Canada's new Consul General to New England to Address NH House This Week

Concord, NH: Canada's new Consul General to New England Bernadette Jordan will be in New Hampshire on Thursday, February 8, 2024, to address the full House of Representatives during House Session ahead of the Consulate's 75th Anniversary:

The Consul General will deliver remarks to House Members in Representatives Hall during House Session beginning at 10 a.m. on Thursday, February 8, 2024. Her remarks will address the strong connections between Canada and the United States, particularly in the New England region and how to build upon the existing strength of the Canada-NH bilateral relationship including border corridors, trade expansion and resilient supply chains. Her address will also include the celebration of the Consulate's 75th Anniversary since being opened in Boston under the leadership of Consul T.F.M. Newton. Accompanying her on this visit will be Deputy Ambassador to the U.S. Arun Alexander.

The public and members of the media can watch the address on our streaming channel at <https://www.youtube.com/@NHHouseOfRepresentatives> beginning at 10 a.m.
