389 Legislative Declaration of Authority Regarding Public Education. In its 1993 and 1997 decisions, in the so-called Claremont series of public school funding cases, the New Hampshire Supreme Court ruled that the New Hampshire Constitution imposes upon the legislature 4 obligations with respect to public K-12 education: (1) define an adequate education; (2) determine its cost; (3) fund it with constitutional taxes; and (4) ensure its delivery through accountability. Although the legislature has from the beginning had grave reservations as to the court's authority to impose these obligations upon a coordinate branch of government, in the spirit of comity it has over the subsequent quarter-century devoted extensive time, energy and public tax dollars to satisfying them. However, in the most recent of these cases, the judicial branch has asserted authority to review and set aside the legislature's determinations with respect to its 4 supposed obligations, and to fund education at levels determined by the court through a process which, though adjudicatory in form, is legislative in substance. Accordingly, the legislature now deems it necessary to definitively proclaim that, as the sole branch of government constitutionally competent to establish state policy and to raise and appropriate public funds to carry out such policy, the legislature shall make the final determination of what the state's educational policies shall be and of the funding needed to carry out such policies.

(ii) The offender's mental capacity, at the time of the commission of the offense for which the offender is to be sentenced, was significantly impaired to the extent that the defendant was deemed incompetent. (b) The death was not:

(1) Too remote in its occurrence as to have just bearing on the person's liability; or

It shall not be a defense to a prosecution under this section that the decedent contributed to his own death by his purposeful, knowing, reckless or negligent injection, inhalation or ingestion of the substance or by his consenting to the administration of the substance by another. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude or limit any prosecution for homicide. ## ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRESIDENT CARSON: Okay, at this point we are going to take the opportunity to express our gratitude to our staff. I think we all know, we can't do the things we do every day without our staff. They direct us, they tell us where we need to be, things we need to do, they help us out in so many ways. And I personally cannot thank all of you enough. It's been a little chaotic because of the LOB shutting down, and it's going to get even worse. We're going to be having hearings, public hearings over in the state library. So I just want to say thank you. Thank you to all of you for all your hard work. We can't do the things we do without you, and I want you to understand that. And that we really appreciate you and the hard work you do for us every day. I have to give a shout out to my aide, Matthew. Come on Matthew, stand up. Matthew has proved to be completely indispensable, reliable, hard working. I can't do the things I do without Matthew because he controls my calendar and I live by my calendar. He's always there when I need him. He gives me advice sometimes, sometimes I listen, sometimes I don't. But I just can't say enough about Matthew and how much I appreciate all your work for me, Matthew. I really can't say enough. So please thank you, thank you, thank you.

While I got my little card, I'm going to talk a little bit about some of the other staff. Tammy and the Clerk Staff. This has truly been a year of transition. We gained staff, we lost staff, and through it all Tammy has kept us moving. Sometimes it might appear to be a little chaotic, but we still get to the end where we need to be. And I want to thank Tammy for all her hard work. She picks up the phone when I call her on the weekend. If I need to talk to her about anything she just runs upstairs or I'm up in her office to make sure that everything runs as smoothly as it possibly can in this chamber. So all of you, all of the staff here, thank you so much for all your hard work on our behalf.

Terry, and I don't know if Dave Alukonis is here but again, I think I drive Terry crazy because like I would say can we do this? Can we do that? What about this? What about that? And all while he's still trying to manage this place, he's also trying to bring me in at the same time. And again, we're at a point of change. As you know, we've got the construction of the parking garage that both Terry and Mister Alukonis are managing. And if you notice this week, all the moving of equipment, everything out of the LOB so they can start the repairs. Terry made sure that our Senators were taken care of over at the Annex to make sure that you had everything you needed. So thank you so much, Terry. Your work has been just terrific. Thank you. Yes, it's the full team, but you direct the full team. And please give my thanks to Mr. Alukonis. I'm sure he's hard at work.

I'd also like to give a thank you to Patrick. Patrick Murphy, who's in charge of Senate Research. Patrick is another employee who is just indispensable. We approach him with sometimes very convoluted research, and he's able to work through it to get us where we think we want to go. And he provides a tremendous amount of guidance for us. Your work, again Patrick, is impeccable and extremely valuable to us. And I would like to personally thank you for everything. And he also helps Tammy, so that's important too. Thank you Patrick.

(The Chair recognized Senator Avard.)

SENATOR AVARD: All right, real quickly, I want to thank Marie for all that she does. She lets me go out of the office when I'm allowed to. Yeah, and I go anyway, but also Tricia, her sidekick, because she still monitors me as well. They're amazing and obviously very grateful for them always. They always pick up the phone and they make sure that I don't look bad. I do my best to try to look bad, but they make sure I don't. And sitting right behind them is one of my favorites here as well, of course, Virginia. She introduces me as the singing Senator to all the kids and she says he's the most famous and she makes me feel like I'm ten feet tall. And you and your staff do an amazing job. You're an encyclopedia. She walks the kids around and she just knows this building inside and out. And if you need to learn something about whether it's a mural, anything to do with the building, you're amazing and we really, really appreciate you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Rochefort.)

SENATOR ROCHEFORT: Thank you very much. So, I'm new here. So, Senator McConkey and I were freshly minted Senators on December 4, and we walk into our office with our assistant, Kathy, and the first thing she let us know very clearly is we do things differently here in the Senate. And I think that's sometimes hard for us who have spent some time on the other side of the wall to understand what staff does, how to use staff, how to make the best use of our time. But I think Kathy's really helped us out, both of us, in that process. So, we couldn't do that without her. I think probably she's in the middle of writing a book, How to Train a Senator, because we've given her stories for that this year, certainly. So, it's been wonderful. And I also want to thank Sophie Walsh from Health and Human Services. This is a new committee for me, a new committee for Sophie, and as you all know, it's a busy committee. There's sometimes some really passionate discussion that goes on in there, and Sophie handles it cool, calm, and collected all the time. Nothing gets her rattled, nothing gets her fried. Her work is impeccable. Please don't have any thoughts about taking her away from HHS, because I want her to be there for a long, long time. And I also want to give a shout out to Kate, Kate helps us out on HHS a lot as well. She gets me out of trouble when I do things that maybe are not per protocol or whatnot, and she does it with grace and respect, and these are the people that keep this body running, and I just thank them very much.

(The Chair recognized Senator Lang.)

SENATOR LANG: Thank you Madam President. I have a few of our staff members to thank. So first is Scott Kelly and the IT team, I'm not sure where you are Scott, right now, but the IT team. Being a technologist myself, I know how end users are, and we have twenty-four difficult end users in this room right now that he supports, and I greatly appreciate that, and getting my emails at one o'clock in the morning, thanks for that.

Next up is John Bastille and the media services team. They do a great job, again, these are the people that manage not only live streaming that's going on right now, but also the live streaming that happens in our committee rooms, and somehow they still make us look good. So thank you to the media services team and John for that.

And last up there's some people in the room that aren't in the room today, and that's our protective services team led by Chris Vetter and Chief George Brown, who I realized him and I taught firearms together at the police academy back in the 80s. But again, these guys do a great job. We saw their response to the protests that happened in the Finance Committee room. Again, they're here for us, to protect us, walk us out to our cars on difficult days. So again, I want to thank them for all they do to keep us safe and to keep the State House clear.

And lastly, Sonja. So, Sonja over there is my aide and she had a difficult transition. She went from a Democrat to a Republican this year, which was not a probably an easy move for her. But she made the transition really well. She did a great job. Sonja is my committee aide as well in Ways and Means. But then it was great to continue to work with her and have her be my aide in my office. She has some stories, and she's promised she's never going to tell them. But so thank you for that Sonja. You keep me on task, you keep me going and I very much appreciate you. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Senator McConkey.)

SENATOR McCONKEY: Thank you. David was very eloquent in what he said. I know that he and I could not have even started this process without Kathy. So thank you. To the rest of you, I'm the worst person with names. So I apologize. But I absolutely adore the work that you do. And it's such a special place to land here. So thank you. I also have to say something, Christopher Shea and Pam Ellis, that I could not have ever made it to Capital Budget, whether it was in this House or here in the Senate. So I thank you for all of your hours and willingness to call and listen to me at any hour. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Watters.)

SENATOR WATTERS: Thank you, Madam President, and I just wanted my great gratitude and thanks to Jess, and when she showed up in the office and said "well you know Senator Watters you know we worked together before and I know how you work” and I thought “uh oh”. I’m in trouble she knows you know, but that it really has been fantastic to know someone who can just, such complex schedules and legislative work and so on to keep me on track and how many times I’d come in from my car and all in a huff “well um Jess do you have uh I’d like you to get this” and you said “Senator it’s already on your desk”, and that just shows, and I really appreciate it Jess thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Prentiss.)

SENATOR PRENTISS: Thank you Senator Carson and colleagues. I have a few people that I’d like to thank and surprisingly I will keep this brief. First of all, I without naming all of the different names those that staff our committees have been so important to the work. I went from two committees to three this year. Especially having a new committee, there was a little bit of an adjustment and you have all been just tremendous. I too want to thank protective services for the work they’ve done this year. We’ve seen an escalation in the kind of coverage that we have, and I feel you know increasingly safe and settled here in the state house and our state house nurse for leading the medical team and making sure that we’re always at what I call mission zero so thank you very much. Nick and Tommy, your policy staff in our office have just been, they were new this year but it was like they’ve always been here and have just done a tremendous work in supporting me. Tammy and your staff here in the Clerk’s Office as well as OLS and LBA but I have to tell you that I’ve had to call Tammy off hours because I’ve had a technical issue that I was losing sleep over, and she took the time and was able to walk me through it. So I greatly appreciate that. And last but not least, our new Senate aide that I share with Senator Reardon, Vivian, I’m not sure if Vivian, so new, learning on the job every day, drinking from a fire hose, two busy Senators, and staffing a committee. You’ve done a great job in just giving us support every day when we do our jobs. You know when we come in, the things will be settled for us. And if we need something, you answer the call always. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Gray.)

SENATOR GRAY: It is my privilege to thank LBA and OLS. Thank you. As the chair of Finance, Those two groups are the ones you depend on, day in, day out, and how late were they here last night? Very late, okay? And the things that you see, especially during the end times of the budget, we go home, they’re still here. They’re doing the amendments, they’re doing the papers that are required. And I hope that when James Vara got the job, that he also bought a lottery ticket on there. Because he won the lottery the day that he took over and that wonderful staff that he has. In addition to the rest of the LBA people that you guys deal with, there’s also the audit division. And the audit division is one of the ones that I deal with when we’re doing fiscal, okay? So again, that’s another one that a lot of you guys don’t deal with, provides a wonderful service to the Senate, a very needed service to the Senate. So thank you guys very much.

Now to the people who assist me the most. When Jessica got the job as being the aide for Elections, I said, “how did you draw the short straw?” She says, “I volunteered for it!” So thank you very much. It’s been a wonderful relationship. I think we’ve worked well together.

There’s one other person who I can’t mention because she told me if I came up here and I mentioned her, she would yell at me. You notice she’s not in the room, so I’m not going to mention her name. She says I take care of her during the year so that she feels appreciated and well liked. And so without that, I won’t mention her name. But again, all of you, wonderful. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Senator Innis.)

SENATOR INNIS: Thank you, Madam President. Mr. Jones: I think when he was assigned his two Senators, it was done with intention. Here’s a lovely, quiet, sweet woman. And then there’s me. And Aaron has been so enormously supportive over the last three years, I just can’t thank you enough. I tend to fly at a fairly high level, 20 or 30,000 feet. He’s down there with the details, and he keeps me on track. He deals with the constituent issues. If I give him something, I don’t have to worry about it ever again. And that is the best thing I could ever ask for. I can’t tell you how much I personally appreciate you, Aaron. Thank you so much.

(The Chair recognized Senator Ward.)

SENATOR WARD: Aaron Jones. I can’t add very much to what you said, because I am such a nice, sweet lady. But what I really appreciate about you, Aaron, is that you anticipate things and you have things ready. And I can always ask, “where is the thing? Do you remember that person?” And he says, “let me check, oh yeah, it was such and such a thing”. And it’s great to have somebody who can figure things out and have things ready. So thank you very much, Aaron.

I also want to say thank you to Ryan Meleedy, you there, for his wonderful hearing reports, they're really great and when I need to refresh my memory of what actually happened, I go through them.

And I also see Rich Lambert down here. Thank you very much for what you do and help us on that particular committee. Thank you very much. And there are so many more people. I just can't mention them all. But thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Ricciardi.)

SENATOR RICCIARDI: Thank you, Well its so many people to thank, so with a broad brush, I want to thank everyone in this room, from staff to my colleagues that I work with, and to my leadership. I want to mention my aide, Max, who I feel is like a son to me. He's a very skilled writer. He keeps me on my toes. He double checks. If I get here and I just go straight to caucus, he'll be texting me, "are you here? Are you in the building?" He keeps me mindful. And I don't know what it is about the aides I get. I get really attached. I feel like they're my sons and they all leave for law school. I just hope, I want to wish Max well. And he better stay in touch with me, and you know I will do anything I can to help you.

I really would be remiss if I didn't recognize one of the most caring, compassionate, and skilled people in this room, which is our wonderful nurse, Miss Jennifer. She took care of me, and I am not a good patient because I'm not used to being sick. I think I gave her a hard time and did not want to go to the hospital, but that's okay. She took good care of me.

I also wanted to say to Aaron Jones for your great work in Commerce and Vivian. Where are you? Vivian was new and she became the aide to Transportation. One of the most conscientious people I've ever met. She cared so much about doing the job well and she didn't do it well. She did it perfectly.

And I know we need to be brief, but I have to give a shout out to Donna, who comes by with a cheerful smile and cleans the office and all the staff who clean the State House for us and go around. And I want to make sure that they're recognized because we can't do anything without all of you. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Fenton.)

SENATOR FENTON: Thank you, Madam President. A lot of everyone in here has already been thanked, but it's truly amazing to see all of us in one room together because I think we as Senators are kind of in our own world, we kind of have tunnel vision a little bit, and seeing behind the curtain with all of you folks here that make this ship run, it's truly amazing. So I want to thank all of you. I want to thank our staff, Nick and Tommy. I used to be one of the tallest guys here. Tommy, you kind of took that away from me, but that's okay. We'll forgive you.

And Jenn G. Think you're behind me. Jenn, thank you so much for everything. I was on four committees this year. I don't know who I pissed off, but I'm on four committees. And my aide was able to handle that all, Sophie.

You know, I think I said this last year, but Sophie worries too much, and I worry too little. So we're a very good match. And I had the prettiest binders, most organized binders this year. And that's because, you know, Sophie was on top of absolutely everything. We had, you know, between all those committees, between moving to the Annex. You know, I think I had an old fork in my drawer and even that made it over to the Annex, I'm not sure how, but you know that she's just on top of everything every little detail every constituent request And I can't thank you enough Sophie. So thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator McGough.)

SENATOR MCGOUGH: Thank you, Madam President. So I don't know where to start as a freshman Senator and a former House member. So I'll just start right at the beginning. Ryan. You took me in, you got me my binders and folders, and then he got ready for law school. You're going to be a great lawyer. If you need a great lawyer in about three years, he's going to a super school Washington and Lee I think, right? So get in touch with Ryan. Then Kathy adopted me and you think you have great binders and folders and I haven't seen them, but Kathy now, let me tell you, that is something to aspire to. She has got the most unbelievably perfect folders, the paperclips and exact the same spot every time with the agenda and the minutes and the appointments, and what a treat. So she took me in, took me under her wing and really showed me how it was done. It got me on the straight and narrow. So I appreciate that Kathy. I don't see her here actually. So hopefully Kathy you're listening or watching. I really appreciate that.

A couple of other shout outs Tricia the majority caucus. Taught me a lot about how the caucus runs and how did we do things there. Peter for some press releases, I appreciate that.

Virginia, the way you treat those fourth grade classes in now what's four towns for me? Really, really a treat. You've taught me an awful lot too, keeping me in Christmas ornaments And if you haven't bought one yet, I was the first Senator to get one. I'm pretty happy about that. So get them before I buy the rest. They're unbelievable this year.

Terry, thank you for letting me keep all the trash I find in the halls. Doug and the operations staff. He's the guy I call. "Hey, I see somebody carrying something to the dumpster. Can I keep it?" And that's usually where I get my furniture. Started with the former Governor, who was tearing some bookcases off the wall. Well, they're in my office now, housing some liquor bottles. Commemorative liquor bottles from 50 years ago and from 90 years commemorative. Thanks to Virginia who taught me the story of those liquor commission bottles.

So Amanda from legislative services. Where are you? Jen and staff, Amanda right behind me. Got me squared away on everything from name tags and extra business cards as a House member and extra name tags for Senator Reardon and I, and all kinds of things.

So anyway, so many people to thank and thank you all for embracing me as a freshman Senator and showing me around. And the Senate Clerk Staff. Who knew that you guys all had these great snacks in the ante room here? Don't let that secret get out because we all have primaries. Anyhow, thank you all for embracing and making this first year really, really, really great. Thanks again.

(The Chair recognized Senator Rosenwald.)

SENATOR ROSENWALD. Thank you Madam President, I'm going to start by thanking Jenn Gallagher who is just amazing and I'm also in four committees, I never know where I'm supposed to be. But there's always a folder on my desk with everything I need, the binders are perfect and you keep me going in the right direction. What's really amazing is the constituent feedback I get when people call and say I'm having this problem with X, Y or Z. Jenn takes care of it and sometimes I get emails from them saying "your assistant was so helpful, so kind, so thoughtful, so wonderful". So she's amazing, don't try to poach her. Nick and Tommy, you're the best. And I also want to thank both the LBA and OLS. I would not be able to function on Finance or Ways and Means without either of these departments at all. You're always there, cheerful, helpful and amazing. And finally, I would like to thank the Sergeant At Arms Staff for this chamber, who I think is always helpful and makes me feel very safe. So thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Reardon.)

SENATOR REARDON: Thank you, Madam President. I'd first like to say, it is a wonderful way to end the session by recognizing all of the people who make us look good all the time. I will echo what's been said about Jenn and Nick and Tommy that have supported us and done it so well as newbies coming into this process. I also want to thank Administrative Rules. My new roommates over at the Annex here. We'll be great together, really. And OLS and the LBA for your professionalism. Everything is always done perfect. Your patience with my questions and mostly for your sense of humor because I think that's probably how we'll get through it all. The same for the Senate Clerk's Office. I appreciate all of the professional that you bring to us here. Terry always tells me I'm the biggest pain in the neck and from what I've heard here, I think maybe there's some competitions for that there. And I want to point out, especially Vivian Hall. She and I both came new to this process this year and did a roller coaster of learning together. She managed so much, including the four committees that I'm on and appointed boards and all of that in addition to Senator Prentiss' work and her own committee. And I can't tell you how much I appreciate you being there, always keeping us with reminders, dealing with constituents, which may be the hardest part of that and enjoy a little bit of quiet time without us. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Murphy.)

SENATOR MURPHY: Thank you, Madam President. I just want to express my deep gratitude and appreciation for the hard work the support staff here does. The amount of work that you folks accomplish in this building with the number of people that you have is astonishing and I see it every day and I really want to tell you how thankful I am for how much time and effort you put into this job and I'm honestly astonished. I mean that. Thank you very much.

My assistant Pete. I have to tell you there's two people in the world that make it possible for me to be here. One is my wife and the second is Pete. I hope she's not watching right now because I'll hear about that later. You know, I actually had a job 25 years ago as a senate aide and I thought I was good at the job. But Pete's better. My calendar, my folders, my constituents, my email, the phone calls. He keeps me on track. I know where I need to be, when I need to be there and my stuff is always there. I am never left wanting. Pete your competence is amazing. When I walked in here two years ago as a freshman Senator and I got paired with a brand new aide I thought “oh boy I hope this goes okay”. It has gone better than okay my friend. I hope you’re with me as long as I’m in this building. Please don’t go anywhere. Please do not take him away from me. I need him. Thank you very much Madam President. Pete thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Senator Pearl.)

SENATOR PEARL: Thank you Madam President. So I have had the good fortune, I guess, if you want to call it that. I’m on my third year here, and I’m now about to start on my third aide. I started my first year with Peter O’Neill. He’s done a wonderful job, but he’s taken a good promotion. He’s gone upstairs. He’s doing a fantastic job. And then a year and a half ago, Ryan took over. Ryan Meleedy. We’ve had a great time. We’ve learned a lot together. It takes a little while to, you know, get in sync with each other, but we’ve done it. He always has everything ready for me. But he’s, as Senator McGough mentioned, he’s going off to law school in Virginia to Washington and Lee, and he’ll do amazing. I know you will, you’re a very smart young man, and I appreciate your talents, and you have a bright future ahead of you. You really do.

So now I’m transitioning over to Trevor Currier. Trevor has been on job shadowing. Well, he started you were an intern first, and now he’s moved over and going to be my aide. He’s been job shadowing since about the beginning of June. Kind of learning the ropes and learning me. I’m not really an easy person to learn. I’m 100 miles an hour all the time with my job tasks between the farm and here, and they never know what’s going to hit them. I come in with things of eggs and maple syrup and whatever, and people are always coming in and picking stuff up in the office. But, you know, that’s what we do. We have citizen legislators. We do that. We have to live our lives. Our business lives outside of here, we figure out how to commingle them with the duties here. And that’s what all of you give to us, is that ability to be part of our community, do our jobs, yet be part of this wonderful establishment here in this family that is the Senate. And it’s really wonderful.

I have to give a shout out to Kevin Conduct. He’s my aide in ED&A. The man’s amazing. I can bang through fifteen bills in the exec session, I swear, in twenty minutes, and he’s always got everything right there and right, and I’ll stop sometimes. We’re going too fast. Nope, keep going. We keep going, but he’s fantastic.

Also, Max, I appreciate you when Senator Avard had some health issues, and I had to step up and sort of take over Energy for a few weeks. And you had everything right there. It was an easy transition, because I just had to pay attention, and you told me where we needed to be, and we did it. And so thank you for that. Really appreciate the extra effort.

And LBA, you guys were amazing. It’s my second term on Finance, and I leaned on you a lot. You drafted a lot of legislation for me as we all figured out the language and thank you, I appreciate it. You made me look good at times when what I sent you didn’t look like what you sent me back thankfully. So I appreciate all the help, you know, OLS all of you Administrative Rules. Doug, we’ve worked a lot together on other things and just thank you. It really is amazing. We couldn’t do this without you. So, thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Sullivan.)

SENATOR SULLIVAN: Thank you, Madam President. I’d like to thank Deb. Deb’s not here though, right? Thank you, Deb, for training all the legislative aides, the committee aides, with the procedures. I watched her come in and work with my own aide Declan in the beginning and she was so patient and just wonderful, and I know that he felt that she was a great resource for him being new here.

Sonja; we would not be able to get through the committees without you. We show up everything’s just magically there and you do such a great job supporting our committee aides, too. I don’t know how many times I had to look over at Joshua or Ryan and be like “is this right? Am I doing this right is this vote next?” And they were really great at just guiding us silently through all that because of the support that you and Deb give them. So, I really appreciate you guys.

Declan; I do not know what Senator Carson thought putting us together. The shenanigans that are afoot in our office daily are just awesome when I’ve had a stressful day or meeting, I come in and we have a really good time just sort of decompressing. But the way that you are able to help me with the research on policy when we put the bills forward, like you really have a gift for policy and I feel really blessed that you contribute to the conversations as much as you do but the biggest thing that stands out to me is your compassion. For the people that come to us and come for help. And that has been, that has stood out so much to me. We’re kindred spirits, I think in that way. But I’m so grateful for your help in every single day in what we do and trying to keep me on track and keeping me sane and talking me down when you need to. I don’t think they pay you enough for that, but I really appreciate it.

One thing that was not said about Virginia is that she designs our Christmas decorations, our Christmas ornaments every year. And she does a fabulous job and I have been told by a little birdie in the room that they are now available so you may want to check those out on your way out.

As the wife of a musician, I have to thank Gardner for keeping the sound on all the time. I know this is not the most modern of systems that we have, so I appreciate you. Thank you.

Tricia, Marie, I just don't know how I would have gotten through this first year without you guys. You were so awesome and Rick keeping my tail out of hot water and Kate always making sure if I had questions about policy, being there for me. Most of all, Senator Carson, Senator Birdsell, your leadership has been amazing, and I appreciate you both. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Birdsell.)

SENATOR BIRDSSELL. Thank you, Madam President. I just want to thank kindred spirits, Jen Becker, because I used to be in HR. I want to thank your team for everything they do. We get paid because of them, those that get benefits because of them, and we really appreciate everything that you do over there.

The Sergeant at Arms; Sherry, Steve, Darin, thank you for keeping us safe. We really appreciate it. I think you're new this year and you guys did a great job, and we love having you here.

The majority office, we have Harold. How can we not have Harold around? He was so supportive of my China bill.

Grant, I really appreciate everything you do. You are one of the smartest people I know, and the process and the policies that you put forth are unbelievable. I actually heard it from the House today. They wanted to know who developed some of the policies that we did today. No, I told them they can't have you.

Kate, you have kept us out of hot water, and you are stellar at amendments. We could not have gotten through this session without you and you are truly appreciated. Tricia, we've been working together for a long time. You're in a new role and you are just going right into it and you are great at it.

And Peter, you too, thank you for being who you are. When I was chair of Transportation, you were my aide and you've stepped right into this role and I really appreciate it.

Marie, I've been with Marie for a long time. She knows me like the back of my hand. She knows when I need to eat. She makes sure that I eat. She makes sure that she gets back to constituents. She is just my confidant, my best friend here and I can't thank you enough for everything that you do.

And I want to thank Senator Carson. Senator Carson, you have done so well this year, and I really appreciate your leadership. It's a new role for both of us and I think we're stepping into it, and I thank you for your help and your leadership.

(The Chair recognized Senator Long.)

SENATOR LONG. Thank you, Madam President. First I'd like to thank Senator Perkins Kwoka for her leadership and hard work that I find, and also Tom and Nick. And after serving eighteen years in the other body, I was solely dependent upon myself. So coming to the Senate, I was kind of blown away that, first of all, I had somebody else sitting in my office that was supposed to help me. So Jessica, I want to thank you for all you've done. I learned quickly of your responsibility, and you gave me what I needed. I learned quickly how capable and how you could be trusted and relied upon. So I thank you for that, Jessica. I'm number 20, and I've heard nineteen others. My thirty-three years of advocating for workers, I'm looking at a 10 percent increase in salary. That's what I'm negotiating. That's where my negotiation starts. So thank you all for all you do. You make my job a lot easier. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Perkins Kwoka.)

SENATOR PERKINS KWOKA: Yeah, thank you so much, Madam President. Well, there's just so many people in this room to thank. And I just want to echo the sentiments of so many here. We do this every year. And it's truly remarkable what a community this is. And so many of us do it out of love for this state. And so, I just want to thank everyone here to start out. I have to start with Jenn Gallagher, because like so many of the comments today, we need our staff. They help us function. But Jenn had to jump in with my three overlapping Google calendars and try to figure out where we're going to fit in. As a mom of three little kids, there's things on my calendar that might not be on every senator's calendar. But it's just been really great to have a friend in the office and just someone who greets us every day with a smile no matter what is going on in this building, which can be an adventure. So I really appreciate that, Jenn.

Nick and Tommy, I want to thank you. guys for joining our office. You have been indispensable, I think you heard it from your fellow Senators, but we appreciate your voice, we appreciate your expertise, we appreciate your incredible hard work and I'm so glad you're here so thank you for being here.

Tammy this place would not run without you. You have been incredible and I don't know that we all can appreciate all that you do, but I also just want to thank you also for being a kind person, a wonderful presence in this building, I think you're just a light in a lot of what we do every day and a lot of the stress, so thank you so much for being here.

You know, and just being my first year in leadership, I just, there's so many pieces of this building that make it work, and so of course we so appreciate all the hard work that OLS puts in. I know you do that at all hours, I know Courtney's answered a lot of my questions, but we just want to thank you, and I know as we head into next year, you know, we'll try to be more reasonable with our requests.

LBA, I haven't been in Finance, but boy, have I seen all the hard work you guys have put in, and so just want to thank you. It's a really hard job, and you decipher all of what's going on, and I've said several times nobody would know what was going on if LBA wasn't here.

Ryan from IT, you've helped a lot of us with a lot of things, and so I just want to thank you for that,

And Terry, you've taken really good care of our members as we move from LOB to the annex, and we still have a couple other things we want to bring to your attention, but they've all been great, and we know you're managing a lot, so you know, it constantly amazes me that there's five construction projects going on, and you still always have time for us, so we appreciate it.

Virginia, we appreciate your smile. Jenn, thank you so much when I was coming in, and just thank you to all of you, like, really amazing work.

(The Chair recognized Senator Abbas.)

SENATOR ABBAS: Thank you, Madam President. Where to begin. First of all, all the staff in this room, I want to thank everyone for not just making the twenty-four of us look good, you really make the whole building look good, and you all work together so well, it's really amazing, so you make our jobs a lot easier. All the aides working together, all the communication that goes around, I mean, for the amount of things bouncing around, there's not as much miscommunication as people would think. I think we do. I have to thank all of you for that. There's still some, but no one's perfect, right? In all honesty, it's now my third year as being a State Senator, and I've gone through three aides, and hopefully no one reads too far into that, and why that happened. One's going to law school, one got a promotion, and here he is, the man right here, Josh. This man is excellent. And if anyone does try to recruit him for anything that doesn't involve me, I would take personal offense to it, because first of all, he knows not only how to manage my calendar to make sure it's up to date, he also knows to remind me to look at my calendar, because there's no point in putting anything in there if I don't look at it. How many times? I mean twenty, thirty times? I even said, "well, it's not in my calendar". He's like, "did you look at it?" I'm like, "uh-oh. It's in there, isn't it?" But honestly, he keeps everything together. He catches on to things so fast. He even brings a Diet Coke from time to time. He hands me, I'm like, "Oh, thank you. How'd you know I was thirsty?" I don't know how he knew. Amazing. But he's doing a great job. And we're also very fortunate to have him on Children and Family Law. That was a small committee, right? There was only three of us on there. But we kept it together and he kept us on track. Also keeps me on time. One time I was trying to hide out and sneak a lunch in and Joshua actually found me hiding. I don't know who told on me and told him where I was, but he went and got me and got me into Judiciary and made sure I did my duty. But honestly, I can't thank you enough. Keep up the good work. And just for everyone else, in the majority office, in the minority office, I just want to thank everyone for working together and putting up with my sense of humor. I know it can be tacky sometimes. You guys probably can agree to that. It can be a little tough to deal with, but I think we all work together. And listen, we're friends, we're family now. We all work together and let's keep doing this. I just want to thank everyone involved. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Gannon.)

SENATOR GANNON: Josh, I'll come back to you. Virginia, thank you for playing with the fourth graders with me. Don't we have fun? I don't know if you do the games like we do, but we always have a mock little session. We vote on something, and you keep me in line. One year, I went a little astray. Maybe the topic was a little high.

Tricia, you're still my fairy godmother. You still watch over us. I know you're busy and I lean on you sometimes when I shouldn't.

Let's see. Everyone, thank everyone. You all do wonderful work.

Sue Prentiss, I'm going to thank you. You're sort of like staff to me, because I come to you when I'm in trouble on a bipartisan thing. Remember our aging bills? You helped me get that through. I had a thing for high school kids, the System of Care. You helped me with that, System of Care for Aging. I got all these thick bills through because you helped me get them through with the bad side, the dark side. I'm only kidding. Kidding Perkins Kwoka. That was a joke. But thank you, I appreciate it, and we're going to get the amputee bill through next year. John Hunt gets nothing for Christmas from any of us. Sorry, John, but it's true.

Senator Carson and Birdsell, you know I think you're the best people for these jobs. You do wonderful with us. We're not always easy to steer, but you've done a terrific job. You too, Regina, you keep me in line sometimes when we're in our little Judiciary meetings. Even today, when I was kind of, you know I wanted to joke about mushrooms. I had tons of, she's like, no, stay on course. And she knows when to cut me off. It's like my wife, she just, boom, that's it.

Pete, you know I'm a hot mess half the time. Especially, I don't care about procedure. I just want to talk about the bills and talk about the substance of the policy. I need you to keep me going in the right direction. With all the committee members, you all, we work as a team in there. It's a great team.

Now, Joshua. my newlywed young man. You're like the son I never had. I do have one, but you're like the one I didn't have, that I don't know about. But you have done a fantastic job with me. I'm sorry. He is the straightest arrow. He is wonderful. I was going astray on the mushrooms. I was considering going to the dark side. And you said, "what's your compass, Senator Gannon?" And you keep me on point. You knew where I wanted to be. You also have helped me with constituents all over the place. You've learned tons from Tricia. She has taught you. You have taken her energy, and you've sucked it in. You have done well. You're getting me the sign for the guy, the constituents. I said one point, I was like, "who's calling in?" You didn't have a good answer for me. And then since then, boom, you have picked up "this one called, this one called, this one called. He wants this". And so we are going straight forward. You're doing an awesome job. Have a great honeymoon starting Sunday. You know I had that little talk to you. So be gentle. And that is it. Thank you, Madam Chair. Thank you, everyone.

(The Chair recognized Senator Altschiller.)

SENATOR ALTSCHILLER: I don't know how to follow the hot mess express, but all right. Yeah. Okay. All right. Kevin. Kevin. You are very, very good at your job. You are very good at your job. And I am grateful. I really am grateful for your professionalism, for your good humor, and most especially your flexibility. Your flexibility. Things move quickly in our office. I wonder, actually, how accurate your job description was when you were hired for this. And were you told that you were going to be managing the schedule of a Senator whose district is so, so, so in love with meetings. Just loves meetings. So many meetings. And that the constituents would be active, involved, and on the phone. on the daily? I wonder if anyone told you that that was how it was going to roll and were you told that your constituent service list was going to be rolling and rolling and when we were able to close out one, six more are coming up behind and you managed all of that and kept me on track for four committees. I really appreciate that. And some of you may know, I love my research. I want to know all the things before committee and I take folders home which apparently the aides don't like it when you do that. So thank you for your patience and you manage the heavy workload of ED&A and wrote dozens and dozens and dozens of committee reports and I am told from other members that they're really good, they're really well done. So if you need summer reading, ED&A reports. I know that you run on sugar-free Red Bull, Dunks and Pringles. So I hope that this is a summer full of decaf and salad. I really do. Thank you. Thank you. The bougie bunker was epic. I appreciated it and Sophie you also made it so. I appreciate your assistance as well and thank you both for indulging on my obsession with lamp lighting and candy. Yeah thank you. And you should know how hard that Sophie works to rein in the King of Opossums. It's not an easy job. It's really not an easy job.

I want to give a shout out to fellow Stratham resident, Virginia. I really do enjoy working with you and thank you for your good humor and your staff because you all are the keeper of stories. So thank you.

OLS. You guys are the best. Thank you for being so lovely when I come in with like with like "I have this idea. Can we do this in an amendment?" Thank you.

Nick and Tommy, you were dumped into the deep end of the pool and immediately learned how to synchronize swim like champs, and it is that you can manage the magic eight raucous caucus. Well done. Well done and happy pride everyone.

(The Chair recognized Senator Rosenwald.)

SENATOR ROSENWALD: Thank you. Sitting here listening for the last forty-five minutes to the accolades of the staff, I realize how well everyone works together and how, really we all like each other. And I think a lot of that has to do with your leadership, Madam President. And so, I'd like to thank you for your leadership over the year and wish you a very peaceful, quiet, happy summer with a lot of knitting.

PRESIDENT CARSON: Thank you. I had more people I wanted to thank, but I didn't want to dominate all the time. I call them the upstairs crew. They're the people that work in the Senate President's office. Tricia, you've made a great transition. You are our majority caucus leader. You keep us straight. You manage the caucus, and you do a fabulous job.

Peter, he walked out. I think he's chasing after me more than Matthew does. And I think they sometimes work in tandem to try to catch me before I'm off going someplace. But again, I appreciate all the work Pete does for us.

Grant, I can't say enough about Grant. He is an encyclopedia of political knowledge. He is fabulous to work with. And he always offers good advice. You know, "maybe Senator, you shouldn't do that. Why don't you think about this?" So I appreciate everything you do.

Rick Lehmann, our Senate attorney. Again, I think he's gone. He's fabulous as well. He always picks up the phone every time I have a question. Doesn't matter if it's during the day or if it's on the weekend. And I've worked with Rick for a number of years when I was the chair of Judiciary. Now he has the pleasure of working with Senator Gannon. I can't say enough about Rick and the legal advice that he gives us.

Marie, you're also upstairs. Sometimes you're like "Senator Carson..." She looks out for me as well and I really and truly appreciate that.

Nicole, who's not here today, our receptionist, she's awesome. She goes above and beyond her duty. She volunteers to do a lot of work, and she really is one of those folks that we really and truly appreciate.

What can I say about my Chief of Staff? Harold. Again, he's someone that, "what are you doing? Where are you going? What's going on? You don't tell me anything". So, he's always there, and he's there for me, keeps me informed about all kinds of issues that are going on, and his advice is invaluable. And I appreciate you, and I appreciate your time and your advice, so thank you very much.

Again, OLS, you folks have done terrific, and I want to thank all of you for your hard work. We couldn't get through this session, we had a rough start, but with all of your help, it all evened out, and we made progress, we kept our deadlines, and everything worked out very well. So, thank you, thank you very much.

Jen Becker, and the people that work with you, again, we went to that electronic system, little bumpy at first, but we got the hang of it, and now I believe the Senators are working very well with it, so thank you.

Our IT folks, always there, and answer all my questions, which are crazy, and I appreciate, you going "Senator, you need to do this". I will admit, I'm technologically challenged, and they treat me with respect while looking at me like, "oh my God". So I really and truly appreciate that.

There's one person in here that is just, I can't say enough about, and that is Kate. We work so well together, we've bonded over tea and cats, and we trade cat pictures both back and forth. But she is always there when we need her. She always acts in a very, very professional manner. And I'm very pleased that you work with us, Kate, and I want you to know how much I appreciate you.

I want to also thank Chris Vetter. He's kind of been my shadow for a couple of weeks. And I've come to really appreciate all the work that he does. We've had great conversations. He probably knows a little bit too much about me, but he's wonderful to work with, wonderful to bounce ideas off about security, and I really appreciate his support and everything that he has done for me.

OLS. I don't know how you put up with me, seriously. I've never, I have never served on a Finance Committee, and I think I spent more time with you folks trying to understand the budget and how it works, and I really appreciate your patience and your expertise, so thank you very, very much.

I would also like to call out the members of the Senate Finance Committee, led by Senator Gray, co-chaired by Senator Innis, Senator Birdsell, Senator Pearl, Senator Lang, Senator Rosenwald, and Senator Watters. I think I've got everybody. For putting up with me and my silly questions and trying to understand the budget and how it works. Your help, your patience, your expertise has made me a better legislator, and I really appreciate all of your time. With that, I'm going to ask the staff to leave so we can conclude our business for the day.

LATE SESSION
ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Senator Lang.)

SENATOR LANG: Thank you, Madam President. So, Monday we had, as some of you know, in the House, Senator Pearl and I formed the Beer Caucus and we've had several fundraising events over the years to support the Liberty House, domestic violence challenges and otherwise. This last Monday we had our legislative golf classic. It was a great success. We had bipartisan support. Senator Tara was there, Dave was there. We had lots of Senators come play. We had lots of Senators come support the program and I'm happy to announce that our charity this year was Liberty House, and if you don't know what that is that's a transitional home for veterans to help them move from homelessness to productive members of society working them through all of their issues. It's a great program. This year we raised $21,000 for them and their program. So, I want to thank all the Senators that helped support and sponsor that program and came and played. We had a great time. However, the poison ivy on my feet says I hit really bad golf balls. But again, thank you to all of you individually for participating or contributing, it was a great success and the organization very much appreciates it.

(The Chair recognized Senator Birdsell.)

SENATOR BIRDSSELL: Thank you, Madam President. Can I ask for Unanimous Consent? I just want to thank the Senate for a historic session. Today we passed a budget that fully funds the DD wait list, it maintains the Medicaid rates, it protects the community mental health centers and spends nearly 2.2 billion dollars for educating our children. Prior to this, we also passed the C-PACER bill and other bills that reduce barriers to new housing. We finally got the bail reform done, we banned the sanctuary cities, we increased penalties for crimes and human trafficking, which I think is really important. We protected our children from AI images and we're protecting women's spaces. We've expanded school choice for New Hampshire families. We're getting the students off their cell phones and finally passing a parents' bill of rights. This year the Senate delivered honest promises to the people of New Hampshire. I'm proud of the work we've done, I look forward to continuing that work in the next year and thank you, Madam President.

PRESIDENT CARSON: Before I close out, I just want to thank all of you for being here. We've had a very good session. A lot of bipartisan legislation was passed, and it couldn't have happened without all of you here in this room, with your dedication to your constituents as well as to the state of New Hampshire. So, please go off, have a wonderful summer, spend time with your friends, with your family, enjoy a beautiful New Hampshire summer, and we'll see you again sometime in the fall.

Without objection, all Personal Privileges and Unanimous Consent shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate. (Rule 2-16 and Rule 2-17). Adopted.

LATE SESSION
Third Reading and Final Passage

HB 115-FN, making temporary appropriations for the expenses and encumbrances of the state of New Hampshire.
