The Reverend Mark Warren, Chaplain to the Senate, offered the following prayer:

Good morning, Madam President. Good morning, Senators and guests.

If you'd like to join me, let's pray together.

Lord, we come before you today grateful for the privilege of serving the people of New Hampshire. As the Senate prepares for the upcoming legislative session, we ask for your wisdom that is pure, peaceful. Gentle. Open to reason, full of mercy, impartial and sincere. INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

(The Chair recognized Senator Rosenwald.)

SENATOR ROSENWALD: Thank you, Madam President. This morning, we get to honor one of New Hampshire's most accomplished students and I think it's really the best work in the Senate is to recognize the people who live in this great state. So, this is Aadi Kulkarni who's a senior at Nashua High School South. And we have a Senate Resolution which you all signed that I'm going to read.

Whereas, some individuals make important contributions to their communities and state far beyond their years; and

Whereas, Aadi Kulkarni is an award-winning student at Nashua High School South, whose vision and accomplishments make him a role model for his peers; and

Whereas, he is the Founder & President of TechPals, a youth-led nonprofit that has helped more than 5,000 seniors learn digital literacy and online safety; and

Whereas, TechPals has grown to over 500 volunteers across 7 states and is working on expanding outside the US; and

Whereas, Aadi Kulkarni received the Gloria Barron Prize for Young Heroes, awarded to 25 youth worldwide for impactful community service; and

Whereas, Aadi Kulkarni is also the recipient of the 2025 Carnegie Young Leader for Preparedness for his work on TechPals, awarded for presenting "bold ideas to bridge divides or solve local challenges"; and

Whereas, Aadi Kulkarni was awarded the 2025 New Hampshire Winner of the Stockholm Junior Water Prize for innovative research that addresses major water challenges; and

Whereas, Aadi Kulkarni has been named a Bank of America Student Leader, one of the nation's most selective youth civic leadership awards; and

Whereas, Aadi Kulkarni partnered with NH Representatives Seth Miller and Paige Beauchemin to introduce a state resolution supporting digital literacy for older adults and has been honored with a Mayor's Proclamation from the City of Nashua recognizing community impact through TechPals.

Now, Therefore, the New Hampshire State Senate recognizes Aadi Kulkarni for his "kind ambition", protecting seniors, and championing digital literacy, along with clean water solutions, and extends its best wishes for continued success.

AADI KULKARNI: I'm truly honored to be receiving this recognition for a lot of the work on digital literacy for seniors as I've dedicated a large part of my high school to this. So, thank you so much for this recognition.

(The Chair recognized Senator Watters.)

SENATOR WATTERS: Thank you, Madam President and colleagues. Knowing the strong friendship and support for the Republic of China, Taiwan, among this body I wanted to have the privilege of introducing Michael Huang who is the director of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Boston. Welcome to the Senate.

SENATOR CARSON: And, I also have a guest here this morning, please join me in welcoming Sean Curcio. He is from Nashua. He is a student at Nashua Community College in one of the classes that I teach on government and how government works. And they've been assigned a project on civic engagement. And so, he decided today he wanted to come in and watch us today and write about us. So, welcome Sean, and I look forward to reading your paper.

Without objection, the Clerk shall read the title of the Veto Message only and the Clerk is instructed to enter all Messages into the Senate Journal. Adopted.
