimizing” guns to school children is abhorrent. The right to keep and bear arms was “legitimized” by our founders hundreds of years ago. Some may not like that, and they have had several hundred years to convince enough of their neighbors to change it. Thus far they have failed. They have failed so badly that they have never even gotten an amendment to change the 2nd Amendment out of a committee in Congress. Guns are a real part of our society, and the majority feels that our children should learn the basics about them from qualified experts instead of video games, rap stars, and TikTok influencers. Vote 9-6.

Rep. Alissandra Murray for the Minority of Criminal Justice and Public Safety. While the minority of the committee agreed that our state must take steps to lower the rates of impaired driving, this bill punishes a person’s refusal to surrender their right under the Fourth Amendment to resist an unwarranted search. This legislation does not criminalize drunk driving but rather criminalizes the assertion of a constitutional right, and that is something the government cannot do. Since these chemical tests constitute searches under the Fourth Amendment, declining to submit to a warrantless search falls squarely within the ambit of that constitutional provision. An individual has a constitutional right to refuse to consent to such a search and insist that the police obtain a warrant. While drunk driving is undoubtedly a severe problem that requires regulation, the goal should be to preserve fundamental liberty interests with viable legal and policy alternatives that can effectively curb drunk driving rates. Additionally, the committee’s non-germane amendment to mandate firearms safety training in schools makes this bill even more untenable. This is a significant change to propose at this stage in the legislative process. Furthermore, there is no data that indicates such trainings do anything to prevent gun violence. On the contrary, two separate studies found that programs like the NRA’s Eddie Eagle are ineffective at teaching children how to safely respond to an unsupervised firearm in real-life situations. American children are nine times more likely to die from a gun accident than children in other developed countries. If we are serious about protecting our children, we should be pursuing legislation like safe storage laws. The onus is not on students to protect themselves from gun violence, that’s our responsibility.

Majority Amendment (1756h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to refusal of consent to testing to determine alcohol concentration and penalties for aggravated driving while intoxicated, and mandatory firearms safety training in public schools.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 4 with the following:

The purpose of this chapter is to promote public safety and responsible citizenship by ensuring that all students in New Hampshire public schools receive age-appropriate education on firearms safety in order to foster an understanding of safe handling, storage, and the legal responsibilities associated with firearms ownership and use, consistent with the state’s commitment to individual rights and community well-being.

193-L:3 Definitions.

In this chapter:

II. “Public school” means all public and chartered public schools in the state.

193-L:4 Mandatory Firearms Safety Training.

I. The department of education, in consultation with the department of safety and qualified firearms instructors, shall develop or adopt standardized firearms safety training pursuant to RSA 193-L:5 for public school students in grades K-12 by January 1, 2026.

II. The department shall provide curricular material to each school district at no cost to the district. The department shall actively seek federal funds, state and federal grants, and other sources of funding to support the costs associated with firearms safety training. The department shall develop guidelines regarding individual donations to the department from individuals, groups, or organizations to support training efforts and costs.

193-L:5 Mandatory Firearms Safety Training; Requirements and Delivery.

I. Beginning with the 2026-2027 school year, firearms safety training shall be taught annually in all public schools as part of the health, physical education, or civics curriculum, with a minimum of one instructional hour per school year dedicated to this purpose. The training shall be mandatory for every public school student unless a student's parent or legal guardian receives an exception pursuant to RSA 193-L:6 and 186:11, IX-c.

II. The training shall be age-appropriate for each grade level, with students in grades K-5 receiving instruction focused on avoidance and reporting and students in grades 6-12 receiving expanded instruction to include basic firearm mechanics, safe handling principles, secure storage practices, and an overview of state and federal firearms laws. Firearms safety training shall not include live firearms or ammunition in the classroom but may incorporate training aids such as dummy firearms or multimedia resources.

III. The training shall be administered by school staff or external instructors certified in firearms safety education by a recognized organization or as approved by the department of education.

193-L:6 Exception.

School districts shall adopt a policy in accordance with RSA 186:11, IX-c to allow an exception by a parent or legal guardian to all or part of the firearms safety training.

193-L:7 Compliance and Reporting.

I. Each school district shall submit an annual report to the department of education by the final day of the school year, confirming compliance with this chapter and detailing the number of students trained and excepted.

II. The department of education shall compile and submit a summary report detailing the number of students trained and excepted to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate by September 1 of each year, beginning in 2027.

193-L:8 Severability. If any provision of this chapter, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect the other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

6 New Paragraph; Duties of the State Board of Education; Firearms Safety Training. Amend RSA 186:11 by inserting after paragraph XXXVI the following new paragraph:

XXXVI-a. Firearms Safety Training. Develop or adopt, and distribute to school districts, an educational curriculum designed to teach students the principles of safe firearm handling, storage, and avoidance, as required under RSA 193-L.

7 Effective Date.

I. Sections 5 and 6 of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect January 1, 2026.

CHAPTER 159-G

FIREARMS TRAINING IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

159-G:1 Short Title. This chapter shall be known as the "New Hampshire Firearms Safety Education Act."

159-G:2 Purpose and Intent. The purpose of this chapter is to promote public safety and responsible citizenship by ensuring that all students in New Hampshire public schools receive age-appropriate education on firearms safety in order to foster an understanding of safe handling, storage, and the legal responsibilities associated with firearms ownership and use, consistent with the state's commitment to individual rights and community well-being.

159-G:3 Definitions.

In this chapter:

I. "Firearms safety training" means an educational curriculum designed to teach students the principles of safe firearm handling, storage, and avoidance, including but not limited to the National Rifle Association's Eddie Eagle GunSafe Program or equivalent programs approved by the department of education.

II. "Public school" means all public and chartered public schools in the state. The head of any accredited private or religious school, grades K-12, may contact the department of safety and request the training for their school. The department shall coordinate the same training as provided at public schools. Instructors for such training at private or religious schools shall be obtained from among the approved trainers on a volunteer basis.

159-G:4 Mandatory Firearms Safety Training.

I. The department of safety, in consultation with the department of education and qualified firearms instructors, shall develop or adopt standardized firearms safety training pursuant to RSA 159-G:5 for public school students in grades K-12 by January 1, 2026.

II. The department of safety shall provide curricular material to the department of education, who shall in turn provide such curricular material to each school district at no cost to the district. The department shall actively seek federal funds, state and federal grants, and other sources of funding to support the costs associated with firearms safety training. The department shall develop guidelines regarding individual donations to the department from individuals, groups, or organizations to support training efforts and costs.

159-G:5 Mandatory Firearms Safety Training; Requirements and Delivery.

I. Beginning with the 2026-2027 school year, firearms safety training shall be offered at every public school for every child. The parents of each child shall be provided a copy of the curriculum for each year and may sign a form opting their child in to the training. The school shall provide a study period in their regularly scheduled classes for student not opting to take the class. No school shall discourage or in any way obstruct the offering of this training, to include not providing the necessary permission forms at the beginning of the year, not providing an appropriate venue for the number of students requesting the training, or scheduling any other events at the same time as the training.

II. The training shall be age-appropriate for each grade level, with students in grades K-5 receiving instruction focused on avoidance and reporting and students in grades 6-12 receiving expanded instruction to include basic firearm mechanics, safe handling principles, secure storage practices, and an overview of state and federal firearms laws. Firearms safety training shall not include live firearms or ammunition in the classroom but may incorporate training aids such as dummy firearms or multimedia resources.

III. The training shall be administered by external instructors certified in firearms safety education by a nationally recognized organization such as the National Rifle Association, the National Law Enforcement Training Center, the Second Amendment Firearms Training & Education Association, the United States

Concealed Carry Association, or the Sig Sauer Academy, or by a school resource officer if the officer has or obtains certification as a firearms safety instructor through a nationally recognized organization or the New Hampshire police standards and training council.

IV. No school employee or other person affiliated with the school or training program shall inquire of students if there are any firearms in their homes, and if a student reveals such information, no record of this information may be made or shared for any purpose.

159-G:6 Compliance and Reporting.

I. Each school district shall submit an annual report to the department of education by the final day of the school year, confirming compliance with this chapter and detailing the number of students trained.

II. The department of education shall compile and submit a summary report detailing the number of students trained to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate by September 1 of each year, beginning in 2027.

159-G:7 Severability. If any provision of this chapter, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect the other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

7 New Paragraph; Duties of the State Board of Education; Firearms Safety Training. Amend RSA 186:11 by inserting after paragraph XXXVI the following new paragraph:

XXXVI-a. Firearms Safety Training. Adopt and distribute to school districts, an educational curriculum designed to teach students the principles of safe firearm handling, storage, and avoidance, as required under RSA 159-G.

8 Effective Date.

I. Sections 6 and 7 of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect January 1, 2026.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Modifies periods of suspension under different circumstances stemming from a refusal of consent to testing to determine alcohol concentration and modifies the penalties for aggravated driving while intoxicated.

II. Requires the department of education to create or adopt standardized firearms safety training for optional instruction in public schools.

The question being adoption of floor amendment (2691h).

MOTION TO DIVIDE

Rep. Roy moved that Sections 1-5, 8 I and Sections 6-7, 8 II be divided from floor amendment (2691h) on SB 54-FN, relative to refusal of consent to testing to determine alcohol concentration and penalties for aggravated driving while intoxicated.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. McFarlane moved that SB 54-FN, relative to refusal of consent to testing to determine alcohol concentration and penalties for aggravated driving while intoxicated, be laid on the table.

On a division vote, with 256 members having voted in the affirmative, and 106 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

SB 263-FN, criminalizing and creating a private right of action for the facilitation, encouragement, offer, solicitation, or recommendation of certain acts or actions through a responsive generative communication to a child. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Matt Sabourin dit Choinière for the Majority of Criminal Justice and Public Safety. This vital piece of legislation deserves swift passage to protect children from the escalating dangers posed by unregulated artificial intelligence (AI) communication platforms. By criminalizing and establishing a private right of action against owners and operators of AI chat programs and related technologies that facilitate or encourage harmful behaviors, such as sexual exploitation, substance abuse, self-harm, or violence, this act closes a dangerous loophole in child protection laws. As AI tools increasingly interact with minors online, it is imperative that legal accountability be enforced to deter reckless deployment and ensure that platforms are not used to manipulate or endanger vulnerable youth. With mandatory minimum damages and recovery of legal fees for victims, this law empowers families to seek justice and compels tech companies to prioritize child safety in the digital age. Vote 12-4.

Rep. David Meuse for the Minority of Criminal Justice and Public Safety. While the minority agrees that AI chatbots deployed without proper guardrails can be harmful to children as well as to more vulnerable adults, this bill will do little or nothing to solve the problem. As written, the bill seeks to ban AI driven chatbots from using “responsive open-end regenerative communication” that can endanger the welfare of children. However, the final bill never actually defines what constitutes “responsive open-ended regenerative communication.” The final bill also removes a penalty provision from the original bill, but unfortunately not from the bill’s title, that would have created a private right of action allowing victims and parents to sue online services and computer application that utilize AI for damages resulting from chatbots that suggest children engage in harmful, violent, or suicidal conduct or that encourage them to engage in sexual activity. The minority strongly believes that victims and parents in this situation should be empowered and not disempowered. As for the penalties that remain, there is little in them to encourage an offending service or application provider, many of which have market capitalizations in the tens or even hundreds of billions of dollars, from complying. As written, the Attorney General is first required to file for injunctive relief and then wait for 90 days for offending service or application provider to “cure” the problem. If the chatbot provider fails to adequately respond, a $1,000 per violation penalty may be imposed. While this sort of penalty would put a serious dent in the wallet of the average person, it is nothing more than the illusion of a penalty for companies of this size. Also worth noting is there is a bill now working its way through the US Congress that would make AI regulation the sole purview of Congress and would ban states from enforcing any law or regulation on AI models and systems, or automated decision-making systems for the next ten years. The only exceptions would be state laws that “remove legal impediments to or facilitate the deployment or operation of” AI systems. Given the lack of clarity in the bill, a diminished and insufficient penalty, and the potential for Congress to pull the rug out from underneath this legislation, we urged the committee to amend the bill or retain it for additional work over the summer. But since that attempt was rejected, we urge you to oppose the Ought to Pass motion. The question being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Cormen moved that SB 263-FN, criminalizing and creating a private right of action for the facilitation, encouragement, offer, solicitation, or recommendation of certain acts or actions through a responsive generative communication to a child, and relative to the termination of tenancy at the expiration of the tenancy or lease term, be laid on the table.

Rep. DeLemus requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

Rep. Aylward voted Nay and intended to vote Yea.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER

Having voted with the prevailing side, Rep. Osborne moved that the House reconsider its action whereby, on a roll call vote of 210-160, the House adopted the motion to concur with Senate amendment on HB 10-FN, establishing the parental bill of rights.

Rep. Osborne spoke against.

SB 99-FN, relative to regional career and technical education agreements. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Rick Ladd for the Majority of Education Funding. This bill extends access to Career and Technical Education (CTE) and requires regional CTE agreements to include an access program for full- and part-time sending school students. The bill also requires sending and receiving school districts to develop agreements that allow students from the sending school to take academic courses outside the technical education program at the receiving comprehensive high school. Currently, some sending school students are not attending CTE programs due to required course attendance at the sending school which conflict with desired course offerings at the CTE center. As amended, the sending district shall pay to the receiving CTE school district an amount equal to, not less than, 80% of the sending district's average cost per pupil for the number of non-CTE credits taken by the sending student. The Department of Education is responsible for determining the average per pupil tuition cost using the most recent available data as reported by the district. This legislation is very similar to that developed for Vermont CTE centers; five centers of which New Hampshire students attend. The intent of this bill is to reduce academic course scheduling conflicts between sending and receiving districts that limit students from accessing CTE programs that lead to career opportunities in the trades. Vote 10-8. Rep. David Luneau for the Minority of Education Funding. This bill, as amended, is well intended and seeks to improve access to non-Career and Technical Education (CTE) classes offered by comprehensive high schools for students enrolled in CTE programs. However, the bill implements an approach with flaws and unintended consequences that will likely reduce participation in CTE programs. The tuition costs that would be paid by the student's district of residence are not based on the costs incurred by the comprehensive high school, which is unfair to the CTE school. And without any funding from the state, the bill imposes new costs on the student's district of residence which will lead to an increase in local property taxes. Finally, due to the costs and property tax burden, this bill would likely lead to a reduction in CTE participation. A better approach would be to align class schedules and encourage districts to participate.

Majority Amendment (1920h)

Amend RSA 188-E:1-a, VI(e)(1) and (2) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(1) For part-time program students, sending districts shall pay to receiving districts an amount equal to not less than 80 percent of the sending district's average cost per pupil as determined by the department of education using the most recent available data as reported by the district to the department, divided by 5 times the number of credits that the part-time program student is enrolled in.

(2) For full-time program students, sending districts shall pay to receiving districts an amount equal to not less than 80 percent of the sending district's average cost per pupil as determined by the department of education using the most recent available data as reported by the district to the department.

The question being adoption of the majority committee amendment.

Rep. Luneau requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

SB 57, establishing a study committee to analyze reducing the number of school administrative units. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Glenn Cordelli for Education Policy and Administration. This bill was a study committee to investigate consolidation of the state's 107 school administrative units (SAUs). The House had passed a bill for a commission to study this topic, but it was re-referred in the Senate. Aspects of that bill are in the amendment to this bill. In addition to looking at consolidation of SAUs, possibly in relation to counties, it will study staffing of SAUs and local school districts, analyze the roles of SAUs and school districts, and analyze the roles of superintendents or provision of superintendent services in SAUs and school districts. It is time to look into consolidation to see if there are savings and efficiencies that can be realized. Vote 15-2.

Amend the bill by replacing sections 2 and 3 with the following:

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Two members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Five members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall study the issues related to school administrative units and consolidation including but limited to the following:

I. Analyze and clarify the roles of school administrative districts (SAUs) and local school districts;

II. Analyze and clarify the roles of school superintendents and/or provision of superintendent services in SAUs and local school districts;

III. Examine existing research and findings related to consolidation of school districts including financial feasibility and efficiencies of scale that consolidation may or may not achieve;

IV. Examine the feasibility of consolidating school administrative units into one per county, except for counties with populations exceeding 100,000 residents, and maintaining individual school administrative units for the cities of Nashua and Manchester;

V. Examine issues related to staffing and oversight of SAUs and local school districts.

VI. Examine the processes for SAU merger under RSA 194-C:2 for efficiency and effectiveness.

SB 69-L, relative to acceptance of or rejection of charitable contributions, gifts, or donations by local school boards. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Glenn Cordelli for the Majority of Education Policy and Administration. This bill requires that local school boards vote in public session on the rejection of gifts or donations. This was in response to a Goffstown incident in which the school board rejected payment from a local church to pay student lunch debts. Instead, the business manager rejected the offer and sued the families. The amendment to the bill specifies that school boards vote in public on rejection or acceptance of gifts or donations. The amended bill also includes a modified version of HB 671, establishing a kindergarten literacy readiness program, that passed the House on the consent calendar but was retained in Finance. The version in SB 69 is a slightly revised program for pre-school children to prepare them for kindergarten and eliminates any state appropriation. It will rely on donations and grants instead. Similar programs over several years around the country have shown very positive results, as we see with a pilot of one such program here in New Hampshire using federal funds that have now expired. With our current proficiency rates, this program is needed in New Hampshire. Vote 9-8.

Majority Amendment (2239h)

I. Requires local school boards to publicly discuss and vote before accepting or rejecting any charitable gifts, grants, or donations.

II. Establishes a statewide virtual early childhood readiness family engagement program.

III. Exempts library card and library membership files and information from disclosure under the right-to-know law.

The question being adoption of floor amendment (2700h).

Floor amendment (2700h) was adopted.

The question now being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

SB 96, relative to mandatory disclosure by school district employees to parents. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Glenn Cordelli for the Majority of Education Policy and Administration. This parent's rights bill simply requires educators to honestly and truthfully respond to written questions asked by parents. They are given five days for that response. The district may adopt procedures to allow the educator to withhold information if a reasonably prudent person would believe that a truthful answer might result in abuse at home as already is statute in RSA 186:11, IX-e. Education violations of this section shall be considered a violation of the Educator Code of Conduct. There needs to be honesty and trust between parents and the children but also between educators and parents. Vote 9-8.

Rep. Lee Ann Kluger for the Minority of Education Policy and Administration. This bill, as amended, attempts to create a communication protocol that would include parents, teachers, and students. The minority maintains that while communication between all mentioned parties is indeed critical in a school setting, the bill is overreaching and could invoke negative consequences. Students should be able to speak to an adult as the New Hampshire program "One Trusted Adult" implements in schools within the state. Teachers are trained and equipped with the necessary knowledge in order promote communication with students. It involves trust building and the setting of boundaries. A teacher is placed in a very complex and potentially harmful situation if asked to betray a student's confidence. It is imperative to realize that at times students may prefer to speak to someone other than a parent. They may be struggling with gender identity, friendships, or social dynamics. It becomes a serious dilemma to expect an educator to make the decision whether or not to document and decline sharing information. It is much too subjective to expect teachers to know whether or not the disclosure will result in abuse. This places an unfair burden on the educator. Students have rights and those rights need to be protected. This bill fails to respect those rights.

Majority Amendment (2199h)

Amend RSA 189:13-d as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

189:13-d Communications Between Teachers and Parents.

I. Educators credentialed by the New Hampshire department of education shall have a duty to respond to written inquiries by parents regarding material information relating to their child enrolled in that educator's school. Such response to a written request shall be sent within 5 school days of its receipt and be answered completely and honestly to the extent permitted by state or federal law.

II. A school district may adopt procedures that permit school personnel to withhold such information from a parent if a reasonably prudent person would believe that disclosure would result in abuse, abandonment, or neglect pursuant to RSA 169-C:3. Any such withholding of information from a parent shall be documented in writing and placed in the student's record.

III. Violation of this section shall be considered a violation of the code of conduct for New Hampshire educators and subject to investigation, in accordance with administrative rules, against that credential holder.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires school employees to respond honestly and completely to written requests by parents regarding information relating to their children and provides that the district may adopt procedures to withhold such information if a reasonably prudent person would believe that such disclosure would result in abuse, abandonment or neglect.

The question being adoption of the majority committee amendment.

On a division vote, with 198 members having voted in the affirmative, and 162 in the negative, the majority committee amendment was adopted.

The question being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Rep. Cordelli offered floor amendment (2699h).

Such response to a written request shall be sent within 10 business days of its receipt and be answered completely and honestly to the extent permitted by state or federal law.

II. A school district may adopt procedures that permit school personnel to withhold such information from a parent if a reasonably prudent person would believe that disclosure would result in abuse, abandonment, or neglect pursuant to RSA 169-C:3. Any such withholding of information from a parent shall be documented in writing and placed in the student's record.

III. Violation of this section shall be considered a violation of the code of conduct for New Hampshire educators and subject to investigation, in accordance with administrative rules, against that credential holder.

Floor amendment (2699h) was adopted.

The question being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Rep. Potenza offered floor amendment (2713h).

Floor Amendment (2713h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to mandatory disclosure by school district employees to parents and relative to enforcement of parental rights against school districts and school employees.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 Compelling State Interest. Amend RSA 189 by inserting section 13-d the following new sections:

189:13-e Compelling State Interest. In this chapter "compelling state interest" means a circumstance wherein the physical safety of the child has been harmed or is threatened with harm of such a grave nature by the actions or inactions of the child's parent or parents that the state or its agencies or instrumentalities are justified in acting to protect the child without the knowledge or consent of a parent or in withholding information about the child from the parent or parents. Potential or actual psychological or emotional injury to a child from a parent's actual, threatened, or anticipated reaction to learning information about his or her child, including emotions such as anger, disappointment, sadness, disapproval or other behaviors does not constitute a compelling state interest for withholding information about the child from a parent, but such injury, if sufficiently serious, may constitute grounds for taking action against the parent for abuse or neglect under RSA 169-C. Although there are many circumstances in which a state actor, such as a teacher or a school, may act in loco parentis, the mere fact that such a state actor is acting in this capacity is not sufficient to establish a compelling state interest. To establish a compelling state interest, a state actor must be able to demonstrate the existence of actual or threatened physical harm to the child by clear and convincing evidence based on specific, detailed, and reliable information. Even when a compelling state interest exists, a state actor must use the means for satisfying the interest that is the least infringing on the parental rights described in this chapter and must do so only for the minimum time necessary to accomplish its objective.

189:13-f Violations.

I. No school or school personnel shall infringe upon any of the parental rights set forth in this title, unless the infringement is supported by clear and convincing evidence and is narrowly tailored to address the compelling state interest.

II. Any parent claiming violation of any provision of this chapter may bring an action for declaratory or injunctive relief, or both, and monetary damages against the school. If a parent prevails in any such court action, the court shall award to the parent his or her reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, including any such attorneys' fees and court costs incurred in an appeal to the supreme court.

III. Any teacher or administrator with certification to teach found through investigation by the department of education to have violated any section of this chapter shall be deemed to have violated the educator code of conduct and shall be subject to disciplinary action by the department. Any certified educator found by the department to have willfully violated any section of this law shall have his or her teaching credentials suspended for a minimum of one year for a first offense or certification terminated for multiple offenses. Department investigation and enforcement for any educator code of conduct violation under this section shall be subject to a statute of limitations of 5 years from when the alleged offense occurred. An employee of the school district who is not a teacher who willfully violates any provision of this section shall be placed on unpaid leave for the remainder of the school year for a first offense and shall have employment terminated for multiple offenses. Department investigation and enforcement of this section under the educator code shall not require a prior adjudication by any other investigative or law enforcement body.

IV. Any third party contracted by the district who willfully violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a violation under RSA 651:2, III-a and, notwithstanding RSA 651:2, IV(a), shall be fined not less than $2,500, shall be restricted from any access to all schools in the district for one year for a first offense, and shall be fined $5,000 with permanent restriction from employment or contracted business with any schools in the district for any subsequent offenses.

V. Any medical or mental health professional employed or contracted by a school district found to have violated any portion of this law by the agency by which such person is licensed, following such agency's usual disciplinary procedures, shall be subject to disciplinary action. Any medical or mental health professional employed or contracted by a school district who is found to have willfully violated any portion of this law shall have their license suspended for a minimum of one year for a first offense and permanently revoked for subsequent offenses. Agency investigation and enforcement pursuant to any violation under this section shall be subject to a statute of limitations of 5 years from when the alleged offense occurred. Investigation and enforcement of this section by the agency shall not require a prior adjudication by any other investigative or law enforcement body.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

MOTION TO PRINT DEBATE

Rep. Cornell moved that the debate on floor amendment (2713h) to SB 96, relative to mandatory disclosure by school district employees to parents and relative to enforcement of parental rights against school districts and school employees, be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker ordered.

DEBATE ON FLOOR AMENDMENT (2713H) TO SB 96

Speaker Packard: Rep. Potenza offers floor amendment (2713h). The Chair recognizes Rep. Love.

Representative Love: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker and colleagues, I rise to support floor amendment (2713h). We all know that a law without consequences, for those that break that law, is just a suggestion. Any society with laws that lack consequences is asking for anarchy. Mister Speaker, since the COVID years, many children have been experiencing and suffering from mental illness, and they are in need of our help. In fact, many of these children have been contemplating suicide and sadly some have even succeeded. We can't, in the vast majority of cases, keep the children from receiving help from the greatest support system known to mankind, the family. We know that the family cannot help their children without having the information they need. Some would argue that we should cut moms and dads, grandparents and aunts and uncles, brothers and sisters, cousins out of the healing process. We need to remember that there's a hierarchy of responsibility and love in this equation and school personnel aren't at the top of this family equation. Mister Speaker, it's the family that will arrange for the psychiatric care. It's the family that worry themselves sick every day. It's a family that will support a child through thick and thin of the recovery process. Mister Speaker and colleagues, let me ask you, if you worked in a school and one of your students exhibit exhibited symptoms of opioid abuse and he or she was nodding off in class, rubbing and scratching their faces and arms and wearing long sleeve shirts in an 80° classroom, would you find a way to inform the parents or just hope that the student figures it out before he overdoses? I would hope you choose the first option. Mister Speaker, in many ways untreated mental illness isn't much different than drug addiction. Both can be debilitating or deadly. And Mister Speaker, we know that the majority of school personnel care deeply about children, but we also know that there are bad actors everywhere in society and we need consequences in place for the people who willfully break the law. Mister Speaker and colleagues, I ask that you press the green button so we can truly make progress in protecting our children and families from the horrors that keeping information can become. Thank you, Mister Speaker, and I ask for a roll call.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. DeRoy.

Representative DeRoy: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Today I rise in strong support of floor amendment (2713h) to SB 96, an act relative to mandatory disclosure by school district employees to parents. We have before us an historic opportunity to affirm a simple, a simple foundational truth. Parents and guardians have the right to know everything regarding the care and education of their children. Let me say that again. Parents have the right to know everything about their children when it comes to their care and education. This amendment provides clarity where it is most needed and accountability where it has been long absent. Floor amendment (2713h) restores language to this notification bill that this body and another body have previously affirmed. As the discussion about ensuring parents receive all requested information about their children was introduced years ago, this amendment restores language to ensure parents have the right to be truthfully and fully informed and that there are consequences if school personnel willfully keeps parents in the dark. It also provides clear constitutional definition of compelling state interest, which was drafted and introduced by Representative Bob Lynn's floor amendment to HB 10 in 2023. This definition delineates the boundaries of the state's compelling interests, clarifying that what it is and is not and ensures the bill's language aligns with judicial decisions. This amendment also restores reasonable and yet actionable enforcement mechanisms. This bill isn't just about keeping parents in the driver's seat on the care and education of their children, but also the effective remedies and fair enforcement. The amendment ensures parents can go directly to court for injunctive relief, declaratory judgment and damages and if they prevail, they are entitled to recover attorney fees and court costs. It further introduces graduated enforcement that respects due process. Credentialed professionals, such as educators and clinicians, are subject to their regulatory agency's review. If a violation is not willful, the agency has discretion on penalties, but if a violation is willful, then mandatory penalties apply, including a minimum one-year license suspension for the first offense and a permanent revocation for willful repeat violations. There's also a reasonable statute of limitations. Five years from the date of the offense for these disciplinary actions ensuring fairness and timely enforcement. And what about contractors? Those third parties in our school? This amendment ensures accountability without criminalizing. Willful violations are treated as civil violations, not crimes. Penalties include fines starting at $2,500, a one-year ban from school access and repeat offenders a $5,000 fine and permanent exclusion from working with schools. Colleagues, this amendment takes a vital parental notification laid out in the underlying bill and gives it some teeth. It ensures transparency, access to the courts, fair firm enforcement and respect for due process. It is precise. It is reasonable and it is necessary. Without this amendment, without actionable enforcement and guaranteed remedy. we will continue to deprive parents, caregivers, guardians and families a true and fair redress of their grievances. I urge you to support this amendment by putting families first, not just in name, but in practice. Thank you, Mister Speaker. I request a roll call.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Raymond.

Representative Raymond: Thank you, Mister Speaker. So this bill or this amendment is substantially different from the parental bill of rights we were talking about this morning. Both require teachers and school staff to answer parents' questions, which by the way is already in state law. And I know this because I'm on the policy committee at the Nashua Board of Education and we have a policy that says you must answer parents' questions unless you think a child will be abused or neglected. This particular amendment does not have that out about abuse or neglect. It does say, you know, you can take some time, you can have some days, but it doesn't say that you can just wait and let the police or DCYF do that disclosure. At the end of the day, the teacher is still responsible. But what's really problematic about this particular amendment is that it isn't focused on teachers. It includes all school staff. That includes school social workers, school guidance counselors and school psychologists. The supreme court has already affirmed that children have a right to confidentiality in whatever they tell a psychologist or social worker or therapist, period. Those people are not allowed to disclose that information to the parents under any circumstances. There have been multiple court cases about this and at the end of the day the child's constitutional right to privacy, when it comes to their mental health disclosures, overrides the parent's rights to know. Now I'm going to talk to you about sex abuse again because that's my wheelhouse. It's what I did for years. If a child goes to school and discloses sexual abuse happening at home, the next step is the school calls DCYF and DCYF calls the police. What the police and forensic interviewers like myself do, is we say to the school, do not talk about this with the family until we've done our investigation. A DCYF investigation takes about two months give or take. The police investigation can take as long as they want it to take. So what happens if the school follows the requirements outlined in this amendment? This amendment says if the parent calls you and asks you for information, you must tell them whatever they want to know. The kid says hey my stepfather has been coming into my bed at night. The school calls DCYF and the police say don't talk about it. Stepdad, who has legal rights to the child because he's stepdad, calls the school and says hey what did my stepdaughter say this morning? What is the teacher supposed to do? They can not tell stepdad and have their job at risk, their licensure at risk, or they can tell stepdad and be subject to criminal penalties from the police. This is not okay. We shouldn't be putting people in this position. At the end of the day good parents have relationships with their kids and the Supreme Court of New Hampshire just said in October that there are at least eight other places parents can go, other than the algebra teacher, to get the answers to their questions. You want to know who your kid is dating. You want to know if they're gay. You want to know if they're trans. You go get counseling. You sit around the kitchen table. You call their favorite aunt in to talk with them. There are dozens of other ways that good parents can make these connections with their children without trying to co-opt school staff and guidance counselors to surveil their students and then tattle on them. We should not be putting teachers and guidance counselors and school staff in the middle of family issues. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Love has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is Potenza floor amendment (2713h). This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Woodcock for a parliamentary inquiry. No, I'm sorry, Rep. Potenza for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Potenza: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that this amendment clearly defines a compelling state interest which is desperately needed and is absolutely essential to be codified in statute to ensure that our laws are clear on aspects like a state actor must use means for satisfying the interest that is the least infringing on the rights of families. And Mister Speaker, if I know that this amendment provides a pathway for families and the state to hold willful, the key word here is willful, bad actors in the public sector accountable. And Mister Speaker, if I also know the phrase, a law without penalties is not worth the paper it is written on, expresses a key principle in legal theory, laws must be enforceable to be effective. If there's no consequences for breaking a law, then it lacks the power to influence behavior or maintain order. And lastly Mister Speaker, if I know penalties discourage people from violating laws, that's deterrence and that laws need enforcement to command respect, that's authority and lastly without consequences those who follow the law are at a disadvantage compared to those who don't, that's fairness? Please press the green button to pass this amendment and we've already got a roll call. Thank you very much.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Raymond for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Raymond: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that I spoke at length earlier this morning about the legal term 'clear and convincing evidence' in regard to compelling state interest and shared with the body that this term has a specific use and it's not appropriate to use in regard to schools, but that this amendment also applies it to all state agents and there's no definition for who that is. And if I know that the amendment includes that exact problematic phrase along with stiff penalties for teachers and school counselors placing them in situations where they have to choose between losing their teaching credentials or being arrested for crimes. And if I know that this ignores the constitutional rights of children, then would I push the red button to defeat the OTP motion on this amendment and be clear that New Hampshire protects children not sexual abusers?

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is Potenza floor amendment (2713h). This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 186 voting Yay; 179 voting Nay, the amendment is adopted.

REGULAR CALENDAR CONT'D MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Osborne moved that SB 295-FN, relative to education freedom accounts, be made a Special Order as the next order of business.

Motion was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER

SB 295-FN, relative to education freedom accounts. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Keith Erf for the Majority of Finance. The bill, as originally amended by the House, increases the number of students eligible for Education Freedom Accounts (EFAs) by removing household income thresholds. For the 2025-2026 school year total enrollment for the EFA program is capped at 10,000. In any subsequent year when enrollment in the EFA program is greater than 90% of the prior year cap, the cap is increased by 25%. The Department of Education is tasked with publishing the current enrollment cap on its website as it has changed. If the cap is not exceeded for two consecutive years, then the cap is eliminated. The amendment clarifies all of this. It adds that students currently enrolled in the program, siblings of an enrolled student, students with disabilities and students with family income less than 350% of the federal poverty guidelines as in current law are not subject to the enrollment cap and are always enrolled. Unnecessary restrictions related to fall and spring terms are removed and enrollment is on a simple rolling basis. Vote 14-11.

Rep. Kate Murray for the Minority of Finance. The minority reiterates its opposition to expansion of the Education Freedom Accounts, otherwise known as the voucher program. We have heard consistently and continuously from constituents expressing their strong opposition to any expansion of this program, never mind opposition to the program itself. Further when we take into consideration the precarious financial situation facing New Hampshire, where nearly every other program and agency in the state is being dealt significant cuts, this is not the time to expand such an unpopular program. Moderate estimates indicate that the cost of expanding the program could easily run to $17 million. Other estimates put the cost at much higher. This particular bill is really not much more than a diversion seeking to focus attention away from the fact that the voucher program is being expanded by adding a so-called cap to the enrollment numbers for the program. However, this cap is not a cap because when a certain percentage of the cap is reached, the cap is increased by 25%. A cap is not a cap when it does not cap anything. In addition, generally, Finance has not passed bills that increase spending after crossover. This seems to break that precedent. Daily we still receive emails from all over the state opposing the voucher program. Nineteen communities, and still counting, have expressed disapproval of this program. We should listen to the majority of our constituents and oppose this bill which expands the program well beyond any sustainable level. We recommend ITL.

(Rep. Steven Smith in the Chair)

MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Osborne moved that SB 249-FN, relative to the uncompensated care and Medicaid fund, be made a Special Order as the next order of business.

Motion was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER

SB 249-FN, relative to the uncompensated care and Medicaid fund. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Jordan Ulery for Ways and Means. This bill attempted to create a Medicaid Enhancement Tax/Disproportionate Share Hospital payment reimbursement format. A long-running lawsuit on the issues surrounding this was recently settled. The language of the amendment creates a mechanism to incorporate into law, appropriately outside of the budget process, the complex and variegated agreement reached as a result of that legally binding action. Both the Hospital Association and the state negotiators agreed on the settlement agreement. Both entities spoke before the committee. Vote 18-0.

Amend RSA 167:64, II as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. Beginning in state fiscal year 2026 and continuing every state fiscal year thereafter, the commissioner of the department of health and human services shall provide Medicaid payments, subject to the payment conditions set forth in this section, to the hospitals in a total state and federal fund equivalent amount determined by the commissioner, subject to any agreements between the state and the hospitals then in effect, of the money collected pursuant to RSA 84-A in the prior state fiscal year. Payments to the hospitals shall be made in accordance with this section.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 4 with the following:

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill revises the funding mechanism for uncompensated care costs under the state Medicaid program, including the distribution of disproportionate share hospital payments. The bill also establishes a committee to study the Medicaid enhancement tax and disproportionate share hospital payments.

The question being adoption of the committee amendment.

Committee amendment was adopted.

The question now being adoption of the committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

MOTION TO PRINT DEBATE

Rep. Hakken-Phillips moved that the debate on SB 295-FN, relative to education freedom accounts, be printed in the Permanent Journal.

DEBATE ON SB 295-FN

Speaker Packard: For what reason does the member rise?

Representative Osborne: Mister Speaker I move to special order SB 295 to the next order of business please.

Speaker Packard: The motion is in order. The question is to special order SB 295 to the next order of business. Are you ready for the question? All those in favor say Aye; those opposed, Nay. The Ayes have it and SB 295 is the next order of business. The majority amendment is (2271h), printed in House Record 27 pages 64-65. Are you ready for the question on the amendment? All those in favor say Aye; those opposed, Nay. The Ayes have it and the amendment is adopted. The bill's on second reading and open to further amendment. Rep. Luneau offers floor amendment (2702h). It's in your seat pockets. The Chair recognizes representative Damon.

Representative Damon: Thank you, Mister Speaker. There is currently in process an LBA audit of the Education Freedom Account Program. Amendment (2702h) simply makes the effective date for expanding the program follow completion of this audit, which is expected towards the end of this calendar year. As we are elected to be thoughtful stewards of taxpayer dollars, it is our obligation to be sure that the audit confirms sufficient management controls to ensure compliance of the program with all state laws and department rules. The only audit data available to date, after nearly four years running the program, looked at just 50 random applications from two years ago. It found that 24% of those applications did not have sufficient evidence to be approved. Without the report of the full comprehensive LBA audit, we cannot reasonably use hard-earned taxpayer resources to expand the EFA program. The EFA program, as most of you know, is run by the Children's Scholarship Foundation, an out of state corporation that manages the taxpayer funds used to provide these vouchers. There have been many concerning expenditures. Reporting has not been timely. The most recent vendor and category spending report that should tell us how our taxpayer dollars are being spent, is from academic year 2021 to 2022. What has been paid and to whom in the three years since then? Should taxpayers be paying over $100,000 for summer tutoring at the Bridge Community Outreach Center in Littleton with its close affiliation to the new Epic Christian Academy building project? Should we continue to purchase pianos? Should we pay for ski lessons and lift tickets? We have heard from constituents statewide, in communities large and small, red and blue and mixed, that the personal economic impact of rising property taxes is not sustainable for most families. We must uphold our responsibility as elected representatives to listen to our constituents. Waiting for the audit results is the least we can do to ensure our taxpayer dollars are used wisely. So I strongly urge you to support amendment (2702h) and Mister Speaker, I request a roll call.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Ladd.

Representative Ladd: Thank you, Mister Speaker. I want to address (2702h) and by my reading this amendment for the first time an hour ago there are a number of concerns that come to light. We're looking at a performance audit that's yet to be released by the Legislative Budget Assistant's Office and we don't expect to see this audit report until the end of this year, not the fiscal year, but the end of this year probably late fall, December. Also, if I look at section 1B in this, it says the audit finds sufficient management controls. I don't know if any auditor would write a report saying sufficient audit controls. They're usually specific recommendations. I don't think they'd opine on this language at all, and I don't know how to define sufficient. Next, I'd like to look at the whole concept of what they're looking at here. Yes, the scholarship fund does report annually to the department, and they respond to the areas what they're seen as having to improve and they've done that. They have complied. I see this amendment simply as, you can call it either a delay tactic or a poison pill amendment, whereas they're not looking to see this thing get done and the last part of this amendment states that nothing will be done until we have the two consecutive years that could be years five and six, who knows when. It's a way to try and delay the implementation of EFAs. Students out there today need this, and they need it now. Thank you.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Sweeney has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote on amendment (2702h). The motion before us is amendment (2702h). This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Luneau for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Luneau: Thank you very much Mister Chair. If I know the EFA program is unpopular with voters across the state as proven by numerous resolutions opposing any expansion at this time. And if I know a sample audit found 12 out of 50 EFA applications, nearly 25%, had been approved in error, including some families not providing sufficient proof of New Hampshire residency. And if I know the state's audit division is looking into the program now and should release their findings this year. And if I know the terms 'sufficient management control' comes straight out of the director of the audit division's mouth and is a commonly recognized audit term. And if I know all this amendment requires is something all of us should want, an audit report showing a clean bill of health before this wildly unpopular scam consumes another $100 million dollars in taxpayer dollars, then would I press the green button to approve this amendment so that we can be sure the EFA program complies with our state laws and department rules? Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Erf for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Erf: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know this amendment is only designed to slow or impede the implementation of the EFA program, then I'd press the red button. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is floor amendment (2702h). This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend the state of the vote. 167 voting Yay, 201 voting Nay, the motion fails. We are now on to ought to pass as amended. The Chair recognizes Rep. Kate Murray.

Representative Kate Murray: Thank you, Mister Speaker. I stand in opposition to SB 295 which purports to add a cap to the enrollment of the EFA program otherwise known as the voucher program. We are told this cap will guard against runaway enrollment of the program; however a cap is not a cap when it doesn't actually cap anything. This is merely a diversion pulling our attention away from the fact that the voucher program is being expanded beyond anything that is fiscally responsible. I will explain, but first to be clear, I know that we all have heard consistently and continuously and daily from constituents expressing their strong opposition to any expansion of this program, never mind expansion to the program, opposition to the program itself. When we take into consideration the precarious financial situation facing New Hampshire where nearly every other program and agency in the state is being dealt significant cuts, this is not the time to expand such an unpopular program. With regards to the particulars of this bill, the bill states that enrollment will be capped at 10,000 students. However, when a certain percentage of that cap is reached, the cap is increased by 25%. This means the cap will never be reached because the goalpost will move as soon as the enrollment nears the cap. Instead of calling this a cap it is more appropriate to call it a visor because a visor has no cap, but it does shield the eyes from the light of what is actually going on. Or it's rather like a poor dog without a tail who's trying very hard to catch his tail and it's never going to happen. The cap doesn't even, the cap does not exist as does not the poor little tail on the dog. We should also take note that the voucher program is now undergoing an audit as you heard, and it is only sensible to wait for the audit to be completed, not merely with regards to the financial considerations, but also with regards to the efficacy of the program itself. We've still not seen any data on academic achievement of these students in the program while all other students in New Hampshire must demonstrate their academic achievement. We should also look at how the finances of this proposal don't really track. In my view, not a lot of thought went into the proposal and to be up front the numbers I'm going to share with you are on the low side. The House version of the budget allocates $36 million for the voucher program. Currently, we're spending about $30 million on the program. With priority going to students already in the program, this leaves about $6 million for new students. So, based on the proposed budget, expansion of the program will only be able to accept an additional 1,100 students given that the cost per voucher per student is $5,200. This would bring the total number of students as currently budgeted to around 6,900. To come even close to the 10,000-student cap, if the cap were in fact a cap which it is not, accepting the additional 3,100 students to reach this fictional cap that enrollment would cost at a minimum $16 million additional dollars. This is money we simply do not have when so many other state-run programs and services to Granite Staters are being cut in this budget cycle. At the end of the day, this particular bill is not much more than a diversion seeking to focus attention away from the fact that the voucher program is being expanded by removing all limitations. Daily we still receive emails from all over the state opposing the voucher program and in any of its iterations. Nineteen communities, and still counting, have expressed disapproval of this program. Recent news reports have once again highlighted that we are facing a serious statewide housing crisis. They further report that communities across the state have seen an alarming increase in the demand for food assistance. We should listen to our Granite Staters, to our constituents, and recognize the real needs facing Granite Staters and oppose this bill, which expands an unpopular voucher program. Please vote red to support your fellow Granite Staters and the State of New Hampshire, and Mister Speaker, thank you and I ask for roll call vote please.

Speaker Packard: State your point of order.

Representative Giasson: A voucher and a grant are different things, so I don't think the gentlelady understood the difference.

Speaker Packard: That's not a point of order. The House will be in order. The Chair recognizes Rep. Erf.

Representative Erf: Thank you, Mister Speaker. So, the first thing to know is that the amendment, committee amendment, that we passed replaced the entire bill, which I'll now describe. This education freedom account bill removes income caps immediately impacting the 25/26 school year. The amendment, the bill now, clarifies the EFA bill as it came to us from the Senate. There's a total enrollment cap that grows over time as needed. The cap is 10,000 students in the 25/26 school year, including both current and new students. For each subsequent year, if the enrollment exceeds 90% of the prior year cap, then the new cap is increased by 25% for that year. So, in year one, if enrollment exceeds 9,000 students during the school year, then in the 26/27 school year the cap is increased to 12,500 students. Priority guidelines are defined to include students currently enrolled in the EFA program, siblings of students currently enrolled in the program, students with disabilities, and students whose family income is less than or equal to 350% of the federal poverty guidelines as in current law. Any student qualifying under these guidelines is automatically enrolled regardless of the enrollment cap. Unnecessary restrictions related to fall and spring terms are removed and enrollment is on a simple rolling basis throughout the school year for all students. Finally, the enrollment cap is repealed when it isn't exceeded for two consecutive years, making the program fully universal. Please join me by pushing the green button to show your support. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: For what reason does the member rise?

Representative Muns: Mister Speaker, I have a true parliamentary inquiry.

Speaker Packard: State your inquiry.

Representative Muns: I have been in the legislature now a few terms and I'm seeing something that I haven't seen before, which is a bill coming out of Finance that will significantly increase spending with no way to pay for that bill. And my question is, if we pass this bill today how is the increase in spending going to be accounted for? Do we need to raise revenue to ensure that the budget remains balanced, or will it just go to the governor's desk?

Speaker Packard: You're asking a question, not a real parliamentary inquiry. This is not a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Muns: Okay, thank you.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Murray has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is ought to pass as amended on SB 295. This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Eileen Kelly for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Eileen Kelly: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that there has been much discussion regarding wants and needs and that the expansion of the education freedom accounts, commonly known as school vouchers, is clearly a want and not a need and if I know that the real needs of our citizens are left unmet. Mister Speaker, if I also know that SB 295 as amended proposes to cap the enrollment numbers for the program but only moves the goalpost by increasing the cap by 25% if enrollment reaches 90% of the cap so one can deduct that there really is no cap and ultimately provides for universal enrollment with no income limitation. And finally Mister Speaker, if I know that our citizens have told us through town warrant articles passed in 19 towns, through hundreds of emails, in person and online testimony, letters, phone calls, rallies and published op-ed articles that they do not approve of expanding the school voucher program, would I then vote no and press the red button? Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. McDonnell for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative McDonnell: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that this reaffirms our House position and appeals to the other body. And further Mister Speaker, if I know despite what we have been told today, this isn't a voucher scam. And finally Mister Speaker, thank you. And finally, I know that this is in the best interest for students and Granite State taxpayers alike.

Speaker Packard: The House will be in order.

Representative McDonnell: Wow, thank you, Mister Speaker. Would I now press the green button to move this important policy across the finish line? Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The House will be in order. The motion before us is ought to pass as amended on SB 295. This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 190 voting Yea, 178 voting Nay, the committee report is adopted.

SB 100-FN, relative to violations of the prohibition on teaching discrimination. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Glenn Cordelli for the Majority of Education Policy and Administration. This bill, as amended, enhances our anti-discrimination statutes. The state is defending these laws in federal court and these enhancements are intended to address a lower court's criticism. These statutes include provisions such as prohibiting instruction that one's age, sex, race, physical disability, etc. is inherently superior to people of another age, sex, race, physical disability. The bill from the Senate addressed one specific section of the statutes and specified that any violation of the section by an educator must be "intentional or knowing." The amendment adds slightly modified language of HB 50 which passed the House in March. This language reinforces that nothing in the law prohibits discussion by educators of historical existence of ideas and subjects as part of a larger course of academic instruction. It also states specifically that intent of the section is to equally protect all New Hampshire citizens from discrimination, regardless of race. This bill addresses all the major court concerns so should send a message to the federal court and educators in New Hampshire. Vote 9-8.

Rep. Megan Murray for the Minority of Education Policy and Administration. The minority of the committee finds this bill with its non-germane amendment Inexpedient to Legislate and a near carbon copy of the non-germane amendment that was attached to the originally-filed, HB 50 that was an attempt to repeal the law around divisive concepts that has been deemed unconstitutional. Yet, again, this legislative attempt to stifle free speech, as easily demonstrated, will undoubtedly send a chilling effect into classrooms where teachers fear their credentials are at risk by there being a mechanism for mere speculative reports of a "violation" in teaching the honest history of painfully complex topics like racism. The lasting effects of racism on and in communities have taken hold for generations and exist still today. This bill takes things another step further by refusing to acknowledge that certain groups have historically had disproportionate access to funding, resources, access to the ballot box, and other rights delayed or still not afforded to them. By failing to acknowledge this, we do an injustice to the work and progress many communities have made in seeking equality under the law.

Majority Amendment (2332h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the prohibition on teaching discrimination.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Discrimination in Public Schools; Prohibition on Teaching Discrimination. RSA 193:40, II-V is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

II. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit discussion by educators or others, as part of a larger course of academic instruction, of the historical existence of ideas and subjects identified in this section, or construed to mean that educators have any positive interest in teaching, instructing, or inculcating discrimination against any group of people.

III. Prohibitions in this section shall apply only to teaching, instruction, and inculcation targeting members of any racial group, including but not limited to, white people or people of European descent, black people or people of Sub-Saharan African descent, or Hispanic or Latino people.

IV. A report of intentional or knowing violation of this section by an educator shall be considered a possible violation of the educator code of conduct which shall justify investigation and potentially disciplinary sanction by the state board of education.

V. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an intentional or knowing violation of this section, including the attorney general, may initiate a civil action against a school or school district in superior court for legal or equitable relief, or with the commission for human rights as provided RSA 354-A:34.

VI. Discrimination shall not be justified by special considerations for any racial group. The intent of this section is to equally protect all New Hampshire citizens from discrimination regardless of race.

VII. For the purposes of this section, "educator" means a professional employee of any school district whose position requires certification by the state board pursuant to RSA 189:39. Administrators, specialists, and teachers are included within the definition of this term.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill revises the construction of and the mental state applicable to the prohibition on teaching discrimination in public schools.

The question being adoption of the majority committee amendment.

On a division vote, with 192 members having voted in the affirmative, and 155 in the negative, the majority committee amendment was adopted.

The question now being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Rep. Cordelli spoke in favor.

Rep. Megan Murray spoke against and requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

MOTION TO PRINT DEBATE

Rep. Weber moved that the debate on SB 100-FN, relative to the prohibition on teaching discrimination, be printed in the Permanent Journal.

DEBATE ON SB 100-FN

Speaker Steven Smith: The question now is on the main motion of ought to pass as amended. Rep. Megan Murray is recognized to speak against the committee report.

Representative Megan Murray: Thank you, Mister Speaker. SB 100 as amended started out as a non-germane amendment and is essentially the same bill that we have heard earlier in the year that continues to provide vague and unconstitutional language that's on the books rather than repealing the statute as the courts directed. As mentioned before, our history.

Speaker Steven Smith: The member will suspend for a minute. So, it got kind of noisy. Everybody's leaving. This is a one-on-one debate, so you're just going to be back in here in like five minutes anyway, so let's try to be quiet and hear the member as she speaks. Thank you.

Representative Megan Murray: Thank you, Mister Speaker. As mentioned before, our history is sometimes mired in painful and yet vitally important conversations that are necessary to teach so that we do not forget our history and actually learn from it. With this bill and others similar, teachers in New Hampshire consistently fear that their jobs could be impacted for teaching the painful honest truth. American and global history demand that we teach about racism in all its forms. The truth is, in America, despite the Civil Rights Act of 1875 affirming equality for all, our history teaches us that historical inequalities and disproportionate impacts on our communities still exist. Historically marginalized groups experience gross inequities around the ability to receive services that were without bias. Facts tell us that history has much to teach, and we still have much to learn. Communities of color disproportionately experienced school segregation, including in college admittances, the denial of home loans, unequally offered home appraisal values, unconstitutional reading tests in order to vote. Our history shares a painful pattern of setting different standards of access. Simply put, it is unconstitutional to discriminate based on race already and yet history teaches us that there is still discriminatory practice happening. SB 100 is a call to turn an even further blind eye to addressing centuries worth of historical exclusion and systemic inequities as it relates to our programs and services. SB 100 adds an ugly caveat to its language that prohibits the adjustment of policies to account for centuries of disproportionately negative impacts as a result of racism, when in fact, consideration should exist to address the inequalities. Other legislative efforts this year stand to add negative impacts to communities by already furthering to stratify our local communities by taking public taxpayer money away from public schools and leaving the haves and have nots further apart. rather than closer together. SB 100 sets teachers and schools up to yet again be fearful that they could be the recipient of a complaint and yet another investigation by anyone who simply files a report claiming to be aggrieved. Whether it is founded in fact or not, a full investigation will ensue, and possible code of conduct violations levied against teachers. Not only does this bill's language stifle speech, it has an immediate chilling effect. This bill opens the law to further ambiguity and fear, especially for educators, schools, programs and services related to public education. The only solution is to repeal the unconstitutional law. Please vote no on OTP/A so that another motion can be made and I ask for a roll call.

Speaker Steven Smith: Rep. Cordelli is recognized to speak in support of the committee report.

Representative Cordelli: Thank you, Mister Speaker. SB 100 is very simple, but very important modification of the current statute on the prohibition of teaching discrimination. Important because the AFT teacher's union and the AFL/CIO filed suit against Commissioner Edelblut and a federal judge's ruling enjoined implementation of this law. The case has been appealed to the first circuit court of appeals in Boston, however given the record of the first circuit, our best strategy for getting our law back up and running again is to reform the statute and that's what we do here. This amended bill addresses each of the concerns raised by the federal court judge to support the case of the state so that we can continue to fight discrimination and critical race theory in our schools. Let's go over the judge's complaints and how we are addressing them. First, there's the issue of so-called vagueness. The law does not give teachers enough guidance, the judge said. Well, current law prohibits teaching students about discrimination such as one race being superior to another race and teachers can be in violation for doing so. SB 100 addresses this by adding the words 'intentionally and knowing.' For example, intentionally or knowing violation of this section by an educator could be considered a code of conduct violation. The US Supreme Court has said that such language in statements may reduce a law's vagueness. Next, the judge said that remedial discrimination, such as affirmative action, can be justified to remedy past discrimination, but that our law included a blanket statement against promotion of discrimination. The judge went on to say that if we are going to prohibit things like affirmative action to remedy past discrimination, we need to expressly spell out that white students are protected from discrimination. SB 100 addresses that directly by saying that prohibitions apply to teaching targets of any racial group, including but not limited, to white people, people of European descent or black people. We repudiate the judge's claim that discrimination against some races is morally different or even acceptable and we reject new or remedial discrimination to remedy past discrimination. Saying, and I quote from the bill, "discrimination shall not be justified by special consideration for any racial group." I want to state clearly that we don't think that there is any problem with our current law, but making these changes to SB 100 to overcome the injunction is what our intent is. Prohibiting all discrimination is not ambiguous, as indicated by the judge, and it's unfortunate that we are now called on to specify that this protection is for all of our students. Discrimination is discrimination and we do not want our children to be taught that any race is superior to another or is inherently racist or privileged compared to another. If a teacher is doing that, then there should and must be penalties. Judge, I hope that this addresses the problem you have with our law. Your honor, I rest my case.

Speaker Steven Smith: Rep. Megan Murray's requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? That is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The question is on the majority committee report on SB 100 of ought to pass as amended. Rep. Balboni is recognized for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Balboni: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that the New Hampshire court has already found that key portions of RSA 193:40, commonly known as the divisive concepts law, to be unconstitutional and this bill as amended does nothing to change the fact that the law relies on vague, subjective language that intimidates educators and restricts academic freedom in our classrooms. And if I understand that this bill does nothing to improve student learning outcomes, but instead continues to suppress honest, inclusive classroom discussions leaving educators uncertain and fearful of addressing complex or uncomfortable aspects of history due to the risk of crossing a vague and subjective red line. And finally if I believe that this law in any form is harmful to both our educators and our students and undermines the integrity of our public education system and the only way to fix it is to repeal it, then would I now press the red button to vote down this legally flawed, educationally harmful and administratively unjust amendment?

Speaker Steven Smith: Rep. Freeman's recognized for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Freeman: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that the definition of discrimination is the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people, especially on the grounds of ethnicity, age, sex or gender. And if I further know by addressing the first district court's concern around vagueness by adding the words 'intentionally and knowingly' meets the criteria that has also been set forth by the United States Supreme Court. And if I finally know that discrimination is discrimination and no child should ever be ashamed, blamed or ostracized secondary to the color of their skin, religion or ethnicity, would I now ask all of you to support the ought to pass motion and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s vision of not being judged by the color of skin, but by the content of their character by pushing the green button? Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Steven Smith: The question is on the majority committee report of ought to pass as amended on SB 100. It's a roll call vote. If you're in favor, press the green button; opposed, press the red. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 194 in the affirmative, 165 in the negative, the report is adopted.

SB 206-FN, requiring public schools to adopt policies to limit the use of cell phones by students. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. Rep. Melissa Litchfield for the Majority of Education Policy and Administration. As amended, this bill requires school districts and chartered public schools to adopt policies establishing a cell phone-free education. Such policy shall prohibit personal communication device use by students from when the first bell rings to start instructional time until the dismissal bell rings at the end of the academic school day, with approved exceptions with respect to student medical, disability, or language proficiency need. So far, 26 states have passed laws, with eight other states and the District of Columbia implementing rules or making recommendations to local districts. Ten states and the District of Columbia have enacted school day bans, most for students in grades K-12. Educators who work in schools that allow personal devices find it disruptive. 90% of NEA members support a policy prohibiting cell phone use during instructional time and 83% support prohibiting cell phone use during the entire school day. Top contributing factors to incidents and concerns related to student mental health include social media and personal device use. After a distraction, it takes 23 minutes to regain focus. We have been asked repeatedly to deal with this ongoing issue at the state level. During the initial hearing, the committee received positive testimony from administrators, educators, parents, and students regarding the positive impact no-cell phone use had within their schools. Vote 9-8.

Majority Amendment (2249h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT requiring school districts and chartered public schools to adopt policies establishing a cell phone-free education.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Cell Phone Use Policy. Amend RSA 189:1-a by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

V. School boards and the board of trustees of chartered public schools shall develop and adopt a policy governing the use of student cell phones and other personal electronic communication devices in schools. Such policy shall prohibit all personal communication device use by students from when the first bell rings to start instructional time until the dismissal bell rings to end the academic school day, with approved exceptions determined by the superintendent or their designee with respect to student medical, disability, or language proficiency need. Such policy shall be developed in collaboration with school parents and teachers and shall be reviewed annually. School district and chartered public school policies shall not prohibit students with medical needs, such as insulin pumps and glucose sensors, or disabilities from using a device to support their learning as identified by their individualized education program (IEP), plan developed under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. section 794, or when required to support emergent multilingual students with appropriate language access programs and services pursuant to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.

and the minority committee amendment failed.

The question now being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Reps. Hall and Litchfield spoke in favor.

On a division vote, with 314 members having voted in the affirmative, and 42 in the negative, the majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

SB 210, establishing a study committee to study the issue of school bullying. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Glenn Cordelli for the Majority of Education Policy and Administration. This bill was a study committee to investigate bullying. Bullying is an increasing problem in our schools. We do not need to study it; we need to take action. This bill, as amended, addresses information in the student handbook, communication with parents, and shortened time frames for that communication. Current law is that bullying policies be integrated into curriculum and this bill calls for integration with discipline policies and a report on that implementation. It also states that it will be a violation of the Educator Code of Conduct for intentionally violating reporting requirements, failure to adhere to timelines, and acts of retaliation. This bill also eliminates language about bullying motivation by behaviors or beliefs which has been used to deny actions as bullying. Also included in the amendment is the language from HB 108 related to defining cyberbullying procedures. It has been said that school children's safety is the highest priority, and we need to make it ours also with the passage of this bill. Vote 9-8.

Rep. Loren Selig for the Minority of Education Policy and Administration. The minority of the committee passionately agrees that bullying and cyberbullying create significant problems among all people, especially children, in New Hampshire. We also believe that it needs to be addressed and fully support the underlying bill which creates a study committee to involve stakeholders in all areas of education to identify proven strategies to enact legislation related to bullying. The majority amendment changes the bill in ways that appear to penalize public school teachers and students while making no provision for teaching students better strategies for addressing bullying behavior or for making remedial steps to stop being a bully. Additionally, it does not include all students and teachers across the state by excluding private school students unless they have committed cyberbullying and should be reported to the Attorney General's office. The minority of the committee believes that all students in New Hampshire, regardless of where they attend school, should be given the tools to express their feelings appropriately, to be free from bullying behaviors from anyone, and to know how to advocate for themselves. We further believe that further study is needed in order to collect accurate data about where bullying behaviors are occurring and how they are being addressed now.

Majority Amendment (2318h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to bullying and cyberbullying prevention.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Education; Pupil Safety and Violence Prevention. RSA 193-F:4, I-IV is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

I. Bullying or cyberbullying shall occur when an action or communication as defined in RSA 193-F:3:

(a) Occurs on, or is delivered to, school property or a school-sponsored activity or event on or off school property; or

(b) Occurs off of school property or outside of a school-sponsored activity or event, if the conduct interferes with a pupil's educational opportunities or substantially disrupts the orderly operations of the school or school-sponsored activity or event.

II. The school board of each school district and the board of trustees of a chartered public school shall, no later than 6 months after the effective date of this section, adopt a written policy prohibiting bullying and cyberbullying. Such policy shall include the definitions set forth in RSA 193-F:3. The policy shall contain, at a minimum, the following components:

(a) A statement prohibiting bullying or cyberbullying of a pupil.

(b) A statement prohibiting retaliation or false accusations against a victim, witness, or anyone else who in good faith provides information about an act of bullying or cyberbullying and, at the time a report is made, a process for developing, as needed, a plan to protect pupils from retaliation.

(c) A requirement that all pupils are protected regardless of their status under the law.

(d) A statement that there shall be disciplinary consequences or interventions, or both, for a pupil who commits an act of bullying or cyberbullying, or falsely accuses another of the same as a means of retaliation or reprisal.

(e) A statement indicating how the policy shall be made known to school employees, regular school volunteers, pupils, parents, legal guardians, or employees of a company under contract to a school, school district, or chartered public school. Methods of communication shall include, but are not limited to, handbooks, websites, newsletters, and workshops.

(f) A procedure for reporting bullying or cyberbullying that identifies all persons to whom a pupil or another person may report bullying or cyberbullying. The procedure shall be included in the student handbook.

(g) A procedure outlining the internal reporting requirements within the school or school district or chartered public school.

(h) A procedure for notification, within 48 hours of the incident report, to the parent or parents or guardian of a victim of bullying or cyberbullying and the parent or parents or guardian of the perpetrator of the bullying or cyberbullying. The content of the notification shall comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. 1232g. School officials will provide an alleged victim with a written copy of their rights, protections, and support services available.

(i) A provision that the superintendent or designee may, within the 48-hour period, grant the school principal or designee a waiver from the notification requirement if the superintendent or designee deems such waiver to be in the best interest of the victim or perpetrator. Notification of parents may be waived for no longer than 5 school days except for cases of bullying and/or cyberbullying across multiple school districts. Any such waiver granted shall be in writing. Granting of a waiver shall not negate the school's responsibility to adhere to the remainder of its approved written policy.

(j) A written procedure for investigation of reports, to be initiated within 5 school days of the reported incident, identifying either the principal or the principal's designee as the person responsible for the investigation and the manner and time period in which the results of the investigation shall be documented. The superintendent or designee may grant in writing an extension of the time period for the investigation and documentation of reports for up to an additional 7 school days, if necessary. The superintendent or superintendent's designee shall notify in writing all parties involved of the granting of an extension and the reason for the extension. The alleged victim's parents or guardians shall be notified of the investigation, extension, and the reason for the extension. In cases of bullying and/or cyberbullying across multiple school districts, the principals or designees of all districts involved shall be responsible for conducting an investigation and are encouraged to collaborate. In such cases, the investigation shall be initiated by the principal or designee of the first district to learn of the incident. In cases of bullying and/or cyberbullying across multiple states, the principal or designee of the first district located within New Hampshire to learn of the incident shall contact the attorney general's office.

(k) A requirement that the principal or designee develop a response to remediate any substantiated incident of bullying or cyberbullying, including imposing discipline if appropriate, to reduce the risk of future incidents and, where deemed appropriate, to offer assistance to the victim or perpetrator. When indicated, the principal or designee shall recommend a strategy for protecting all pupils from retaliation of any kind.

(l) A requirement that the principal or designee report all substantiated incidents of bullying or cyberbullying to the superintendent or designee.

(m) A written procedure for communication with the parent or parents or guardian of victims and perpetrators regarding the school's remedies and assistance, within the boundaries of applicable state and federal law. This communication shall occur within 10 school days of completion of the investigation.

(n) Identification, by job title, of school officials responsible for ensuring that the policy is implemented.

III. The department of education may develop a model policy in accordance with the requirements set forth in this chapter which may be used by schools, school districts, and chartered public schools as a basis for adopting a local policy.

IV. A school board or board of trustees of a chartered public school shall, to the greatest extent practicable, involve pupils, parents, administrators, school staff, school volunteers, community representatives, and local law enforcement agencies in the process of developing the policy. The policy shall be adopted by all public schools within the school district and, to the extent possible, the policy should be integrated with the school's curriculum. The policy shall be integrated into discipline policies, behavior programs, and other violence prevention efforts.

V. By January 1, 2026, each public school district and chartered public school shall make available a report or link to a report on how their policy has been integrated into the school's curriculum, discipline policies, behavior programs, and other violence prevention efforts. The report or link shall be provided to office of commissioner in the department, chair of the state board of education, the senate president, speaker of the house and members of the house and senate education committees.

VI. It shall be a violation of the educator code of conduct to intentionally violate the district internal reporting requirements, submit inaccurate or false information, fail to adhere to the timelines in this section, or commit an act of retaliation against a reporter of bullying or cyberbullying or against a parent.

2 Education; Pupil Safety and Violence Prevention; Reporting. Amend RSA 193-F:6, II to read as follows:

II. The department of education shall prepare an annual report of substantiated incidents of bullying or cyberbullying in the schools. The report shall include the number and types of such incidents in the schools and number of waivers granted for parental notification, number of waivers granted for investigation extensions, number of out-of-state cyberbullying cases reported, investigated, and reported to the attorney general's office. The report shall be submitted to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the chairpersons of the house and senate education committees. The department of education shall assist school districts with recommendations for appropriate actions to address identified problems with pupil safety and violence prevention.

3 Education; Pupil Safety and Violence Prevention; Private Right of Action Permitted. Amend RSA 193-F:9 to read as follows:

193-F:9 Private Right of Action Permitted. Any person aggrieved as a result of gross negligence or willful misconduct in violation of any provision of RSA 193-F:4 may initiate an action against a school district or chartered public school and may recover court costs and reasonable attorney's fees as the prevailing party. For the purposes of this chapter, "[gross] negligence" means ~~[deliberate indifference]~~ the failure to behave with the level of care that a reasonable person would have exercised under the same circumstances. Nothing in this section shall supercede or replace existing rights or remedies under any other law.

4 Prospective Repeal. RSA 193-F:4, V, relative to public school districts and chartered public schools making reports available on how their antibullying policies have been integrated into the school's curriculum, is repealed.

5 Repeal. RSA 193-F:3, I(b), relative to the definition of bullying, is repealed.

6 Effective Date.

I. Section 4 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2026.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 30 days after its passage.

I. Amends the meaning of "negligence" as it applies to bullying and cyberbullying.

II. Requires the department of education to report the number of waivers granted for parental notification, number of waivers granted for investigation extensions, and the number of out-of-state cyberbullying cases reported and investigated.

III. Requires antibullying procedure to be included in the student handbook and that alleged victims get a written copy of their rights, protections, and support services available to them.

The question being adoption of the majority committee amendment.

Rep. Selig spoke against.

On a division vote, with 185 members having voted in the affirmative, and 147 in the negative, the majority committee amendment was adopted.

The question now being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Rep. Cordelli offered floor amendment (2651h).

Floor Amendment (2651h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to bullying and cyberbullying prevention and relative to allowing parents to send their children to any school district they choose.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 5 with the following:

6 Duty of Parent; Compulsory Attendance by Pupil. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 193:1, I to read as follows:

I. A parent of any child at least 6 years of age and under 18 years of age shall cause such child to attend ~~[the]~~ a public school ~~[to which the child is assigned in the child's resident district]~~. Such child shall attend full time when such school is in session unless:

7 School Attendance; Legal Residence Required. Amend RSA 193:12, III to read as follows:

III. For the purposes of this title, "legal resident" of a school district means a natural person who is domiciled in the ~~[school district]~~ state and who, if temporarily absent, demonstrates an intent to maintain a principal dwelling place in the school district indefinitely and to return there, coupled with an act or acts consistent with that intent. A married person may have a domicile independent of the domicile of his or her spouse. ~~[If a person removes to another town with the intention of remaining there indefinitely, that person shall be considered to have lost residence in the town in which the person originally resided even though the person intends to return at some future time.]~~ A person may have only one legal residence at a given time.

8 School Attendance; Legal Residence Required. Amend RSA 193:12, VI(a) to read as follows:

(a) The commissioner of the department of education, or designee, shall decide residency issues for all pupils, excluding homeless children and youths, in accordance with this section. ~~[If more than one school district is involved in a residency dispute, or the parents who live apart cannot agree on the residence of a minor child, the respective superintendents shall jointly make such decision. In those instances when an agreement cannot be reached, the commissioner of the department of education, or designee, shall make a determination within 30 days of notice of the residency dispute and such determination shall be final. If the unresolved residency dispute has resulted in an interruption of educational or related services, or such an interruption is likely to occur if the determination cannot be made before the expiration of 30 days, the determination shall be made within 14 days. With the agreement of the school districts involved and of the minor child's parent or legal representative, the time for determination of the residency dispute may be extended. Residency disputes may be submitted to the commissioner for determination by a school district involved in a dispute. In cases where the failure to resolve a residency dispute has resulted in or is likely to result in the interruption of educational or related services, a minor child's parent or legal representative may submit~~ a residency dispute for determination to the commissioner. In all cases, all parties with an interest in the dispute shall be notified of the pendency of the proceedings, shall have an opportunity to review all information provided to the commissioner, and shall have an opportunity to present facts and legal arguments to the commissioner.] When addressing residency issues, the only question the commissioner shall consider is whether the child is a resident of the state. The commissioner's decision, including a written explanation for that decision, shall be provided to the parties of record and a copy of such explanation shall be kept on file by the department of education. No school district shall deny a pupil attendance or implementation of an existing individualized education program.

9 Open Enrollment Schools; Definitions; Open Enrollment Public School. Amend RSA 194-D:1, I to read as follows:

I. "Open enrollment public school" or "open enrollment school" means any public school ~~[which, in addition to providing educational services to pupils]~~ that is currently enrolling pupils both residing within its attendance area or district, ~~[chooses to accept]~~ and pupils from other attendance areas within its district and from outside its district.

10 Open Enrollment Schools; Definitions; Teacher. Amend RSA 194-D:1, IX to read as follows:

IX. "Teacher" means any individual providing or capable of providing direct instructional services to pupils, and who meets requirements prescribed in the ~~[Elementary and Secondary Education Act]~~ Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) of 2015 and the Individuals With Disabilities Education Act.

II. ~~[Open enrollment schools shall operate under the same laws, rules, and policies as any other public school, except as provided in this chapter.]~~ Each school district shall determine for each school in the district the capacity of each school and each grade level. A school district shall post the total capacity of each individual school in the district, the capacity of each grade level, and the number of vacancies in each individual school in the district on the district website by the first of each month. Each school district in the state shall report annually to the state commissioner of education the number of transfer applications, acceptances, denials and the reason for each denial. The department of education shall publish the data annually on its web site and provide reports to the senate and house education committees, and the state board of education.

III. ~~[No public school, except a chartered public school, shall be required to be an open enrollment school.]~~ A parent may apply to any school or district within the state on behalf of a pupil.

~~[VIII. A pupil who meets the admission requirements of an open enrollment school, and who is a resident of the district where the school is located or is a dependent child of active duty military personnel whose move resulted from military orders, shall be given absolute admission preference over a nonresident pupil. Once admitted and unless expelled, open enrollment school pupils need not reapply for admission for subsequent years.]~~

VII. A pupil who is a dependent child of active duty military personnel whose move resulted from military orders, shall be given admission preference over a nonresident pupil. Once admitted and unless expelled, military connected students as defined in RSA 110-E:1 need not reapply for admission for subsequent years.

VIII. A school district may deny a transfer application only for the following reasons:

(a) The student was expelled by the student's previous district;

(b) The student has a documented history of significant disciplinary issues;

(c) The student has a documented history of chronic absenteeism; or

(d) The receiving district does not have available capacity pursuant to this section, provided that military connected students as defined in RSA 110-E:1 shall be exempt from capacity limits.

IX. No receiving school or district shall accept or reject an applicant based upon grade or age levels, pupil needs, areas of academic focus, aptitude, academic or athletic achievement.

X. Attendance at ~~[an open enrollment]~~ a public school for the purposes of transportation shall not constitute assignment under the provisions of RSA 189:6 and RSA 189:8. Pupils who reside in the school district in which the ~~[open enrollment]~~ school is located shall be provided transportation to that school by the district on the same terms and conditions as provided for in RSA 189:6 and RSA 189:8 and that transportation is provided to pupils attending other public schools within that district. However, any added costs for such transportation services shall be borne by the ~~[open enrollment]~~ school. For the purposes of open enrollment, neither the sending nor the receiving school district shall be obligated to provide transportation services for pupils attending ~~[an open enrollment]~~ a school outside the pupil's resident district. The parent may provide transportation to a specific bus stop on an existing route of the receiving school or district. The district shall provide the parents with information regarding transportation options.

~~[X.]~~ XI. Upon approval by each of the district's legislative bodies and after a public hearing, 2 or more school districts may consolidate otherwise eligible resident pupils into one applicant pool for the purposes of an admissions lottery for designated open enrollment schools

~~[XI. Military-connected students as defined in RSA 110-E:1 who are the dependent children of a member of the active uniformed military services of the United States on full-time active duty status and students who are the dependent children of a member of the military reserve on active duty orders shall be eligible for admission to the school district of their choice. Students shall be eligible if:~~

~~(b) At least one parent can provide evidence that he or she will be on active duty status or active duty orders, meaning the parent will be temporarily transferred in compliance with official orders to another location in support of combat, contingency operation or a natural disaster requiring the use of orders for more than 30 consecutive days.~~

~~XII. A school district of residence shall not prohibit the transfer of a pupil who is a child of an active military duty parent to a school in any school district, if the school district to which the parent of the pupil applies approves the application for transfer.]~~

II. In accordance with current department of education standards, the funding and ~~[educational decision-making process]~~ provision of services for children with disabilities ~~[attending]~~ transferring to a ~~[chartered public or open enrollment]~~ school shall be the responsibility of the resident school district and shall retain all current options available to the parent and to the school district.

III. ~~[Any federal or other funding available in any year to a sending district shall, to the extent and in a manner acceptable to the funding source, be directed to an open enrollment school in a receiving district on an eligible per pupil basis.]~~

IV. The commissioner of the department of education shall apply for all federal funding available to open enrollment schools under ~~[the No Child Left Behind Act, Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, or other]~~ any federal source of funds. The commissioner shall expend any such funds received in a manner acceptable to the funding source.

V. A sending district may provide funds, services, equipment, materials, or personnel to ~~[an open enrollment]~~ a school, in addition to the amounts specified in this section in accordance with the policies of the sending school district.

VI. ~~[An open enrollment]~~ A school may accept pupils at tuition rates at less than the amounts established by this chapter.

and the majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

SB 213-FN, relative to absentee voting. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Ross Berry for the Majority of Election Law. As amended, this bill adopts the House's position on electioneering by public employees, expanding the definition of prohibited activities that public employees may not engage in while performing their official duties. Specifically, it prohibits actions such as conducting candidate surveys or distributing campaign-related materials. Additionally, this bill establishes a safe harbor for certain activities that, while related to political campaigning, are not inherently designed to influence a voter's decision. For example, it permits—but does not require—candidates to participate in parades or host booths at fairs without violating electioneering restrictions. Vote 10-7.

Rep. Connie Lane for the Minority of Election Law. This bill expands the scope of the prohibition on electioneering by public employees by expanding the legal definition of electioneering from "acts specifically designed to influence the vote" (RSA659:44) to also include any act "having the effect of influencing the vote," regardless of its design or intention. This broad language threatens to encompass a range of actions that are protected by the right to free speech. Also, the scope of such an overly broad statute may invite politically motivated prosecutions. While the minority affirms the spirit of this bill, we cannot support it because of its overly broad language.

Majority Amendment (2461h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to electioneering by public employees.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Electioneering by Public Employees. RSA 659:44-a is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

659:44-a Electioneering by Public Employees.

I. No public employee shall electioneer while in the performance of his or her official duties. For purposes of this section, "public employee" shall have the same meaning as in RSA 273-A:1, IX; except that, notwithstanding RSA 273-A:1, IX(b), a person appointed to office by the chief executive or legislative body of the public employer shall be included in the definition of public employee.

II. No public employee shall use any government property or equipment, including, but not limited to, telephones, facsimile machines, vehicles, and computers, for electioneering.

III. For the purposes of this section, "electioneer" means to act in any way designed or having the effect of influencing the vote of a voter on any question or office, including but not limited to:

(a) Distributing or displaying campaign materials for a campaign during an officially declared election period in an unbiased manner.

(b) Making public statements in favor of or against any candidate, political party, or measure.

(c) Organizing or conducting surveys, forums, or events that are expressly or primarily political.

(d) Using official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the vote of a voter.

IV. Nothing in this section shall prohibit:

(a) Lawful participation by candidates, political parties, or private groups in public parades, fairs, festivals, or similar events, including the display of campaign materials or the solicitation of voter support, provided such participation is conducted in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and does not intentionally favor one candidate, party, or measure over another.

(b) The use of public spaces or facilities by private individuals, groups, or organizations for lawful political activities, provided such use is not facilitated or promoted by public employees beyond standard administrative support necessary for access and use of the space and follows any relevant ordinance or law where applicable.

(c) Public employees engaging in strictly neutral voter registration drives or activities limited to general election awareness, such as announcing election dates or polling locations, without any reference to or discussion of candidates, parties, or measures, and provided such activities are authorized by law.

(d) Public employees providing factual information derived directly from official filing forms or other legally required public documents regarding candidates who have officially filed for office, provided such information is presented in an impartial and neutral manner without additional commentary, analysis, or inference.

(e) Public universities, colleges, or institutions of higher education conducting public opinion polls or surveys.

V. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SB 218, relative to absentee ballot outer envelopes. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Ross Berry for the Majority of Election Law. As amended, this bill clarifies that voters in New Hampshire elections must be United States citizens and aligns the requirements for absentee voter registration with those for in-person registration. Specifically, the bill updates RSA 654:17, RSA 654:19, and RSA 654:17-a to require voters registering by absentee ballot to provide documentation demonstrating citizenship, age, domicile, and identity. This documentation must meet the standards outlined in RSA 654:12, ensuring a uniform application of voter eligibility rules. Current law does not explicitly require voters registering by absentee ballot to provide the same documentation as those registering in person, leading to inconsistent practices across the state. The bill eliminates what some have interpreted to be ambiguity by establishing that all voters, whether registering in person or by mail, must provide the same evidence of eligibility. This promotes fairness and ensures that all voters are held to the same standards. The bill also reinforces the principle that protecting election integrity requires clear and consistent rules. With increasing concerns about the security of elections and the accuracy of voter rolls, it is essential to have robust procedures in place to verify both citizenship and identity for all voters. The legislation achieves this by requiring documentation for absentee voter registration while maintaining flexibility for voters through existing options like remote and electronic notarization. By clarifying and standardizing the voter registration process, the bill helps preserve confidence in New Hampshire's elections and ensures that only those who are legally eligible to vote may participate in the democratic process. Vote 10-7.

Rep. Connie Lane for the Minority of Election Law. This bill, as amended, would compel registered New Hampshire voters who need to register before they can request an absentee ballot to prove they are US citizens in order to receive a ballot. The bill assumes that all voters have access to their citizenship documentation, can afford to obtain copies of such documentation, and have access to a copier and/or a computer. The bill's sponsors and advocates offered no evidence in the public hearing that the bill would make voting more “secure.” For instance, no evidence was adduced to show that non-citizens are impersonating registered voters or are otherwise using absentee ballots. The minority is not surprised by the absence of any relevant evidence, as noncitizens face up to one year in federal prison for voting in federal elections – and also risk deportation. Given these penalties and the absence of any evidence for illegal voting by non-citizens, the minority believes that the bill will not realize any benefit to the public. Furthermore, the minority would prefer to wait until the resolution of the existing lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of last year's HB 1569 (2024), which imposed citizenship requirements for voter registration. For these reasons, the minority recommends Inexpedient to Legislate.

and the majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

SB 221, relative to the verification of the checklist. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Ross Berry for the Majority of Election Law. This bill addresses the verification and maintenance of the voter checklist. Under current New Hampshire law, voter roll removals occur once every 10 years, with a lookback period of four years. As amended, this bill adopts the previously passed House position of conducting the verification annually while extending the lookback period to five years. A voter must have missed between eight and 10 elections to be removed from the rolls for non-voting. Voters subject to removal are sent a card notifying them of the action and providing the opportunity to reregister. The majority of the committee supports this annual verification process, arguing that it will result in a more accurate and up-to-date checklist. Furthermore, the centralized voter database maintained by the Secretary of State's office eliminates the logistical barriers to producing the necessary lists. Vote 10-7.

Rep. Connie Lane for the Minority of Election Law. This bill, as amended, requires an annual purging of voter registration records using a five-year look-back period, replacing the current 10-year purge using a look-back period of four years. Put another way, if you have not voted in the past five years, you will be purged from the voting records. While the minority supports record verification more than once every 10 years, purging annually will be expensive for each municipality and will result in many voters being wrongly disenfranchised. A less expensive and more reliable alternative would be for New Hampshire to join the Electronic Registration Information Center (ERIC), which is a bipartisan group of state election officials that responsibly share their data for these purposes. ERIC has made its members' voting rolls more accurate, which helps states steer voters to the right precincts to minimize confusion and ensure access on election day. It has enabled states to catch rare instances of double-voting. And because its membership agreement requires states to reach out to the eligible but unregistered citizens it identifies, it has facilitated millions of new registrations, fostering a more engaged citizenry and a more representative government. ERIC will update our records continuously, not just annually, and will do it with better data than is available under this bill. For these reasons, the minority recommend Inexpedient to Legislate on this bill.

SB 222, relative to moving the state primary date. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Ross Berry for the Majority of Election Law. This bill proposes moving the state primary to the second Tuesday in June. Currently, New Hampshire holds one of the latest state primaries in the country, sometimes the very last. This late primary schedule forces candidates to focus primarily on appealing to their party's base rather than the broader electorate, which is typically five to 10 times larger. As a result, many voters are effectively shut out of the process, and the system disproportionately favors candidates who avoid a primary when their inevitable opponent must compete in one. It has been noted that fewer than 7% of New Hampshire House seats are contested in primaries, and an even smaller percentage challenge incumbents. Of those few, successful challenges are exceedingly rare. As such, this bill will have little effect on the House but make for more competitive federal and statewide races. The majority believes that moving the primary to June will encourage candidates to engage with all voters, not just their party's base, and create a more level playing field for both sides heading into the general election. Vote 10-8.

Rep. Connie Lane for the Minority of Election Law. This bill alters the House position adopted in HB 481 on March 26, 2025, which has an effective date of January 1, 2027 for a June primary. The timeframe of the existing House position allows sufficient time for the implementation of this significant change by the parties, Secretary of State, local officials, and others. Making it effective on January 1, 2026 rushes the implementation, making it more likely that there will be unforeseen consequences and errors in the transition to a June primary. For this reason, the minority supports adopting an amendment that amends the effective date of this bill to January 1, 2027.

The question being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass.

Rep. Wilhelm offered minority committee amendment (2406h).

Minority Amendment (2406h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 12 with the following:

12 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2027.

The question now being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass.

Rep. Boehm spoke against.

Rep. Harvey-Bolia spoke in favor.

On a division vote, with 168 members having voted in the affirmative, and 170 in the negative, the majority committee report failed.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Berry moved that SB 222, relative to moving the state primary date, be laid on the table.

Motion was adopted.

SB 287, requiring applicants for absentee ballots to present a copy of their photo identification with their application. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Ross Berry for the Majority of Election Law. As amended, this bill aligns the process of requesting an absentee ballot more closely with the requirements for in-person voting. Under current law, voters requesting an absentee ballot are not required to provide proof of identification, whereas those voting in person must present acceptable photo identification. This bill would require voters submitting an absentee ballot application to either include a copy of acceptable photo identification or have the application notarized, which itself would require presenting identification. Importantly, New Hampshire law currently allows for electronic and remote notarization services, providing an additional, accessible option for voters to verify their identity remotely. Voters who request an absentee ballot in person may simply present their ID at the clerk's office. During committee discussions, it was noted that electronic transmission methods—such as emailing a scanned copy of an ID—would be acceptable, as New Hampshire law currently imposes no requirements for ID submission. Additionally, concerns about access to printers were deemed minimal, as voters needing to print an absentee ballot application would also have the capability to print a copy of their ID. Vote 10-8.

Rep. Connie Lane for the Minority of Election Law. This bill, as amended, requires that a voter present ID when obtaining an absentee ballot. The bill assumes that all voters have access to a copier or can get to the clerk's office to obtain a ballot in person. It ignores the fact that copiers are a luxury for most households and that many people are home bound and cannot easily get to the clerk's office. The bill's sponsors and advocates offered no evidence that the bill would make voting more "secure." No evidence of fraud under the current system was introduced. This bill, like many others passed over the past few years, is based purely on speculation and adds yet another barrier to exercising the right to vote – also known as voter suppression.

Majority Amendment (2414h)

Amend RSA 657:17-c as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

657:17-c Verification of Absentee Ballot Applicant.

I. Every applicant for an absentee ballot shall provide verification before being issued an absentee ballot. Verification shall be satisfied by one of the following methods:

(a) Including a copy of the voter's photo identification with the absentee ballot application. The identification shall meet the requirements of RSA 659:13, II(a);

(b) Including a notarized signature on the absentee ballot application form; or

(c) Personally presenting a qualifying photo identification, as defined in RSA 659:13, II(a), to the city or town clerk or their designee prior to the issuance of the absentee ballot.

II. No absentee ballot shall be issued unless one of the verification methods under paragraph I has been satisfied.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires applicants for absentee ballots to present a copy of their photo identification with their application or present a notarized application before receiving an absentee ballot.

The question being adoption of the majority committee amendment.

Rep. Berry spoke in favor.

Rep. Lane spoke against and requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

SB 178, relative to the department of health and human services laboratory services for testing of water supplies. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Erica Layon for Executive Departments and Administration. This bill moves the process of setting fees for water analysis from the statutes to administrative rules. The Department of Health and Human Services provides water testing services to private individuals and companies, state agencies, and entities utilizing state and federal grants. The fees collected are treated differently when the source of funding comes from state or a local government, namely by directing half of the government funded fees to a lab equipment and replacement fund. The amendment clarifies the language surrounding the application of fees from different entities. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1743h)

Amend RSA 131:4, III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. Fees collected shall be deposited in the general fund, subject to the exemptions listed in paragraph V.

IV. A special nonlapsing lab equipment and replacement fund established in the state treasury and kept separate and distinct from all other funds shall be continually appropriated to the commissioner of the department of health and human services for the purchase or replacement of laboratory equipment designed to improve service. The commissioner may, with prior approval of the governor and council, use funds in the lab equipment and replacement fund for unanticipated personnel or supply expenditures made necessary by unexpected changes in or additions to federal or state required laboratory analyses or unusual volume of samples.

V. Except for fees collected from other state agencies, or from state or federal grants, 50 percent of fees collected shall be deposited in the lab equipment and replacement fund.

The question being adoption of the committee amendment.

Committee amendment was adopted.

The question now being adoption of the committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.
Rep. Layon offered floor amendment (2376h).

Floor Amendment (2376h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Department of Health and Human Services; Laboratory Services; Reimbursements; Rulemaking. RSA 131:4 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

131:4 Laboratory Services, Fees, and Rulemaking; Lab Equipment and Replacement Fund Established.

I. The commissioner of the department of health and human services shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A relative to a list of laboratory services to be provided under this chapter and a schedule of fees for such services. The fees may be waived by the commissioner when the commissioner determines it is in the best interests of the health of the public to do so.

II. Fees for analyses required by the federal Safe Drinking Water Act or offered as a service shall be set by following the cost allocation method established for reimbursements to the state from grants funded by the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

III. Fees collected from state agencies shall be credited against the operating costs of the laboratory.

IV. Fees collected from all others shall be deposited 50 percent in the general fund and 50 percent in a special nonlapsing lab equipment and replacement fund established in the state treasury and kept separate and distinct from all other funds. The fund shall be continually appropriated to the commissioner of the department of health and human services for the purchase or replacement of laboratory equipment designed to improve service. The commissioner may, with prior approval of the governor and council, use funds in the lab equipment and replacement fund for unanticipated personnel or supply expenditures made necessary by unexpected changes in or additions to federal or state required laboratory analyses or unusual volume of samples.

The question being adoption of floor amendment (2376h).

Rep. Layon spoke in favor.

Floor amendment (2376h) was adopted.

The question now being adoption of the committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.
Committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Hunt moved that SB 25, allowing credit union members to pay members of the board of directors for their services as a board member and relative to the use of and disputes over blockchain and digital currencies, be made a Special Order as the next order of business.

The question being adoption of the motion to special order.

On a division vote, with 177 members having voted in the affirmative, and 134 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER

SB 25, allowing credit union members to pay members of the board of directors for their services as a board member. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Chris McAleer for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill repeals and replaces RSA 383-E:6-607(a). It enables but does not compel a credit union to now compensate its board of directors members with a stipend agreed upon by its members. Vote 16-0.

The question being adoption of the committee report of Ought to Pass.

Rep. Ammon offered floor amendment (2696h).

Floor Amendment (2696h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT allowing credit union members to pay members of the board of directors for their services as a board member and relative to the use of and disputes over blockchain and digital currencies.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Purpose and Findings. The general court makes the following findings:

I. The general court adopts the findings of the Report of Governor Sununu's Commission on Cryptocurrency and Digital Assets.

II. The general court hereby finds that:

(a) Blockchain technology is an important technical innovation with many important applications for our state and national society and economy.

(b) The uncertain legal and regulatory status of blockchain technologies undermines investor and consumer confidence and stifles beneficial innovation.

(c) New Hampshire should establish a state legal regime that offers an attractive jurisdiction for the best responsible blockchain innovators, entrepreneurs, and businesses while protecting their investors and consumers.

(d) New Hampshire is a unique state. Our citizen legislature has proven itself to have the unique capacity to undertake prompt and regular modernization of legal systems that often take other states decades. New Hampshire should play a leading role now, as Blockchain technology continues to develop its place within our global economic system.

III. The general court seeks to implement key recommendations from the Report of Governor Sununu's Commission and to make New Hampshire an attractive jurisdiction for blockchain-related business and innovation, thereby:

(a) Promoting investment and development in New Hampshire; and

(b) Establishing a leading role for New Hampshire in fostering the blockchain industry and developing a legal regime protecting blockchain technology.

3 Short Title. Section 4 of this act shall be known as "The Blockchain Basic Laws."

4 New Chapter; Blockchain Basic Laws. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 359-U the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 359-V BLOCKCHAIN BASIC LAWS

359-V:1 Definitions.

In this chapter:

I. "Blockchain" means any technology:

(a) Where data is:

(1) Shared across a network to create a public ledger of verified transactions or information among network participants;

(2) Linked using cryptography to maintain the integrity of the public ledger and to execute other functions; and

(3) Distributed among network participants in an automated fashion to concurrently update network participants on the state of the public ledger and any other functions; and

(b) Composed of source code that is publicly available.

II. "Blockchain protocol" means any executable software deployed to a blockchain composed of source code that is publicly available and accessible, including a smart contract or any network of smart contracts.

III. "Decentralized" means a blockchain system in which no person has the unilateral authority, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship, or otherwise, to control or materially alter the functionality or operation of the blockchain system.

IV. "Digital asset" means any fungible or non-fungible digital representation of value, unit of value, voting, or usage right that can be exclusively possessed and transferred, person to person, without necessary reliance on an intermediary, and is recorded on a blockchain system. This includes virtual currencies, cryptocurrencies, natively electronic assets (such as stablecoins and non-fungible tokens), and other digital-only assets that confer economic, proprietary, access rights, or powers.

V. "Digital asset mining" or "mining" means using electricity to power a computer or node for the purpose of securing a blockchain network through computational processes. For the purposes of this chapter only, mining shall also include securing a blockchain through validation mechanisms based on proof-of-stake.

VI. "Digital asset mining business" means a person or entity operating a group of computers on one contiguous property that together consume more than one megawatt of energy for the purpose of securing a blockchain protocol.

VII. "Discriminatory rates" mean electricity rates substantially different from other industrial uses of electricity in similar geographic areas.

VIII. "Node" means a computational device which contains and updates a copy of a blockchain.

IX. "Self-hosted wallet" means a digital interface used to secure and transfer digital assets; and under which the owner of the digital asset retains independent control over the digital assets that are secured by such digital interface.

X. "Smart contract" means software code deployed in a blockchain system that consists of a set of pre-defined and deterministic instructions and conditions that may be executed in a decentralized manner by participants in the underlying blockchain network. Execution of a smart contract shall produce a change in the blockchain state and may autonomously enforce, execute, and record rules and actions, including but not limited to financial transactions, compliance mechanisms, and the creation of irrevocable digital arrangements. A smart contract need not meet the common law requirements of a legal contract to satisfy this definition.

XI. "Staking" means using a node to lock digital assets in order to operate the consensus mechanism of a blockchain protocol.

359-V:2 Holding and Use of Private Digital Currency.

No state or local government agency or subdivision thereof shall prohibit, restrict, or otherwise impair the ability of an individual to:

I. Use digital assets to purchase legal goods or services;

II. Self-custody digital assets using a self-hosted wallet or third-party wallet.

III. Use digital assets as a method of payment without the imposition of any tax, withholding, assessment, or charge based solely on the fact that a digital asset was used as the method of payment.

359-V:3 Infrastructure to Run Blockchain Protected.

I. Any person shall be allowed to engage in home digital asset mining as long as the individual complies with all local noise ordinances. A political subdivision shall not place specific limits on sound decibels generated from home digital asset mining other than current limits set for sound pollution put forth by the political subdivision.

II. A digital asset mining business may engage in digital asset mining in any area that is zoned for industrial use.

III. No state or local government agency or subdivision thereof shall:

(a) Set a specific limit on sound decibels generated from noise, including digital asset mining other than the limits set by the political subdivision in any local noise ordinances;

(b) Impose any requirement on a digital asset mining business that does not equally apply to all industrial-zoned properties.

IV. No state or local government agency or subdivision thereof may establish a rate schedule for digital asset mining that creates discriminatory rates for digital asset mining businesses.

359-V:4 Processes Regarding Blockchain Networks.

I. No state or local government agency or subdivision thereof shall prohibit any person or business from operating a node for the purpose of connecting to a blockchain protocol or a protocol built on top of a blockchain protocol and transferring digital assets on a blockchain protocol or participating in staking on a blockchain protocol.

II. A person engaged in home digital asset mining or a digital asset mining business shall not be required to obtain a money transmitter license under RSA 399-G.

III. Operating a node or a series of nodes on a blockchain protocol shall not require an individual or business to obtain a money transmitter license under RSA 399-G.

IV. A business offering to provide digital asset mining or staking services for individuals or to other businesses shall not be considered as offering a security or investment contract under RSA 421-B.

V. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, anyone engaged in digital asset mining, operating a node or series of nodes on a blockchain network, or providing digital asset mining or staking services for individuals or other businesses shall not face liability related to a specific transaction merely by validating that transaction.

359-V:5 Civil Remedies.

I. Any person directly affected by a violation of this chapter may petition the superior court or the blockchain dispute docket for relief.

II. The superior court may order declaratory, injunctive, or other equitable relief.

III. Any person who prevails on any claim brought pursuant to this chapter, and shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant engaged in a purposeful violation of this chapter, shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees.

359-V:6 Severability.

If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application. This chapter shall retain its purpose and effect to the maximum extent permitted under the state and federal constitutions, whether through the severance of provisions or applications, judicial injunction or construction, or any other just and proper remedy.

5 New Section; Courts; Superior Courts; Blockchain Dispute Docket. Amend RSA 491 by inserting after section 7-b the following new section:

491:7-c Blockchain Dispute Docket.

I. Without limiting the jurisdiction vested in any court in the state, and subject to the appointment of a presiding justice by the governor with the consent of the executive council as provided in this section, the supreme court may establish by court order not inconsistent with this section, a blockchain dispute docket in the superior court which shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine blockchain technology disputes, as described in this section, when:

(a) The parties have consented to the jurisdiction of the blockchain dispute docket by agreement or stipulation; and

(b) The dispute concerns "blockchain" technology as defined in RSA 359-V:1.

II. The governor, with the consent of the executive council, may appoint the first presiding justice of the blockchain dispute docket, who shall be qualified by reason of such person's knowledge and experience in matters of law and technology. The chief justice of the superior court, following the appointment or designation of the initial presiding justice, may designate such additional justices to preside over blockchain docket cases, as necessary, based upon caseload, disqualification of the presiding justice, or efficient allocation of judicial resources.

III. The presiding justice of the blockchain dispute docket shall be an associate justice of the superior court and shall be entitled to the compensation and benefits provided to all such justices under applicable law, including, but not limited to, RSA 491-A:1 and RSA 100-C.

IV. The workload of the presiding justice of the blockchain dispute docket shall be the matters before that docket. The presiding justice may be assigned to any other matter within the jurisdiction of the superior court or sit by designation on any other court in the same manner as any other associate justice of the superior court, as determined to be necessary by the chief justices of the superior and supreme courts.

V. Subject to the provisions of this section, all civil actions in which the principal claim or claims arise from or involve the following shall be assigned to the blockchain dispute docket for all purposes, including motion practice, discovery, injunctive relief, alternative dispute resolution, and hearing on the merits with or without a jury:

(a) Claims arising out of RSA 359-V.

(b) Claims arising from breach of contract or fiduciary duties, fraud, misrepresentation, business tort, or statutory violations arising out of blockchain technology dealings or transactions.

(c) Other complex disputes of a blockchain technology nature.

6 Effective Date.

I. Section 5 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2026.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Allows credit union members to pay members of the board of directors for their services as a board member.

II. Creates an act to protect blockchain technology and its users.

III. Establishes a blockchain dispute docket to oversee blockchain-related disputes.

The question being adoption of floor amendment (2696h).

Rep. Parshall requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Hunt moved that SB 297-FN, relative to pooled risk management programs, be made a Special Order as the next order of business.

Motion was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER

SB 297-FN, relative to pooled risk management programs. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Julie Miles for Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This bill, as amended, strengthens financial oversight and long-term stability of pooled risk management programs under RSA 5-B. These risk pools — authorized by the legislature in 1987 — allow political subdivisions to self-insure critical lines of coverage for public employees and municipal property, including health insurance, workers' compensation, and property and casualty lines. These programs are not insurance companies but public cooperative entities that manage taxpayer and employee funds for collective benefit. The Secretary of State currently holds regulatory authority over RSA 5-B pooled risk entities. This bill is a timely response to serious concerns about solvency and fiduciary mismanagement. As Secretary Scanlan testified, two risk pools are experiencing rapid financial decline due to failures to follow actuarial advice and guarantee rates below actual claims costs. The committee thanks Secretary Scanlan for bringing these matters to the attention of the legislature. These failures threaten taxpayers, municipal employers, and active and retired public employees across the state. This bill addresses these risks through five core reforms: 1. Solvency Enforcement: The bill gives the Secretary of State clear statutory authority to intervene when a pool's contingency reserves fall below safe thresholds. This includes ordering corrective action and, if ignored, seeking receivership through the courts. 2. Reserve Standards: The bill establishes reserve minimums and maximums tailored to line of coverage (12–16% for health, 30–40% for property/casualty). If reserves drop below minimums, the pool must notify members and develop a remediation plan. If deficiencies persist, members may be assessed based on their contributions. 3. Governance and Fiduciary Duty: The bill imposes fiduciary obligations on board members, requiring them to act solely in the interest of participating political subdivisions and to use care, prudence, and loyalty in managing these public funds. 4. Member Stabilization Funds: Participating members must begin building their own stabilization reserves — up to 4% of annual contributions — to protect local budgets from future emergency assessments. 5. Transparency and Member Disclosures: The bill mandates all member agreements, bylaws, and contribution quotes clearly state these programs are not insurance companies and assessments may occur in the event of insolvency or reserve deficiency. Under the amended bill, risk pools may not arbitrarily select their regulator; rather, their regulatory framework is determined by their organizational structure. If a pool is organized under RSA 5-B, it remains under the oversight of the Secretary of State and is subject to the new solvency protections in the bill. These 5-B entities must be member-owned and assessable (i.e., can require members to cover shortfalls) and are required to return surplus funds as dividends under specific conditions. Alternatively, if a pool is organized under RSA 420-R, it is regulated by the Department of Insurance and operates more like a traditional insurance company. These entities are: Not required to be member-owned; not required to issue assessable policies; and fully responsible for all risks transferred into the pool, without member assessments. This structural separation creates a transparent regulatory framework where pooled risk entities are governed based on their business model. The amendment ensures proper accountability, prevents regulatory arbitrage, and allows New Hampshire's municipalities to select the governance model that best fits their needs — while preserving taxpayer protections and promoting long-term sustainability. This legislation also introduces statutory definitions for key terms such as “administration,” “reserves,” and “assessments,” and aligns RSA 5-B governance with financial accountability standards common to other public-sector pooled programs. Importantly, this bill distinguishes 5-B pooled programs from entities organized under RSA 420-R. RSA 5-B entities are member-owned, assessable, and return surplus funds. In contrast, 420-R entities operate as self-insured insurance-like models where risk is fully transferred, and members do not retain ownership. This reform ensures that programs operating under RSA 5-B are held to standards appropriate for their public fiduciary nature. This bill is a responsible, proactive step to protect taxpayers and the public workforce from preventable financial collapse. It secures transparency, enforces solvency, and restores trust in these essential public risk-sharing mechanisms. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (2473h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Paragraphs; Pooled Risk Management; Definitions. Amend RSA 5-B:2 by inserting the following new paragraphs after paragraph IV:

V. “Administration”, as used in RSA 5-B:5, I(c), means reasonable expenses for risk management, including processing, evaluation, and settlement services incurred in the payment of claims and other related losses, wellness programs, and for auditor, actuarial, and accounting services for administration of the pooled risk program. The reasonability of an expense for administration under this chapter may be determined in an examination or administrative hearing commenced by the secretary of state pursuant to RSA 5-B:4-a.

VI. “Reserves” means claims reserves (case reserves and incurred but not reported (IBNR reserves), contribution deficiency reserves, and contingency reserves. “Contingency reserves” means the amount of surplus to be retained by the pooled risk management program for the upcoming plan year as may be reasonably established and subsequently required to cover expected and unforeseen or extraordinary claim and administrative losses and liabilities.

VII. “Excess insurance” means reinsurance.

VIII. “Assessments” means a provision that, if the assets of the pooled risk management program are at any time actuarially determined to be insufficient to discharge its claim and administrative losses and liabilities and other legal obligations of the plan, the program shall, within 30 days of such a determination, draw from the restricted fund balance accounts under RSA 5-B:5, I(g) or, as necessary under RSA 5-B:4-b, II, collect additional contributions from its participating members for the amount needed to make up the deficiency.

IX. “Restricted fund balance” means an amount, as specified in RSA 5-B:5, I(g), that may be held by a pooled risk management program for health coverage, permitted that the amount is held in a restricted account and that the amount shall be used only for the specific purpose of funding assessments under RSA 5-B:4-b, II. Amend RSA 5-B:5, I(g) as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(g) A pooled risk management program for health coverage may designate a maximum of 4 percent of the previous fiscal year’s contributions that, if designated, shall be sourced from that pooled risk management program’s annual earnings and surplus as defined in RSA 5-B:5, I(c) and shall be kept in a restricted fund balance for the specific purpose of funding assessments under RSA 5-B:4-b, II. This restricted fund balance shall not exceed 4 percent of a pooled risk management program’s previous fiscal year’s contributions, shall not be considered in the calculation of a contingency reserve, and shall be used prior to any member assessments under RSA 5-B:4-b, II.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 4 with the following:

5 Pooled Risk; Title Change. The chapter heading of RSA 5-B is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

ASSESSMENT POOLED RISK MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS

6 New Subparagraph; Insurance; Third Party Administrators; Definitions. Amend RSA 402-H:1, I by inserting after subparagraph (m) the following new subparagraph:

(n) A pooled risk management program licensed pursuant to RSA 420-R:4.

7 Insurance; Licensure of Medical Utilization Review Entities; Licensure or Registration Required. Amend RSA 420-E:2, I to read as follows:

I. Any person, partnership or corporation, other than an insurer, nonprofit service organization, health maintenance organization, pooled risk management program, or an employee of those exempt organizations, that performs medical utilization review services on behalf of commercial insurers, nonprofit service organizations, health maintenance organizations, pooled risk management programs, third-party administrators or employers, shall apply for a license to be issued by the department and shall pay an application fee and an annual license fee. No person, partnership or corporation, other than an insurer, nonprofit service organization, health maintenance organization, or the employees of exempt organizations shall perform utilization review services or medical utilization review services unless the person, partnership, or corporation has received a license in accordance with this chapter.

8 Insurance; Portability, Availability, and Renewability of Health Coverage; Disclosure. Amend RSA 420-G:11, IV to read as follows:

IV. The data submission requirements of paragraphs II and II-a shall apply with respect to claims data for all lives covered by a fully-insured health plan in any market in the state, by any self-funded plan for state or municipal employees, including any plan maintained under RSA 5-B or RSA 420-R, to any self-funded plan maintained by the university system of the state with respect to its employees or its students, and to any self-funded student health benefit plan maintained by an institution of higher education which provides 4-year bachelor's degree programs and graduate or professional degree programs.

9 New Chapter; Advanced Premium Pooled Risk Management Program. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 420-Q the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 420-R

ADVANCE PREMIUM POOLED RISK MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS

420-R:1 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the establishment of pooled risk management programs and to affirm the status of such programs established for the benefit of political subdivisions of the state. The legislature finds and determines that insurance and risk management is essential to the proper functioning of political subdivisions; that risk management can be achieved through the purchase of traditional insurance or by participation in pooled risk management programs established for the benefit of political subdivisions; that pooled risk management is an essential governmental function by providing focused public sector loss prevention programs, accrual of interest and dividend earnings which may be returned to the public benefit and establishment of costs predicated solely on the actual experience of political subdivisions within the state; that the resources of political subdivisions are presently burdened by the securing of insurance protection through standard carriers; and that pooled risk management programs which meet the standards established by this chapter should not be subject to taxation by the state and, except as specifically set forth in this chapter, should not be subject to insurance regulation.

SB 180-FN, designating Coos county as a distressed place-based economy. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Jeremy Slottje for the Majority of Executive Departments and Administration. The committee recommends that this bill be reported as ought to pass with amendment. This bill grants Coos County the distressed place based economy designation, which qualifies them for various federal programs. The proposed amendment address concerns about administrative burden, enforceability, and ambiguity while supporting Coos county's economic revitalization through special designation. The bill, as amended, will promote a period of economic revitalization and protect the county's economic welfare without imposing unnecessary burdens on state agencies or local governments. Vote 15-1.

Rep. Peter Schmidt for the Minority of Executive Departments and Administration. This bill is offered in recognition of the dire economic circumstances currently existing in Coos county. The committee is in unanimous support of the first premise thereof, namely, a designation of Coos county as a distressed place-based economy. However, the majority rejects, as likely unenforceable, the second premise, which calls for a higher level of involvement of state agencies with Coos county commissioners to consult on proposed regulations whenever possible, so as to reduce or limit further harmful impact on the county's already struggling economy. While the minority recognizes the majority's concerns about enforceability, we believe that the current situation requires extraordinary measures to protect and improve the economic viability of a major area of our state, well worth the effort.

Floor Amendment (2474h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT designating Coos county as a distressed place-based economy and requiring the department of environmental services to revise the rules for proposed new landfills.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 3 with the following:

4 Statement of Purpose. The general court finds that protecting the health and safety of New Hampshire citizens, drinking water sources, and our environment, including drinking water wells, perennial rivers, lakes, and coastal waters, from contamination is of utmost public interest. Therefore, based on legislative intent informed by public and expert testimony from New Hampshire citizens and key stakeholders, the department of environmental services' 800 rules for proposed new landfills are found to be insufficiently protective in certain sections. The following provisions provide the department with direction, policy changes, and purpose in rulemaking.

5 New Subparagraph; Waste Management Rules. Amend RSA 149-M:7 by inserting after paragraph XV the following new paragraph:

XV-a. Relative to the safe management of solid waste. Such rules shall promote the hierarchy established under RSA 149-M:3, and shall develop and enforce siting, design, operation, and closure requirements.

6 New Paragraphs; Groundwater Protection. Amend RSA 149-M:9 by inserting after paragraph XV the following new paragraphs:

XVI. No permit shall be issued by any division of the department for the siting of a new landfill if any part of the actual solid waste disposal area is proposed to be located sufficiently close to any existing drinking water well, perennial river, lake, or coastal water of New Hampshire, as defined in RSA 483-B:4, XVI, such that groundwater on the landfill site would be able to reach the water body within 5 years of migrating off-site due to any leak, spill, or other failure.

XVII.(a) The department shall establish a site-specific setback distance for any proposed new landfill from any drinking water wells, perennial river, lake, or coastal water of New Hampshire, as defined in RSA 483-B:4, XVI. The setback distance shall be sufficient to prevent any contaminated groundwater at any part of the landfill footprint or leachate storage or piping infrastructure from reaching any existing drinking water wells, perennial river, lake, or coastal water of New Hampshire within 5 years. The setback distance shall be calculated as follows:

(1) The applicant shall hire a hydrogeologist who has never worked with or been contracted through a third party with any applicant's current or previous projects, at the applicant's expense, to estimate based upon adequate and representative on-site field testing of both the landfill footprint and leachate storage or piping infrastructure, the estimated velocity of groundwater in both surficial geological deposits and bedrock. The velocity shall be estimated by calculating the 95th percentile upper confidence limit of the mean measured rate, using the formula recommended by the United States Environmental Protection Agency at EPA 600-R-97/006.

(2) The 5-year distance-of-travel estimate shall be calculated by multiplying the velocity, in units of feet per year, by 5.

(3) The setback from any existing drinking water well, perennial river, lake, or coastal water of New Hampshire shall be the greater of the 5-year distance-of-travel estimate calculated in subparagraph (2) or 1,500 feet.

(b) No permit shall be issued by any division of the department for the siting of a new landfill that fails to conform to the setback distance as calculated using the method set forth in subparagraph (a).

(c) In this section, "new landfill" excludes any expansion or modification of any landfill facilities on any site where, as of January 1, 2025, a RCRA Subtitle D landfill exists that has received all permits necessary to operate at present and is currently operating under such permits at the time it files an application to expand.

(d) In this section, "site" means a single parcel or adjacent parcels, owned in its entirety by a landfill operator or its affiliates as of January 1, 2025, including a site where one or more public utility easements traverse the site.

XVIII. The department shall not issue a permit for a new landfill or landfill expansion unless the applicant conducts subsurface investigations in sufficient numbers and locations to properly describe the surficial stratigraphy and the bedrock beneath and adjacent to the proposed solid waste boundary, at least to the depth of any aquifers currently used to provide drinking water to residents. Pump tests shall be conducted at selected locations as needed to evaluate aquifer yield and connectivity of bedrock fractures using the department's database of the location and depth of private drinking water wells.

XIX. All landfill facilities shall have at least one employee or contracted personnel at the site 24 hours a day, 365 days per year, beginning from the date the landfill begins accepting waste and continuing until final closure.

XX. No permit shall be granted for a landfill unless undisturbed in-situ soils for 20 feet immediately beneath the footprint and underneath all leachate storage and transfer infrastructure have a maximum saturated hydraulic conductivity of 1×10^{-4} centimeters per second (cm/sec) or less. If the above in-situ soils do not meet the maximum hydraulic conductivity criterion of 1×10^{-4} cm/sec, no amount of imported soil can overcome such deficiency, and the tract shall be deemed impermissible for use as a landfill.

XXI. No permit shall be granted for a landfill unless the subgrade below the liner consists of soil with a saturated hydraulic conductivity of 1×10^{-4} cm/sec or less.

XXII. All references to number-year storm events regarding solid waste landfill permitting requirements in relation to design, maintenance, leachate management, etc., shall have the value of a 100-year storm with a 50 percent margin of safety.

XXIII. The department shall incorporate the "Ford Act" found at 40 C.F.R. 258 into landfill permitting requirements, specifically the provision limiting the construction or establishment of municipal solid waste landfills within 6 miles of certain smaller public airports.

7 Permit Denial. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 149-M:9, IX to read as follows:

IX. The department ~~may~~ shall deny a permit application under this section to a person if any of the following applies:

8 Rulemaking. The introductory paragraph of RSA 149-M:7 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

The commissioner shall have the responsibility and authority to adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, that are necessary to protect the public health and the environment with an ample margin of safety relative to this chapter, including rules relative to:

9 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1 -2 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. Section 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2045.

and floor amendment (2642h) failed.

The question now being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

On a division vote, with 323 members having voted in the affirmative, and 6 in the negative, the majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

SB 198, declaring the third week in September to be New Hampshire service dog week. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Carol McGuire for the Majority of Executive Departments and Administration. The majority supports recognition of service dogs during the federal celebration of service dog month every September. However, since the governor can declare state recognition at any time upon request, the majority believes it is a disservice to supporters of service dog recognition to put this celebration in statute. Our experience has been that once the group has succeeded in getting statutory recognition of their cause, they stop working to educate others about their cause. Coming together to request recognition every year, and planning commemorations, keeps a cause alive and effective. Vote 10-6.

Rep. Patrick Long for the Minority of Executive Departments and Administration. The minority supports recognition of service dog week. Service dogs play a vital role in helping disabled people navigate numerous different types of challenges, allowing them to have more independence and more fulfilling lives. Most people are aware of the traditional role of seeing eye dogs but are not familiar with the great variety of roles service dogs work in today. Annual recognition of service dogs and their trainers would help some disabled people learn about what help may be available to them and connect with trainers or organizations which can help them get an appropriate service dog. Additionally, increased public knowledge of the high standards expected of service dogs' behavior may reduce the occurrence of service dog fraud, which tends to involve poorly trained animals not meeting the standards of real service dogs.

The question being adoption of the majority committee report of Inexpedient to Legislate.

Rep. Long spoke against.

Rep. Carol McGuire spoke in favor.

On a division vote, with 179 members having voted in the affirmative, and 144 in the negative, the majority committee report was adopted.

SB 118-FN, relative to the personal needs allowance of residents of nursing homes; making an appropriation to the department of health and human services for Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility staff; and establishing the Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility capital investment fund. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Brian Seaworth for the Majority of Finance. This bill was previously passed by the House on the consent calendar and combines four different policies. It changes the adjustment cycle of the "personal needs allowance" for nursing home residents from every five years to annually. It appropriates funds to the DHHS for staff leave payments and retention bonuses accrued during the transfer of employer responsibilities at Hampstead Hospital. It also establishes a Hampstead Hospital and Residential Treatment Facility Capital Investment Fund, which will allow the state to fulfill contractual obligations without additional appropriations - instead using the money received from the Hampstead Hospital lease. Finally, the bill includes the text of HB 53, medical cannabis home grow, previously passed by the House. The Finance committee finds these elements will have minimal fiscal impact and therefore recommends that we uphold the recommendation of the policy committee. Vote 18-7.

Rep. Gary Daniels for the Minority of Finance. SB 118, as introduced, increases the Medicaid Personal Needs Allowance annually for Medicaid recipients in long-term care facilities. In New Hampshire, Medicaid recipients are required to have not more than $2500 worth of assets. Independent of this $2500, since 1988, Medicaid has allowed an individual in a long-term care facility to keep $30 of their income each month as a personal needs allowance. Each state, however, can allow for a higher Personal Needs Allowance, up to a maximum of $200/month. Since 2020 New Hampshire has allowed a personal needs allowance of $74. This personal needs allowance is intended to cover the personal expenses of a nursing home resident that are not covered by Medicaid. This may include, but is not limited to haircuts, vitamins, clothing, magazines, cell phone and vending machine snacks. Nothing prohibits family or friends from providing the resources for, or supplementing, these items. The current statute requires the commissioner to make a cost-of-living adjustment every five years. As such, this allowance is currently scheduled to increase to about $90 per month effective this July. SB 118 changes the 5-year adjustment period to make an automatic cost-of-living adjustment every year. The compounding of this change results in an estimated cost of $50,000 to $100,000 in FY26 and $100,000 to $500,000 in subsequent years, paid for with 50% general funds and 50% matching federal funds. In addition, and particularly if you find the cost-of-living adjustment period change proposed by SB 118 acceptable, it should be concerning that the bill has been amended with the non-germane, pro-marijuana language of HB 53. While HB 53 passed this House, as did numerous other pro-marijuana bills, it has not gone unnoticed that every pro-marijuana bill passed by the House this session has been rejected by the Senate. It therefore would be perfectly logical to assume that if there is anything you like in SB 118, the risk of losing it all because of this latest amendment is extremely high. The minority proposes an amendment to simply remove the HB 53 language to allow a vote to be taken on the policy change proposed in SB 118 rather than having it tied to a non-germane amendment.

The question being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass.

Rep. Daniels offered minority committee amendment (2345h).

Minority Amendment (2345h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the personal needs allowance of residents of nursing homes; making an appropriation to the department of health and human services for Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility staff; and establishing the Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility capital investment fund.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 New Paragraph; Department of Health and Human Services; Hampstead Hospital and Residential Treatment Facility; Establishing Fund. Amend RSA 126-A:5, by inserting after paragraph XXXVI the following new paragraph:

XXXVII. There is hereby established the Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility capital investment fund. The department shall deposit revenue received through leasing Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility or any other administrative activities into the fund. For the biennium ending June 30, 2027, the department shall deposit all revenue into the fund. In the event that such revenue exceeds $3,000,000, the department shall provide a report to the fiscal committee of the general court identifying the total amount. The fund shall be nonlapsing and continually appropriated to the commissioner for the purpose of supporting contractually required capital investments at Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility and may not be transferred or used for any other purpose.

4 New Subparagraph; Application of Receipts; Hampstead Hospital and Residential Treatment Facility Capital Investment Fund. Amend RSA 6:12, I(b) by inserting after subparagraph (399) the following new subparagraph:

(400) Moneys deposited in the Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility capital investment fund as established in RSA 126-A:5, XXXVII.

5 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2026.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 2025.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Adjusts the personal needs allowance for nursing home residents to reflect social security increases on an annual basis rather than the current 5-year adjustment.

II. Makes an appropriation to the department of health and human services to fund certain leave accrual and retention payments for temporary classified staff positions at the Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility.

III. Establishes the Hampstead hospital and residential treatment facility capital investment fund.

The question being adoption of the minority committee amendment.

Reps. Wendy Thomas and Seaworth spoke against.

Rep. Daniels spoke in favor.

On a division vote, with 103 members having voted in the affirmative, and 215 in the negative, the minority committee amendment failed.

The question now being adoption of the majority committee report of Ought to Pass.

Majority committee report was adopted, and the bill was ordered to third reading.

SB 163, repealing the temporary moratoria and limitation on building permits and the approval of subdivisions and site plans. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Joe Alexander for Housing. The Housing Committee believes this bill should be recommended Ought to Pass with Amendment. The bill, as amended, would limit the moratorium municipalities can place on building residential buildings with completed applications and adds language regarding HB 685 which is a previously established House position. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1950h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT repealing the temporary moratoria and limitation on residential building permits and the approval of subdivisions and site plans and permitting in all residentially zoned areas by right the construction of manufactured housing.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Temporary Moratoria and Limitations on Building Permits and the Approval of Subdivisions and Site Plans. Amend RSA 674:23, I to read as follows:

I. Upon recommendation of the planning board, the local legislative body may adopt or amend an ordinance establishing a moratorium or limitation on the issuance of building permits or the granting of subdivision or site plan approval for non-housing developments for a definite term. No moratorium or limitation shall apply to residential housing projects.

2 Temporary Moratoria and Limitations on Building Permits and the Approval of Subdivisions and Site Plans. Amend RSA 674:23, III(d) to read as follows:

(d) A list of the types or categories of non-housing development to which the ordinance applies.

3 Manufactured Housing Definition. RSA 674:31 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

674:31 Definition. As used in this subdivision, "manufactured housing" means any structure, transportable in one or more sections, which, in the traveling mode, is 8 body feet or more in width and 40 body feet or more in length, or when erected on site, is 320 square feet or more, and which is built on a permanent chassis and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to required utilities, which include plumbing, heating, and electrical heating systems contained therein. Manufactured housing as defined in this section shall not include campers or recreation vehicles as defined in RSA 216-I:1 or RSA 259:84-a; pre-site built housing as defined in RSA 674:31-a; or modular buildings as defined in RSA 205-C:1, XI.

4 New Section; Allowing Manufactured Housing in Residential Zones. Amend RSA 674 by inserting after section 31-a the following new section:

674:31-b Permitting Manufactured Housing in Residential Zones.

I. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, manufactured housing shall be permitted as a matter of right in all land areas and lots in districts zoned to permit residential uses within every municipality in the state.

II. Municipal zoning ordinances shall be amended to comply with this statute, ensuring that manufactured housing is treated as a permitted use in all residential zones.

III. If a zoning ordinance contains no provisions pertaining to manufactured housing, it shall be deemed permitted as a matter of right, and no municipal permits or conditions shall be required other than a building permit, if necessary.

IV. No municipality shall adopt or enforce any zoning ordinance, regulation, or policy that discriminates against manufactured housing by prohibiting or unreasonably restricting its placement in residential zones.

V. All municipalities shall amend their zoning ordinances to comply with this statute within one year of its effective date.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill repeals the authority for a local legislative body to adopt an ordinance establishing a temporary moratoria and limitations on residential building permits and the approval of subdivisions and site plans.

This bill also updates the definition of manufactured housing, and establishes the requirement that manufactured housing must be permitted in all residential zoned areas within every municipality in the state, overriding any local zoning ordinances that prohibit or unreasonably restrict its placement.

The question being adoption of the committee amendment.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Alexander moved that SB 163, repealing the temporary moratoria and limitation on building permits and the approval of subdivisions and site plans, be laid on the table.

Motion was adopted.

MOTION TO REMOVE FROM THE TABLE

Rep. Wherry moved that SB 222, relative to moving the state primary date, be removed from the table.

Rep. Granger requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

BILLS REMOVED FROM THE CONSENT CALENDAR

SB 209-FN, requiring schools to engage an owner's project manager for construction of school building aid projects at the time of application. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Rick Ladd for Education Funding. As amended, a school district or charter public school that accepts school building aid for construction shall engage the services of an owner's project manager for construction or reconstruction/renovation projects $1,250,000 or more, unless the commissioner waives such requirement as unnecessary. The bill, as amended, changed the amount from $1,000,000 to $1,250,000 to better reflect increased construction costs due to inflation. The owner's project manager is much like a "clerk of the works" who is hired by the school district to ensure the owner's best interests are carried out by contractors during the building construction and renovation process. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (2275h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to owner's project managers for projects funded by school building aid.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 School Building Aid; Approval of Plans; Specifications, and Costs of Construction or Purchase. Amend RSA 198:15-c, III to read as follows:

III. A school district or chartered public school that accepts school building aid for construction shall engage the services of an owner's project manager for construction or reconstruction/renovation projects of [~~$1,000,000~~] $1,250,000 or more, unless the commissioner waives such requirement as unnecessary. The owner's project manager shall have his or her own comprehensive liability and auto insurance, worker's compensation coverage, and professional liability coverage. The state board of education shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A relative to the required services, responsibilities, and qualifications for the owner's project manager to ensure the project owner's best interests are carried out.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill modifies the requirements for the use of owner's project managers for projects funded by school building aid.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Bay requested Unanimous Consent of the House regarding Philippine Independence Day and addressed the House.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Weber moved that the remarks made by Rep. Bay during Unanimous Consent be printed in the Permanent Journal.

REMARKS

Representative Bay: Mister Speaker and Honorable colleagues, Mabuhay. A week from today my home country, the Philippines, will be celebrating its Independence Day. Philippine Independence Day is a day deeply rooted in a long and complex history of colonial rule, resistance and unwavering pursuit of sovereignty. On March 16, 1521, Spanish explorer Ferdinand Magellan arrived in the Philippines marking the beginning of over three centuries of Spanish colonization, a period during which Filipinos endured foreign rule, imposed religion and economic control. For 377 years, the people of the Philippines struggled for self-determination, resisting oppression through revolts and movements that culminated in their first declaration of independence. On June 12, 1898, under the leadership of General Emilio Aguinaldo, the Philippines proclaimed independence from Spain signaling the birth of a free Filipino nation. However, true sovereignty remained elusive. By July 12, 1898, which is barely a month since, Spain had ceded the Philippines to the United States through the Treaty of Paris, marking the beginning of a new era of colonial rule. For nearly five decades, the Philippines remained under American governance, a time of significant transformation, but also continued struggle for complete autonomy. It was during this period that Filipinos fought side by side with Americans in World War II demonstrating loyalty, courage and sacrifice. The Philippines became one of the United States strongest allies in the Pacific, ultimately earning its independence on July 4, 1946. For many years, July 4th was recognized as the Philippine Independence Day mirroring celebration of American independence. However, in 1962, then President Diosdado Macapagal officially restored June 12th as the nation's independence day affirming the original declaration of freedom and acknowledging the resilience of a people who fought for self-rule long before foreign powers dictated their fate. Many years prior to diplomatic treaties and formal independence, Filipinos had already been part of American history. They were in fact the first Asian immigrants to the United States arriving in the 1700s and settling in New Orleans, Louisiana. Known as Manila men, these early Filipinos, pioneers of work as fishermen, built communities and contributed to the diverse fabric of American society. Their legacy paved the way for generations of Filipino immigrants who continued to leave an indelible mark in their fields. Today, Filipino Americans continue to strengthen ties between our two nations. Here in New Hampshire, they have contributed immensely to health care, education, labor, business and public service. From serving in hospitals to serving in the legislature Filipino immigrants embodied the same spirit of independence that our ancestors fought for, creating opportunities, advocating for workers rights and enriching our state's diverse cultural fabric. As New Hampshire legislators, it is our responsibility to acknowledge and uplift the contributions of immigrant communities in our state. Recognizing Philippine Independence Day is not just about honoring history, it is about reaffirming our commitment to democracy, justice and inclusion, principles shared by both United States and the Philippines. So today, let us stand in solidarity with the Filipino/American community celebrating their contributions, learning from their history and ensuring that our policies continue to reflect the dignity and inclusion of all who seek independence, opportunity and justice. Mister Speaker, may we always cherish the freedoms we hold dear. Thank you.

MOTION TO PRINT DEBATE

Rep. Wheeler moved that the debate on SB 14-FN, relative to the penalty for certain fentanyl-related offenses; relative to establishing a mandatory minimum sentence for the crime of distribution of a controlled drug with death resulting; and relative to amending the penalties for the possession and use of a quantity of psilocybin for persons 18 years of age or older, be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker ordered.

DEBATE ON SB 14-FN

Speaker Packard: For what reason does the member rise?

Representative Newell: To make a motion.

Speaker Packard: State your motion.

Representative Newell: I move to table SB 14.

Speaker Packard: The motion is to table SB 14. That is a proper motion. Rep. Rhodes requests a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is to table SB 14. This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Newell for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Newell: Thank you, Mister speaker. If I know that as this bill has moved through both Chambers, we've seen repeated attempts to make it more attractive to those of us who believe that mandatory minimum sentences have been and will continue to be a dismal failure. If I also know that mandatory minimums take discretion away from judges and add millions to our incarceration costs despite 45 years of experience with a failed war on drugs that shows that policies like these have no impact on deterring people from committing these crimes. And Mister Speaker, if I also know that we can save a whole lot of time by tabling this bill right now, I urge you to press the green button to do so.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Roy for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Roy: Thank you, Mister speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that we've been trying it their way for over a decade and fentanyl is still killing our citizens, would I not vote red on this? Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is to table SB 14. This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House also attend to the state of the vote. 176 voting Yay, 203 voting Nay, the motion fails. Now we're back to the majority amendment (2372h). The Chair recognizes Representative Scherr.

Representative Scherr: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Fentanyl kills just like heroin kills, just like methamphetamine kills. We've been singing this song for over 50 years, that the way to deal with these insidious drugs that kill people and ruin lives and ruin families is to increase the punishment and to have mandatory minimums and we know that those fail. For example in Florida after they passed mandatory minimums, the arrest rate for drug crimes went up 50%. Another study shows that mandatory minimums had no effect on the level of illegal drug use, on arrest for drugs, on any significant control over the drug problem. So, we know these don't work. It's been proven over and over again, and mandatory minimums are expensive. It costs about $78,000 a year to house someone in the New Hampshire state prison. Mandatory minimums will increase the number of people in the New Hampshire state prison and will increase the cost at a time where we're struggling with the amount of money we can afford to spend on prisons. More specifically, included in SB 14 is the original SB 15, which puts in place mandatory minimums for the sale of drugs, the distribution of drugs with death resulting and that's a strict liability crime. Those of you who have teenage children or young adults, if they go to a party and one of their friends says "give this to your friend so and so" and your son, your daughter does that and that person dies because contained in that package was drugs that included fentanyl your daughter, your son in spite of the fact they had no idea that was happening, they distributed the drug. It doesn't matter whether they knew it or not. They are guilty of death resulting and they would get a mandatory minimum. The Cato Institute, which many of you this side of the aisle are familiar with, has been steadfastly opposed to mandatory minimums for decades. And now to entertain you all on a serious note, I'm going to quote Grover Norquist, somebody who on so many issues I do not get along with and do not agree with, but he has some pretty sound libertarian perspectives on a number of things. Let me read to you what Grover Norquist says about mandatory minimums, "mandatory minimums have become a sort of poor man's prohibition, grossly simplistic and ineffectual government response to a problem that has been around longer than our government itself. Viewed through a skeptical lens I train on all other government programs, I have concluded that mandatory minimum sentencing policies are not worth the high cost to American taxpayers." I ask you to vote no on the committee amendment and be done once again with this effort to deal, the failed effort to deal with the drug issues in this country through mandatory minimums. Please press the red button.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Verville.

Representative Verville: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Thank you, colleagues. So, mandatory minimums notwithstanding, because that is the underlying bill and that is not really changed by this amendment. What the committee amendment does is it brings limited penalty reform to psilocybin, magic mushrooms, right. So one specifically defined psychedelic that is in relatively common use today and if you get caught with any amount today, any amount, it's a felony, period the end. The amendment decriminalizes a very limited amount of psilocybin, which most people agree has medical benefits. Let us pass this amendment. Let us bring forward the limited decriminalization of 3/4 of an ounce of psilocybin. Let us pass that, then let's have the debate on the underlying bill. So I am asking you, for the greater good, to finally have some meaningful reform on psychedelics. Please press the green button to support the committee's amendment so we can have a debate on the underlying bill. Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Roy.

Representative Roy: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister speaker, similar to what I said on the table motion, I've been here eight years. In eight years we have been constantly, every year, trying to lighten it, trying to make it easier, make it less punishment for people who use these things. We've passed their ability to have their drugs tested. There's needle exchange places. I mean we've bent over backwards in this state and in this country for these people who are suffering with addiction and what we're failing to realize is this is not about them. This bill targets people that are carrying enough to kill tens of thousands of people. These are not users carrying this 20 and 50 milligrams of fentanyl, which is being manufactured in China and shipped through Mexico and brought up here. It is killing our children. They're turning it into pills and selling it saying here have some oxycodone, it's fentanyl and if they don't die, they're addicted. So, they're killing our children every day. We've tried it their way, all right. We've tried it for over a decade and nothing has changed. It's just getting worse. So, minimum mandatories. In this bill is included a safety valve because we're not necessarily in favor of taking away all judicial discretion. Built-in safety valve so that if a judge looks and says this person doesn't meet the criteria that the legislature wanted. This person somehow just got caught up in this and they have no criminal history for this. They have no violent crimes on their record. The judge can look at that and say you don't meet the minimum mandatory standard and go back to his or her discretion. So, we've built in judicial discretion but for the people that are repeatedly bringing these poisons up here to kill our children, we have had enough. The public sent us here to do something about it and for a decade we've done nothing but enable. Now, I heard well you know we've tried this before and it's failed, the minimum mandatories in the 90s. Well if you remember the 90s like I do, crack cocaine was everywhere. It was the plague of our country. What haven't you heard about? You don't hear crack anymore, do you? You know why? Because the people who did it are still in jail on minimum mandatories, so they do work. Thank you. Please support the bill.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Roy has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is amendment (2372h). This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Scherr for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Scherr: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that the speech that my friend from the other side made about the dangers of fentanyl is the same speech that was given in the 70s and 80s and 90s about the drug, the particular drug at the time that was killing our people. And if I know that there are people still using crack cocaine and still dealing with crack cocaine and that the mandatory minimums increased the number of people incarcerated but did nothing to stem the tide in crack cocaine. And if I know that the criteria in place that this amendment puts in place to prevent somebody from getting a mandatory minimum, are incredibly onerous and out of every hundred people one would meet these criteria, would I press the red button and vote no?

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Rhodes for parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Rhodes: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I know that this amendment addresses dealers having enough poison to kill over 10,000 New Hampshire citizens. And Mister Speaker if I know that this bill will give judges the discretion, while making it clear we won't tolerate this poison being distributed to our communities any longer. And finally Mister Speaker, if I know that a gram of fentanyl on the street is approximately $150 making 20 grams $3,000 worth. If that's how much you have, this is not your personal use, you are a drug dealer. If we are more concerned with saving our families than the cost of incarceration, would I now vote green for the committee amendment? Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is amendment (2372h). This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 217 voting Yay; 164 voting Nay, the amendment passes. The bill is on second reading, open to further amendment. Rep. Scherr offers floor amendment (2636h). It's in your seat pockets and the Chair recognizes Representative Scherr.

Representative Scherr: Thank you, Mister Speaker. What this amendment does is it removes the mandatory minimums. It increases the maximum penalty for possession of, excuse me, for possession of this amount of fentanyl to 50 years and it increases the amount of fentanyl that is a violation to 30 grams, and it also adds in about, towards an earlier argument made, it also adds a provision that makes possession of psilocybin a misdemeanor. This captures that which interests some on both sides of the aisle and it gets us rid of the scourge of the artifice that mandatory minimums are actually going to do anything. I encourage, I urge you to press the green button and adopt the amendment.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Representative Roy.

Representative Roy: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, the proposed amendment does nothing but just undo what we voted to do so please don't vote for this amendment. Vote red. Thank you.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Scherr has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. This will be a roll call vote. Members take your seats. The motion before us is floor amendment (2636h). This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Scherr for a parliamentary inquiry. Rep. Scherr is waving off. Both sides have waved off. So the motion before us is floor amendment (2636h). This is a roll call. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 169 voting Yay; 211 voting Nay, the motion fails. The bill is on second reading and open to further amendment. Rep. Polozov offers floor amendment (2641h) and it's in your seat pockets. The Chair recognizes Rep. Polozov. The Chair recognizes Rep. Verville.

Representative Verville: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Thank you, colleagues. Politics makes for interesting bedfellows. I am rising today to speak against amendment (2641h). That I'm sure surprises many people in the room. In the nine years I've been kicking around this place, one of the things that keeps kicking me in the head is political reality and for many years I resisted its temptations, but I only got abused for it. This is a good amendment. This would be good law. I'm not going to lie to you. I love the idea. I'm totally in favor of it. The problem is it's my firm belief that if we pass this amendment, the body on the other side of the wall is not going to be interested and I don't believe that they'll accede to this. So you know, it's that crazy time of year, right. So it's either nonconcur, concur, non-concur committee of conference. So you cross your fingers, hope it's committee of conference. You know they're going to work to scrub it out. That's my belief. It's for that reason I don't support the amendment. So I'm asking you to vote red so we can have a debate on the underlying bill as amended by the committee. I'm asking you to vote red on this amendment. Thank you.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Polozov requested a division. Members take your seats. The motion before us is Polozov floor amendment (2641h). This is a division vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Polozov for parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Polozov: Mister Speaker, if I know that this amendment will make use of solar energy to produce more affordable medicines. And if I know that the language of HB 301 has been unanimously approved by both the House Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs Committee and this body, would I press the green button to support approved medicine and fight the black market? Thank you.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Verville for parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Verville: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Mister Speaker, if I believe that fentanyl possession at 20 plus grams is almost certainly never going to be prosecuted at the state level and it will be kicked up to be a federal crime and the feds will step in and take the case. And Mister speaker, if I know that the underlying bill has for the first time in New Hampshire penalty reform for psilocybin, one specific psychedelic that has medical benefits and that there is no reason that New Hampshire should punish possession of any amount, including very small amounts of psilocybin with a felony crime. And if I believe that attaching this to that bill is going to doom it on the other side of the body and I want what I want, would I now press, unfortunately, the red button to defeat this amendment so we can go to the underlying bill and do some real good for the people of New Hampshire? Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The motion before us is floor amendment (2641h). This is a division vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 181 voting Yay; 202 voting Nay, the amendment fails. We're now on to ought to pass as amended. The Chair recognizes Rep. Harriott-Gathright.

Representative Harriott-Gathright: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Good morning, fellow representatives. I want to be clear, SB 14, like several other bills, is not about crime or an opioid or DUI or any of those types of things. We all know that this problem exists in New Hampshire. And it's also not about whether we think possessing any of the opioids or substances they are bringing into our state should be illegal already, is illegal and those who possess or sell illegal substances face severe penalties today under existing law. The question before us today is whether we think that adopting mandatory minimums and maximum, an outdated one-size fits all solution, is going to be an effective use of taxpayer dollars to address the many substance issues in our state. The bottom line is that our country has already tried that approach and it's been said over and over again. So most of us here have come through that so we all know that it was failed. So, that approach failed our country. It was overly simplistic and extremely costly to the taxpayer and to our communities. And it has done nothing to reduce drug use, sales or overdose deaths. Multiple studies over the past four decades have demonstrated that mandatory minimums and maximums have not worked. They do not reduce drug use. They do nothing to impact drug sales or crime, and they may increase the crime rate as they saw in Florida with the 50% rise in crime after instituting mandatory minimums. Beyond the practical implications, there are basic constitutional principles at stake here. Mandatory minimum sentences defeat the purpose of sentencing by taking discretion away from judges and giving it to prosecutors who use the threat of these lengthy punishments to frustrate defendants asserting their constitutional rights. This shift in power from judges to prosecutors create real separation of power issues. Think back to David Keene, a prominent gun rights advocate, adviser to the George H.W. Bush administration has stated "My opposition to mandatory minimums and maximums is rooted in conservative principles namely reverence for the constitution of contempt for government action that ignores the difference amongst individuals." Also James Madison for one believed that a clear separation of powers are more vital to protecting freedom than the Bill of Rights, yet mandatory minimums and maximums undermine the important protector of liberty. As a result, this problematic shift in power so well described by David Keene, the mandatory minimum sentencing robs judges of their ability to fully consider all relevant facts and circumstances for sentencing, such as the nature and context of a particular crime or an individual's criminal record. This is why New Hampshire currently has few mandatory minimums and maximums and why the New Hampshire legislature has consistently worked to remove mandatory minimums and maximums from our statutes over the last decade. This is also why advocates from across the political spectrum have opposed SB 14 and 15 and other similar bills. Finally, adding insult to injury, the amendment offers a few carveouts that judges can already account for under existing RSAs and throws in mushroom sweeteners to get a few votes, something that's likely to vanish in the committee of conference. Given what we know today about the impact of mandatory minimum and maximum in sentencing, the question of what to do with SB 14 should not be a difficult one. I'm asking this body to reject the return to an outdated policy that has proven expensive and ineffective at combating drug use, sales and deaths and that undermines basic principles of justice. Judges should be judges; legislators should be legislators. Let's stop trying to sentence from the State House floor. I urge you to vote no. Thank you, Mister Speaker, and I request a roll call vote.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Verville.

Representative Verville: Thank you, Mister Speaker. Colleagues, we are at a good place here, right. We are very, very close. Twenty grams plus of fentanyl possession is almost certainly going to be prosecuted as a federal crime. The odds of the state actually using this bill when it becomes law is infinitely small in my opinion. You can campaign on law and order on this. This is, in my opinion, what it is. You can agree or disagree, but what this bill now has in it, it has real psychedelic reform for the citizens of New Hampshire. Compounds that help people beat alcoholism, opioid addiction, other drug addiction, depression, post-traumatic stress syndrome. It's not a medical bill. I know it's not a medical bill, but it gets us a little bit closer. It finally ends a felony charge for simple possession of a small amount of psilocybin. That is an estimation. That is an excellent trade. That is for the greater benefit of the citizens of New Hampshire. The benefit of psilocybin, in my opinion, far outweighs, far outweighs any mandatory minimums and nobody's talked about the length of those minimums because those minimums are fairly short minimums for felony crimes, right. They're fairly short minimums. And so for that reason I am begging you. I am begging you for the greater good to press the green button so we can pass this bill as amended. Thank you, Mister Speaker.

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognizes Rep. Roy.

Representative Roy: Thank you, Mister Speaker. I have to admit when Rep. Verville approached me about this and asked what I thought about adding psilocybin to it, I looked behind me because I thought he was surely talking to someone else. I did like I do on everything else, and I did some research, and I found out, you know, veterans like myself and many others who have PTSD, this is helping them. This is helping them get to sleep at night. This is helping them to be able to function in society. This is helping them get their lives back that were taken in service of this country. So I said yeah you know what, let's do it. Now with regard to my colleague who said let's not sentence from the legislature. That's what we do. We set the sentences. That's actually what we do. Judge discretion, the judge gets to decide is the trial fair. Is this person guilty or not guilty? Is the evidence admissible? Is it not admissible? There's judicial discretion from the moment of the arrest until sentencing and then he looks to what the legislature told him to do. Now in this case, when this bill came over from the other body, it was pretty harsh. I think it was like a minimum 10 years and no judicial discretion at all. I researched it, I rewrote it, and I added a safety valve so that people who are truly not dealers, in other words if someone got tricked into carrying 20 grams of fentanyl over the border who has no criminal record, the judge is going to look at that and say if you read the bill this person doesn't meet this qualification. They're not going to jail. And incidentally, my friend made a good point. The minimum mandatory, I made it three and a half years. It's three and a half years. Come on, I mean for 20 grams of fentanyl, enough to kill 10,000 people. For the 50 grams, enough to take out a pretty decent large city, it's only seven years. So please, it's common sense. The people asked us for law and order. Let's give them law and order. Let's help the veterans. Please vote to support the bill. Thank you.

Speaker Packard: Rep. Roy has requested a roll call. Is that sufficiently seconded? It is sufficiently seconded. Members take your seats. The motion before us is ought to pass as amended on SB 14. This is a roll call vote. The Chair recognizes Rep. Newell for a parliamentary inquiry.

Representative Newell: Thank you, Mister Speaker. If I know that mandatory minimums have not only been shown to be ineffective but also to impose extreme harm, irreparable harm. And if I also know that the parts of this bill that we all agree on, I myself voted for psilocybin decriminalization and would love to do that again, but it died in the Senate. So if I know that it's going to die in committee of conference, so that what we're actually voting on here is mandatory minimums because that's what the body on the other side of the wall wants, would I now push the red button to defeat this motion?

Speaker Packard: The Chair recognize Rep. Rhodes for parliamentary. They wave off. The motion before us is ought to pass as amended on SB 14. This is a roll call vote. If you're in favor, you'll press the green button. If you're opposed, you'll press the red button. Voting stations are open for 30 seconds. Have all members present had an opportunity to vote? The House will attend to the state of the vote. 214 voting Yay, 167 voting Nay, the committee report is adopted.
