

This is a loser bill. Health care providers will spend more time and money on purchasing their own supplies. Insurance companies will spend more on processing individual claims. People will pay more for vaccines for children, and unvaccinated children will spread viruses. The state will pay more to maintain vaccines for epidemic events. No one will benefit from this bill. The 30% savings on a bulk purchase subsidized by insurance companies benefits everyone.